Name.	Designation.	Place.	Date.	Circumstances
S. F. Macmullen...	Brevet-Major	Jullundur	June 7	Wounded on the night of the mutiny. Brevet-Major Macmullen was in the lines of the 1st Troop, the other officers being in those of their respective Troops, attempting to prevent the men who had possessed themselves of their arms from mounting their horses, or further committing themselves. Having dismounted several, who promptly obeyed orders, he was giving a similar order by a trooper named Azmut Ally Khan, who fired his pistol at him, the distance not more than four yards, and sent the bullet or slug through the thumb and first finger of the right hand. This was the only shot fired in the lines of the 6th Cavalry. The Troop possibly feeling themselves committed by this flagrant act, at once mounted, and left with many from the other Troops, without, however, attempting any violence against their officers, who were really at their mercy
C. B. Basden	Captain	do	... 7	Received a sabre wound in the arm from a trooper of the 6th Light Cavalry, when endeavouring, with Ensigns Hawkins and Durnford, to prevent the men of his regiment (led on by a troop of the 6th Light Cavalry) from seizing their arms from the left wing bell of arms of the regiment
F. D. Hawkins......	Ensign	do	... 7	Received a wound from a pistol ball in the back from a trooper of the 6th Light Cavalry, when endeavouring to prevent the men of his regiment (led on by a troop of the 6th Light Cavalry) from seizing their arms from the left wing bell of arms of the regiment
