Army Head-Quarters, Camp, Huldwanee,
February 12, 1858.

SIR, No. 66.

I HAVE already reported, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, my having formed a camp at this place, with the view, first, of protecting the Kumaon Hills; second, of clearing the Barbur and Turae Pergunnahs of rebels.

2. On my arrival here I found the position of the enemy as follows :—

A force of 3,000 infantry, with 800 cavalry and 6 guns, commanded by Fuzul Huq, was encamped at Sunda, in a strong position on the banks of the Sookhee River, about fifteen miles from my camp.

Another force, commanded by Khali Khan, of 4,000 infantry, 800 cavalry, and 4 guns, was encamped at Bunde, but within the last few days had advanced in this direction, and formed a camp at Churpoorah, on the Paha Nuddee, sixteen miles from here.

3. From the best information I was able to obtain, it appeared the intention of the enemy was to make a combined attack on Huldwanee, with a view, if successful, of endeavouring to force the hill passes; my arrangements were made to act on the defensive, and there can be no doubt, had they attempted such a move, it would have ended in their utter defeat.

4. On the afternoon of the 9th instant, reliable information having been obtained that the army under Fuzul Huq was about to effect a junction with Khali Khan's force, I considered it advisable, if possible, to crush the latter before such a junction could be effected. My great fear was, that the enemy might hear of my movements, and escape the impending blow, so my preparations were conducted with the greatest secrecy. At 9 P.M. of the 9th instant, nothing in camp indicated an intended move. At that hour the tents were quietly struck, and removed to the Mundee, an enclosed square, barricaded, and capable of being held by the force I could spare for its protection, for some time at least, against very superior numbers.

5. At 11½ P.M. I moved from camp with the troops as per margin,* and marching all night through the forest, came on the enemy's camp at Churpoorah, shortly after day-break, on the morning of the 10th.

I found his position a strong one, about 900 yards off the road, which was commanded by his guns. His rear and left were protected by the Paha Nuddee, which wound round his camp. The only approach to his front and right flank was over rough broken ground, intersected by nullahs, and covered with thick jungle grass and bushes; a small village filled with infantry was on his right flank. His force, from 4 to 5,000 infantry, about 1,000 cavalry, with 4 guns.

6. The surprise was complete; the only portion of my force at first visible to the enemy was an advanced guard of the Rohilcund Horse, and a party of their sowars, galloping towards us, asked if we were Fuzul Huq's army, which they expected that morning to join them. Wheeling back the cavalry, I fired a few rounds, which undeceived them, and drew on us a heavy artillery fire. Directly I ascertained their position, I drew up the guns on the road, and opened on those of the enemy, and ordered Captain Ross, commanding the 66th Ghorkhas (leaving two companies to protect the artillery), and Captain Baugh, commanding the Nepaul Contingent and Kumaon Levies, to advance on the enemy's right flank, supported by the Rohilcund Horse, under Captain Crossman.

During this advance the fire on our artillery was very severe, the enemy's guns being served with the greatest rapidity and precision; their largest gun was quickly disabled, and after about forty minutes of very sharp firing, during which the cavalry and infantry were gradually nearing their right, they turned their guns on them, and plied them with grape and round shot. Our guns, thus relieved from the fire of the enemy's, were enabled to commit immense execution in their large bodies of cavalry, into which they poured shrapnel with beautiful precision and tremendous effect.

7. The advance of our line was steady and uninterrupted. The enemy's infantry and cavalry, though offering opposition from every point of advantage which the nature of the ground gave them, and though they appeared in strength and fought with resolution, could not check the 66th and Nepaul Goorkhas, who gained ground, firing with a rapidity and resolution they could not withstand.

In about an hour from their first advance, the village and right flank had been gallantly carried by the infantry, who, sweeping down the front, carried the guns with a rush, cutting down every artilleryman at his gun. The resistance was very severe, and I believe that, with hardly an exception, every European officer in this charge had hand to hand encounters with the enemy.

The Rohilcund Horse made a gallant charge during this advance, repulsing a very superior body of the enemy's cavalry, taking a standard, and cutting up a great number. They entered the camp with the infantry, and were most useful in cutting up stragglers.

8. As from the jungly nature of the ground it was impossible for me to witness all that was going on, I called for reports from officers commanding corps, which, with a camp order issued by me on the occasion, I have the honour to forward for his Excellency's information, and have now only the pleasant duty of reporting the complete success of our operations, and bringing to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief the gallant conduct of all engaged.

9. The enemy's standing camp and baggage fell into our hands and was burnt; the whole of his ammunition was destroyed; of his guns one was completely disabled and left on the field; the other three, with four tumbrils, we brought with us into camp. Their exact loss I am unable to state; the killed must exceed 300, and the wounded more than twice that number. The loss in their cavalry must have been very heavy, from the constant fire to which they were exposed.

It would have been imprudent for me to make any delay on the ground; it was quite possible that Fuzul Huq might have heard of our move, and pushed on to make an attack on this place before I could return. Our first shot was fired at a quarter to 6 A.M.; at 8 A.M. we began to move back, and reached our camp here shortly after noon, the force under my command having marched 34 miles, and fought a severe action, in 13 hours.

10. The blow thus struck must be a severe one to the rebels in this quarter, and though Fuzul Huq keeps his force together, I am watching him closely, and will attack if a favorable opportunity offers. His present position in the heart of a dense jungle renders it unadvisable to do so at present.

11. My best thanks are due to Captain Kirby, who commanded the Artillery, and to Captain W. Maxwell, of the Artillery, who, having returned to his Civil duties in the Suraie Pergunnah, served as a volunteer with the guns, and rendered invaluable assistance. The services of this officer I have already brought prominently to the notice of his Excellency, and when I state that it is by his unremitting exertions the Goorkha Artillery Company was trained, that limbers were made for the guns, and that we were able to take the field with Artillery at all, I feel that the Commander-in-Chief will fully appreciate his merits. Captain Ross, commanding 66th Goorkhas, led the Regiment with great gallantry. His coolness and judgment were conspicuous, and I would beg to recommend him to the favorable notice of his Excellency. Lieutenant and Adjutant Tytler, 66th Goorkhas, severely wounded; Lieutenant Miles, 66th Goorkhas; Lieutenant Gepp, 66th Goorkhas, mortally wounded on the field and since dead, have been brought to my notice as having prominently distinguished themselves. Captain Ross also mentions the gallant behaviour of Quartermaster-Sergeant Delahoy, 66th Goorkhas, and the gallantry of Jusbahadoor Goorung, sepoy, Lieutenant Miles' Company, was conspicuous.

Captain Baugh, commanding the Nepaul Contingent, to which I attached two companies of the 66th Goorkhas, gallantly charged the right flank of the enemy, and carried the guns. The efficiency of the Contingent is greatly due to his exertions for the past six weeks in drilling and equipping them. Captain Baugh speaks in high terms of

* Two 6-pounder guns, 500 rank and file 66th Goorkhas, 150 Nepaul Contingent, 60 Kumaon Levies, 200 Rohilcund Horse. Total: 710 infantry, 200 cavalry, 2 guns.

Captain Bodee Maun Singh, who commands the Goorkhas; Lieutenant Boree Gorung, and Adjutant Phulwan Sing. My best thanks are due to Captain Crossman, commanding the Rohilcund Horse; this corps has been organized and equipped by him within the last three months. He charged and dispersed at their head a very superior body of Patan Cavalry across a country, and under a fire that would have tried the metal of any troops. The officers and men mentioned by him I would recommend to the favourable notice of his Excellency.

Captain Brownlow, my Major of Brigade, afforded me every assistance, and I would beg to recommend him to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief as a good and efficient Staff Officer. Captain Warde, late 68th Native Infantry, acted as my Orderly Officer, and was most active and useful.

Surgeon H. Irwin, 66th Goorkhas, accompanied the force, and I am much indebted to him for his unremitting exertions for the comfort of the wounded on the field, and their removal to camp, which he effected with very inadequate means.

I cannot close this Report without recording, though I fear I may not do so in adequate terms, the assistance rendered to me on this and every occasion during the last eight months, by Major H. Ramsay, the Commissioner of Kumaon. His exertions to equip, maintain, and feed this force have been unceasing. Suffering still from the effects of a severe accident which deprived him of the use of an arm, he accompanied me to the field, where his local knowledge was invaluable. It is not for me to record the services he has rendered to Government in his district; but I may say that the general feeling of security that has prevailed in the Kumaon hills was mainly due to his watchfulness and untiring energy.

Mr C. Carmichael, of the Civil Service, and Mr Reed, Inspector of Forests, accompanied the troops, and made themselves most useful in pointing out the positions of the enemy.

I enclose a Return of the Ordnance captured, and a Casualty Return of the Force, which I trust may not be considered excessive, considering what has been accomplished, and the strength and position of the enemy.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

Camp, Allahabad, March 1, 1858.

No. 22 of 1858.

The Right Honourable the Governor-General of India has much satisfaction in publishing the following report by Major-General Sir J. Outram, G.C.B., of the repulse of an attack on his position at Alum Bagh, on the morning of the 21st of February 1858, in which the arrangements made by Sir J. Outram were the most judicious and effectual, and the conduct of the troops engaged was highly creditable to them.

No. 7.

Major-General Sir J. Outram, G.C.B., Commanding 1st Division, to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Alum Bagh, February 21, 1858.

SIR,

No. 83.

I HAVE the honour to report that this morning the enemy attacked my position, and with the usual result.

2. Having filled all their trenches with as many men as they would hold, and placed large masses of infantry in the topos all along our front in support of them, they commenced a simultaneous movement round both our flanks, at the same time threatening the whole length of our position, and attacking the north-east corner of the Alum Bagh, and also the picquet and fort of Jellalabad, against which they brought 4 guns.

3. I immediately, on perceiving their intention, re-inforced the posts of Alum Bagh and Jellalabad, which easily repulsed the attacks made on them, and inflicted much loss on the assailants, who had advanced under cover of long grass and underwood within grape-shot range of both these posts.

4. I detached about 250 cavalry and 2 field guns to the rear of the fort of Jellalabad, under command of Captain Barrow, Volunteer Cavalry, where they suddenly came on about 2,000 of the enemy's cavalry. Our guns immediately opened on them, killing several, which caused them to withdraw to the immediate vicinity of the infantry attacking the fort, in number about 5,000; they remained there until the attack was abandoned, when they all withdrew towards the city.

5. The attack on our left flank was made by about from 8 to 10,000 infantry and 500 cavalry, to oppose whom I sent out the remaining 4 field guns available, supported by the Military Train (120 in number) under command of Major Robertson, of the Military Train, keeping the 2d Infantry Brigade in reserve. The cavalry and guns soon drove back the enemy's cavalry, and their infantry then halted, and on the guns being turned on them, soon commenced to retreat also, and were followed up by us until within range of their batteries.

6. A large convoy was on the road at the time, the escort required for which materially crippled our small cavalry force, and prevented any thing more being effected than frustrating their attempts to gain our rear and molest the convoy.

7. The reports from the city state the enemy to have lost 60 killed and 200 wounded in their attack on Alum Bagh, and about 80 or 90 killed and wounded in front of Jellalabad. This was exclusive of their loss on the left flank, and along our front, where our heavy artillery had constant opportunities of firing shell and shrapnel into the midst of their moving masses. I consider their loss to have been heavier than on any of their previous attacks.

8. I have the pleasure to state that, as on all former occasions, the conduct of the troops engaged, both officers and men, was admirable.

9. Majors Tinling, 90th Light Infantry, and Nicholson, Royal Engineers, commanded respectively at Alum Bagh and Jellalabad, and defended their posts with much spirit. Major Nicholson particularly praises the energy with which Lieutenant Ford, of the Royal Artillery, opposed the fire of the enemy's 4 guns with the only gun that could be brought to bear on them.

10. Our loss amounted to nine wounded.

A nominal roll is transmitted herewith.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

Military Department,
Allahabad, March 11, 1858.

No. 31 of 1858.

The Right Honourable the Governor-General has great pleasure in publishing the accompanying Despatch from Major-General Sir James Outram, G.C.B., reporting the particulars of an unusually resolute attack on his position on February 25th, 1858, and of its gallant repulse by the troops under his command, to whom, as well as to their distinguished leader, his Lordship offers his thanks for the good service rendered on this occasion.

No. 10.

Major-General Sir J. Outram, G.C.B., commanding 1st Division, to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Alum Bagh, February 26, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report the particulars of a repulse of a determined demonstration, which the enemy made on our position yesterday, the 25th instant.

2. The principal attack was on our right, against which 24 regiments of regular infantry, 6 Nujeeb corps, 1,000 cavalry, and 8 guns, moved out from the trenches; of this number about one-half, with 2 guns, advanced towards our right rear, and having occupied the "topes" immediately to the east of Jellalabad, commenced shelling that post heavily, evidently in the hope of igniting the large quantity of combustible stores at present collected there, while the remainder held in support the villages and "topes" directly in front of the enemy's out-works.

3. Large bodies of infantry and cavalry, with 3 guns, simultaneously menaced our left, and the trenches in front of our position were occupied in force.

4. Soon after 10 A.M., I moved out with detachments of artillery, cavalry, and infantry, as per accompanying Return, to intercept the column which had opened its guns on Jellalabad, having previously sent Barrow's volunteers and Wale's horse round, via Nowrangabad, to co-operate in the rear.

5. As we advanced, a portion of the enemy's reserve made a demonstration against our left; but were speedily driven back, and afterwards held in check by the 4 guns of Remington's troop, supported by a squadron of the 7th Hussars, under Colonel Hagart, and by Brasyer's Seikhs.

6. The column then moved forward, flanked on the left by Brigadier Campbell with the native cavalry, which pushed on in advance to intercept the enemy's retreat, which, owing to their having heard the fire of Remington's guns, proved more sudden than we had anticipated. The manoeuvre was completely successful, and speedily converted their retreat into a rout, Brigadier Campbell's detachment assailing them on one side, while Barrow's and Wale's horse appeared on the opposite quarter, and the Military Train, under Captain Robertson, dashed into the middle of the flying enemy, and captured their 2 guns. The rapidity of their flight prevented the infantry from taking a prominent part in the action. At 1 P.M., when we finally left the field, the foe had vanished.

7. In the meantime the hostile forces on the left of my position had retired before the very effective fire of Moir's guns, not liking the look of the arrangements which had been prepared by Brigadier Franklyn, who had been left in command of the camp, for their reception.

8. Judging from the corpses which strewed the field where the cavalry had charged, and from the dense masses upon which our guns repeatedly opened, the enemy's casualties must have been heavy. Our loss consisted of 4 men killed, 5 officers and 20 men wounded.

9. My cordial acknowledgments are due to all the officers and men who conducted and took part in these operations, but especially to the Military Train, whose brilliant charge excited the enthusiasm of all who witnessed it.

10. Colonel Berkeley, my able and zealous Military Secretary, whose knowledge of the ground was of great service to Brigadier Campbell in cutting off the enemy's retreat, was wounded while gallantly charging at the head of Hodson's Horse, as was Lieutenant Moorsom while rendering to Barrow and Wale assistance similar to that which Colonel Berkeley afforded the Brigadier.

11. About 4 P.M. the enemy again moved out against us. On this occasion they directed their principal efforts against our left, and evinced more spirit and determination than they have hitherto done. Repeatedly they advanced within grape and musket range, and as they ever met with a warm reception from our guns and Enfields, especially from those of the left front picket, commanded by Major Master, of the 5th Fusiliers, they must have suffered severely.

* They renewed their fire from time to time during the night, but solely, I believe, with the object of covering the parties engaged in removing their dead. Our loss in this subsequent operation amounted to 1 man killed and 14 wounded. In all 5 men killed, and 35 officers and men wounded.

12. The conduct of the troops throughout the entire day and night was excellent at every point, and merits the highest commendation.

The usual returns of ordnance captured, and of casualties, are hereby forwarded.

I have, &c.,

Commanding 1st Division.
