WAR-DEPARTMENT, May 2, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received two Despatches and their Enclosures, of which the following are Copies, addressed to His Lordship by Field-Marshal the Lord Raglan, G.C.B. :—

*Before Sevastopol,
April 17, 1855.*

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to transmit for your Lordship's information a Letter from the Inspector-General of Hospitals, expressing his satisfaction in being able to report that the sanitary condition of the Army continues gradually to improve, and the mortality from disease to diminish.

I have, &c.

RAGLAN.

Enclosure.

*Before Sevastopol,
April 17, 1855.*

MY LORD,

It is satisfactory to be able to say that the sanitary condition of the Army continues gradually to improve, and the mortality from disease to decrease.

Last week the ratio of admissions to strength was 3·95 per cent. ; this week it has been 3·52.

Last week the ratio of deaths to strength was 0·35 ; this week it has been 0·33.

This decrease may appear small to your Lordship, but it must be borne in mind that 106 of the admissions, and 13 of the deaths, were the result of accidents in the trenches ; besides which, 3 officers and 30 men were killed who have not been included in the above statement of casualties.

Fevers and bowel complaints continue to be the prevailing diseases amongst the troops, but in both there has been an evident decrease of admissions as well as deaths.

In the 79th Regiment, however, there has been an increase of 19 cases of fever during the week, and the mortality from the same disease has exceeded that of the preceding week by two. Last week the deaths from fever were 7, this week they have been 9. It is in contemplation to move the regiment a short distance from where it is at present encamped, as far, I understand, as the defence of the post will admit of, and I think good will result from it ; but if it could be moved up to the ground where the 63d Regiment is stationed, still greater advantages might be expected.

In the 93d Highlanders the fever cases have become milder, and the mortality from that cause has decreased from 4, which it was last week, to 1.

In the 41st and 95th Regiments, the two other regiments which were suffering most from fever, the mortality has decreased during the week ; in the 41st from 5 to 2, and in the 95th from 8 to 3.

There has been a decrease in all the ordinary forms of bowel complaints, but I regret to have to notice two fatal cases of cholera, one in the Artillery, and the other in the 7th Fusiliers.

These were both brought up from the trenches, and both died after a few hours' illness. No other cases have occurred, and, from the general diminution of bowel affections, I trust they will prove accidental.

The Cavalry continue to enjoy good health, and only one casualty, out of a force of 1880 men, has occurred during the week.

The mortality in the General Hospital at Balaklava has also been small, and the result of the Convalescent Hospital, on the Castle Hill, has been most satisfactory. We have huts there all ready for the reception of 280 patients, and I purpose reserving them for wounded men, as I am of opinion they would recover sooner in such a locality, than in either camp, or the General Hospital at Scutari. Besides the hospital huts at the Sanitarium, the following ships have been fitted out for the reception of wounded, viz.—

Hut accommodation,	- -	280
" St Hilda," fitted for	- -	91
" Wm. Jackson,"	- -	100
" Orient,"	- -	100
" Poitiers,"	- -	100

The huts in the rear of the Third Division will accommodate about 1000, but say that 30 of them are appropriated for hospital purposes, that would give room for 480
And the calculation is, that at least 500 could be received into the different Regimental Hospitals, 500

1651

The rations of the men are abundant and good, and fresh bread has been issued three days this week. The supplies for the hospitals are also ample.

Great attention is paid to the cleanliness of the different camps, and they are in a creditable condition. The men have received their new clothing, and the sheepskin coats, &c., are being collected and stored for future issue if required.

I have, &c.

J. HALL,
Inspector-General of Hospitals,

To Field-Marshal Lord Raglan, G.C.B.,
Commanding-in-Chief.

Before Sevastopol,
April 17, 1855.

MY LORD,

THE fire of both the French and English Armies has been continued upon Sevastopol since I addressed your Lordship on the 14th instant, and though superior to that of the enemy, it has not produced that permanent effect which might have been anticipated from its constancy, power, and accuracy.

The guns of the Russians have been turned upon some of our advanced works in vast numbers, and in one particular instance the injury sustained by a battery was so great that the unremitting exertions of Captains Henry and Walcot, and the gallantry and determination of the artillerymen under their orders, alone enabled them to keep up the fire and to maintain themselves in it.

In another battery yesterday a shell burst close to the magazine, which in consequence exploded, killing, I am much concerned to say, one man, wounding two most severely, and seven in a less degree.

Both the batteries I have mentioned have been repaired and restored to their original condition.

I inclose the List of Casualties that have arisen between the 13th and 15th instant. I have to lament the loss of two young and promising officers who had only lately joined the army, Lieutenant Preston, of the 88th Regiment, and Lieutenant Mitchell, of the Artillery; and I regret to add that two others have been severely wounded, Captain Green, of the East India Company's Service, who has been employed throughout the siege as an Assistant Engineer, with great credit to himself and every advantage to the service, and Captain Donovan, of the 33d, who has most zealously served from the commencement of the campaign.

The French blew up several small mines in front of the Bastion du Mât after sunset on Sunday evening, with a view to establish a parallel on the spot. This operation greatly alarmed the enemy, who at once commenced a heavy fire of cannon and musketry in every direction from that part of the town, which they kept up for a considerable time. It occasioned no harm on our left attack, upon which a part of it was directed, and I hope did little injury to our Allies.

Several hundreds of the Russian Cavalry and a small body of Cossacks appeared on the low range of heights in front of Balaklava this morning, and remained about an hour, when they retired, the greater portion by the bridge of Tractea. The object of this movement was probably a reconnaissance.

I have, &c.

RAGLAN.

The Lord Rammure, &c., &c.
