No. 6.

No. 597 of 1858.

THE Governor-General has much pleasure in directing the publication of the subjoined account of a very gallant and successful attack made by the officers and men of the Etawah levy, upon a force of rebel soldiery, largely superior in numbers, and well equipped. It was a daring exploit, and the Governor-General desires to express his warm commendation of the courage, skill, and determination which marked it. His Lordship's thanks are due to Lieutenant Forbes, commanding the levy; to Mr Hume, the Magistrate of Etawah; to Mr Maconochie, and Serjeant-Major Edmonds. The death of Mr Doyle, who sold his life dearly, at the head of the cavalry under his command, is a great loss to the public service. It will be a satisfaction to the Governor-General to mark, by the grant of a pension to Mr Doyle's widow, his sense of the zeal and courage with which that officer's duties have at all times been performed.

The Governor-General desires to acknowledge the gallantry and good example of Ressaldar Mahomed Assudulah Khan, also an officer of the police cavalry. His Lordship confers upon this brave man the 1st class of the "Order of British India," with the title of "Sirdar Bahadoor."

On the afternoon of the 6th instant, while in camp at Deenapore, intelligence reached Mr Hume, the Magistrate, that a body of rebels, said to be under the Nana, had crossed the Ganges. It was determined at once to march to Puppood. The distance, 34 miles, was accomplished during the night.

During the 7th, the rebels having arrived in the Etawah district, ravaging the villages, some information was obtained as to their numbers; and as, late at night, it was ascertained that they had surrounded the fort of Sehan, where the Tehseeldar of Bidoonah resides, and parties were threatening
