

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
57th Regiment	No. 1971 Private Charles McCorrie	On the night of the 23d June 1855, he threw over the parapet a live shell, which had been thrown from the enemy's battery.
68th Regiment	Captain T. de Courcy Hamilton	For having, on the night of the 11th May 1855, during a most determined sortie, boldly charged the enemy with a small force, from a battery of which they had taken possession in great numbers, thereby saving the works from falling into the hands of the enemy. He was conspicuous on this occasion for his gallantry and daring conduct.
68th Regiment	Private John Byrne	At the Battle of Inkerman, when the Regiment was ordered to retire, Private John Byrne went back towards the enemy, and, at risk of his own life, brought in a wounded soldier, under fire. On the 11th May 1855, he bravely engaged in a hand to hand contest with one of the enemy on the parapet of the work he was defending,—prevented the entrance of the enemy, killed his antagonist, and captured his arms.
77th Regiment	No. 2600 Serjeant John Park	For conspicuous bravery at the Battles of Alma and Inkerman. Highly distinguished at the taking of the Russian Rifle Pits, on the night of the 19th April 1855. His valour during that attack called forth the approbation of the late Colonel Egerton. He was severely wounded. Remarked for determined resolution at both attacks on the Redan.
77th Regiment	No. 2289 Private Alex. Wright	For conspicuous bravery through the whole Crimean War. Highly distinguished on the night of the 22d March 1855, in repelling a sortie. Highly distinguished at the taking of the Russian Rifle Pits, on the night of the 19th April 1855 ; remarked for the great encouragement he gave the men while holding the pits under a terrible fire. He was wounded. Highly distinguished on the 30th August 1855, (wounded).
90th Regiment	No. 2932 Private John Alexander	After the attack on the Redan, 18th June 1855, went out of the trenches under a very heavy fire, and brought in several wounded men. Also, when with a working party in the most advanced trench, on 6th September 1855, went out in front of the trenches, under a very heavy fire, and assisted in bringing in Captain Buckley, Scots Fusilier Guards, lying dangerously wounded.
97th Regiment	Brevet-Major Charles Henry Lumley ...	For having distinguished himself highly by his bravery at the assault on the Redan, 8th September 1855, being among the first inside the work, where he was immediately engaged with three Russian gunners reloading a field piece, who attacked him ; he shot two of them with his revolver, when he was knocked down by a stone, which stunned him for the moment, but, on recovery, he drew his sword, and was in the act of cheering the men on, when he received a ball in his mouth, which wounded him most severely.
