INDIA BOARD, July 28, 1858.

THE following Papers have been received at the East India House :—

No. 1.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

Allahabad, May 10, 1858.

No. 130 of 1858.—The Right Honourable the Governor-General of India is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from Brigadier F. Rowcroft, commanding Sarun Field Force, No. 260, dated 1st May 1858, forwarding a Report from Major Cox, commanding left wing, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, of an action with the rebels at Nuggur, on the 29th ultimo :—

No. 2.

Brigadier F. Rowcroft, Commanding Sarun Field Force, to Colonel Birch, C.B., Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, with the Governor-General, Allahabad.

Camp, Captaingunge, Goruckpore District,
May 1. 1858.

General, the accompanying report, dated 29th April, from Major Cox, commanding left wing Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, reporting to me the complete success of the detachment I sent out under his command, on the 29th ultimo, to dislodge and disperse about 1000 sepoys and other rebels who had assembled at Nuggur, six or seven miles south-east from camp, but without guns, and about the same distance from Bus-tee. It was necessary this should be done without delay, as, from the reports received by the Commissioner, Mr Wingfield, there was great probability of the rebels at Nuggur being joined by a considerable force, with guns, from Tanda. We learnt yesterday morning that this was intended, and that the rebels from Tanda were to have joined those at Nuggur on the night of the 29th April. A karinda or agent of the Nuggur Rajah, was at the head of the body of rebels at Nuggur.

2. The two silk colours captured by the Seikhs are partly native, but the pike heads and tassels appear to be regimental. One native colour was taken by the men of the Naval Brigade, and another by Deputy-Magistrate Shekh Kairoodeen, who shot the rebel with his pistol who was carrying it away. A quantity of powder and ammunition, and a number of ponies and other property were captured. About 100 of the enemy were killed and wounded. I am very glad to say we have only three men wounded.

3. The expedition has been very ably and most successfully carried out by Major Cox, commanding the detachment, and the officers and men of all arms behaved admirably, and with great zeal and gallantry.

4. The Commissioner, Mr Wingfield, accompanied the detachment, and afforded Major Cox valuable assistance.

5. I beg to recommend all engaged to the most favourable notice of the Right Honourable the Governor-General, Viscount Canning.

I have, &c.,

F. ROWCROFT, Brigadier,
Commanding Sarun Field Force.

No. 3.

Major J. W. Cox, 13th Light Infantry, to Brigadier Rowcroft, Commanding Field Force.

Camp, Captaingunge, April 30, 1858.

SIR,

AUTHENTIC information having yesterday morning been received that a body of the rebels, about 1000 strong (half of them being Europeans) were posted at and about the town of Nuggur, seven miles from our camp; I have report that, in compliance with your orders, I started to dislodge them at 1 P.M., with a force as per margin.*

The intelligence procured from villagers on the road, corroborated our information both as to the numbers and position of the enemy; and, on approaching, we found them in occupation of the town, and partially ruined fort of Nuggur, which is situated at the extremity of a dense bamboo jungle, about two miles in length, the jungle being bordered by a large lake with swampy ground about it; on the further extremity of the town there are thick groves of trees, which, as well as the bamboo jungle, were occupied by the enemy.

By making a slight detour we kept the jungle about half a mile on our right as we advanced, covered by a flanking party of the 13th, and the Seikhs, who skirmished with the enemy, and kept them back until the column came opposite the town and fort.

I then halted, and wheeled into line to the right, while I directed the two guns and rocket to take up a position on a slight rise of ground, 500 yards from the town, and sent the cavalry round beyond the groves, to intercept any force which might escape in that direction.

The guns and rocket under Lieutenant Grant, Royal Navy, then opened with precision and effect, and, after about 40 shells and rockets had been thrown, the enemy's fire began to slacken; I then sent orders for the guns to cease firing, directed Captain Kerr's Company of the 13th and the Seikhs to clear the groves beyond the town, wheel to their right, and enter from that side, while the remainder of the Naval Column, gallantly led by Lieutenant Pym, Royal Marines, Light Infantry, and the Goorkhas by Captain Barclay, having arrived within 100 yards, we made a simultaneous advance on the town and fort, which was completely successful; the enemy were driven through both town and fort, some of them being killed in houses which they ineffectually attempted to defend, and were pursued for a considerable distance into the swamps and jungle, leaving 40 or 50 dead on the field.

As soon as we had got possession of the town, I sent orders for the cavalry to pass round to the rear, and endeavour to intercept the enemy in their retreat; this was promptly done by Captain Jenkins, but the extremely unfavourable nature of the ground prevented him from cutting off many of the fugitives.

Four standards were captured during the day, two of them being handsome silk colours; we also found a quantity of powder and ammunition, and a large number of baggage animals, with other property.

The conduct of the whole of the troops was excellent, and they were ably and gallantly led by their respective commanding officers.

Mr Wingfield (the Civil Commissioner) accompanied me during the action, and I feel much indebted for the valuable and accurate information he afforded me; he was also good enough to convey my orders to the cavalry, and guide them to the position I wished them to take up.

Lieutenant Leet, 13th Light Infantry, acted as Staff Officer on the occasion, to my entire satisfaction.

I beg to inclose a Return of Casualties which, I am glad to say, are not of a serious nature.

I have, &c.,

J. W. COX, Major,
13th Light Infantry.

* Left Wing, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry—5 officers and 151 men, under command of Captain Kerr, 13th Light Infantry.

"Pearl" Naval Brigade—5 officers and 91 men, with 2 12-pounder howitzers and 1 24-pounder rocket, under Lieutenant Grant, Royal Navy.

Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry—9 officers and 58 men, under command of Captain Jenkins, Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry.

Gorucknath Regiment of Goorkhas—11 officers and 281 men, in charge of Captain Barclay, 68th Regiment Native Infantry.

Seikhs of the Bengal Police Battalion—1 officer and 46 men, under Lieutenant Burlton, Honourable East India Company's Service.

No. 131 of 1858.

In publishing the accompanying Despatches regarding the pursuit of the insurgents under Koer Sing, the Right Honourable the Governor-General desires to record his thanks to Brigadier-General Sir E. Lugard, K. C. B., for the judgment and energy with which his operations have been conducted; to Brigadier Douglas, C. B., for the very able and active manner in which he carried on the pursuit of the rebels; and to the officers named in the Despatches; and, generally, to the whole force employed, for the courage, endurance, and gallantry shown by them during these operations.

Mr Davies, Civil Service, Collector of Azimghur, is also entitled to the acknowledgments of the Governor-General for the valuable services rendered by him during these operations.

SIR,—I HAVE the honour, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward, for submission to the Right Honourable the Governor-General, copy of a Despatch from Brigadier-General Sir E. Lugard, K. C. B., commanding Azimghur Field Force, dated 25th ultimo, enclosing Report from Brigadier J. Douglas, C. B., of his pursuit of Koer Sing to the banks of the Ganges.

2. The vigour and closeness of this pursuit are considered by His Excellency to reflect the highest credit upon the Brigadier, and upon the troops under his command.

I have, &c.,
H. W. NORMAN, Major,
Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

No. 7.

Brigadier-General Sir E. Lugard, K. C. B., Commanding Azimghur Field Force, to the Chief of the Staff.

Camp, Mhow, April 25, 1858.

SIR,—In my Report of the 16th instant, I had the honour to acquaint you, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that, in consequence of the rebels under Koer Sing having taken up a strong position at Azimutghur, I had reinforced the pursuing column, and placed the whole under the command of Brigadier Douglas, C. B.

2. This force then consisted of the details as per margin,* which, equipped as lightly as my means permitted, I deemed quite sufficient to accomplish the object in view.

3. The remainder of the Field Force, including the heavy guns, park, &c., I retained under my immediate command in Camp, at Azimghur, which place I considered it was necessary to hold strongly for the present, and to remain there myself, as a strong body of rebels, under the Rajahs of Nu-hurpoor and Naneejor (who formed a portion of Koer Sing's force before Azimghur, had gone in a northerly direction towards Oude; scattered portions also of Gholam Hossein's force, which I had dispersed at Tigra, were known to be near Sandah; and other parties of rebels were reported to be collecting in the vicinity of Mundoree and Koelser, whilst Benares had been denuded of troops to assist in the operations against Koer Sing. Thus the central situation of Azimghur enabled me to watch the proceedings of the rebels north of it, to cover Benares and Ghazeepore, and to direct and control the combined movements in pursuit of Koer Sing.

4. At daybreak on the 17th instant, Brigadier Douglas, in obedience to my instructions, attacked the rebels near Azimutghur, drove them from their position with much slaughter, and followed them to Ghosee, whence they fled to Nugra, and thence to Secunderpore, closely pursued by the Brigadier.

5. On reaching Secunderpore on the 19th, it was found that the rebels had proceeded but a few hours, with the intention of crossing the Gogra; as soon as he possibly could, the Brigadier followed, and at daybreak of the 20th instant, came up with them at Muneer Khass, and taking them by surprise killed and wounded a great many, captured a brass 9-pounder gun, complete, with limber, horses, &c., two ammunition waggons, several elephants, horses, and bullocks, with 20 carts laden with stores, harness, &c., and dispersed the main body, the bulk of which fled towards Bulliah and Beyreh.

6. Nineteen elephants were separated from the rebel force during this attack, and, making their way to Ghazeepore, were handed over to the magistrate there by the native in charge.

7. Colonel Cumberlege, who had been posted at Mhow to cover Ghazeepore, and co-operate with the pursuing force, was duly warned and directed to move towards Bulliah, and endeavour to intercept the fugitives.*

8. No time was lost by Brigadier Douglas in renewing the pursuit, but on reaching Sheopore on the 21st, it was found that Koer Sing had effected the passage of the river in boats, which had been prepared by his adherents, and were in readiness for him! The other 9-pounder brass gun which Koer Sing was known to have, here fell into our hands, together with several elephants, and much ammunition.

9. A party of rebels is reported to have crossed near Bulliah, but I have not yet learnt what steps were taken to intercept them by Colonel Cumberlege, who was placed there for that purpose.

10. Having left a sufficient force in Azimghur, I am now en route with provisions to effect a junction with my scattered troops, who have been directed to meet me, when I shall be in a position to operate, as may be necessary, against any bands of rebels, either of Koer Sing's force, who, unable to cross, may still remain in the district, or against those to the northward of Azimghur, who may again venture to collect in strength.

11. I regret extremely that after the very great exertions which have been made to capture Koer Sing, he should have evaded our pursuit; he returns however to his own district a fugitive, hunted, and nearly worn out with fatigue, and dispirited by the loss of nearly all his warlike munition.

* 2 guns, 6 pounders; 2 battery guns; 50 men 2d Dragoon Guards; 180 men 4th Madras Cavalry; 300 men Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry; 100 men 10th and 97th Foot; and 100 men Madras Rifles.

12. Since the rebels quitted Azimghur, we have deprived them of five guns, (two of which belonged to the Government,) about 30 elephants, all their ammunition, and most of their stores and plunder; a large number of the rebel Sepoys have been killed, and every report agrees that the remainder are much dispirited.

13. I beg you will do me the favour to bring to the especial notice of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief the very extraordinary exertions made by Brigadier Douglas and the troops under his command, and the judgment and untiring energy with which this officer has conducted the pursuit. I consider that all has been done that it was possible for a military force to do under the circumstances; and that but for the unforeseen event of boats being in readiness on the river, the whole of the rebels must have been captured or annihilated. Brigadier Douglas was just in time to fire a few rounds from his guns at the rearmost boats, and to sink one of them.

14. Much credit is also due to Mr Davies, Civil Service, Magistrate of Azimghur, who accompanied the Brigadier, and aided him with his local knowledge, and the correct intelligence of the movements of the rebels.

I have, &c.,

EDWARD LUGARD, Brigadier-General,
Commanding Azimghur Field Force.

P.S.—Since writing this I have received from Brigadier Douglas a more full and connected Despatch than his daily reports; copy of this, together with Returns of Casualties and captured ordnance, stores, &c., I beg to enclose.

No. 8.

Brigadier John Douglas, C. B., Commanding Brigade of the Azimghur Field Force, to Brigadier-General Sir E. Lugard, K.C.B., Commanding Azimghur Field Force.

Camp, Sheepoor Ghaut, April 22, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to forward, for the information of Brigadier-General Sir E. Lugard, K.C.B., a detailed account of the operations of the force under my command, from the 17th to the 21st April inclusive, the object being to press the rebels as much as possible, and to force them to give up their guns.

On the 17th, according to instructions, I marched at 3 A.M. from Nuthoopoor, with a force as per margin,* and found the enemy strongly posted at Nughai, near Azimutghur; I sent the cavalry and horse artillery of the advanced guard through the village by the road, the infantry cutting across the fields; the guns became immediately engaged, but the enemy stood well behind their breastworks, at the edges of topes of trees. It was now certain that a large force was opposed to us with artillery, as they came round on almost every side, and made several attempts to charge the guns. I threw part of the 37th, 84th, and the Company of Madras Rifles, into skirmishing order, with supports, who rapidly advanced under a very heavy fire, carried the enemy's positions, and drove them off: they retired in good order from tope to tope, followed by the infantry, a number were bayoneted in their trenches, and a colour was taken by the 37th. Whilst the infantry were clearing our front, the enemy appeared in great force on our left, and were kept in check by the horse artillery and Major Cotter's Battery, supported by the cavalry, who made several charges. I followed the enemy for some distance, and a number were cut up; they were very determined, and evidently trained soldiers; in their retreat they divided into two bodies, and I halted for some time, till I could ascertain which was the main body; I then started in pursuit along the lower Ghoossee road, passing through Chuprah and Etawah, at which latter place the enemy seemed to have united; our force bivouacked at Ghoossee, within four miles of the enemy, after a march of twenty miles; from information afterwards received, the enemy, on our arrival, moved six miles further on.

On the 18th we marched within three miles of Nugra, a distance of about 24 miles, the Cavalry and Horse Artillery going on in advance, and following the enemy till they took up their position in the town of Nugra; during the evening information was received that the enemy, hearing of our approach, had rapidly left the town, but the spies could not inform us which road they had taken; about midnight we heard that the enemy had retired towards Secunderpore, and intended to cross the Gogra there; at 2 A.M. on the 19th, we followed in pursuit, and bivouacked four miles beyond Secunderpore, and within four miles of the enemy at Munnibur, in the Ghazeepore District: during this long march we picked up several of the enemy's stragglers; we here heard that the enemy were in much distress by the rapid pursuit, not having had time during the last two days either to cook or sleep. On the 20th we started so as to arrive at Munnibur at daylight, and found the enemy posted in some very thick woods to the right of the village. I ordered a few rounds of grape to be fired, and then advanced part of the 37th and 84th, and Madras Rifles, in skirmishing order through the wood, the Cavalry, and Horse and Madras Artillery moving round by the right. The enemy were quickly driven from their position, broken, and pursued for six miles by the cavalry and artillery; the Horse Artillery and two of Major Cotter's guns, supported by the greater portion of the Military Train, proceeding along the bank of the Gogra, where a few of the enemy crossed in boats, but under a heavy fire. Two of Major Cotter's guns, with a small portion of the Military Train, and the 3d Seikh Cavalry, followed to the right in pursuit of a large body of about 1,500; unfortunately one of the guns broke down in consequence of the rough nature of the ground, and they were obliged to be withdrawn, the Seikhs having continued the pursuit for several miles, cutting up a great number, and dispersing the remainder.

Captain Pearse, commanding the Seikh Cavalry, desires particularly to mention the gallant conduct of Sepoy No. 1772, Furradun, Madras Rifles, who kept up with the cavalry, killing several of the enemy. In the hasty retreat of the enemy they abandoned a brass 9-pounder gun belonging to the Honourable East India Company's service, complete in horses and ammunition, several limbers and waggons, and immense quantity of ammunition, and a large quantity of treasure, a number of bullocks and hackeries, and four elephants; and the regimental colours of the 28th Bengal Native Infantry were found wrapped round the body of a subadar who was shot. The enemy on this occasion were completely dispersed. Having collected my force, I proceeded to Bansdeh, where the roads diverge to Bulliah and Beyreah, and then halted till I could ascertain which road the rebels had taken. Koer Sing was reported first to have gone to a village named Rajogaon, and afterwards to

* 3 guns, E. Troop Royal Horse Artillery; 4 guns, Major Cotter's Battery, Madras Artillery; 2 5½ inch mortars; Detachment Punjaub Sappers; one squadron Military Train; two squadrons 3d Seikh Cavalry; one wing Her Majesty's 37th Regiment; Her Majesty's 84th Regiment; one company Madras Rifles.

Taintwar, where the dispersed rebels had their rendezvous. I proceeded in that direction, and found several bodies of the enemy on my left, and I also understood that they were holding the village; it being nearly dark, and the country thickly wooded, I did not consider it advisable to advance further, and bivouacked within two miles of Taintwar. During this night no spies came in; we were under arms at 2 A.M. on the 21st; but at this time a spy came in, saying that the enemy had collected all their forces in a dry tank close to the village, and our reconnoitring party made the same statement, which prevented my moving off till daylight. On advancing, I found that the enemy had moved off, and I am led to believe that they went at a very early hour. I immediately pushed the Cavalry and Horse Artillery on, as quickly as possible, to the ghaut here, where it was reported the enemy intended to cross the Ganges, but, from all information, I was led to believe that they had no boats, and must ford on elephants, in which case I should have been up in time to have prevented their crossing; the information, however, on this head, proved false, as they were provided with boats, and the Cavalry and Horse Artillery arrived only in time to cut up about 200, and sink one of the last boats that crossed; on this march we took another Horse Artillery brass 9-pounder gun, belonging to the Honourable East India Company's service, complete in every respect, and several elephants. I enclose a return of the killed and wounded in the two actions, which must be considered very small, in comparison with that of the enemy, which I believe could not have been less than 1,000 men. I believe the original number of the enemy to have been between 4,000 and 5,000 men, nearly all sepoys; a good many of them are still on this side of the river. I beg to bring to your notice the admirable manner in which the troops performed this rapid and arduous march of nearly 120 miles in five days, many hours in each day under a burning sun, and never under canvass. I beg to thank Colonel Riddell, Royal Artillery, for the assistance he rendered me during the action of the 17th, and whose orders were to return to Azimgurh; I have also to thank Major Cotter, Madras Artillery; Captain Lightfoot, commanding the 84th Regiment; Captain Harrison, commanding 37th Regiment; Captain Wyatt, commanding Military Train; Captain Pearce, commanding 3d Seikh Cavalry; Captain Broome, commanding detachment Madras Rifles; Lieutenant Fulford, commanding Punjaub Sappers, —for their able co-operation during the two actions; also Major Mitchell, Royal Horse Artillery, who was several times detached in command of cavalry and artillery; also Lieutenants Jennings and Beaden, 3d Seikh Cavalry, for the assistance they gave in reconnoitring and collecting information. I also beg most particularly to mention Captain Stevenson, 79th Highlanders, Major of Brigade, and Major Turner, Royal Artillery, who acted as artillery staff officer, and who both rendered me valuable assistance. In conclusion, I beg to return my best acknowledgments to Mr R. A. Davies, the Collector of Azimgurh, who accompanied me throughout the operations, and gave me the greatest assistance by his valuable information; he also carried orders for me during the actions, and behaved in the most gallant manner.

I have, &c.,

JOHN DOUGLAS, Brigadier, Commanding Brigade of the Azimgurh Field Force.

P.S.—It has just been reported by the magistrate at Chuprah, that Koer Sing is wounded in the thigh and arm.

No. 144 of 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch from Brigadier-General J. Jones, C.B., commanding Roorkee Field Force, dated the 28th April 1858, reporting his proceedings at Moradabad:—

No. 16.

Brigadier-General J. Jones, C.B., Commanding Roorkee Field Force, to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Camp, Moradabad, April 28, 1858.

THE day following the action of Nugeenah (on the 22d), the column moved to Dhampoor, and on the 23d I struck into the high road from Nozuffurnuggur to Moradabad at Noorpoor, with the view of nearing the Ganges, in case the enemy should halt in their flight, and attempt to pass my right flank, and get into the Bijnoor district. I found the people on this road much more friendly; some of the villages had turned out against the enemy's cavalry, and cut up about thirty, taking a gun also, which had broken down. Directions were forwarded to the officer commanding the troops watching the ford at Duranuggur to cross and occupy Bijnoor. Mr A. Shakespear, the collector of the district, left my camp at Noorpoor for Bijnoor. I must here record my thanks to Mr Shakespear for the able assistance he has rendered me. His knowledge of the country is considerable, and the exertion he has made to obtain intelligence and supplies indefatigable. The column marched to Chujlite on the 24th; intelligence reached me on the road that Moradabad had been occupied by Feroze Shah, son of the late Emperor of Delhi, with 2,500 followers. It appeared that he had defeated the troops of Rampoor on the 22d instant, under the Nawab's nephew, taking his guns. Some of the troops had acted treacherously, and gone over to the enemy.

On the morning of the 25th I marched for Moradabad. On nearing the town I was met by the brother of the Nawab of Rampoor. He had marched a body of troops from Rampoor on Moradabad, and defeated Feroze Shah, who, hearing of our approach, evacuated Moradabad, and retreated on Bareilly, taking his own and the guns captured with him. I encamped on the race-course. Under the direction of Brigadier Coke the town was occupied by infantry and cavalry, and a diligent search made for the rebel chiefs, about whom he had obtained information. This search under that most indefatigable officer was attended with unlooked-for success, and I have much pleasure in inclosing his report, and a list of the persons taken.

I would beg to draw the attention of His Excellency to the gallant conduct, as related in this report, of Lieutenant Richard Fisher Angelo, 1st Punjaub Infantry, and the loyal and faithful service of Willayut Hoosein Khan, deputy collector.

From Mr J. F. D. Inglis, Civil Service, I have received most valuable assistance, and I am happy in having an officer of this service in my camp, on whose knowledge and discretion I can so much rely.

From all the information I can gather, I am led to believe that the rebels who have escaped are all making towards Bareilly, and I believe I have fully carried out his Excellency's directions to clear the enemy from this portion of Rohilcund.

I have, &c.,

JOHN JONES, Brigadier-General,
Commanding Roorkee Field Force.

P.S.—I must not omit to mention an excellent young officer of the Civil Service accompanying my camp, Mr Lowe, from whom I have received much assistance.

No. 17.

Lieutenant-Colonel John Coke, Commanding Infantry of the Force, to Major Muter, Assistant Adjutant-General Field Force.

Moradabad, April 26, 1858.

SIR,

ON the arrival of the force at this place yesterday, I obtained information from Mr Inglis, Civil Service, in charge of the civil department with this force, that it was probable that a number of the chief rebels were concealed in the city; this was confirmed by the information of Willayut Hoosein, deputy collector of Moradabad.

I accordingly made an inspection of the city with Mr Inglis, and, having settled the different points to be held during the search, I obtained the Major-General's sanction to take a sufficient force into the city to carry out this object. I had previously placed parties of the Mooltanee Cavalry round the city to prevent the escape of the rebels. About 12 o'clock I proceeded with two guns of Captain Austin's Battery, a party of Sappers and the 1st Punjaub Infantry, to search the Mohulla of Nawab Mujjoo Khan, the chief of the rebels in this district, who had caused himself to be proclaimed Nawab of Moradabad, and had instigated the people to murder and plunder the Europeans at this place.

After a long search I succeeded in capturing Nawab Mujjoo Khan; one of his sons and his nephew were shot on the spot, as resistance was made by the soldiers of the Nawab's guard.

The capture of the Nawab was effected by Lieutenant Angelo, doing duty with the 1st Punjaub Infantry, who deserves great credit for his spirited conduct on this occasion. This officer, having burst open the door of the room in which the Nawab and his sons were concealed, and having captured them, was fired on by the guard of the Nawab, who were in a room on an upper storey, commanding the house in which the Nawab was concealed. Lieutenant Angelo rushed up the narrow stairs leading to this room, burst open the door, and single-handed entered the room, shot three men with his revolver, and, on being joined by some of his men, captured the rest of the guard.

A quantity of property and some horses were, with my sanction, taken by the troops, and an elephant belonging to the Nawab was made over to the Commissariat.

I enclose herewith a list of the chief rebels captured on this occasion, furnished by Mr Inglis.

I am much indebted to Willayut Hoosein Khan, deputy collector, for the information afforded by him. He has proved the correctness of the opinion formed of him by Mr Wilson, "that he was a loyal subject, and might be fully trusted." I hope he may be rewarded for the excellent service he has rendered.

Having effected the capture of the rebel leaders, and as Mr Inglis considered his police able to effect the capture of the followers of the Nawab and the other rebels in the city, I brought the force back to camp.

The energy displayed by officers and men in carrying out my orders after the long march, in the five hours' laborious work in the city, was very creditable to them.

I have, &c.,

Commanding Infantry of the Force.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to publish, for general information, the following letter from the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army, No. 297 A, dated the 6th of May 1858, and the Despatch which accompanied it, from Brigadier H. R. Jones, of Her Majesty's 6th Carabineers, giving an account of an affair which took place at Kukerowlee, on the 30th ultimo, between the rebels and the force under Major-General N. Penny, C.B., who lost his life on the occasion.

The Governor-General shares the deep regret expressed by his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, at the loss which the service has suffered in the death of that distinguished officer.

The Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, with the Governor-General.

Head-Quarters, Camp, Bareilly, May 6, 1858.

SIR,

No. 297 A.

I HAVE the honour, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward for submission to the Right Honourable the Governor-General, a Despatch from Brigadier H. R. Jones, of Her Majesty's 6th Carabineers, in which that officer gives an account of an affair which lately took place at Kukerowlee, in the Budaon district of Rohilcund.

2. His Excellency desires to express the deep regret he feels at having to announce to his lordship the death of the lamented Major-General Penny, C.B. This old and very deserving officer had remained patiently in the district for the last six weeks, at the head of his moveable column, performing a most important service in the guard of the communications, while the country was much denuded of troops in consequence of the the operations in Oude. With all the anxiety of a young man for military distinction, he rode a very long distance to confer with his Excellency, prior to his passage of the Ganges, notwithstanding the intense heat of the weather.

3. As shown in the Despatch of Brigadier Jones, it would appear that the lamented Major-General lost his life in consequence of having been blinded by false intelligence, which caused him, probably for the sake of sparing his troops, to neglect some common military precautions.

I have, &c.,

H. W. NORMAN Major,
Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

No. 20.

Colonel H. R. Jones, Carabineers, Commanding
Field Force, to the Chief of the Staff.

Camp, Kukerowlee, April 30th, 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that, under the orders of Major-General Penny, C.B., commanding the force, a column, strength as per margin,* was held in readiness to move from the village of Nerolee, upon the town of Oosait, at 8 o'clock p.m. on the evening of the 29th April. At the latter place it was supposed that the rebels were in considerable force, with one or more guns, and the object of the movement was to surprise and cut them up. The column moved off at about 9 o'clock, but owing to one delay or another did not reach Oosait, a distance of about seven miles, till 12 o'clock that night. The column, up to this point, moved in military formation, with an advanced guard, followed by artillery, duly supported by cavalry, with the infantry in rear, the heavy guns and baggage having been sent with a sufficient escort straight to Kukerowlee.

When within a short distance of Oosait, Mr Wilson, the Commissioner, informed General Penny that the rebels had entirely evacuated the place, and with their guns had retired to Data-gunge. The column, however, still moved forward, and on reaching Oosait the information given to Mr Wilson by the town people appeared to satisfy him of the correctness of the above report. From this point military precautions were somewhat neglected, the mounted portion of the column being allowed very considerably to out-march the infantry, and eventually, though an advanced guard was kept up, it was held back immediately in front of the artillery, and such was the confidence placed in native reports, that Major-General Penny and his staff, under the guidance of Mr Wilson, the Commissioner, were riding at the head of the advanced guard, at about 4 o'clock on the morning of the 30th of April, leading it to Kukerowlee, where it had been previously determined that our camp should be pitched, and the force halted for the day. When within one or two hundred yards of Kukerowlee, some horsemen were indistinctly seen in front, and some inquiries were made as to what they could be; it was supposed they must be a portion of our own force that had marched by the direct route to Kukerowlee, and the advance was continued without any extra precaution being taken, till we found ourselves close to the town of Kukerowlee, in a regularly prepared ambuscade, with guns opening on us from the right, with grape and round shot at not more than forty yards distance, while the horsemen charged down from the left, and infantry opened on us with musketry from the front. As far as can be ascertained it was at this moment that the much-lamented Major-General Penny fell disabled by a grape shot; he was at any rate not seen alive afterwards.

The 4 guns of Captain Hammond's Light Field Battery were now ordered to the front, and nobly did this officer and his men respond to the call. The ground, however, where the enemy had taken up their position, was, to our left, nothing but a mass of sand hills, while, to our right, they were protected by thick groves of trees, and immediately in their rear they had the town of Kukerowlee to fall back upon. Owing to the circumstances, and to the want of light, the execution done by the fire of our artillery was less severe than it would have been under more favourable circumstances, and the same causes operated against an effective advance of our cavalry. The enemy's numbers and real position could not be seen, and, under these circumstances, it was deemed best merely to hold our ground till daylight might enable us to determine the particular point for our attack, and the infantry could be brought up and made available. On the arrival of Lieutenant-Colonel Bingham, with Her Majesty's 64th Foot, he was ordered to advance upon, and dislodge the enemy from his front and right; this was done in the most gallant style, and the enemy were speedily driven into the town. Not feeling myself strong enough to follow them there, the artillery was directed to fire the town by shelling, and this they speedily accomplished. Some time after this, information was brought that the rebels were evacuating Kukerowlee at the opposite end of the town. The force was accordingly put in pursuit, but it soon became evident that nothing but a rapid advance of cavalry would enable us to come up with them. Major Bickerstaff, in command of the two squadrons of Her Majesty's Carabineers, and Lieutenant Lind, in command of the Mooltan Horse, were accordingly ordered forward at a gallop to endeavour to overtake them; this duty was performed by both thoroughly and zealously: they drove the enemy in confusion with them, and succeeded in cutting up many, capturing one of his guns, and two carts containing powder. The enemy being no longer in sight, the force returned to Kukerowlee, and encamped there for the day, after having marched fully 25 miles. I have now to return my thanks to the officers of Major-General Penny's Staff, who, on his death, volunteered their services to me, and rendered me much assistance during the day, viz.—to Major Harriott, Deputy Judge Advocate-General; Captain Simeon, Assistant Adjutant-General; Captain Briggs, Commissariat Officer with the Force; Lieutenant Eckford, Assistant Quartermaster-General; this officer, I regret to say, was severely wounded. Also Captain Dudgeon, of Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, and Lieutenant Warde, of the late 11th Native Infantry, both Aides-de-Camp to Major-General Penny. A return of casualties will be forwarded as soon as made out.

I have, &c.,

HY. R. JONES, Colonel, Carabineers,
Commanding Field Force.

No. 146 of 1858.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, dated 8th May 1858, reporting operations against the rebels in Rohilcund.

His Lordship desires that His Excellency will accept his hearty congratulations and thanks upon the complete accomplishment of all the operations projected for Rohilcund.

The small cost of life at which success has been secured to the forces under His Excellency's command, is again a source of the highest satisfaction to the Governor-General; while the cheerful endurance by the troops of the fatigue and exposure to which they have necessarily been subjected of late, is quite admirable.

The whole of Brigadier-General Jones' progress from Roorkee to Bareilly has, in the Governor-General's opinion, been marked with a happy combination of energy and prudence.

No. 25.

The Commander-in-Chief to the Governor-General.

Camp, Bareilly, May 8, 1858.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to report to your Lordship, that according to my intentions already announced, my Head-Quarters were transferred to General Walpole's Division in Rohilcund upon the 27th ultimo. The siege train, &c., having joined him on the previous day.

The time had now arrived for General Walpole's Division to advance on Bareilly on the one side, while directions were sent to Brigadier-General Jones, Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, with whose movements your Lordship has already been made acquainted, to move forward from Moradabad in a like direction.

The late lamented General Penny, C.B., was instructed to cross the Ganges with the troops as per margin,* at the same time at Nudowlee, to advance through the Budaon District, and unite himself to the column under my immediate orders at Meranpore Kutra, on the end of the 6th March, from Futtyghur.

Although this officer unhappily lost his life in a trifling skirmish, the orders were literally obeyed, and the junction was effected as designed, under the orders of Brigadier Jones, Her Majesty's 6th Dragoon Guards; the rebels, who had so long occupied the ghats of the Ganges above Futtyghur, and the District of Budaon, having retired before him, and swelled the mass of the insurgents at Bareilly. During my advance from Futtyghur towards Bareilly, the detached parties of the enemy which had previously occupied Shahjehanpore and the various large villages along the line of road, did not venture in a single instance to offer resistance. Accordingly, every town and village was spared, and I advanced by the regular marches, having halted one day at Shahjehanpore to form a military post at that place.

On the 5th instant a movement was made on Bareilly. The information which had been furnished me from various quarters was most conflicting, and to place reliance on it was utterly impossible. In short, in spite of the assumed friendship of the Hindoo portion of the population. I have not found it easier to obtain information in Rohilcund on which trust could be put, than has been the case in dealing with the insurrection in other parts of the empire.

Very early on the morning of the 5th, the advance having been made from Furreedpore, the force consisting as per margin,* was formed in line of battle about 6 o'clock A.M. The first line consisted of the Highland Brigade, supported by the 4th Sikhs and Belooch Battalion, with a heavy field battery in the centre, with Horse Artillery and Cavalry on both flanks, under the respective Brigadiers and Commandants.

* Detail of the force on the 5th May.—Cavalry—1st Brigade, under Brigadier Jones, 6th Dragoon Guards; Head-Quarters and 2 squadrons 6th Dragoon Guards, under Captain Bickerstaff; Captain Lind's Mooltanee Horse; 2d Brigade, under Brigadier Hagart, 7th Hussars; Her Majesty's 9th Lancers, under Major Coles; 2d Punjaub Cavalry, under Major S. Browne; Detachments Lahore Light Horse, 1st Punjaub Cavalry, 5th Punjaub Cavalry, 17th Irregular Cavalry. Artillery—Under Lieutenant-Colonel Brind, C.B., B.A.; Lieutenant-Colonel Tombs' Troop, B.H.A.; Lieutenant-Colonel Remington's Troop, B.H.A.; Major Hammond's Light Field Battery, B.A., 4 guns; 2 Heavy Field Batteries, Captain Francis, B.A.; Siege Train, with Major Le Mesurier's Company; R.A., under Captain Cookworthy's Detachment, B.A.; Detachment R.E., Bengal and Punjaub Sappers and Miners, under Lieutenant-Colonel Harness, R.E., Chief Engineer to the force. Infantry—Highland Brigade, under Lieutenant-Colonel Leith Hay, C.B.; Her Majesty's 93d Highlanders; Her Majesty's 42d Highlanders, under Lieutenant-Colonel Cameron; Her Majesty's 79th Highlanders, under Lieutenant-Colonel Taylor, C.B.; Her Majesty's 93d Highlanders, under Lieutenant Colonel Ross; 4th Punjaub Rifles, Lieutenant McQueen; Belooch Battalion, Captain Beville; Brigadier Stisted's (78th) Brigade; 7 Companies Her Majesty's 64th Foot, Lieutenant-Colonel Bingham, C.B.; Her Majesty's 78th Highlanders, Colonel Hamilton; 4 Companies Her Majesty's 82d Foot, Colonel the Honourable P. Herbert, C.B.; 2d Punjaub Infantry, Lieutenant-Colonel Greene; 22d Punjaub Infantry, Captain Stafford.

The second line was wholly employed for the protection of the baggage and siege train, this precaution appearing to be necessary owing to the very numerous rebel cavalry. The enemy, who had come out from the city with much boldness, and taken position on the left bank of the Nuttea Nuddee, having that stream in his rear, fired his first guns about 7 o'clock A.M.

His guns were well placed, advantage having been taken of the road along which we were advancing, and of certain sand hills. The Horse Artillery and Cavalry advanced at the trot from both flanks, while the heavy field battery, with infantry in line, pressed up along the centre.

In a short time the enemy was driven from his guns, the left part of our line taking position on the river, while the right crossed the bridge and advanced about three quarters of a mile towards the town. The heavy guns were rapidly passed over in succession, and placed in a position from which they raked the centre of the enemy's second line, which he had taken up in the suburbs. A considerable distance had now been traversed by the troops, and it became necessary to check the advance to allow time for the siege train and baggage to close up.

About 11 A.M. great activity was observed in the enemy's ranks; and while the attention of my right was occupied by a considerable body in the suburbs, the most determined effort that I have seen made in this war to turn and break through the left, was executed at this time by the enemy.

Some old cavalry lines had been occupied by a Sikh regiment. Such was the vigour with which this regiment, a most distinguished one (Major Wilde's), under command of Lieutenant McQueen, was attacked by a large body of fanatical Ghazees, that they gave way for a few minutes. The Ghazees, pursuing their advantage, rushed like madmen on the 42d Highlanders, who had been formed in line in rear of the village to support the Sikhs, as soon as the hostile movement was described. These men were all killed in the very ranks of the 42d Highlanders, in a most desperate hand-to-hand encounter.

The 42d, supported by the 4th Sikhs and a part of the 79th Highlanders then advanced, sweeping through the various lines for about a mile and a half, into the cantonments, where they were placed in position for the day.

Whilst the Ghazee attack had been going on on the left of the first line, a very large body of the enemy's cavalry, some 600 or 700 in number, coming round our extreme left, attacked the baggage. They were quickly encountered by Lieutenant-Colonel Tombs' Horse Artillery troop, which, after the first advance across the river, had been left to meet such a contingency, by Her Majesty's Carabineers (6th Dragoon Guards), the Moultee Horse and Infantry of the rear guard; their instant dispersion took place.

This was the last effort made by the enemy. A short time afterwards the 79th and 93d were directed to seize all the suburbs in their front, and the troops were put under shade as far as possible, the action having lasted for about six hours, and the troops having been under arms from two A.M.

Early on the next morning, on the 6th instant, the whole force advanced into the cantonment. At the same time I had the pleasure to hear Brigadier-General Jones' guns on the Moradabad side of Bareilly. This officer had obeyed his instructions with great judgment and spirit, defeated a portion of the enemy on the 5th instant, taking 3 guns; and finding himself resisted in his approach to the town on the 6th, took three more, which were in position against him, entered the town, and took three advanced positions without delay.

On the morning of the 7th the town was finally reduced, and the Mussulman portion of it, where there were still detached bodies of Ghazees remaining with the intention to sell their lives as dearly as possible, was cleared.

When I passed through Shahjehanpore I was informed that the Fyzabad Moulvie and the Nawab of the former place were at Mohumdee with a considerable body of men who had retired from Shahjehanpore. I thought it would be impolitic to leave the district of that name without evidence of our presence; a post was therefore formed, consisting of 500 of Her Majesty's 82d Foot, a detachment of artillery with 2 24-pounders and 2 9-pounders, and De Kantzow's Horse, under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Hale, C.B., Her Majesty's 82d Foot. He was directed to hold the large enclosure of the gaol. I anticipated that as soon as my back was turned the Moulvie and the Nawab would annoy him. This expectation turned out to be correct, and on the 3d instant he was attacked and invested by immense bodies and cavalry. The guns brought against him were of very insignificant calibre, and he writes that he had no casualties within his entrenchments.

Brigadier-General Jones marched this morning with a force, as per margin,* to his relief. The Brigadier-General has a discretionary power to attack Mohumdee after the relief has been effected. I have not as yet received Brigadier-General Jones' despatch of his own operations on the 5th and 6th instant, but it will be forwarded to the Secretary of Government for submission to your Lordship in due course. In the meantime, I beg to recommend most favourably to your Lordship the Brigadier-General, and the officers to whom he is indebted since his passage of the Ganges, to take part in the general contribution arranged for reduction of Rohilcund. I have the greatest reason to be satisfied with all the troops under my own immediate command. Their alacrity to meet the enemy on all occasions is of course what your Lordship expects from them; but I must not lose this opportunity of bearing my testimony to the constancy displayed by all ranks of the force in the performance of their duty during the great and incessant heat of the season of the year. It is difficult to speak too highly of that cheerful endurance of intense fatigue, to which we are indebted for the victories gained at comparatively trifling loss on the day of battle.

I beg to return my thanks to the officers of the Staff, and officers commanding regiments and corps, employed during the campaign of Rohilcund, and to append a list of their names.

I have, &c.,

C. CAMPBELL, General,
Commander-in-Chief, East Indies.

2. EXEMPTIONS FROM COMPULSORY PILOTAGE.

Law containing Changes in the Law respecting the Pilot Establishment of the 6th August 1824.

WE, Oscar, by the grace of God, King of Norway and Sweden, the Goths and Vandals, make known, that the resolution of the Ordinary Storthing at present assembled, made on the 21st March this year, has been laid before us as follows :—

SECTION I.

Section V in the law regarding the Pilot Establishment of the 6th August 1824, is altered, so that every ship or vessel going from one place to another, either between Norway and Sweden, or between one port of Norway and another, shall be exempt from taking a pilot, if the Master venture to go without a pilot; on the other hand, every ship or vessel, coming from, or going to any place beyond the United Kingdom, shall be obliged to take a pilot should the vessel be of five commercial lasts burden or over.

SECTION II.

Steamers going as regular mail or passenger vessels, shall be exempt from the obligation to take a pilot. Whereas we have approved and ratified this resolution as a Law, we do hereby approve and ratify it.

Given at the Palace of Stockholm, the 13th April 1848.

Under our hand and the seal of the State.

(Signed)

OSCAR.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 45.)—ENGLISH CHANNEL—JERSEY.

Lights at St Helier.

THE Harbour Master at St Helier, Jersey, has given notice that the following lights are exhibited all night for the guidance of vessels bound into the harbour of that place:—

A fixed white light from the lighthouse on Victoria or New South pier head, placed at an elevation of 31 feet above the level of the sea at high water, and should be visible in ordinary weather from a distance of about 6 miles.

A fixed red light from a lantern post on Albert pier head, elevated 15 feet above high water, and visible in ordinary weather from a distance of about 3 miles.

A fixed blue light on the parapet of the Old North pier, at 447 yards to the N.E. by E. of the Albert pier light, and it should be seen about 3 miles distant in ordinary weather.

A fixed red light from a lantern post on the Upper Pier road, 680 yards to the E.N.E. of the Victoria pier light, at an elevation of 46 feet above high water, and also visible 3 miles in ordinary weather.

Vessels approaching the harbour, by keeping the Albert red and Old North pier blue lights in line, will pass a little to the westward of the Grune St Michel, and to the eastward, but rather too close to Les Huitriers, or Oyster rocks.

The best approach from the westward will be the passage between the Oyster rocks and the Bues, with the Victoria or New South pier light in line with the Upper Pier-road red light, although this leads too close to the Grune au Dart and the Grande Vaudin.

The bearings are magnetic. Variation $21\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ West, in 1858.

By Command of their Lordships,

JOHN WASHINGTON, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
6th July 1858.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Jersey Island, No. 62; France, North Coast, Cherbourg to Cape Carteret, No. 58. Also, Channel Directions, by Captain Martin White, 4th edition, page 143; and British Islands Lights List for June 1858, Nos. 25, 25, * 26, 26. *

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 46.)—CHINA SEA—PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

Light at Port Zebu.

THE Spanish Government has given notice that a harbour light has been established at Point Dapdap (?) at the north-east entrance of Port Zebu, on the eastern coast of Zebu, one of the Filipinas or Philippine islands, in the China Seas.

The light is a fixed white light, placed at an elevation of 50 English feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible in clear weather at a distance of 4 miles.

Its position is in about lat. $10^{\circ} 21\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $124^{\circ} 3'$ East of Greenwich by the Admiralty charts, or in long. $123^{\circ} 49'$ East, according to the Spanish Official Notice.

Light at Port Romblon.

Also, that a fixed white light is exhibited from a lighthouse erected on Point Sabang, at the northern extremity of the entrance to Port Romblon, on the north-east coast of Romblon island, Filipinas.

The light tower is of stone, and stands in about lat. $12^{\circ} 36\frac{3}{4}'$ N., long. $122^{\circ} 18'$ East of Greenwich.

The extremities of the reefs within the port of Romblon are marked by four beacons, from which lantern lights are shown by night.

Indian Ocean—Trincomalee.

CAUTION.—The usual Notice of the fixed light at the flagstaff on the north side of the entrance of Trincomalee harbour, on the north-east coast of Ceylon, says it is visible from N. 15° W. round easterly to S. 55° E. These bearings if followed would lead into danger. The mariner therefore is cautioned when approaching from the northward not to steer for the lights on a bearing to the eastward of S. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., and when closing from the southward not to bring the lights to the northward of N. W. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. magnetic.

By Command of their Lordships,

JOHN WASHINGTON, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
8th July 1858.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Sulu or Mindoro Sea, Eastern part, No. 2578; Ports in the Filipinas, No. 2391; St Bernardino Strait and parts adjacent, No. 2577; Pacific Ocean, Sheet 5, No. 2463; Ceylon, East Coast, No. 2031; Trincomalee Bay, No. 815. Also, East India and China Lights List, Nos. 37, 69,* 69

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 47.)—WEST INDIES—NEW GRENADA AND VENEZUELA.

Light at Rio de la Hacha.

INFORMATION has been received at the Admiralty, that a harbour light has been established at the city of La Hacha, on the river of that name, in the province of Santa Martha, coast of New Grenada, West Indies.

The light is a fixed light, placed at an elevation of 69 English feet above the level of the sea at high water, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of about 6 miles.

It is shown from the tower of the church of La Hacha, in lat. $11^{\circ} 33' 47''$ N.; long. $72^{\circ} 59' 16''$ West of Greenwich.

CAUTION.—The small fixed light at the pier of La Guayra, the port of Caracas, on the coast of Venezuela, is no longer exhibited.

By Command of their Lordships,

JOHN WASHINGTON, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
15th July 1858.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—West Indies, General, No. 390, Sheet 1, No. 392a; Sheet 10, No. 396; Sheet 9, No. 395. Also, West India Lights List, March 1858, Nos. 60,* 55.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(48.)—NORTH PACIFIC OCEAN—CALIFORNIA.

Bell Boat off San Francisco Bay.

THE United States Lighthouse Board has given notice that a bell boat has been placed just outside the bar of San Francisco bay or harbour, California.

The boat is 30 feet long, and painted red. The bell, of 500 lbs. weight, is elevated 15 feet, and the day mark of $3\frac{1}{2}$ by 4 feet, 8 feet above the water. The bell is rung by the motion of the sea, and should be heard, under ordinary circumstances, from 1 to 3 miles distant.

The bell boat lies in 15 fathoms at low water, in line or range with Fort Point and Alcatraz Island lighthouses, with the following bearings and distances:—

South Farallon Island lighthouse, S.W. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W., 17 miles.

Point Reyes, N.W. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W., $22\frac{3}{4}$ miles.

Duxbury reef, N.N.W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W., $8\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Point Bonita lighthouse, N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ N., $7\frac{1}{4}$ miles.

Fort Point lighthouse, N.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E., $9\frac{1}{4}$ miles.

Point Lobos Telegraph Station, N.E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E., $7\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Point Pedro, S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E., $11\frac{3}{4}$ miles.

From the bell boat the course to enter the bay is N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E.

Mariners are cautioned not to run into or damage this aid to navigation. The bar buoy, on the same range, is removed; and the fog gun signal at Point Bonita is discontinued.

The bearings are magnetic. Variation $15\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ East, in 1858.

By Command of their Lordships,

JOHN WASHINGTON, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
15th July 1858.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—American, West Coast, Diego Bay to Cape Mendocino, No. 2530; San Francisco Harbour, No. 591.
