

People, the progressive influence of enlightened principles of policy, and the general well-being of mankind.

It has afforded your Majesty's subjects in this part of your dominions peculiar satisfaction that from the City of Glasgow a very considerable number of the population cheerfully went forth to the portentous conflict now successfully terminated. And we have observed, with great delight, that the heroic sufferers on the battle-field have from time to time been the objects of your Majesty's most gracious condescension and generous sympathy.

We fervently pray that the Peace which has been restored may be as enduring as it is honourable; that the choicest blessings of Heaven may be showered upon your Majesty and your illustrious family; and that your Majesty may long sway the regal sceptre over a free, a loyal, and a happy people.

Signed by me, Lord Provost of the City of Glasgow, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council of the said City, this 6th May 18. 6.

ANDREW ORR, Lord Provost.

BALTIC MEDAL.

Admiralty, June 5, 1856.

Her Majesty having been graciously pleased to signify Her commands that a Medal shall be granted to the Officers and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships, as well as to such Officers and Men of Her Majesty's Army as were employed in the operations in the Baltic in the years 1854 and 1855, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby give notice of the same.

As a few months will necessarily elapse before the Medals can be ready for distribution, no application should be made for a Medal till further notice shall be published in the London Gazette.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
June 2, 1856.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Naples, announcing that, in consequence of the cessation of the war, the measures taken to prevent the exportation of sulphur from the Neapolitan dominions have been rescinded.
