

to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British Merchant Ships in the territories of any Foreign Power, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to a subject of such Power, when within Her Majesty's dominions, or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient :

And whereas it hath been made to appear to Her Majesty, that due facilities have been or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British Merchant Ships in the territories of His Majesty the King of Denmark; that it is to say, such or the like facilities as are hereinafter given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from Danish Merchant Ships in the dominions of Her Majesty or the territories of the East India Company :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her Majesty by the said "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, seamen, not being slaves, and not being subjects of Her Majesty, who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to subjects of His Majesty the King of Denmark, when within Her Majesty's dominions, or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners for the affairs of India, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs," it is amongst other things enacted, that the several sorts of goods enumerated in the Table therein following, denominated "a Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions inwards," shall either be absolutely prohibited to be imported, or shall be imported only under the restrictions mentioned in such Table.

And whereas, among other sorts of goods, the following are enumerated in the said Table, viz.—

"Goods of places within the limits of the East India Company's Charter, unless into ports approved of by the Lords of the Treasury, and declared by order in Council to be fit and proper for such importation."

And whereas the Port of Grimsby has been approved of by the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury for that purpose ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the Port of Grimsby is fit and proper for the importation of goods of places within the limits of the East India Company's Charter.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
