The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Saturday, March 21, 1857.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by Her Majesty to inform you that, in releasing you at this early period from your attendance in Parliament, it is Her Majesty's intention immediately to Dissolve the present Parliament in order to ascertain, in the most constitutional manner, the sense of Her People upon the present state of Public Affairs.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

We are commanded by Her Majesty to thank you for the liberal provision which you have made for the exigencies of the Public Service during the period that will elapse before the New Parliament, which Her Majesty will direct immediately to be called, shall have been able to give its deliberate attention to these matters.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

We are commanded by Her Majesty to express the satisfaction which She feels at your having been able, during the present Session, materially to reduce the burdens of Her People. Her Majesty commands us to assure you that it is Her fervent prayer that the several constituencies of the United Kingdom, upon whom will devolve the exercise of those high functions which, by the Constitution, belong to them, may be guided by an All-wise Providence to the selection of representatives whose wisdom and patriotism may aid Her Majesty in Her constant endeavours to maintain the honour and dignity of Her Crown, and to promote the welfare and happiness of Her People.
