WAR-OFFICE, February 24, 1857.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officers and Men of Her Majesty's Navy and Marines, and Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Men of Her Majesty's Army, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration, —in accordance with the rules laid down in Her Majesty's Warrant of the 29th of January 1856— on account of acts of bravery performed by them before the Enemy during the late War, as recorded against their several names, viz :—

ROYAL NAVY (INCLUDING THE NAVAL BRIGADE EMPLOYED ON SHORE,) AND ROYAL MARINES.

Name and Rank.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Cecil William Buckley, Commander	Lord Lyons reports that—" Whilst serving as Junior Lieutenant of the ' Miranda,' this Officer landed in presence of a superior force, and set fire to the Russian stores at Genitchi and " he also performed a similar desperate service at Taganrog." The first service referred to occurred after the shelling of the town of Genitchi, on the 29th May 1855. After mentioning that the stores were in a very favourable position for supplying the Russian Army, and that, therefore, their destruction was of the utmost importance, Captain Lyons writes: " Lieutenant Cecil W. Buckley, Lieutenant Hugh T. Burgoyne, and Mr John Roberts, gunner, volunteered to land alone, and fire the stores, which offer I accepted, knowing the imminent risk there would be in landing a party in presence of such a superior force, and out of gunshot of the ships. This very dangerous service they most gallantly performed, narrowly escaping the Cossacks, who all but cut them off from their boat." (Despatch from Admiral Lord Lyons, 2d June 1855, No. 419.) The second volunteer service was performed while the town of Taganrog was being bombarded by the boats of the Fleet, and is thus recorded by Captain Lyons :—" Lieutenant Cecil Buckley, in a four-oared gig, accompanied by Mr Henry Cooper, Boatswain, and manned by volunteers, repeatedly landed and fired the different stores and Government buildings. This dangerous, not to say desperate service, (conducted in a town containing upwards of 3,000 troops, constantly endeavouring to prevent it, and only checked by the fire of the boats' guns, was most effectually performed." (Despatch from Admiral Lord Lyons, 2d June 1855, No. 429.)
