LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosures, of which the following are Copies, addressed to His Lordship by Field-Marshal the Lord Raglan, G.C.B.

*Before Sevastopol,
March 3, 1855.*

MY LORD DUKE,

SOME more ships are said to have been sunk since I wrote to your Lordship on the 27th. I am not certain of this; but, according to my observation, the new barrier across the harbour appeared yesterday evening to have been extended beyond the point at which I had seen it two days before.

The enemy is busily occupied in establishing a work considerably nearer the French batteries on the extreme right than that which was attacked by our Allies on the morning of the 24th.

The enemy seem to be increasing their force in the neighbourhood of Sevastopol, both to the northward and upon the Tchernaya.

The railway continues to progress satisfactorily, and we already make considerable use of it in the conveyance of stores, hutting materials, &c., as far as Kadikoi; and the electric telegraph is completed between that village and my head-quarters.

The weather has again become extremely cold, and there was a fall of snow yesterday, and some little this morning.

I enclose a Return of Casualties to the 1st instant inclusive.

I have, &c.,

RAGLAN.

SIR,

WITH reference to my letters of the 20th and 24th ultimo (Nos. 140 and 152), I beg leave to inclose, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a copy of a letter from Ahmed Pacha, Commander-in-Chief of the Ottoman squadron, returning thanks for the assistance afforded by Her Majesty's ships during the attack on Eupatoria by the Russians, on the 17th ultimo.

Enclosure.

*Féize Bari, Rade d'Eupatoria,

MONSIEUR L'AMIRAL,

L'EMPRESSEMENT que mettent les marins Anglais que se trouvent ici, soit pour le débarquement des troupes, de leurs provisions, des chevaux, ainsi que de tout le matériel de guerre, qui nous arrive continuellement, soit pour courir au secours de nos troupes, concourir à la défense de la ville, en appuyant par mer et par terre les opérations militaires, comme ils l'ont fait le 17 du mois courant, lorsque l'ennemi nous a attaqué avec des forces considérables; en un mot, les services que la marine Anglaise, sous votre commandement supérieur, nous rend journellement, avec zèle et dévouement, sont trop grands et trop sensibles pour que j'hésite davantage à vous les faire connaître.

Je vous prie donc d'agréer l'expression des sentiments sincères de notre reconnaissance éternelle.

J'avais l'intention de m'acquitter verbalement d'un devoir si agréable: je ne le fais néanmoins que par écrit à présent, espérant de pouvoir le faire plus tard en personne.

Veuillez agréer, Monsieur l'Amiral, l'assurance des sentiments de ma haute considération.

Le Commandant-en-Chef de l'Escadre
Ottomane,

(Signé) AHMED.

WAR-DEPARTMENT, March 17, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosures, of which the following are Copies, addressed to His Lordship by Field-Marshal the Lord Raglan, G.C.B.:—

Before Sevastopol,February 27, 1855.

MY LORD DUKE,

It appears that on Saturday night the enemy sunk three or four more ships of war in the harbour, as far within the booms as the first sunken ships were outside of them; and, according to the most accurate examination yesterday, there are now four barriers or impediments to the entrance of the harbour, viz.—two of sunken ships, and two booms.

The only movement on the part of the enemy, since I last wrote to your Lordship, is the march of some infantry and artillery from the neighbourhood of Bakchi-Saria towards the Tchernaya, upon which river, near Chagouna, they have at present five guns and several hundred men.

The weather has been fine for the last three days, the snow is gradually disappearing, and the country is becoming drier.

The enemy have re-occupied the ground which was the scene of contest between the French and Russians on Saturday morning before daylight; and they are making great progress in a work they are establishing upon that point.

I enclose the Return of Casualties to the 25th instant.

I have, &amp;c.,

RAGLAN.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 28th day
of February 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act passed in the tenth year of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act for regulating the sale of waste land belonging to the Crown in the Australian Colonies, and to make further provision for the management thereof," Her Majesty was empowered to grant leases or licences for the occupation of any waste lands of the Crown in the Colony of New South Wales, (then including the present Colony of Victoria,) for any term of years not exceeding fourteen, and to make rules respecting the issue of such leases and licences, and respecting the reservation of any rents thereon, and the insertion therein of any conditions and clauses of forfeiture, and respecting any other matters and things which might be requisite for carrying into complete effect the occupation of such waste land.

And whereas it is expedient to authorize the issue of such leases and licences as may promote the working of mines (not being mines of gold or silver) on such waste land within the Colony of Victoria.

It is hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, as follows:—

1. It shall be competent for the Governor of Victoria to license any person or persons to search for mines (not being mines of gold or silver) on such waste lands of the Crown, and for such period, not exceeding twelve months, as may be specified in such licence.

2. It shall be competent to the said Governor to grant to the holder of any such licence as aforesaid, a lease for mining purposes, of the whole or any part of the land specified in such licence.

3. Every such lease shall be for a term not exceeding fourteen years, and shall be subject to a rent of not less than ten shillings per acre per annum, to be paid in advance, and shall be assignable under such rules as shall be ipso facto forfeited if the rent shall not be paid when due; provided that it shall be competent to the Governor to remit such forfeiture on such terms as he shall think fit.

4. The Governor may insert in such leases such conditions and clauses of forfeiture as he may think fit, and especially such as may seem to him necessary, to secure the bonâ fide application of the land to mining purposes.

5. The extent of land to be comprised in such leases or licences, and the amount of rent to be reserved thereon, shall be regulated from time to time by the Governor, with the advice of his Executive Council.

6. At the expiration of every such lease the land comprised therein shall be open to sale by public auction, under such Government regulations as shall be in force respecting such sales.

7. Every such lease shall declare whether, and under what circumstances, the lessee shall be entitled to compensation for improvements effected by him, and shall also declare the mode of estimating and paying such compensation.

8. In this Order in Council the word Governor shall include the Lieutenant-Governor, or Officer for the time being administering the Government of Victoria.

And the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WM. L. BATHURST.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th day
of March 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend the law of copyright," it is amongst other things enacted that it shall not be lawful for any person, not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorized by him, to import into any part of the United Kingdom, or into any other part of the British dominions, for sale or hire, any printed book first composed, or written, or printed and published in any part of the United Kingdom, wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British dominions:

And whereas by the "Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," an Act of the eighth and ninth Victoria, chapter ninety-three, entitled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British Possessions abroad," was repealed, and by the Act now in recital, books, wherein the copyright is subsisting, first composed, or written, or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other Country, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British Possessions abroad; but it is thereby provided that nothing therein contained shall be taken to prevent Her Majesty from exercising the power to suspend in certain cases such prohibition, vested in Her by the tenth and eleventh Victoria, chapter ninety-five, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to the protection in the Colonies of works entitled to copyright in the United Kingdom:"

And whereas by the last recited Act it is enacted that in case the Legislature, or proper Legislative authorities, in any British Possession, shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British Authors in such Possessions, and shall pass an Act, or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same in the proper manner to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty, and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British Authors reasonable protection within such Possessions, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit so to do, to express Her royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council declaring that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibition contained in the aforesaid Acts of the fifth and sixth Victoria, and eighth and ninth Victoria, or in any other Acts, against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing Foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards such colony, and thereupon such Act or Ordinance shall come into operation, except so far as may be otherwise provided therein, or may be otherwise directed by such Order in Council.

And whereas an Act has been passed by the President and Council and Assembly of the Island of Nevis, (No. 237,) "to authorize the importation into the Island of Nevis of Foreign reprints of British books, wherein there shall be copyright," whereby provision is made for protecting the rights of British Authors in the said colony.

And whereas Her Majesty has expressed Her royal approval of the said Act;

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by the authority of the same, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that so long as the said Act shall remain and continue in force within the said colony, all prohibitions in any of the said hereinbefore recited Acts of the Imperial Parliament, or in any other Acts thereof contained, against the importing into the said Colony, or against the selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing therein Foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards the said colony.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.
