

to whom sent, nor shall there be any word or communication printed on the cover of any publication whatever, sent by the post under the regulations of this Warrant, or any writing or marks upon it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent, and the printed name and address of the newsvender who shall send it.

Fifth. There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such printed publication.

And in case any such publication or packet shall exceed two ounces in weight, or shall not be sent without a cover, or be sent in a band or cover not open at the sides or ends, or if the postage chargeable under the regulations of this Warrant on any publication posted within the United Kingdom shall not be prepaid on the same being posted, not in money but by a postage stamp or postage stamps affixed outside the publication or the band or cover thereof, every such publication or packet shall be charged with the like rate of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter; and in case either of the fourth or fifth conditions before mentioned shall not be fulfilled (except as aforesaid), the whole of such publication or packet shall be charged with treble the rates of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

And we further direct that every printed publication bearing a date of the day of publication, sent by the post, under the regulations of this Warrant, addressed to places out of the United Kingdom, shall, in all cases, be put into a post-office or receiving-office in the United Kingdom within seven days next after the day on which the same shall be published, the day of publication to be ascertained by the date of such paper; and in case any such publication addressed to places out of the United Kingdom, shall be put into a post-office or receiving-office after the expiration of such seven days, the Postmaster-General may either detain the publication or forward it by post charged with full postage as a letter.

And we further direct that for the purposes of this Warrant, every printed bonâ fide supplement or additional sheet to any such publication, shall be considered as a distinct publication, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the publication to which it is a supplement or addition; and that every such supplement or additional sheet shall bear the stamp of a newspaper supplement, except that no such stamp shall be required on any supplement to the publication called Lloyd's List, provided such publication bear a newspaper stamp, and the supplement be sent with it.

And we further direct that no every printed price-current, commercial list, course of exchange, shipping-list, or other printed publication which shall be posted within the United Kingdom, or posted in any of Her Majesty's Colonies (for transmission by packet-boat to any other of Her Majesty's Colonies), without bearing a newspaper stamp, or being a supplement to any such publication, without bearing the stamp of a newspaper supplement (except as aforesaid), there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such publications the full letter-rates of postage.

And we further direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to extend to any printed votes or proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, nor to any British newspapers liable to the stamp duties and duly stamped.

And we further direct that the several terms and expressions used in this Warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as if they would have had if inserted in the said Act.

And we further direct that this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations, in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

ALFRED HARRISON
R. CHARTERS

WHITEHALL, May 26, 1853

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Robert Harding - Featherstone, of Pickering Marshes, in the county of York, Gentleman, the reputed son of Henry Harding, of Heworth, in the county of York, Gentleman, her royal licence and authority that he may take and henceforth use the surname of Harding in lieu of that of Featherstone.

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

WHITEHALL, June 8, 1853.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Thomas Waddingham, of Barton-upon-Humber, in the county of Lincoln, Gentleman, Her royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of Elizabeth Tombleson, late of Barton-upon-Humber, aforesaid, Spinster, deceased, take and henceforth use the surname of Tombleson only, instead of that of Waddingham:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.
