Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1855.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of February 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," it is provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British Merchant Ships in the territories of any Foreign Power, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to a subject of such Power, when within Her Majesty's dominions or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient.

And whereas it hath been made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen (not being Belgian subjects) who desert from British Merchant Ships in the territories belonging to His Majesty the King of the Belgians :

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, seamen, not being slaves (and not being British subjects), who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to subjects of the King of the Belgians, within Her Majesty's dominions or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships : Provided always, that if any such deserter has committed any crime in Her Majesty's dominions, or the territories of the East India Company, he may be detained until he has been tried by a competent Court, and until his sentence (if any) has been fully carried into effect.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WM. L. BATHURST.

At the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of February 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by the "Merchant Shipping Law Amendment Act, 1853," it is (amongst other things) enacted that Her Majesty may from time to time, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, fix the establishments to be maintained by the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond, (therein and hereinafter called "The Trinity House,") the Commissioners in whom the management of Scotch Light-houses is vested by an Act of the twenty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, and by various other Acts, (and therein and hereinafter called "The Commissioners of Northern Light-houses,") and the Corporation for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin, (therein and hereinafter called "The Port of Dublin Corporation,") respectively, on account of the services of Light-houses, and to be maintained by the Trinity House on account of the services to which the rates received by them are to be applied, or the annual or other sums to be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund in respect of such establishments ; and if it appears that any part of the establishments of the Trinity House, or of the Commissioners of Northern Light-houses, or of the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively, is maintained for the purposes of that Act, and also for other purposes, may fix, and from time to time alter, the portion of the expense of such establishments to be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund.

And whereas it appears that part of the establishment of the Port of Dublin Corporation is maintained for the purposes of the said recited Act, and also for other purposes.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said "Merchant Shipping Law Amendment Act, 1853," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to fix, and doth hereby fix the establishments which may be maintained by the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Light-houses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation, respectively, on account of the services in the said Act and hereinbefore mentioned, in the manner following ; that is to say :—

The establishment of the Trinity House shall consist of—

One secretary, at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding one thousand pounds (£1,000) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding fifty pounds (£50) to an amount not exceeding twelve hundred pounds (£1,200) per annum.

One assistant secretary, at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding six hundred pounds (£600) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding twenty-five pounds (£25) to an amount not exceeding eight hundred pounds (£800) per annum.

Five senior clerks, each at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding three hundred pounds (£300) per annum, and rising, by a yearly increase not exceeding twenty pounds, to an amount not exceeding six hundred (£600) per annum.

Four assistant clerks, each at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding two hundred pounds (£200) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding ten pounds (£10), to an amount not exceeding three hundred pounds (£300) per annum; and ten junior clerks, each at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding eighty pounds (£80) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding ten pounds (£10) to an amount not exceeding two hundred pounds (£200) per annum.

The establishment of the Commissioners of Northern Light-houses shall consist of—

One secretary, at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding seven hundred pounds (£700) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding twenty-five (£25) to an amount not exceeding nine hundred (£900) per annum.

One examiner of accounts, at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding two hundred pounds (£200) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding ten pounds (£10) to an amount not exceeding three hundred pounds (£300) per annum.

One book-keeper, at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding two hundred pounds (£200) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding ten pounds (£10) to an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) per annum.

One clerk, at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding one hundred and twenty pounds (£120), and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding ten pounds (£10) to two hundred pounds (£200) per annum. And

One clerk, at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding eighty pounds (£80) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding five pounds (£5) to an amount not exceeding one hundred pounds (£100) per annum.

And the establishment of the Port of Dublin Corporation shall consist of—

One superintendent, at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding seven hundred pounds (£700) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding twenty-five pounds (£25) to an amount not exceeding nine hundred pounds (£900) per annum.

One chief clerk, at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding four hundred pounds (£400) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding twenty pounds (£20) to an amount not exceeding six hundred pounds (£600) per annum.

One secretary, at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding fifteen pounds (£15) to an amount not exceeding five hundred pounds (£500) per annum.

One accountant, at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding two hundred pounds (£200) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding fifteen pounds (£15) to an amount not exceeding four hundred pounds (£400) per annum.

Two clerks, each at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds (£150) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding ten pounds to an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) per annum.

And two junior clerks, each at a salary commencing at a sum not exceeding eighty pounds (£80) per annum, and rising by a yearly increase not exceeding ten pounds (£10) to an amount not exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds (£150) per annum.

And Her Majesty, by virtue and in further exercise of the power so vested in Her as aforesaid, and by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to fix, and doth hereby fix the annual sums to be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund in respect of the several establishments hereby authorized, at the sums or amounts hereinafter named; that is to say:—

In respect of the establishment of the Trinity House and the establishment of the Commissioners of Northern Light-houses, the aggregate amount of the salaries which, under the provisions of this present Order in Council, shall for the time being be payable to the officers of such establishments respectively.

And in respect of the establishment of the Port of Dublin Corporation, two-thirds of the aggregate amount of the salaries which, under the provisions of this present Order, shall for the time being be payable to the officers of such last-mentioned establishment.

WM. L. BATHURST.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, February 14, 1855.

Notice is hereby given, that the Court Mourning, which would have terminated to-morrow, will be prolonged another week for His late Royal Highness the Duke of Genoa, brother of His Majesty the King of Sardinia.

The Court will go out of Mourning on Thursday the 22d instant.

WHITEHALL, January 29, 1855.

The Right Honourable Sir John Jervis, Knt., Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed Thomas Bayley Hearn, of Ryde, in the Isle of Wight, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance in and for the county of Southampton.

WHITEHALL, January 12, 1855.

The Right Honourable Sir John Jervis, Knt., Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed John Houchen, the younger, of Thetford, in the County of Norfolk, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the County of Norfolk.

COUNCIL OFFICE,

WHITEHALL, February 9, 1855.

Her Majesty has been pleased, by Her Order in Council of the 8th February 1855, to grant to George Lowe, of Finsbury Circus, in the City of London, a prolongation for the term of five years of certain letters-patent for "improved methods of supplying gas under certain circumstances, and of improving its purity and illuminating powers;" such letters-patent having been originally granted to the said George Lowe, and bearing date the 16th March 1841, for England, Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed.

COUNCIL OFFICE,

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS ON

The Sequestrated Estates of THOMAS LOW, Baker and Grain Dealer in Alyth, in the County of Perth.

AT a Meeting of the Commissioners, held on 12th January last, the accounts of the Trustee were audited; and further, it appeared to them, from the smallness of the funds in hand, that a dividend ought to be postponed until the proceeds of the heritable subjects are realized from the purchasers at Whitsunday next, in which consists almost the whole assets, and instructed notice to be given in the Edinburgh Gazette to the Creditors accordingly.

In compliance with these instructions, the Trustee now hereby intimates to the Creditors on said estates, that no dividend will be paid until after Whitsunday next.

LAUR. CHAPMAN, Trustee.
