No. 20.

E. C. Bayley, Esq. Officiating Deputy Secretary to Government, N.W. Provinces, to G. F. Edmonstone, Esq. Secretary to the Government of India, with the Governor-General.

SIR,

No. 5 A.

Allahabad, March 3, 1858.

In continuation of my letter, No. 37, dated 3d February, from Lieutenant-Colonel Strachey, Secretary to the Government of the Central Provinces, I am directed to submit, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor-General, a letter from the Commissioner of the Goruckpore Division, furnishing a Return of Europeans Killed and Wounded in the district of Goruckpore, to which is added a List giving the names of those who were Killed in the districts of Gouda and Baraitch, in Oude.

I have, &c.,

E. C. BAYLEY,
Officiating Deputy Secretary to Government, N.W. Provinces.

No. 21.

C. J. Wingfield, Esq. Commissioner, Goruckpore, to Lieutenant-Colonel Strachey, Secretary to Government, C.P., Allahabad.

SIR,

No. 22.

Goruckpore, January 21, 1858.

In conformity with the instructions contained in your letter, No. 241, dated 9th January, enclosing Circular No. 4372 of 3d November, from the Secretary to the Government of India to your address, I beg to forward a Return of Europeans Killed and Wounded, not in this District only, but in those of Gouda and Baraitch also, to which my information extends. I regret that I cannot always be positive as to dates. Regarding the Europeans killed in Goruckpore my information is derived from the deposition of Serjeant Busher, the sole survivor, which was taken by the magistrate of Ghazeepoor in June last, and will be in his office; it was also published in the London Evening Mail of September 28th to September 30th, 1857.

2. Besides the officers enumerated as having perished within the limits of this district, the following also lost their lives at the same time and by the same cause; Major Mill, Artillery, drowned in the Gogra while endeavouring to swim to shore, the boat having been fired into by the 17th Native Infantry; Serjeant Mathews, shot in the boat on the same occasion.

3. Lieutenant Bright, also in the boat at the same time, and a Serjeant-Major of the 22d Native Infantry, name unknown, were captured on the Goruckpore side of the river, which they had reached by swimming, brought over to the camp of the 17th Native Infantry on the Oude side, and there shot the same day, i.e., the 9th June. A bugler, Williamson by name, who was with Lieutenant Bright escaped, and his evidence has been taken at Ghazeepoor I believe.

4. There is some uncertainty as to the precise spot where Colonel Goldney met his end. He was in the boats with the rest, and with them reached the Goruckpore side of the river, but was left there by his companions, not being able to keep up with them. He was either murdered there by the 17th Native Infantry, who were in pursuit, or else was brought into their camp and shot; I incline to the former belief.

I have, &c.,

C. WINGFIELD, Commissioner.

Name.	Designation.	Place.	Date.	Remarks.
Lieut. English	Lieut., 22d N.I.	Mowha Dhaba	June 10	1857. These 5 officers and the Serjeant-Major were murdered by the Mahomedan population of Mowha Dhaba, while endeavouring to reach Gai Ghat, on the Gogra, and there take boat for Dinapoor. They had escaped from the mutiny at Fyzabad, but were misled into believing Goruckpoor was in the possession of the mutineers, and were betrayed into the hands of the Mahomedans by two Burkundarezes of the Thanna, who accompanied them as guides. Full particulars of their murder will be found in the deposition of the sole survivor, Serjeant Busher
Lieut. Thomas	do	do	... 10	Both these officers were drowned in endeavouring to swim a nullah to escape the pursuit of the mutineers, 17th Native Infantry, who had fired into the boats in which deceased were dropping down the Gogra, and pursued them to the opposite shore

C. W. Cunliffe ...	Civil Service, Officiating Deputy Commissioner, Buraich	Bhyram Ghat on the Gogra on the road to Lucknow	Between 12 and 14 June	These three gentlemen were endeavouring to make their escape into Lucknow from Buraich after the mutiny of the troops there. The murderers are believed to have been a detachment of the 2d Oude Irregular Infantry, stationed at the Ghat. Mr Jorden is said to have been kept alive for two days, but this is not certain. No eye-witness has yet related to me the particulars of their death
Lieut. L. Clarke ...	Lieut., 3d O. Ir. I.	do	do
J. Jorden	Extra Assistant Commissioner, Oude	do	do
Hugh Gallagher and his wife	Quartermaster - Serjt. 2d O. Ir. I.	Secrore, Oude	Not exactly known	The Serjeant-Major and his wife remained at Secrore after the officers fled, and were left unmolested by the mutineers there, but were murdered some weeks afterwards by a party of sepoy of the 37th N.I., returning to their homes. This is the native report

LIST of Europeans Killed and Wounded at Jullundur by Mutineers or Rebels during the present Rebellion.

Jullundur, January 30, 1858.

Name.	Designation.	Place.	Date.	Circumstances under which the murder or wound took place.
Mrs Joyce	Prostitute	Sudder Bazar, Jullundur	1857. June 7	On the night of the 7th of June, when the mutineers of the 36th, 61st, and Cavalry, passed through the Sudder Bazar, some of them shot Mrs Joyce through the chest, but no one saw the deed done

Name.	Designation.	Place.	Date.	Circumstances under which the murder or wound took place.
S. F. MacMullen...	Captain and Brevet-Major, 6th Light Cavalry	Jullundur	1857. June 7	On the night of the mutiny, Brevet-Major MacMullen, then commanding the regiment, was in the lines of the 1st Troop, the other officers being also in those of their respective troops, attempting to prevent the men, who had forcibly possessed themselves of their arms, from mounting their horses, or further committing themselves. Having dismounted several, who promptly obeyed orders, he was giving a similar order to a trooper named Azmut Ally Khan, when the latter fired his pistol, being at the distance of not more than 4 yards, and sent the bullet through the first finger and thumb of his sword hand, and thus disabled it. This was the only shot fired in the lines of the 6th Cavalry. The 1st Troop, possibly feeling themselves committed by this flagrant act, at once mounted and rode off, with many men from the other troops, to the Native Infantry lines, without, however, attempting any violence against their officers, though they were really at their mercy
F. J. S. Bagshaw	Lieut. and Adjt., 36th Regt., N.I.	do	... 7	Lieutenant and Adjutant Bagshaw, on the alarm being sounded, proceeded to the lines, when he saw some 200 or 300 men congregated, whom he addressed, and endeavoured to persuade to return to their duty. While speaking to the men, a trooper of the 6th Cavalry shot him, of which wound he died
C. E. Bates	Lieut., 36th Regiment, N.I.	do	... 7	Was officer of the day on June 7th last. At 11 p.m. on that day a fire broke out in the lines of the regiment, to which he at once proceeded. On getting near the bells of arms, he perceived the sepoys had seized their arms. He went up to a body of them, who were collected in front of No. 5 lines, and endeavoured to dissuade them from their purpose. Two sepoys fired at him nearly at the same moment, the first shot hitting his right arm and breaking it. He saw the sepoy raise his musket and fire, but could not recognise him. On being hit, he fell from off his horse. On leaving the lines a good many shots were fired after him, but he managed to reach the artillery lines in safety
C. B. Basden	Captain, 61st Regiment, N.I.	do	... 7	Received a sabre wound in the arm from a trooper of the 6th Light Cavalry, when endeavouring, with Ensigns Hawkins and Durnford, to prevent the men of his regiment (led on by a trooper of the 6th Light Cavalry) from seizing their arms from the left wing bell of arms of the regiment

Name.	Designation.	Place.	Date.	Circumstances under which the murder or wound took place.
F. D. Hawkins ...	Ensign, 61st Regiment, N.I.	Jullundur	1857. June 7	Received a wound from a pistol ball in the back from a trooper of the 6th Light Cavalry, when endeavouring to prevent the men of his regiment (led on by a trooper of the 6th Light Cavalry) from seizing their arms from the left wing bell of arms of the regiment
H. Durnford	Ensign, 61st Regiment, N.I.	do	... 7	Received a pistol ball in the arm and three sabre cuts on the head and neck from a trooper of the 6th Light Cavalry, and a bayonet wound in the back, when endeavouring to prevent the men of his regiment (led on by a trooper of the 6th Light Cavalry) from seizing their arms from the left wing bell of arms of the regiment. Died from the effects of these wounds on August 8, 1857
George Nelson ...	Quartermaster-Serjeant, 61st Regiment, N.I.	do	... 7	Received a wound on the head from a blow of a bamboo by a sepy of the regiment when in the execution of his duty

H. W. HARTLEY, Brigadier, Commanding at Jullundur, Commanding Sirhind Division.

RETURN of Europeans who have been Killed or Wounded at the hands of Rebels during the present Rebellion, at Meean Meer, Lahore, up to the present date.

Meean Meer, Lahore, January 29, 1858.

Name.	Designation.	Place.	Date.	Circumstances under which the murder or wound took place.
Robert Spencer	Captain and Brevet Major, commanding 26th Regiment Native Light Infantry	Meean Meer, Lahore	1857. July 30	The deceased having been told that there was a disturbance in the lines of his corps, went out to try and stop it; he was attacked by his own men, who, after murdering him, dispersed. This occurred at about noon.

No. 33.

RETURN of Europeans Killed by the hands of Rebels.

Name.	Designation.	Place.	Date.	Circumstances under which the murder took place.
J. J. Palmer, Esq.	Deputy-Collector of Futtyghur	Supposed to be at Cawnpore	Not known	Mrs Palmer wrote to her brother Mr S. Pocock, Haupper Depôt, from Futtyghur, dated June 3, 1857, which is the last letter received by him from Mrs Palmer. It was to the effect that as rebels were hourly expected in that station, Mr Palmer, his wife and family, had got on board of a boat. Naught has been heard of this family since their departure from Futtyghur, but it is strongly supposed they were murdered at Cawnpore by the monster Nana Sahib

No. 1.

Brigadier-General G. H. Macgregor, C.B., Military Commissioner, to the Secretary to Government with the Governor-General.

Allahabad, Camp Mobaruckpore,
February 25, 1858.

SIR,

No. 179.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor-General, that the three brigades of this force, under the immediate command of Maharajah Jung Bahadoor, this day completed the passage of the River Gogra with all its baggage and stores. The Fourth or Belwa Brigade will arrive on the other side to-day, and will cross, if possible, to-night, if not, to-morrow morning.

2. In reporting the successful result of much anxiety and labour, for the information of his Lordship I would wish to give a detailed account of the whole operation, that the Government may be fully aware of the difficulties which we have had to encounter, but which have at last been overcome.

3. From the time of our arrival at Goruckpore, the passage of the Gogra was the great obstacle which presented itself to my mind in the way of our advance into Oude.

4. I am aware that the river was at least as large as the Ganges, and much more rapid, and that the southern bank was studded with forts which commanded the stream. That the enemy lined the banks in great numbers, and occupied every ghat, and that they had removed all the boats to the right bank, from where the river washes the Azimgurh district to Byram Ghat.

5. On consulting the Maharajah, and laying all these things fully before him, he said that he left the matter entirely in my hands, that he would move his troops as I wished, but that I must make the arrangements for crossing.

6. As I had not only to prepare the crossing, but to defend the Goruckpore district as well, I recommended to his Excellency to send a brigade to Belwa, opposite Fyzabad, and to support it with another at Bustee. Subsequently the reports of the collection of rebels at Fyzabad became so urgent, and represented them in such numbers, that the officers in military charge determined to unite their brigades, and this rendered it necessary for support to be sent from Goruckpore to Bustee. The Maharajah immediately despatched a brigade at my request.

7. Lieutenant Sankey, of the Madras Engineers, had previously reported himself in camp, and I immediately took him into consultation; and, after establishing workshops for the collection of materials at Goruckpore, this officer set off to do the same both at Bustee and Belwa, and, by my directions, he made a survey of the river from Fyzabad to below Tandah. He reported two places suitable for crossing,—the best at Belwa itself, the other, good, but not quite so good, at Phoolpoor.

8. The rebels were at this time in force at Tandah, and Mohamed Hossein expressing his intention to invade Goruckpore if we went on to Fyzabad. The collector of Azimgurh also wrote to me about the defenceless state of his district, so I resolved to cross at Phoolpoor, which would have the effect of turning the enemy, as far as both districts were concerned.

9. Bridge materials were rapidly prepared at Goruckpore, Bustee, and Belwa, all this time; and from the disposition of the troops and these incessant preparations, the enemy was completely deceived. He commenced throwing up batteries to oppose us at Belwa, and crossed a large force to annoy us at Byram Ghat, who advanced towards Belwa. The bearing of the enemy waxing more insolent every day, I sent orders to Captain Plowden, in military charge, to advise the Goorkha officer in command to march out and fight the enemy. The very gallant action at Shahgunge ensued, of which I had the honour to enclose Captain Plowden's report in my letter No. 146 of the 7th instant. The result was the dispersion of the enemy; and, notwithstanding all their boasting, oath-taking, &c., they have never since ventured to attack our post at Belwa, which it was of importance to keep up to the last.

10. Previously to this, fearing that the rafts proposed by Lieutenant Sankey might not be found sufficient, though they were all he could make with the wretched dingees he could collect from this and from that nullah, I had despatched Captain Reid, 37th Native Infantry, to Gopalpore, to collect there, and at Barhul Ghat, a fleet of large boats; this being the nearest point at which we could procure them. Captain Reid collected the boats, boatmen, and a large quantity of materials, and put platforms on the boats; and, on his reporting all ready, I directed Colonel Rowcroft, then at Burhu, to escort the boats up the river to Phoolpoor.

11. Simultaneously the Maharajah, with the head-quarters, marched to Bustee from Goruckpore, and the Bustee Brigade was pushed across country to Hainsur first, and Chupra afterwards, to support and reinforce Colonel Rowcroft. He advanced with the boats up the river, and as the fleet was threatened by the fort of Chundeeppore, Captain Sotheby landed the escort and captured the fort, after the gallant affair of which I had the honour to enclose his report in my letter No. 177 of the 24th instant.

12. At this time the head-quarters of the Maharajah had moved to the Manja, opposite Phoolpoor, arriving there on the 17th instant, and as the river here made a reach from the left to the right bank, where it ran under the village of Phoolpoor, and where, the whole channel being one it was to be crossed, a workshop was established on our side, about two miles above where the bridge was to be. Here the rafts and bridge materials were got ready.

13. It was in contemplation to cross a force on the rafts to seize the village of Phoolpoor, but as the enemy had collected a considerable force, with guns, immediately opposite the workshop, and opened a fire, though it fell short, yet the boatmen were frightened, and temporarily ran away, so that idea was abandoned.

14. On the 19th, Colonel Rowcroft, having made a long march, arrived about sunset, simultaneously with the fleet at Nowrainee, about four miles below Phoolpoor. On hearing of his approach I sent my military secretary to bring me intelligence of what he was going to do, and that officer finding from Captain Reid that the boats were all ready, and the fort of Nowrainee on the right bank deserted, and knowing my wishes in regard to Colonel Rowcroft's crossing, I having requested him to do so at Chupra, urged him to cross at once, which Colonel Rowcroft consented to do, and the passage being effected that very night, we were established on the right bank of the river. In the morning, Brigadier Junga Doje's Brigade crossed at Nowrainee, and Colonel Rowcroft's, advancing with the united force, completely defeated the rebels in advance of Phoolpoor on the 20th, and thus secured the tête-du-pont and the peaceable passage of the river. I had the honor to forward Colonel Rowcroft's report of this very successful action in my letter, No. 178, of this date.

15. At 12 o'clock on the 21st, the first boats having come up, were fixed in position, and by 12 o'clock at night on the 23d, through the untiring exertions of Lieutenant Sankey, the Naval Brigade, and all concerned, the bridge over this large and rapid river, was reported ready.

16. On the morning of the 24th the Naval Brigade crossed to this side with Colonel Rowcroft, I having determined to leave it for the defence of Goruckpore; immediately afterwards a brigade passed across from this side, and then the stream of carts commenced and continued passing all night, completing it entirely in the course of to-day.

17. This morning the Maharajah and the third brigade passed over, leaving nothing on this side.

18. As soon as it was well manifest that the bridge was a fact, I sent orders to Captain Baring, with the concurrence of the Maharajah, to evacuate Belwa on the 24th, and come here in two marches. Captain Baring marched yesterday, and I expect him here in the course of the day, when, as his cattle will be too tired to cross the sand on this side of the bridge, he will remain for the night, and crossing early in the morning, form the rear-guard of the army which marches to-morrow fourteen miles to Ukberpoor.

19. Having thus laid before his Lordship a short narrative of the events connected with the passage of the Gogra by the army of his Excellency Maharajah Jung Bahadoor, there remains only for me the pleasing duty of bringing to the notice of his Lordship the names of those officers to whom I am principally indebted for the success which has attended this difficult operation.

20. To Lieutenant Sankey, Engineer of the force, my best thanks and acknowledgments are due. The energy with which this officer engaged in his work, and the skill with which he built the bridge in the extraordinary short time of two days and a half, merit every commendation. I have the pleasure to inclose a copy of his report, in which he mentions honourably the exertions of Lieutenant Garnault of the Engineers, and Lieutenant Mylne of the Artillery, placed at his disposal for this duty, and he also praises the services of that excellent Goorkha officer, Colonel Lal Sing, of the Maharajah's Artillery.

21. To Captain Reid's zeal and activity I am indebted for the collection of the fleet of boats, a work to which he brought great energy and experience. His services are elsewhere honourably mentioned both by Captain Sotheby and Colonel Rowcroft.

22. I have in other communications had the pleasure of bringing to the notice of his Lordship the names of those officers who distinguished themselves in the various actions which took place in the course of this operation, but I must again do myself the pleasure of mentioning the name of Captain Sotheby, Royal Navy, who was entrusted with the difficult and responsible duty of escorting the fleet up the river, a duty which he achieved in the most successful manner. I would also beg to acknowledge the services of the naval brigade in the construction of the bridge. It was principally through their agency that the work was completed so soon. I am likewise desirous of acknowledging the services of Captain Williamson of the Jumna steamer. She has thus far proved the navigability of the river, and she rendered good service in the attack on Chandepore.

23. I also beg to bring to the notice of his Lordship the services of my Military Secretary, Lieutenant McAndrew. His exertions to complete the success of my plans have been indefatigable. I have had at times to employ him out of the sphere of his duties, and have always found him most valuable from the very commencement of the campaign.

I have, &c.,
G. H. MACGREGOR,
Brigadier-General and Military
Commissioner.

No. 2.

Lieutenant R. H. Sankey, on special duty, to Captain MacAndrew, Military Secretary.

Camp, Phoolpoor,

February 24, 1858.

SIR,

In reporting for the information of Brigadier-General MacGregor the completion last night of the bridge over the Gogra, I beg to draw your attention to the following circumstances attending a work, which, though not very symmetrical, will I trust prove well adapted to the object in view, namely, the transferring of the naval brigade, under Colonel Rowcroft, from the right to the left bank, and the advance of his Highness the Maharajah's force, with guns and baggage, into Oude.

2. After the occupation of the village of Nowrainee on the night of the 19th instant, and the combat of Phoolpoor the following evening, the fleet of boats which had been so skilfully conducted up the stream from Deeree Burhul by Captain Reid, 37th Native Infantry, were enabled to take up their position near the village of Phoolpoor, which I had already selected, with the General's approval, as the most convenient site for the bridge.

3. The boats were numerous and of a very convenient size for manœuvring, viz., from 300 to 400 manuds burthen; they were well equipped, and each provided with a strong platform, which Captain Reid had seen to, during his stay at Deeree Burhul.

4. The superstructure for the roadway, with anchors, cables, and gear of all kinds, being previously prepared, it merely required an exertion in placing the boats, fixing the material of the roadway, cutting ghauts to lead down to the river, with roads of approach on either bank, to establish quickly the communication between Goruckpore and Oude.

5. The first boat was anchored a little before noon on the 21st instant, and the bridge reported open at midnight on the 23d instant, thus occupying two and a half days in construction.

6. 49 boats were anchored in a stream of 300 yards in width, and running at five miles an hour. The bottom on the right bank being hard kunker rock, difficulty was found in getting the anchors to hold, but some of the naval brigade coming to my aid, all boats were in position the second evening.

7. To secure the bridge against the effects of high winds, and overcome difficulties of the current and bottom, several iron anchors were passed up stream, and strong guy ropes from either shore, as well as from the steamer (which had been anchored in the middle of the stream for the purpose), were attached to different points of the bridge.

8. The approach on the left bank lay over alternating loose and hard sand for about half a mile, and the road had to undergo a certain amount of preparation, in addition to cutting the ghaut leading down from the plain on which the camp was pitched.

9. On the right bank there was a little more work, the road having to be made for a mile or more, but the ground being stiff clay, no difficulty was found in making a practicable road.

10. The valuable services of Captain Reid are well known to the Brigadier-General, and therefore need no comment from me, but I would beg to bring to the notice of the Brigadier-General the very valuable aid I have had from Lieutenant Garnault, of the engineers, and Lieutenant Mylne, of the artillery. Their labour has been unremitting both night and day in bringing the work to a satisfactory conclusion.

11. The Clashes, placed at my disposal by his Highness the Maharajah, have rendered the most efficient aid in keeping the communications perfect by a supply of jhowa when needed, and Colonel Lall Sing has been indefatigable in directing their labour.

I have, &c.,

R. H. SANKEY, Lieutenant,
Madras Engineers, on special duty.

No. 3.

Brigadier Wheler, Commanding Saugor District, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Camp, Bunda, March 1, 1858.

SIR, No. 136.

I BEG that you will acquaint his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief that I had an affair with a body of about 300 rebels at a village called Jalimpore, 7 miles hence, just across the Shah-gurh frontier.

2. The enemy were quite unaware of my approach till I was within a mile of them; they posted themselves in a village, with a densely wooded hill in their rear.

3. They opened fire on me with zumbooruks, but after a few rounds from my guns, and seeing the infantry approach to storm the hill-side, they retired deliberately into the jungle.

4. The head-quarters of the 31st Native Infantry, under Major Hampton, and 150 of the Hyderabad Contingent Infantry, under Captain Hare, in skirmishing order, ran them through the jungle and on the hills, until they were totally dispersed and had lost their zumbooruks and plunder, together with their two loads of gunpowder. Some of the enemy were killed and our loss nothing.

5. By order of Major-General Sir H. Rose, K.C.B., I am now going to make a feint on Shah-gurh, and await further orders at Bamoi, the fourth march on the Calpee road from Saugor.

I have, &c.,

F. WHELER, Brigadier,
Commanding Saugor District.

No. 4.

Brigadier-General G. H. Macgregor, C.B., Military Commissioner, to the Secretary to the Government with the Governor-General, Foreign Department.

No. 181.

Camp, Rowneeah, near Daondpore,

SIR, March 4, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor-General, that when on the line of march, on the 26th ultimo, from Mobarukpoor to Ukberpoor, as Maharajah Jung Bahadoor and myself were proceeding along the road, we were informed that at a fort near at hand some 40 rebels were there.

2. The Maharajah remarked that they might rob the carts, and sent some of his body-guard to see what they were. They rode up to the place and completely surprised them, and actually got into the place. The men inside proposed submission, and said they would lay down their arms in two ghurries (about forty minutes) if allowed that time to prepare. Unaccountably the Goorkhas fell into the trap, and left the place for that time, and on their return, reinforced by three companies, they were fired on, and several were killed and wounded.

3. The news of this reached us immediately after our arrival in camp, and the Maharajah first despatched his brothers, and subsequently in my company went himself back to the place, about six miles.

4. I have the pleasure to inclose the reports of the officers in charge of brigades present, as well as that of Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, which will put his Lordship in possession of the style of place and the manner of its capture.

5. Previous to the arrival of the Maharajah, though I believe arrangements for an assault were made by Generals Ranodeep Singh and Dere Shumshere, yet no progress had actually been made. The arrival of his Highness gave a spur to the whole body. He immediately directed an assault, caused the bugles to be sounded, and in an hour after his arrival I accompanied him into the place.

6. I cannot speak too highly of the courage and gallantry shown by the officers and men engaged in this little, but desperate affair. The heavy list of casualties will show to his Lordship the strength of the defences, and the desperation with which they were held. It was manifest from this day's work that the Goorkhas were capable of anything in the way of an assault, when animated by the presence of the Maharajah, and I was very much pleased indeed with their demeanour throughout, for the service was really a trying one.

7. I beg to bring to the notice of his Lordship the excellent arrangements of Generals Ranodeep Singh, second in command, and Dere Shumshere, the Maharajah's brothers. Their dispositions insured the capture of the place, and prevented the escape of the enemy.

8. Brigadier Sunnuck Sing and Jodh Adhikaree were on the field, and greatly exerted themselves. Captain Edmonstone records the distinguished gallantry with which the former led on his men, who bore the brunt of the affair.

9. Colonel Koohun Sing, Lall Sing and Ramchunder Sing Allie, as well as Major Captain Balla Bahadoor Pandey and Rung Soor Bishtee, Jugga Bahadoor Gaitu, and Major Jungbeer Kooner Ranajee, are also honourably mentioned.

10. The conspicuous gallantry of Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, was the admiration of every one. It was by his advice the gun was brought up which breached the wall, and he was the first man in the fort, followed by the rifle regiment, with Captain Edmonstone. The latter officer's conduct was most gallant and praiseworthy.

11. I am also indebted to Captain Baring, the senior officer present, in charge of a brigade, as well as to Captain Holland and Lieutenant Mylne of the Artillery, and Captain Lane, Lieutenant Cory, and Lieutenant Garnault, all of whom exerted themselves greatly.

12. Captain Brander, Deputy Assistant Commissary-General, was on the field, and opportunely set fire to the village at the only part of the fort where there was no bamboo hedge, thus preventing the escape of the rebels.

13. Dr. Chalmers' activity and attention to the wounded was most conspicuous. I have &c.,
G. H. MACGREGOR,
Brigadier-General and Military Commissioner.

No. 6.

Captain Baring to Captain MacAndrew, Military Secretary to Brigadier-General Macgregor, C.B.

SIR, Camp, Sultanpoor, March 2, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Brigadier-General Macgregor, C.B., that on the morning of the 26th ultimo, whilst on the march from Phoolpoor to Ackberpore, with the brigade of which I have military charge, and which is commanded by Brigadier Jodabeer Adhikaree, instructions were received to detach a party (strength as per margin*) for the purpose of dislodging a body of insurgents entrenched at the village of Berozepore; this I am happy to say was satisfactorily effected, after a very obstinate defence, of which I subjoin the following particulars:

On arriving in front of the enemy's position, I was reinforced by a portion of 1st Brigade (strength as per margin†) under the military charge of Captain Edmonstone, whose proceedings are annexed. The difficulty of our operations was materially increased by the enemy's position being completely surrounded by an impenetrable hedge of bamboos, which prevented our ascertaining the nature of the defences within. Under the circumstances, I deemed it expedient to suggest to the General, Dere Shumshere, that he should open with shell from the guns on the south side, sending a regiment out on each flank to prevent the escape of the enemy. After firing for some time, and finding that we made little or no impression on the position from its natural defences, we determined on altering our tactics, and moved up 3 guns to the east side. I now suggested to the General the propriety of pushing the men up to the place in extended order, under cover of the guns, with a view of taking it by assault. This plan was adopted, and at this juncture his Highness the Maharajah Jung Bahadoor arriving on the ground, his presence so stimulated the troops that they rushed on with a cheer, and succeeded in obtaining a lodging in the bamboo fence and trench within in. The assailing regiments finding that they were here unexpectedly opposed by a high wall and bastion, the necessity for bringing up a gun to bear on it became manifest, and accordingly, with great labour, a 6-pounder from Major Jungbheer Koothur Ranajee's battery, was dragged through the outer fence of bamboos, and brought up to within a few yards of it. Five or six rounds having effected a partial breach, Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, followed by the men, carried the place by storm; it was then fired. Nothing could exceed the gallantry of all engaged, the Goorkhas charging with great bravery.

General Ramdeep Sing and Dere Shumshere were most assiduous in carrying out all concerted plans. Brigadier Jodheer Adhikaree behaved most gallantly throughout, as well as Lieutenant-Colonel Ramchunder Allie, commanding the Pooranah Gorruck Regiment, and Major Captain Bulla Bahadoor Panday, commanding the 2d company of the Sengenath Regiment. Captain Edmonstone gallantly led the men of the rifle regiment into the entrenchment, and also afforded me valuable assistance during the day. I beg to bring his name prominently to the notice of the Brigadier-General, as well as that of Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, whose conspicuous bravery elicited the admiration of all. To Captain Holland I am deeply indebted for the activity he displayed, and the excellent practice made by the guns he had charge of. I annex his report.

I beg to bring the names of Captain Lane, Lieutenant Corey, and Second-Lieutenant Garnault, who assisted me throughout the day, and did good service in the entrenchment, to the Brigadier-General's notice, as well as that of Dr Chalmers, the only medical officer present, whose activity in attendance on the sick, both within and without the entrenchment, was remarkable.

In conclusion, I beg to bring to the notice of the Brigadier-General all those officers mentioned in the 11th paragraph of Captain Edmonstone's letter, and 2d paragraph of Captain Holland's.

I annex a casualty return. I have, &c.,

J. D. Q. BARING, Captain,

No. 7.

Captain Holland to Captain Baring, in Military Charge, 2d Brigade 1st Division, Goorkha Force.

Camp, Sultanpoor, March 2, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inform you, that according to instructions received during the line of march from Phoolpoor on the afternoon of the

* 7 companies Pooranah Gorruck Regiment, 2 companies Sengenath Regiment, 3 guns.

† Rifle Regiment, Kaleepershad Regiment, 2 companies Sooring Dull Regiment, and 7 guns.

26th ultimo, three guns of the battery under my charge were detached with a portion of your brigade to attack the rebels at Berozepoor. On arriving near that village, I found the battery attached to Brigadier Sunnuck Sing's Brigade, under charge of Lieutenant Mylne; after a short consultation, the guns opened fire (chiefly with shells) on the south face of a dense bamboo tope, in which the rebels were said to be posted, at a distance of about 500 yards. After a few rounds I moved the 3 guns under my charge round to the east face of the tope, and opened fire at about 200 yards, at a loop-holed wall, which appeared about 5 feet above the level of the ground; finding, however, after a short time, that from the nature of the defences, our fire was of little effect, it was resolved to carry the place by assault. Accordingly, after a short pause, and as soon as the skirmishers began to advance, I opened and continued a sharp fire from 3 guns, under cover of which a lodgement was effected within the outer bamboo enclosure and ditch; it was then discovered that there was an inner entrenchment and wall, which it was found necessary to breach. Accordingly, a 6-pounder gun was, with great difficulty, dragged through the bamboo fence and outer ditch, to within a few feet of the inner wall; after a few rounds a breach was effected, through which the Goorkhas, headed by Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, poured in, and carried the place. Immediately after the first lodgement, I distributed portions of port fire and lighted slow match among the Goorkha riflemen, to set fire to the houses and bamboo tope on the west side; this was done almost simultaneously with the final assault.

2. In conclusion, I beg to state that I observed, with the utmost satisfaction, the precision of fire of the guns under Lieutenant Mylne, who makes particular mention of the professional services of Colonel Lall Sing, and Captain Bhyrut Bahadur, of the Nepalese Artillery. I also beg to bring to your favourable notice, the names of Major Jugheer Kooner, and Captain Indr Bheer Lama, of the Artillery under my charge.

I have, &c.,

Bengal Artillery.

No. 8.

Captain Edmonstone to Captain Baring.
Camp, Huree Sunree,

SIR, February 27, 1858.

UNDER instructions from the Brigadier-General, conveyed to me by yourself, I have the honour to report for his information, the circumstances that came under my notice in the assault and capture yesterday, of the small fortified position of Berozepore, Jumalpoore.

2. On the line of march, about 6 miles from Akburpore, at about 9 A.M., a report was brought from the rear to Brigadier Sunnuck Sing, commanding the brigade of which I am in military charge, that a small body of rebels had been discovered in a fortified position about a mile to the westward of the road along which we were advancing. With my concurrence the Brigadier upon this gave orders for 3 companies of the rear regiment, the Kalee Pershad, to be detached, if possible, to capture or destroy the party, the remainder of the regiment was halted at that post, and the rest of the brigade continued its march.

3. A short time subsequently, five musket shots were heard from the direction of our right rear, and immediately afterwards, the brigade being distant about 3 miles from Akburpore, another report was brought from the rear that the detached companies had received a severe check and met with considerable loss. I immediately directed that the intelligence should be sent to the Maharajah, and galloped on myself to camp, to report the circumstances to the Brigadier-General.

4. Orders were then given that 1 regiment and 2 guns should be sent back to the assistance of the Kalee Pershad, and accordingly I found them on my return in position in an open plain in front of a thick clump of bamboos, apparently joining a tope of mangoo trees to the westward, a hut being visible here and there in both. Closer observation showed a fence of dry bamboos, under the green bamboos, and this, confirmed by the report of a villager who had joined us, was rightly conjectured to be the enemy's position, the rebels within it were said to be from 30 to 40 strong, which also was found to be quite correct.

5. Some delay here took place in consultation as to the best mode of attack, during which the rest of the brigade came up, and, simultaneously with it, Generals Runodeep Sing and Dere Shumshere—yourself joining us at the same time, with, I believe, 1 regiment and 3 guns. You then assumed charge of the operations, but as my brigade was principally concerned in them, I continue the report of what came under my own observation, confining myself, except when absolutely necessary for explanation, to the part taken in them by my own brigade.

6. About half-past 1 P.M., a part of the rifle regiment, the Kalee Pershad regiment, and 2 companies of the Sooraj Dall, with 7 guns, the portion of my brigade actually engaged, the remainder being absent on various guard duties, in all about 800 of all ranks, having been previously placed in skirmishing order on either flank of the village, leaving a party to protect the guns, they (the guns of my brigade, under the direction of Lieutenant Mylne) opened with round shot and shrapnell at a distance of about 350 yards from the southern face of the enemy's position; your 3 guns commencing firing at the same time on my right, about 150 yards further back.

7. After a few rounds, it was decided by the Generals above mentioned, with our concurrence, to move your 3 guns to a point about 300 yards from the enemy's position, immediately opposite its eastern face, which was there partially discernible, and in which the villager whom I had kept with me, declared the entrance to be. The flanking parties were then moved in accordance with our change of position, the guns again opened, and several rounds were fired as before, the guns being advanced from time to time, until they had attained to a distance of about 200 yards from the bamboos.

8. The proper moment having arrived, the Generals, with our concurrence, ordered the assault. The troops of my brigade, stationed as above, having advanced on all sides, as the guns moved on, were then closed up on their respective alignements, and the 2 companies of the Sooraj Dall being kept slightly in the rear as a support, the bugles for the advance sounded. The whole then advanced with a rush, loudly cheering. I stationed myself with the portion of the rifles in the centre, and on arriving at the bamboos, I saw immediately the great strength of the position. It was a small enclosure, barely 30 yards square, with high loop-holed walls, surrounded by a thick fence of green bamboos, rendered completely impervious by a screen of dry bamboos, the base of which was strongly fixed in the ground, on either side of which was a broad, deep ditch.

9. I went round three sides of the position, for it was nothing less, and although I found the men most eager to get in, to do so at these points was impossible. I then returned to the eastern face, and found the men crowding into the inner ditch, having with the greatest difficulty forced their way in single file through the bamboos, exposed to a galling fire from the loop-holes, from which they were suffering severely.

10. The only approach to the place, that mentioned by the villager, was at last discovered; at this spot a gun was then forced with great labour into a position within ten or twelve yards of the wall; another, a 12-pounder, belonging to my brigade, under the immediate direction of Colonel Lall Sing, and a third, were placed at right angles to the first one, and the cross-fire thus produced was attended with the happiest results. Lieutenant Sankey, of the Engineers, who had been on the ground the whole day, discovered a small breach made by the first gun; it ceased firing, he enlarged the opening with his hands until it was sufficiently large to admit his head and shoulders, forced himself through it, and was the first man inside; the gallantry of this act, which, as I was standing with him close under the wall, I was an eye-witness of, I venture to bring particularly to the notice of the Brigadier-General. I myself immediately followed the two first Goorkhas, I believe, who penetrated into the enclosure by a ladder which was placed against the wall close to me. I believe they belong to the Rifles, but I regret to say I have been unable to identify them since, as they were separated from me immediately afterwards by the mob. Our men then forced in through the breach, by the ladder, and through a narrow opening, apparently the entrance to the place, but which only came half-way down the wall, and the enemy (thirty-one bodies were subsequently counted) were all, I believe, instantly cut to pieces.

11. In conclusion, I have only to say that the men of my brigade engaged, behaved admirably throughout, as did all the Nepalese officers under my immediate observation, who carried out the very able directions of Generals Runodeep Sing and Dere Shumshere, with the greatest alacrity; but I may be permitted to particularize Brigadier Sunmuck Sing, whose judgment throughout, as well as gallantry in leading his men, was conspicuous. Colonel Lall Sing, commanding the battery attached to my brigade, a most excellent artillery officer, Colonel Koolman Sing, commanding the Kalee Pershad Regiment, also displayed great gallantry, and Major Captain Rung Soor Bistee, who commanded the three companies of the Kalee Pershad, which were detached at first, and suffered so greatly, Lieutenant-Colonel Hurree Bukt, commanding the Rifles, and Major Captain Jugga Bahadoor Guttee, who commanded the two companies of the Sooraj Dall engaged, are also meritorious officers. Lieutenant Mylne rendered great service in directing the operations of the artillery. Annexed is a numeric list of the casualties in the several regiments in my brigade. I have, &c.,

F. N. EDMONSTONE, Captain,
In Military Charge of a Brigade, Goorkha Force.

The Juggat Dall Regiment, which also belongs to my brigade, was not present.

P.S.—The Maharajah and the Brigadier-General had arrived on the ground during the affair, but I was not aware of the fact until I came out of the fortification after all was over.

Lieutenant R. H. Sankey, Madras Engineers, on special duty, to Captain MacAndrew, Military Secretary.

SIR.

February 27, 1858.

HAVING been requested by Brigadier-General Macgregor to report on the small Gurree which was captured yesterday by the Maharajah's troops, I have the honour to submit the following concise description of the works, with a sketch plan, illustrating the subject as far as my limited time will permit.

2. Viewed from the outside nothing very suspicious or formidable was discoverable about the place. It had all the appearance of an ordinary clump of bamboos at the corner of a village, which latter, like all inhabited places in this part of the country, was very well screened in foliage. Some newly-planted bamboo slips, eight to ten feet high, all round the clump above mentioned, alone marked the place as differing from others, and on another occasion would be sufficient warning to induce caution in approaching what proved a very hedgehog of fortification.

3. The fort itself was a complete well, surrounded by a ditch, more or less formidable; this again by a belt of high bamboos, which was succeeded by another ditch some ten or twelve feet deep; the row of bamboo slips above mentioned being planted on the immediate lip of the counterscarp of the latter.

4. The works were quite new, as indicated by the steps left by the workpeople, as well as their being partially unfinished; they were situated on the south-east corner of the village. A well, inclosed by the outer line of ditch (within a sort of demi-lune), lay on the east, and a pond, not included in the works, on the north. The only immediate entrance on the Gurree was on the pond side, the approach of it leading round the north-east bastion, and, curving round in a narrow thorny path, led out at the east of the well. Nothing could be more difficult of approach, every portion bristling with thorns, and intercepted by ditches and banks.

5. The mud ramparts of the fort were fifteen feet above the level of the ground; the upper portion, for about seven feet in height, consisting of a thin mud wall, was loop-holed in every direction; the lower part, as will be seen from the section in the sketch, being from ten to twelve feet thick, and furnishing a banquette for the defenders.

5. In plan the fort was some sixty feet square, with circular bastions at the angles, the banquette on all sides ten feet wide, having forty feet square for the enceinte, within which the defenders could retire when the fire became too hot, and where were two thatched sheds. No steps led to the banquette, a common bamboo ladder being the only means of communication between it and the ground floor; when once, therefore, the defenders were driven from the upper works, they were caught in a trap, from which it was impossible to extricate themselves.

7. It would be premature for me to express any very decided opinion as to the mode of attacking such forts from this single example, but two facts are apparent, first, that in cases where all openings are closed by bamboos and thorns, such must be got rid of by fire, or by being cut down; and second, the upper portion of the parapet which screens the defenders, must be destroyed by firing shot or shell against it with low charges. Hand grenades, two or three scaling ladders, with half a dozen shovels (fowrahs) and pickaxes, with perhaps a small number of sand bags, should in all cases, accompany the attacking party.

Madras Engineers, on Special Duty.

No. 10.

Lieutenant-Colonel Christie to Brigadier Carthew, Commanding Futtypore District.

SIR, Dhana, March 5, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to report that the moveable column under my command (consisting of detachments of corps as per margin,)* arrived at the village of Dhana at 8 o'clock this morning.

2. On my arrival I heard that the enemy was posted in force on the opposite bank of the Jumna, at the village of Serowlee, whence they had been firing on the village of Dhana since daylight.

3. On reconnoitring their position I found that the heights and ravines leading from the town were strongly lined with skirmishers, parties of whom were also posted in villages on their flanks. A number of boats lay in the river immediately under the town.

4. I advanced the guns under a strong escort, and extended two companies of the 80th Regiment, under Brevet-Major Miller, to skirmish to our right and centre, a company of the 17th Madras Native Infantry, skirmishing to our left; these were supported by two companies of the 17th Madras Native Infantry, under Brevet-Major Gill, of that regiment; my reserve, under Captain the Honourable J. H. Browne, 80th Regiment, I left close to the village of Dhana.

5. On reaching the river's bank the skirmishers opened fire, and the guns, under Captain and Honorary Lieutenant-Colonel Cadell, Madras Artillery, getting into position, shelled the town of Serowlee with considerable effect, setting fire to part of it.

6. The enemy opened with a heavy fire of gingalls and musketry, which, however, the long range of the rifles of the 80th Regiment soon checked, though they continued a dropping fire during the rest of the morning.

7. Not being able to procure boats to effect the passage of the river, I withdrew to my position at Dhana, at 10 A.M.

8. From information gathered, I reckon the enemy's force at about 1000 men, including a party of cavalry, which were distinctly seen riding off at speed. I am unable to form an estimate of their loss; but it must have been heavy; on our side I have to report the loss of

1 Sepoy, 17th Madras Native Infantry, killed.

1 Private, 80th Regiment, wounded.

2 Gunners, Madras Artillery, contused by spent balls.

In conclusion, I beg to report most favourably the conduct of the troops under my command.

NOTIFICATION BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

Allahabad, Foreign Department,
March 20, 1858.

No. 349.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General has been pleased to direct that the following letter from Brigadier-General G. H. Macgregor, C.B., with its several inclosures, reporting an engagement on the 5th instant, between the advanced division of Maharajah Jung Bahadoor's Army, under General Khurruk Bahadoor and the rebel Nazim Mehndee Hoossein at the Kandoo Nuddee, be published for general information.

His Lordship has pleasure in acknowledging the distinguished gallantry exhibited on this occasion by General Kurruk Bahadoor and the native officers and men of the Nepalese Force, and by Captain A. C. Plowden and the other British officers attached thereto, and in tendering his thanks to the various officers, both Nepalese and British, noticed in the report of Brigadier-General Macgregor, and also to the men composing the force, for their valuable services.

By order of the Right Honourable the Governor-General.

G. F. EDMONSTONE,
Secretary to the Government of India,
with the Governor-General.

No. 13.

Brigadier-General G. H. Macgregor, C.B., Military Commissioner, to the Secretary to Government with the Governor-General, Foreign Department, Allahabad.

Camp, before Lucknow, March 12, 1858.

SIR,

No. 114.

IN forwarding, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor-General, the report of Captain Plowden, the British officer in military charge of the advanced division of Maharajah Jung Bahadoor's army, under General Kurruk Bahadoor, of an action which took place on the 5th instant, at the Kandoo Nuddee, between the division and the rebel Nazim Mehndee Hoossein, resulting in the capture of the enemy's only gun, and the loss to him of nearly 600 killed, with casualties to the extent only of 1 killed and 16 wounded on our part, I have the honour to bring to the notice of his Lordship in Council the extreme gallantry and good conduct of the officers and men engaged.

2. I would particularly bring to the notice of his Lordship the coolness and good management of General Kurruck Bahadoor, who, in most difficult ground, so admirably disposed his troops as to secure the splendid result above-mentioned. To Brigadier Run Sing and Junga Doje my best thanks are due, and they will doubtless merit the approbation of Government.

3. Colonels Luckmun Goonung, Teela Bickram Sing Tappah, Beemul Alie Jusdeen Sing, Purtimur Koer Ranajee, Sri Krishen Sohoy, and Soorut Tappah, are favourably mentioned by Captain Plowden, as well as Major - Captains Runojal Sing Tappah, Soojun Singh, and Meerwan Singh, all of whom rendered active and excellent service.

4. Captain Plowden, who mentions the name of Lieutenant Aiteram Bishtah, for his distinguished gallantry, he having cut down 5 of the enemy.

5. My best thanks are due to Captain Plowden for the sound and judicious advice which he gave regarding the disposition of the troops, as well as to Captain Lane, in military charge of Brigadier Junga Doje's brigade, and to Lieutenants Francis, Gibb, Bogle, Sankey, and Foote, attached to the force, as also to Lieutenant Owen, late 19th Native Infantry, who volunteered his services.

6. The medical officers, namely Surgeons McClelland and Morton, and Assistant-Surgeons Playfair and Gee, are favourably mentioned by Captain Plowden, as well as Mr Forbes, Civil Service, and Serjeants Hone and King, of the Bengal Artillery.

I have, &c.,

G. H. MACGREGOR,
Brigadier-General and Military
Commissioner.

No. 14.

Captain A. C. Plowden, in Military Charge of a Division Goorkha Force, to Captain MacAndrew, Secretary to Military Commissioner.

SIR, Before Lucknow, March 11, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of Brigadier-General Macgregor, C.B., particulars of an action in which the advanced division of the Goorkha force under my military charge was engaged on the 5th instant, against a force of the enemy, amounting to 4,000 men, under the command of Nazim Mehndee Hoossein, which resulted in a loss to the rebels of nearly 600 killed, and the capture of 1 gun, whilst the casualties on our side were 1 killed and 16 wounded, 2 of the latter having since died.

2. Having received information that the rebels had taken up a strong position on the Kandoo Nuddee, and had erected a battery by the side of the bridge on the Lucknow road, for the purpose of disputing our passage; moreover, that they had advanced across the bridge, I proposed a plan of attack, which was approved of by General Kurruck Bahadoor, and successfully carried out.

3. The division, consisting of the strength as per margin,* advanced in quarter distance columns, at deploying distances, 5 regiments forming the first line, and 2 on either flanks, as a reserve.

4. On viewing the enemy, who was posted in detached parties extending from our left to right front, I halted the columns and deployed into line.

* 13 guns. 7 Regiments of Infantry; aggregate force, 3,800.

I was much deceived as to the nature of the ground between us and the enemy; what at first appeared to be level, with a few fields of cultivation in front of the right brigade, afterwards proved to be deep ravines, with bush jungle, though the ground in front of the left brigade was a plain, facing the enemy's battery. At this point our guns opened; after a few rounds from the right, or Brigadier Run Sing Bahadoor's Brigade, which caused the enemy in front to retire into the ravines, the advance was sounded. The right brigade had scarcely advanced fifty yards when the enemy opened a sharp fire of musketry from a jungle on our right front; presuming he was in greatest force in that direction, I requested Brigadier Run Sing Bahadoor to make an oblique movement in that direction, which at once brought him in contact with the rebels. The brigade rushed gallantly into the jungle with a loud cheer, formed a line of skirmishers, and forced the rebels to make a rapid retreat. The Goorkhas were quite at home in this mode of warfare; their pursuit was so rapid through the ravines that numbers of the rebels were very soon overtaken, shot, and cut down. Many instances of individual bravery on the part of the Goorkhas were brought to my notice; there were several who each cut down three or four of the enemy. The pursuit was followed up for two miles, when the enemy having disappeared through a thick jungle, the "assembly" was sounded, and we formed our camp on the Nuddee.

5. The part taken in the engagement by the left or Brigadier Junga Doje's Brigade, under the military charge of Captain Lane, is described by that officer, in a letter to my address, which, together with one from Lieutenant Gibb, in charge of the batteries of the division, are herewith annexed.

6. I have now the pleasure to record the meritorious services of the Nepalese officers. General Kurruck Bahadoor displayed great coolness and a generous confidence in my advice. Brigadier Run Sing Bahadoor, a smart and intelligent officer, led his brigade with great coolness and spirit, ably assisted by the following colonels of regiments:—Luckmun Goonung Kalee, Bahadoor Regiment; Teela Bickram Singh Tappah, Roodroo Doje Regiment; Beemul Alie, Nia Goonuck Regiment; and Captain-Major Runojal Singh Tappah, Commanding Nursing Dull Regiment; also Colonel Jusdeer Sing, and Major Soojun Sing, commanding batteries. Captain Lane brings to my notice the services of Brigadier Junga Doje, and the following colonels commanding regiments in his brigade, viz.:—Colonels Purtimur Koer Ranajee, Simath Regiment; Sri Krishen Sohoy, Junganath Regiment; and Soorut Tappah, Shumshere Dull Regiment; and Captain Meerwan Sing, Junganath Regiment, who, together with the non-commissioned officers and men of the division, merit the approbation of His Highness the Maharajah.

7. My best thanks are due to the British officers attached to the division, for the ready assistance I received from all in the field, and have great pleasure in submitting their names for favourable notice, viz.:—Captain Lane, in charge of Brigadier Junga Doje's Brigade; Lieutenants Francis, Gibb, in charge of the batteries of the division, Robertson, Bogle, who, though attached to the rear division, joined Lieutenant Gibb's batteries; Lieutenants Owen, late 19th Regiment Native Infantry, and Sankey, Madras Engineers; and Lieutenant Foote, attached to the advanced regiments of the right brigade; Surgeons McClelland, Morton, and Assistant-Surgeons Playfair and Gee, were unremitting in their attention to the wounded, both in the field and subsequently.

8. I cannot conclude without offering my best thanks to Mr Forbes of the Civil Service; he was well to the front with a small party of sowars; his intimate knowledge of the country we have passed through, and accurate information he gathered, has been of great service.

9. Brigadier Run Sing Bahadoor has brought to my notice the gallant conduct of Lieutenant Aiteram Bishtah, of the Roodroo Doje Regiment, who cut down five of the enemy.

10. Lieutenant Gibb mentions for favourable notice the names of Serjeants Hone and King, Bengal Artillery.

Captain Lane to Captain Plowden, in Military Charge, 2d Division, Goorkha Force.

Camp, Hydengurh, March, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to furnish the following report of the part taken by the brigade under the command of Brigadier Junga Doje, to which I am attached in Military Charge, during the action with the enemy on the morning of the 5th instant.

After passing Mussafir Khand, about one mile and a half, on emerging from some mangoe groves upon an open plain, we perceived the enemy in our front occupying the banks of the Kandoo Nullah. The brigade was formed into line, and the guns advancing opened fire on the enemy, which was replied to by one gun in position on the opposite side of the Nullah, and a smart fire of matchlock men posted amongst the ravines on this side. The gun was soon silenced by the excellent practice of our guns, under the immediate superintendence of Lieutenant Gibb. The order for the general advance of the brigade was then given, one regiment being told off to remain in support of the guns; the brigade taking ground to the left, slightly turned the enemy's flank, and advancing rapidly across some open ground under a heavy fire, at once became engaged with the enemy among the ravines; from these they were soon driven with considerable loss across the Nullah into the heavy jungle on the opposite bank, and closely pursued by our men, were shot and cut down in large numbers.

General Kurruck Bahadoor seeing the enemy in full flight, keeping two companies for the protection of the guns, granted permission to the remainder of the regiment in reserve to join in the pursuit.

The pursuit was continued for some distance, when the men becoming much scattered from the denseness of the jungle, I deemed it expedient to advise the recall being sounded.

The troops, returning to the bridge on the Lucknow road, took possession of the gun.

I beg to record the services of Brigadier Junga Doje, of Colonel Partimur Koer Ranajee, Commanding the Sirmath Regiment, of Colonel Sri Krishen Sohay, of the Junganath Regiment, of Colonel Soorut Tappah, of the Shumshere Dull Regiment. I am desirous that their conduct, as well as that of all the officers and men under them, should be brought to the favourable notice of His Highness the Maharajah.

I especially wish to mention the zeal with which Captain Meerwan Sing of the Junganath Regiment led his men to the attack.

Lieutenants Francis and Gibb, each in their own department afforded me every assistance, as did also Lieutenant Sankey, of the Madras Engineers.

My acknowledgments are also due to Lieutenant Owen, of the late 19th N.I., who kindly volunteered his services, and rendered me valuable assistance.

Lieutenant Bogle, of the Bengal Artillery, who arrived from the Head-Quarter's Camp during the engagement, did good service.

Doctors Merton and Playfair were in constant attendance on the brigade, and all their arrangements met with my entire approbation.

Before concluding, I wish to bring to the favourable notice of the Brigadier-General, the good conduct of Serjeants Hone and King, attached to the guns of the brigade, especially that of the former, through whose excellent practice the enemy's gun was so speedily silenced.

I am happy to report that notwithstanding the heaviness of the enemy's fire, not a single casualty occurred in the brigade.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of Brigadier-General Macgregor, C.B., the proceeding of the Nepalese Light Field Batteries (strength as per margin)* engaged in the action of yesterday, at the Kandoo Nuddee.

The batteries formed up in line in the centre, at 1000 yards, and came into action at a range of about 800 yards from the enemy's position. After a few rounds of round shot and shrapnell, the enemy's only gun was silenced, after which the infantry advanced rapidly.

Previously to the infantry advancing, 4 guns, under Colonel Jusdeer Sing, moved off to the right flank; owing to a deep dry nullah, a little in front of the centre guns, they could not be advanced further.

I hope you will bring to the notice of the Brigadier-General the efficient services of Colonel Jusdeer Sing, and Major Loogun Sing, commanding batteries, and of all the officers and men under their respective commands, also the ready assistance given to the Nepalese Artillery by Lieutenant A. Bogle, Bengal Artillery, and by Serjeants Hone and King, of the Bengal Artillery, who laid their guns very effectively, the former in particular, who, in two shots, silenced the enemy's gun.

SIR,

No. 2376.

IN continuation of my previous communications,
No. 2133 and 2288, dated respectively the 9th and 13th instant, I am directed by the Commander-in-Chief to transmit, for submission to the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, the inclosed letter, (without date) from Major-General Sir Hugh Rose, K.C.B., Commanding
Central India Field Force, detailing his proceedings subsequent to the capture of the Fort of Rathghur and action with the insurgents near the town of Barodia.

2. The operations of Sir Hugh Rose in the field, while they have the cordial approval of the Commander-in-Chief, will doubtless be most satisfactory to his Lordship in Council, as the success which has attended them must have the most beneficial effect in tranquillizing a district which has been so long in the hands of the rebels.

3. The Lieutenant-General Commanding-in-Chief has desired me to submit, in the margin of this letter,* the names of the officers prominently brought to notice by Sir Hugh Rose, and to beg that the Right Honourable the Governor in Council will be pleased to bring their conduct promi-nently to the notice of the Honourable Court of Directors.

4. The Major-General will be directed to constitute a Court of Inquiry, under the provisions of Article 273, section 39, of Jameson's Code, with the view of ascertaining if the native officers and men alluded to in the 13th and 14th paragraphs of his despatch are entitled to admittance to the distinction of the Order of Merit.

No. 2.

Major-General Sir Hugh Rose, K.C.B., Commanding Central India Field Force, to Colonel Green, Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to state to you, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that after the capture of Rathghur, the rebels, who had retired from Chanderapoor to Barodia, as mentioned in my report of the 7th February 1858, concentrated in the latter place, having been reinforced by such of the garrison of Rathghur as had escaped, and by rebels from Korage and other places in Bundelcund.

2. Barodia, on the left bank of the river Beena, is a strong village, with a gurrie or small fort, with dense jungle on each side, about twelve miles from Rathghur, on the road to Korage, a strong fort twenty-nine miles to the north of Sangor.

3. The object of the rebels in concentrating at Barodia was to prevent or endanger any advance to Sangor, by retaking Rathghur; or, by placing themselves in my rear on the road from Bhopal to Sangor, to cut off, as they had already attempted to do, the supplies coming to me from the friendly States of Scindia and Bhopal. It was consequently necessary to attack the enemy and drive them out of Barodia.

4. Taking with me the force stated in the margin,* I marched at mid-day on the 31st ultimo, from Rathghur, leaving Brigadier Stuart, with the remainder of my force, to protect Rathghur and the camp.

5. I removed in the order of march which I always adopt when near the rebels, as a precaution against their system of surprises, that is, a line of flankers of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons on each side of the road, fifty yards in front of the leading file of the advanced guard, which, with a file of Irregulars, has charge of the guide; another line of Irregular Cavalry, 150 yards in echelon, in front of the outward flanks of the 14th; and, should thick jungle border the road, a company of Infantry, in extended order on each side of it, to support the flankers of the 14th and the advanced guard. By this means all dangerous ground is searched, surprises are almost impossible, and spies, lying concealed at a great distance from the road, are frequently seized.

6. As we approached Barodia and the river Beena, we had very thick jungle, long grass, and nullahs on our left. The flankers of the Irregular, suddenly halting, reported that they perceived the enemy in force in ambuscade on our left. Being with the advanced guard, which was under Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull, I ordered the two guns of his troops to open their fire to the left on the enemy; before they could do so, the enemy opened a musketry fire on us, killing Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull's horse, and keeping it up with tenacity, although I reinforced the division of Horse Artillery with four of Captain Lightfoot's 9-pounders, firing grape and round-shot; it was too close for shrapnell.

7. Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull, with the Horse Artillery, took ground to the right, with the view to enfilade the enemy; but he could not get a slant at them. However, this movement enabled him to obtain good views of a body of rebel horsemen, with a red standard, endeavouring to gain a wood to our right and outflank us; I

* 4 guns Horse Artillery; 4 guns Captain Lightfoot's battery; two 5½-inch mortars, with 15 men of Captain Woolcombe's battery, under the command of Lieutenant Strutt; 3 troops 14th Light Dragoons; 2 troops 3d Bombay Light Cavalry; 25 men Madras Sappers and Miners; 3d European Regiment; Detachment Hyderabad Contingent Field Force, under Captain Hare.

had directed a charge of cavalry against them ; but it could not be executed in consequence of the staff officer being unable to find a passage down the high banks of the Beena ; two rounds of spherical case burst amongst this batch ; they disappeared.

8. I had placed the 3d Europeans in skirmishing order, in front of the flanks of their guns ; their united fire diminished, but did not silence the fire of the rebels.

9. I therefore charged the rebels out of their advanced position with the skirmishers of the 3d Europeans, who, under Lieutenant-Colonel Liddell, gallantly drove them out of their own treacherous element, thick jungle and twisting nullahs, and took possession of the bank of the river commanding the ford to Barodia, which now first became visible ; the rebels had displayed so much obstinacy in defending this position in order to prevent our advance across the Beena to Barodia.

Lieutenant-Colonel Liddell, Captain Neville, Royal Engineers, Captain Campbell, 3d Europeans, Captain Rose, my Aide-de-Camp, and Lieutenant Macdonald,* Assistant Quarter-Master-General, were conspicuously in this advance.

I turned the advantage gained by the 3d Europeans immediately to account, and sent the Hyderabad Irregular Cavalry, supported by the 3d Bombay Light Cavalry under Captain Forbes, to cross the ford, covered by the skirmishers, to pass through the jungle to the front, and fall on the enemy in the open, which I had learnt was between the jungle and Barodia ; I followed with four guns of the Horse Artillery and a troop of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons in support, under Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull, ordering the rest of my force to follow, with the exception of Captain Hare's Infantry and guns, which remained at the ford to prevent the rear being cut off.

Captain Forbes found the enemy's flanks, particularly their left, posted in thick jungle, their centre in comparatively open ground ; he charged and broke their centre, cutting up 30 or 40 of them. The third, and a very strong position, the village of Barodia, now came into sight ; Captain Forbes having observed a body of cavalry retreated leisurely on it, attempted to cut them off, but their flight, on seeing his intention, became so rapid, that he only succeeded in killing 8 or 10 of them before they got well under the protection of their guns in position at the village, and of their matchlockmen posted in the dense jungle, which surrounded three sides of it, and among the banks of a wet nullah running along their front.

Captain Forbes mentions, for their conduct on this occasion, and I beg to recommend to his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, Subadar Soojut Khan, for having killed himself three of the rebels, all of his own caste ; Naik Himut Sing, very severely wounded ; Naik Bahader Khan, and Trooper Vass, also severely wounded, who attracted the notice of their officers by engaging, singly, two or three of the enemy at the same time.

On the day before, when the camp was attacked, the same faithful Subadar hindered the advance of the enemy by the able disposition of his picket.

If his Excellency were pleased to obtain a reward for these brave soldiers, it would have a good effect on their regiment, whose fidelity and courage have never failed.

Jemadar Ihmut Hoosain Khan, 3d Hyderabad Cavalry, was mortally wounded in courageously attacking, singly, a knot of the enemy.

* Lieutenant Macdonald was slightly wounded, and his horse twice wounded.

Captain Forbes conducted the charge with the same gallantry and intelligence which distinguished him at Kooshab.

Although the ford was a bad one, Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull took his guns across it rapidly in support of the cavalry, and when, by the strength of the enemy's position, they were compelled to give up the pursuit, unlimbered in front of the village and the enemy's guns, and opened an effective fire on their position ; Captain Lightfoot, with the 9-pounder battery, arrived shortly afterwards.

The enemy answered with guns and rockets, killing at my side, to my great regret, Captain Neville, of the Royal Engineers, acting as my Aide-de-Camp. Knowing what excellent service he had done as an Engineer officer, before Sebastopol, I had brought him up by forced marches to assist in the reduction of the forts in this country ; during the action he was most useful to me, exhibiting to the last the courage and intelligence which had obtained for him so honourable a reputation.

Driven from their position by the fire of our guns, the enemy retreated across a wall and open space into the village and jungle. I directed Captain Lightfoot to correspond to this movement ; he took ground to the left with his guns, and gave them, before they reached cover, an enfilading and destructive fire ; the 5½-inch mortars threw shell into the small fort of the village and jungle to which the enemy had retired.

It was now getting dark ; taking two companies of the 3d Europeans which had just come up, I crossed the wet nullah, and bringing their right shoulders forward occupied the wall round the village and surrounded it with the skirmishers and a troop of the 3d Light Cavalry. Lieutenant-Colonel Liddell afterwards occupied it and the little fort. But the enemy, except a few Valaitee skirmishers who were killed, had fled to Koray through the jungle, leaving baggage unpacked, and other signs of a precipitate retreat.

It was not at all sure that my camp, with the siege artillery and numerous stores, left with a small force at Rathghur, under Brigadier Stewart, might not be attacked during my absence, as it had been before. I therefore halted in the village only for a short time, in order to rest the troops, who had been on duty for the last five days, and marched back the same night to Rathghur ; they were marching or engaged fifteen hours.

The enemy's loss was severe, they themselves state it to be from four to five hundred, which is not surprising, as they were exposed to a well-directed fire for a length of time. Amunt Sing, their ablest military leader, and a nephew of Fazil Mahomed Khan, were killed, and the Rajah of Banpore was wounded.

The Valaitees and Puthans fought with their accustomed courage, several of them, even when dying, springing from the ground and inflicting mortal wounds with their broadswords.

The good results of the defeat of the rebels at Barodia exceeded my expectations ; not only were my communications with these and with Saugor completely opened, but the rebels flying from Barodia to Koray, left in their panic that place, although it is a fort in a strong position, and Krulassa, which is between thirty and forty miles to the north-west of Saugor. Nureeawallee, their fortified camp, was also abandoned. All these places, and the country about them, had been in their hands for the last eight months. The rebels also left at Koray their guns which they had had at Barodia.

The troops behaved at Barodia with discipline and courage, keeping, in very bad ground, their formation, and obeying with eager alacrity any orders which brought them closer to the enemy. The 3d Europeans, although very young, and now for the first time in the field, have qualified themselves for a career of honour, and Lieutenant-Colonel Liddell is sure to lead the way.

I am much obliged to Captain Wood, my Assistant-Adjutant-General, and my Staff, for the assistance which they gave me on this occasion, as well as at Rathghur; and I ought to add that the officers of my Divisional Staff, whose duties are non-combatant, still in their zeal accompany me to the field. Captain Campbell, Baggage Master, who was hit, was very useful and intelligent in conveying my orders, and Lieutenant Lyster, my interpreter, of the 72d Regiment Bengal Native Infantry, was wounded when engaging the nephew of Mahomed Fazil Khan, whom he killed.

I have the honour to enclose a list of the casualties at Barodia, as also a list of Sappers and Miners whom Major Boileau, Commanding Engineer, wishes to be mentioned for having inspected the ditch and the breach of the fort of Rathghur.

I have, &c.,

HUGH ROSE, Major-General, Commanding Central India Field Force.

The Deputy-Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary to Government, Secret Department, Bombay.

Adjutant-General's Office, Head-Quarters, Sir, Bombay, March 29, 1858.

IN continuation of previous reports of the operations of the Central India Field Force, I am directed by the Commander-in-Chief to transmit for submission to the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, the accompanying despatch from Sir Hugh Rose, K.C.B., dated Camp, Koomeiri, the 9th instant.

Major, Deputy Adjutant-General.

No. 6.

Major-General Sir Hugh Rose, K.C.B., Commanding Central India Field Force, to Colonel Green, Adjutant-General of the Army, Bombay.

Sir, Camp, Koomeiri, March 9, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to state to you, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, as follows :

The rebels of the Bundelcund, Shaghur, Saugor, and Nerbudda districts, having obtained ascendancy in these districts, had, before my force arrived at Rathghur, invested Saugor from all sides, except one, having occupied the fort of Rathghur to its west, the fortified camp of Nowreowlee, and the fort of Koray to its north-east, the forts of Sanoda and Garakota to its east.

The fort of Rehle, to the south-east, was gallantly held by Lieutenant Dickens, commanding a detachment of the 31st Bengal Native Infantry. The only road from Saugor which was open was the one leading to Nursingpore ; and this road was frequented by rebels, and only travelled by escorts.

The advance of the 2d Brigade Central India Field Force to Saugor, and its previous operations, had relieved Saugor from anything like investment, and opened its communications with the west and the north, so that I was enabled to communicate from Saugor, through Koray, with Major Orr, commanding the advanced guard of my 1st brigade at Goonah, on the Mhow and Agra grand trunk road, and single officers and stores had arrived, unmolested, at Saugor from Mhow, and Bombay by the Lahore and Bhopal road, both of which lines of communications I had opened with my two brigades, in obedience to my instructions.

It now remained for my second brigade to open communications from Saugor towards the east, and to cut through the line which the rebels had drawn from Duttiah and Jhansi to the Nerbudda ; as the best means of doing so I determined to attack the fort of Garakota.

Sir Robert Hamilton, Major Western, Deputy Commissioner of the Saugor district, and myself, were of opinion that it would be dangerous for Saugor to leave in the hands of the rebels so important a stronghold on its right flank, more especially as it was garrisoned by sepoys of the 52d and other regiments, and the consequences and the moral effect would have been bad if I had advanced against the rebels to the north with Garakota unsubdued in my rear.

Having the day before my arrival at Saugor detached sappers and miners under Lieutenant Prendergast, to destroy as much as was possible, the works of Nowreowlee, twelve miles from Saugor, I sent Captain Hare, with his detachments of all arms of the Hyderabad Contingent, to take the little fort of Sanoda, where the rebels had stores of supplies, and directed him at the same time to render the ford of the River Beas practicable for the siege-artillery for the operations against Garakota.

On hearing of Captain Hare's approach, the rebels fled from Sanoda, which they had been repairing. He found there large supplies of grain ; he destroyed the front face, and restored a good deal of plunder to the villagers, who complained bitterly that the rebels had robbed them of everything, and inflicted the greatest cruelties on them, to force them to give up their property ; their nakedness, and the barbarous mutilations of the persons of several of them, attested the truth of what they said. However, Captain Hare is of opinion that such is the anarchy caused by rebellion in this part of the country, that many of the plundered villagers, reduced to ruin, have become plunderers and rebels.

Knowing the good effect which rapid operations have on the enemy, and the value of the cool weather for the extensive operations which I had before me, I made the three marches from Saugor to Garakota in two days and encamped on the 10th February, near the village of Bussaree, which is close to Garakota ; a detachment of the 3d Bombay Light Cavalry, well conducted by Lieutenant Dick, having cut up a picket of rebels which I had information was posted at a village two miles from Garakota.

Garakota is strong in every way ; it is situated between two rivers, the Giddaree and the Sonar, which may be said to act as ditches to it. It is surrounded, except to the east, by forest, jungle, and the towns of Garakota and Heideenuggur ; its defences are so strong that in 1818 a British force of 11,000 men, with 28 siege-guns, was unable to make a breach in them, and the besiegers running short of ammunition, the garrison was allowed to evacuate the fort with the honours of war.

The evening of my arrival before Garakota, I drove in, with some guns of the Horse Artillery and Captain Lightfoot's battery, and skirmishers of the 3d Europeans, the enemy, who wished to prevent our occupation of the village of Bussaree the 3d Europeans, covered by artillery, storming some houses still more in advance, and taking a ridge close to the walls. During the night and the next morning, the sepoys in numbers attempted to retake the position, but were immediately repulsed by Colonel Liddell, commanding the advanced posts and two 9-pounders under Captain Lightfoot, with which I had reinforced him.

The next morning, Colonel Liddell having reported to me that it would be desirable to take a hamlet, which had good views of, and was near the north face of the fort, I directed Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull to shell it, and Colonel Liddell to pass through some jungle and occupy the hamlet ; this was well done, the 3d Europeans occupying a temple and ground considerably in advance of the hamlet. The mutineers came in numbers out of the fort and an entrenched camp to the south, to oppose the advance of the 3d their buglers repeating the English skirmishing calls, but with the difference that the 3d went rapidly forward as the mutineers did to the rear when the advance was sounded.

Lieutenant Dickens had written to me from Rehle that when I attacked Garakota he would advance from Rehle and take possession of the Panneh Ghât, a ford to the south of the fort, from whence he could prevent the rebels escaping by the Dummoh Road to Shaghur, which would be their most probable line of escape. In order to communicate with this officer, and connect my cordon of investment with him, I made, with Brigadier Steuart and a small force of all arms, a complete reconnoissance of the whole country round Garakota. My guide assured me that Lieutenant Dickens could not hold the Panneh Ghât, because it was close to the defences of the fort, and formed part of Garakota and Hiedeenuggur, which the enemy held. This made me the more anxious to reach Lieutenant Dickens, and assist him, I therefore pushed on the reconnoissance through Hiedeenuggur, to the Panneh Ghât, when Lieutenant Dickens had not arrived; the enemy had marked the ranges, and fired pretty accurately at the reconnoissance, but with no casualties. Skirmishers endeavoured to oppose my passage across the ford, but with the 3d Europeans and Irregular Cavalry I drove them back, took their entrenchments on the opposite bank, and crossing the second river, returned to camp after thirteen hours marching; the reconnoissance seized a noted rebel, the Lumba-dar of the village of Majcowa.

On my return I found a letter from Lieutenant Dickens, stating that he had received subsequent information that the Panneh Ghât could not be held, and had therefore not gone to it.

As the reconnoissance made the circuit of the fort, I left troops of all arms in position, investing the north-east, east, and south-east of the fort; the troops in camp guarded the north and north-west; having reckoned on the Rehle detachment for the southern investment, that part remained blank. On my return to camp I gave orders to Captain Hare to occupy, with his detachment of all arms, the Panneh Ghât, which was at some distance; before he could arrive there the enemy had fled from the fort by the Panneh Ghât and other outlets not watched in that direction.

However, I ought to add, that even if the Panneh Ghât had been occupied, it would have been quite impossible to have invested completely Garakota with a force of my numbers, which, strictly speaking, was only sufficiently strong to guard its camp, field and siege artillery. My force was more than usually weak, as, in order to protect Saugor in my absence, I had left there a troop of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, and two companies of the 24th Regiment; I had also sent the 31st and 42d Bengal Native Infantry to Koray to guard Saugor from the possibility of an attack from the north.

Every one on going round the fort was surprised how the rebels could have abandoned so rapidly a place of such strength, the thickness of the ramparts varying from fifteen to twenty-four feet.

Every thing gave evidence of a sudden panic; the rebels had only half kneaded their cakes, and they left their guns in the entrenched camp without attempting to carry them off; their rapid abandonment of the fort was the more remarkable, because the immense supplies, the native mint found in the fort, and other circumstances, induced the belief that the rebels intended to make Garakota the seat of their central government; the only money now current in Garakota are the 12 anna rupees coined in this mint.

During the reconnoissance Lieutenant-Colonel Turnbull fired with the 8-inch howitzer at a gun in the north face of the fort which was annoying the troops in the advanced posts, the first shot of the howitzer blew in the embrasure, dismounted the gun, and blew off the head of the sepoy in a red jacket, with an English medal and two clasps, who served it. I have no doubt that this good shot, one of the many good shots made under fire by Lieutenant Strutt, whom I beg to recommend to your Excellency as a promising artillery officer, made the sepoys reflect that many such casualties might thin their numbers during the siege, but I think that the fall of Rathghur and preparations for an investment also intimidated them.

I have observed that nothing alarms the rebels more than a move to cut off their retreat.

I have the honour to inclose a list of artillery taken in the fort, and of casualties, which I am happy to say are light.

I sent off immediately Captain Hare with half a troop of Horse Artillery, a troop of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, under Captain Need, and a troop of the Hyderabad Contingent, in pursuit of the rebels, by a route which, from information I had received, I thought would enable him to cut into their line of retreat; they had, as I supposed, made a round to the south, and then turned northwards towards Shaghur.

Captain Hare came up with the rear of the rebels as they had just crossed the river Beas, at the village of Bear. The river was not practicable for guns, Captain Hare therefore sent the troop of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, under Captain Need, and the Hyderabad Cavalry across the river after the enemy; they cut up 70 or 100 of them, of whom the greater part were mutineers of the 52d and other native regiments, they had all abundance of ammunition and copper caps. Captain Hare speaks highly of the conduct on this occasion of Captain Need and his troop; Captain Hare describes him as a good and dashing officer; he killed with his own hands five of the rebels, of whom three were sepoys, and pursued with his gallant troop the rebels till dark. I beg to recommend Captain Need to your Excellency, as well as Captain Hare, for his intelligence and activity in pursuing and coming up with the enemy.
