WAR DEPARTMENT, May 18, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosures, of which the following are Copies, addressed to His Lordship by Field-Marshal the Lord Raglan, G.C.B.—

*Before Sevastopol,
May 5, 1855.*

MY LORD,

SINCE I wrote to your Lordship on the 1st instant, nothing of importance has arisen; the enemy still appear to be collecting troops upon the high ground on the opposite side of the Tchernaya, in the neighbourhood of Sevastopol, and convoys are constantly seen moving in that direction.

The fire from the place upon our trenches has not been heavy; but, notwithstanding, I have some casualties to report to you, as shewn in the accompanying Returns; and I have to lament the death of three promising young officers, Lieutenants Carter of the Royal Engineers, Curtis of the 46th, and White of the 62d Regiments.

On the night of the 1st instant the French attacked a kind of counterguard which the Russians had established in front of the central bastion.

The operation was quite successful, and the enemy were driven out with great loss, leaving behind them nine small mortars. Our Allies have remained in the work, notwithstanding the heavy fire to which they have been exposed, and have established themselves therein, frustrating the efforts made by their adversaries to dispossess them of it on the following day, when a vigorous sortie was repulsed, and the Russians were again great sufferers.

The conduct of the French troops was very brilliant.

I have, &c.

RAGLAN.

The Lord Panmure, &c., &c., &c.

WAR-DEPARTMENT, May 21, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosures, of which the following are Copies, addressed to His Lordship by Field-Marshal the Lord Raglan, G.C.B.—

*Before Sevastopol,
May 8, 1855.*

MY LORD,

The enemy assaulted our advanced parallel on the right attack on the night of the 5th instant, and some actually got into the trench; but they were speedily driven out and repulsed with the utmost gallantry by the detachments occupying it, of the 30th and 49th Regiments, under Captain Williamson and Lieutenant Gubbins, of the former, and Lieutenant Rochfort, of the latter, who, unfortunately, was severely wounded; and I regret to have to add that several valuable non-commissioned officers and men were killed and wounded on the occasion.

On the same night Captain Arnold,* of the 4th Foot, was wounded and taken prisoner, whilst posting the advanced sentries on the left attack. The loss of the services of this Officer is greatly to be lamented. He had done his duty unremittingly, and in the most spirited manner, throughout the operations of the siege.

I inclose the Return of Casualties to the 6th instant.

I have heard that six ships, having on board Sardinian troops, have arrived in the Bosphorus.

I have, &c.

RAGLAN.

P.S.—I have the satisfaction to announce to you the arrival of the first detachment of the 12th Lancers.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 17, 1855.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the subjoined copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Varna, enclosing copy of a Despatch addressed by him to Sir Edmund Lyons, respecting the existence of a dangerous current which prevails to the northward of Kalakria.

(Copy.)

MY LORD, Varna, April 25, 1855.

I HAVE the honour to transmit herewith, for the information of your Lordship, a copy of a Despatch which I have addressed to Rear-Admiral Sir Edmund Lyons respecting the general belief which prevails among sea-faring men with whom I have had the opportunity of conversing, respecting a current which is stated to set into the westward and north-westward, by which vessels navigating from Odessa, or the mouths of the Danube, to Varna or the Bosphorus, or from the Crimea to Varna, have been frequently drawn upon the shoals at Shabla. I have, &c.,

(Signed) E. ST. JNO. NEALE.

The Earl of Clarendon, &c., &c., &c.

(Copy.)

SIR, Varna, April 23, 1855.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you that six merchant vessels have been wrecked during the last month between Shabla and Mongolia, on this coast, all bound from Kamiash to Varna. Of these three were British—the "Edinburgh," steamer, the "Banshee," barque, and the "Economy," schooner, and were all wrecked on the 15th ultimo.

H.M. steam sloop "Inflexible," being then at Varna, Commander Popplewell most promptly went to the assistance of the crews, consisting of about sixty persons, and brought them off. They were subsequently transferred at Burzhas, from the "Inflexible" to H. M. S. "Harpy," which conveyed them to Constantinople.

The log-book of these vessels not having been brought to Varna, I am unable to state the precise circumstances attending the loss of these vessels. I deem it however to be my duty to bring under your notice the frequently expressed opinion of Masters of Merchantmen of all Nations, and Pilots navigating the Black Sea, respecting the predominating causes of the shipwrecks which have so continually occurred in the locality referred to.

In the month of December 1852 no less than thirteen vessels, English, French, Austrian, and Sardinian, within the space of a week, went on shore near Point Shabla; and the masters of those vessels who came to Varna were unanimously of opinion that a strong current sets into the westward and north-westward, drawing vessels navigating southwards from Odessa or the Mouths of the Danube, and bound for Varna or the Bosphorus, upon Shabla.

In the opinion of seafaring men long resident on this coast, vessels so bound, and encountering northerly or north-easterly gales, incur the risk of being drawn by the current upon Shabla, while endeavouring to seek shelter under Cape Kalakria; the force of the current not being generally known, shipwrecks have occurred in that locality in dark and foggy weather, even without the prevalence of stormy weather.

In like manner vessels bound from the Crimea to Varna, and not steering a sufficiently S. W. course to allow for the current, are liable in thick or stormy weather to be set to the northward, and to fall into the influence of the current referred to as prevailing to the northward of Kalakria.

I have, &c.

(Signed) E. ST. JNO. NEALE.
