

No. 11.

The Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary to the Government of India.

Military Department.

Adjutant-General's Office, Calcutta,
February 8, 1858.

SIR, No. 330.

IN continuation of my letter, No. 191, of the 23d ultimo, I have the honour to forward returns of Europeans killed and wounded during the rebellion, as per annexed list, for submission to the Honourable the President in Council, and for eventual transmission to the Honourable the Court of Directors.

I have, &c.,
W. MAYHEW, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Adjutant-General of the Army.

LIST.

Return of an officer killed of the 21st Regiment of Native Infantry, dated January 19, 1858.

Return of an officer wounded in the district of Loodianah, dated January 18, 1858.

Return of Europeans killed and wounded at Ferozepore, dated January 26, 1858.

Return of Europeans killed and wounded at Murree, dated January 1, 1858.

Return of Europeans killed and wounded at Peshawur, dated January 26, 1858.

Return of Europeans killed in the Rajpootana States, dated January 20, 1858.

Return of Europeans killed and wounded of the 61st Regiment of Native Infantry, January 26, 1858.

Return of Europeans killed and wounded in the vicinity of Almoral, dated January 26, 1858

W. MAYHEW, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Adjutant-General of the Army.

No. 12.

RETURN of a European Killed by Rebels during the present Rebellion, agreeably to Deputy Adjutant-General's Circular, No. 1069, dated Adjutant-General's Office, November 17, 1857.

Sheebkudur, January 19, 1858.

Name.	Designation.	Place.	Date.	Circumstances under which the Murder or Wound took place.
Francis Walker Brodie	Lieutenant, 21st Regiment N.I., Commandant of Cavalry, Malwa Contingent	Not clearly stated, but the murder is believed to have taken place while the Cavalry were on the line of march	The Regiment having moved from Peshawur, the newspaper in which the circumstance was mentioned, has been either lost or mislaid, but the date was early in June last	Authentic intelligence has never been received of the death of this officer, but the newspapers some months ago related that he and Lieutenant Hunt had been murdered by the cavalry portion of the Malwa Contingent; the report has been over and over again reiterated, and as neither I nor any officer of the regiment have, since the outbreak, received any communication from Lieutenant Brodie, we have but too much reason to fear that the statement put forth in the newspapers is true.

H. MILNE, Major, Commanding 21st Regiment N.I.

No. 13.

LIST of European Wounded by Rebels at the District of Loodianah, from the commencement of the Disturbances to the present date.
