WHEHITALL, July 12, 1853.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Thomas Marriott, late of Bowden, in the parish of Henstridge, in the county of Somerset, but now of Horsington, in the same county, Clerk, Her royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with the direction contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, William Manning Dodington, late of Horsington, in the county of Somerset, Esquire, deceased, take and use the surname of Dodington, in addition to and after the surname of Marriott, and that they may also assume and use the arms of Dodington quartered with those of Marriott; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

CROWN-OFFICE, July 11, 1853.

MEMBERS returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Tralee.

Daniel O'Connell, Esq. of No. 20, King Street, Saint James's, in the room of Maurice O'Connell, Esq. deceased.

Borough of Liverpool.

Thomas Berry Horsfall, Esq.—and The Honourable Henry Thomas Liddell, in the room of Charles Turner and William Forbes Mackenzie, Esqrs. whose election for the borough has been declared void.

Whereas the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury did, by virtue of the powers vested in them by the 3d section of the Act of the 8th and 9th Victoria, cap. 94, entitled "An Act for regulating the trade of the Isle of Man," by their Order of the 10th November 1845, order and declare that all or any articles legally importable into the Isle of Man and not enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, and upon which the duty of fifteen pounds per cent. is thereby imposed, should and might, from and after the passing of the said before-mentioned Act, be imported into the Isle of Man duty free, so long as that Order, or any part thereof affecting such articles, should continue in force. And whereas it is also by the said 3d section of the said Act enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury "at any time, and from time to time, as they shall consider expedient, to revoke the whole or any part of such Order or Orders for admitting the aforesaid articles, or any of them, duty free, such order of revocation to take effect from a day to be named therein."

We, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, by virtue of the powers above recited, vested in us, revoke so much of such Order of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the 10th November 1845, as permitted the importation of perfumed spirits duty free into the Isle of Man, and therefore perfumed spirits will, from and after the date of this our Order, under the 2d section of the said Act of the 8th and 9th Victoria, cap. 94, become subject to the duty of fifteen pounds per cent. ad valorem.

And We do further direct that this our Order be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act.
