

CROWN OFFICE,
EDINBURGH, 11th May 1858.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that the Right Honorable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the 'Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855,' made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council that he has received a copy of a Deliverance pronounced by the Sheriff of Forfarshire, finding that the allegations in a Petition of James Cowpar and others, being all Members of the Parochial Board of the PARISH of KIRRIEMUIR, that the BURIAL GROUND of the said Parish is dangerous to health and offensive, have been proved; Which Representation recommends the issue of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, directing that no new Burial Ground shall be opened within the said Parish of Kirriemuir without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that Burials shall be forthwith Discontinued in the existing Burial Ground of the said Parish; and that it has pleased Her Majesty in Council to order the said Representation to be taken into consideration by Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council on the 21st day of June next.
