

Whereas the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury did, by virtue of the powers vested in them by the 3d section of the Act of the 8th and 9th Victoria, cap. 94, entitled "An Act for regulating the trade of the Isle of Man," by their Order of the 10th November 1845, order and declare that all or any articles legally importable into the Isle of Man and not enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, and upon which the duty of fifteen pounds per cent. is thereby imposed, should and might, from and after the passing of the said before-mentioned Act, be imported into the Isle of Man duty free, so long as that Order, or any part thereof affecting such articles, should continue in force. And whereas it is also by the said 3d section of the said Act enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury "at any time, and from time to time, as they shall consider expedient, to revoke the whole or any part of such Order or Orders for admitting the aforesaid articles, or any of them, duty free, such order of revocation to take effect from a day to be named therein."

We, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, by virtue of the powers above recited, vested in us, revoke so much of such Order of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the 10th November 1845, as permitted the importation of perfumed spirits duty free into the Isle of Man, and therefore perfumed spirits will, from and after the date of this our Order, under the 2d section of the said Act of the 8th and 9th Victoria, cap. 94, become subject to the duty of fifteen pounds per cent. ad valorem.

And We do further direct that this our Order be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act.
