

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful subjects, the inhabitants of the borough of Truro, in the county of Cornwall, in public meeting assembled, on the 19th day of May 1856, respectfully tender to your Majesty our sincere congratulations on the restoration of Peace.

A just War has, under Divine Providence, been brought to a successful termination by the gallantry and devotion of the Forces of your Majesty and your Majesty's Allies of France and Sardinia; and we earnestly trust that the triumph so nobly and dearly purchased has not only secured the integrity of the Turkish Empire, but permanently ensured the general Peace of Europe.

The deep interest evinced by your Majesty throughout this protracted and severe conflict, in behalf of your Majesty's brave soldiers and sailors, and your Majesty's constant endeavours to mitigate their sufferings, as well as to alleviate the affliction of their widows and orphans, will be recorded among the brightest incidents of English history.

That the concord now re-established among the Nations may be perpetuated, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a loyal, prosperous, and contented people, and that every social and domestic blessing may attend your Majesty and your Royal Consort and Children, is our most earnest prayer.

Signed on behalf of the Inhabitants,

HENRY SEWELL STOKES, Mayor of Truro.
