TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage."

And whereas another Act was passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the post-office."

And whereas another Act was passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas by the said last-mentioned Act power was given to Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to make and issue such orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions as he should deem to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of regulating the receipt, transmission, and delivery by post of periodical publications under the provisions of that Act.

And whereas George Douglas, Duke of Argyll, Her Majesty's then Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, did, by virtue of the said last-mentioned Act, make and issue certain orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions, bearing date the 24th day of December 1855, which he deemed to be necessary and expedient for the purpose of regulating the receipt, transmission, and delivery by post of printed newspapers and certain periodical publications under the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act.

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for regulating the transmission by the post of the newspapers hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury (in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the several hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or any or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in that behalf), do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows:—

1. On every printed foreign newspaper posted in a British colony addressed to a foreign country, or posted in a foreign country addressed to a British colony, transmitted by the post between any such colony and any such foreign country, through the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken, in all cases where no specific rate of postage has hitherto been fixed on a foreign newspaper so transmitted, or where no regulation by Treasury Warrant has hitherto been made, authorising a foreign newspaper so transmitted to be sent free of postage, a rate of British postage of twopence.

2. Every such foreign newspaper shall be so transmitted by the post in conformity with, and under and subject to the several orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions made by Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and bearing date the 24th day of December 1855, hereinbefore mentioned, so far as the same are applicable thereto.

3. Her Majesty's Postmaster-General may charge all or any such foreign newspapers which shall be sent by the post, otherwise than in conformity with the terms, conditions, and regulations mentioned or referred to in this present Warrant, with such rates or rate of postage respectively, not exceeding in amount such rates or rate respectively, as would be chargeable upon the same as letters, or a letter, as to him shall seem fit.

4. Every printed supplement, or additional sheet to any foreign newspaper, shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a separate newspaper, chargeable with a distinct rate of postage, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

5. On any foreign newspaper transmitted by the post, under the regulations of this Warrant, any foreign or colonial transit rate payable on any such newspaper shall be charged and paid thereon in addition to the British postage.

6. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty hereinbefore recited.

7. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the orders and directions of the said Commissioners hereby made, and make and establish any new or other rates, orders, and directions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

8. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of June 1858.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the tenth day of May 1858.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 27a, to cancel No. 27 of 13th April 1858.)

AUSTRALIA—BASS STRAIT.

Flashing Light on Cape Schanck.

INFORMATION has been received at the Admiralty that a lighthouse is in course of erection on Cape Schanck, the southern extremity of the peninsula separating Port Philip from Port Western, south coast of Australia.

The light will be a fixed white light, varied by short eclipses, placed at an elevation of 328 feet above the sea, and should be visible in clear weather at a distance of 23 miles.

The light will probably be exhibited early in the year 1859, of which due notice will be given.

Fixed Light on Wilson Promontory.

Also, that a light will be established on Wilson Promontory, the southernmost point of the Australian continent, Bass Strait.

This light will be fixed, white, placed at 324 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible from a distance of about 20 miles in clear weather. It will probably be exhibited early in the year 1859, of which due notice will be given.

Rock off Curtis Island.

The English vessel Clarendon, on the 2d of December 1857, whilst in a heavy sea off the eastern side of Curtis Island, Bass Strait, at half-tide struck on a sunken rock, from which the highest part of Curtis Island bore W. by S., and the Inner Sugar Loaf Rock S.W. by S., distant 3 miles. No soundings were taken, but it is said that the rock was seen and supposed to be about 15 yards in circumference, with 10 feet water over it.

Cape Frankland Rock, Flinders Island.

Captain Denham, of Her Majesty's surveying vessel Herald, has reported that the rock hitherto placed in the Admiralty charts at 2 miles to the westward of Cape Frankland, on the north-west side of Flinders Island, at the eastern entrance of Bass Strait, is found to be upwards of 4 miles in the same direction from the cape.

The rock, which is awash at half-tide, and shows 5 feet above low water, lies in lat. 39° 52' 2" S.; long. 147° 41' 11" East of Greenwich, with Cape Frankland E. by N. easterly, $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles, and the hill (513 feet) on the north part of Hummock Island S.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ S., nearly 11 miles. It is about 10 yards in diameter, steep to on the seaward side, but having a projection to the eastward for nearly one-third of a mile, with 5 and 6 fathoms over it, from the extremity of which the weed rises to within 2 fathoms of the surface.

Sister Islands apparently open a sail's breadth of Flinders Island, bearing N.E., lead outside the rock; and Chappell Island Mount, its breadth open of Hummock Island, S.E. by S., leads through the fairway between the rock and Cape Frankland.

(All bearings magnetic. Variation 10° East in 1858.)

(No. 35. ENGLAND—SOUTH COAST.)

Lighthouse on the Needles Rocks.

THE Corporation of the Trinity House of London has given notice that on or about the 1st of January 1859 a light will be exhibited from the lighthouse in course of erection on the outer of the Needles Rocks, at the western extremity of the Isle of Wight, when the light at present shewn from the tower on the cliff will be discontinued.

The light will be fixed, and appear as a red light from S.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ S., round westward to N.E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., excepting between W. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., and N.W. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., in which direction it will shew white. It will be placed at an elevation of 80 feet above the level of the sea at high water.

The mariner is to observe that the southern limit of the white light leads 2 miles to the southward of Durlston Head, in the depth of 14 fathoms, and the direction of its northern limit clears the Dolphin Bank and S.W. tail of the Shingles in 4 and 5 fathoms respectively.
