INDIA-OFFICE, September 27, 1859.

THE Secretary of State for India in Council has received the following Papers :—

No. 1.

No. 1039 of 1859.—His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from Brigadier-General Sir R. Napier, K.C.B., Commanding Gwalior Division, forwarding a report of a successful action against the rebels under Adil Mahomed Khan, in the Basoda District, by a detachment under Lieutenant Roome, 10th Bombay Native Infantry.

His Excellency in Council desires to record his appreciation of the spirit and gallantry on this occasion of Lieutenant Roome, who commanded, and of Lieutenant Bradford, of Mayne's Horse ; and his approval of the conduct of all concerned in this affair.

No. 2.

Brigadier-General Sir R. Napier, K.C.B., Commanding Gwalior Division, to the Chief of the Staff.

Head-Quarters, Simla,
Morat, June 15, 1859.

Sir, No. 395.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for the information of the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief, a report of a success gained over the rebels under Adil Mahomed Khan, in the Basoda District, by Lieutenant Roome, of the 10th Bombay Native Infantry, whom I had sent out in command of a small column.

I beg to recommend Lieutenant Roome to his Lordship's favourable notice, as a most promising officer, of much spirit and intelligence. His exertions in the field were continued when he should have been in sick quarters, and I regret to learn that he has suffered severely in consequence.

Lieutenant Bradford, in charge of the Detachment Mayne's Horse, has, on several previous occasions, been very favourably reported to me.

I have called on Lieutenant Roome for a more particular report of the services of the native officers, with a view to bring them to his Lordship's notice.

Although the regiment has been so lately raised, the men have never lost an opportunity of distinguishing themselves.

I have, &c.,
R. NAPIER.

No. 3.

Lieutenant F. Roome, 10th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry, Commanding Field Force, Basoda District, to Major Todd, Adjutant-General, Gwalior Division.

Camp, Reechea,
May 16, 1859.

Sir,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of General Sir R. Napier, K.C.B., Commanding Gwalior Division, that having heard that Adil Mahomed Khan was collecting a force in this neighbourhood for the purpose of attacking Basoda, I left Mungrowlie for this place with force as per margin.*

To deceive the enemy as to my intentions, I had already ordered supplies, &c., to be collected at Natarran and Aijdah, giving out that I was going that way.

I started yesterday at 1 A.M., halting during the heat of the day at Bhoraso, which I left again at 4 P.M.

Adil Mahomed Khan having influential friends in the Koorwae District, it was necessary to take a circuitous route to avoid villages supposed to be friendly to him. On the same account we had to refrain from crossing the Betwa till we reached Bhairkairie. This lengthened our route so considerably that we did not reach this place till about half an hour after daybreak, when we found that the enemy had left a few hours before.

Not being able to get any information from the villagers I divided the cavalry into three parties, to seek for the enemy's tracks. The party which I accompanied, consisting of forty of Mayne's Horse under Lieutenant Bradford, came upon some fresh foot-prints on a jungle path leading towards Konda.

We proceeded along this road at a ~~rather~~ <sup>rather</sup> ~~and~~ <sup>and</sup> when we had gone about four miles, ~~came~~ <sup>came</sup> ~~and~~ <sup>and</sup> denly upon a strong body of the enemy's cavalry, which we at once charged, cutting up many. They then fled in the Daumurie direction. We pursued for some miles, killing some thirty-five, and taking three or four prisoners. The remainder, only about twenty, then dispersed in the jungles in every direction, and our horses being too tired to pursue further, we returned to this place. The enemy were well mounted and well dressed (some in the scarlet of late Gwalior Contingent), and armed with percussion carbines and pistols.

Our prisoners report that Adil Mahommed Khan, Surfer Khan, and other chiefs of note, were with this party. I very much fear, however, that the former effected his escape, as a personage of apparently some importance managed to get away in spite of our endeavours to prevent him. He was exceedingly well mounted, yet I am confident that had our horses been a little fresher we would have succeeded in catching him.

I cannot speak too highly of the behaviour of Mayne's Horse. These men had marched since yesterday morning a distance of sixty-four miles before coming upon the enemy, and yet they could not have charged with greater dash had their horses been fresh from the stables; this may partly be accounted for by the gallant manner in which they were led by Lieutenant Bradford, of whose excellent soldier-like qualities the General is no doubt aware, and whom I beg to bring again to his favourable notice. The following native officers particularly distinguished themselves by their gallantry in hand-to-hand conflicts. Ressaldar Indur Sing, Jemadar Gujur Sing, and Duffadar Luximon Sing. Gujur Sing was wounded by a carbine bullet in the breast, but, nothing daunted, cut down the man who fired at him. I am happy to say the wound is slight, and he is doing well.

I regret exceedingly that circumstances prevented me from bringing into action, and thus rewarding, the men of the 10th Regiment Native Infantry for the fatigues and privations they had undergone. I cannot say too much in favour of the cheerfulness with which they, and indeed the whole force, bore every hardship, marching day and night till the object for which we set out was accomplished.

The valuable services rendered to Government during this mutiny by Sir Soobah Ram Chunder Bajee Row are well known to the General, but not only were his exertions on this occasion as untiring as ever, but his gallantry in action was most conspicuous, he having been closely engaged several times.

Wamand Row Mhadow, Tehsildar of Basoda, deserves great credit for the accuracy of the information he procured.

I enclose a Casualty List, which I am happy to say is very small.

I have, &c.,

No. 791.—By desire of the Commander-in-Chief forwarded to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, for submission to His Excellency the Governor-General of India in Council, with an expression of Lord Clyde's approval.

On receipt of the detailed report alluded to by Brigadier-General Sir R. Napier, K.C.B., his Lordship will not fail to bring to the special notice of Government the services of the Native Officers whose gallantry Lieutenant Roome so highly commends.

No. 1043 of 1859.—The term of service for which the Members of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry engaged being about to expire, and a large proportion having expressed a wish to be discharged, the Corps was ordered to Sultanpore, Benares, to be broken up.

The disbandment of the regiment is now in course of being carried into effect.

His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India in Council cannot allow the officers and men of this corps to separate without expressing in General Orders his acknowledgments of the excellent services they have rendered, and his admiration of their endurance, and of their gallant bearing on the many occasions in which they have come in contact with the enemy.

The Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, formed in Calcutta in the summer of 1857, on the footing of a Volunteer Corps, receiving pay, was in October of that year moved towards the scene of the disturbances. Reaching Ranegunge, it proceeded in pursuit of mutineers to Gya, and thence marched to Patna, and crossed into Tirhoot, in which district it was employed watching a body of rebels. Early in 1858 the regiment entered the Goruckpore District, and took up, alone at first, a bold position at Ahmora, distant only five miles from an overwhelming rebel force, themselves only two hundred in number; and they held, for the greater part of that year, with the Goruckpore Field Force, important posts, and were during that time repeatedly engaged with the enemy.

In the cold season of 1858-59, the regiment was employed in the operations in the Baraich District, in Oude; and finally, it was engaged till recently against the rebels on the Nepal Frontier.

The Gazettes of the 23d March, 27th April, 11th May, 6th and 13th July, 13th August, 12th and 19th October, 23d November 1858, and 11th and 18th January, and 9th March 1859, all testify that the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry have borne a distinguished part in the several operations therein recounted.

Long marches, exposure, fatigue, and harassing patrol and picket duties have from the first fallen to the lot of this young corps, and they have borne the whole in a truly soldier-like spirit.

The Governor-General in Council desires to convey to Major Richardson, C.B., and the brave

Officers and Men of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, a regiment of which all who have belonged to it may be proud, his best thanks for the good service they have rendered to the State,—and in disbanding the corps which, from the 27th instant, will cease to belong to the Bengal Army, he wishes the members of it a hearty farewell.

No. 1053 of 1859.—His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following Report from Major J. L. Vaughan, Commanding 5th Punjaub Rifles, of an action against a body of rebels in the Sunputtree Pass on the 18th June 1859.

His Excellency in Council highly approves of the conduct of Major Vaughan, and of the troops under his command in these operations.

From Major J. L. Vaughan, 5th Punjaub Rifles, Commanding Field Detachment, to Major M. Dillon, Major of Brigade, Trans-Gogra, Gondah.

Camp, Bhojpore, Trans-Raptee,
June 19, 1859,

Sir,

No. 189.

A PORTION of the rebels under Baboo Pergun Sing, attacked by me on the 14th instant, at Khungra-ka-naka, found themselves cut off from the road to Deokurh by the rapid advance of the British troops, and saved themselves by quitting the road and hiding in the dense forest to the west of it. These fugitives were joined by the Akonah Rajah's people, on the flight of the latter before Captain Cleveland's detachment, and by a fresh party from Deokurh, and the whole, under the leaders as per margin,* located themselves in the Sunputtree Pass, which is about 10 miles west of the Khungra Pass, and the same distance from Musha. I heard of this assembly whilst encamped at Musha with the troops as per margin,† and immediately arranged an attack for the following morning, 18th June.

1. The Sunputtree Pass leads, like the Khungra Pass, from the Trans-Raptee country into Deokurh (Nepaul), but it is accounted a very difficult one, and is only used by the cowherds of the district, who pasture their cattle according to the season, either on the Nepaul or British side of the mountains. It is approached through about six miles of the densest Terye forest, and is simply the bed of a mountain torrent paved with huge boulder stones. A few resolute men could hold it against an army. The rebel encampment was in a small open clearing on the edge of the torrent, about four miles from the commencement of the forest.

2. The troops marched from Musha at two A.M., in the strictest silence, and entered the forest unchallenged soon after daybreak. After proceeding about three miles into the forest, the advanced guard was seen by a picquet of the enemy, and concealment being no longer an object, the troops were urged forward in view to allow the rebels as little notice of our approach as possible.

4. The rebel encampment was found deserted, and here I left the cavalry, their services being no longer required, owing to the nature of the road. With the infantry I pushed on in pursuit as fast as possible. The tracks left by the rebels showed both cavalry and infantry, and numbers of the latter were soon overtaken and slain; but I felt that the real prize was the cavalry, and as the difficulties of the road increased at each step, made certain of eventually overtaking them. Finding that we gained upon them, they attempted to elude us by turning up the bed of a ravine to the right of the road, ignorant that there was no exit at the other end. Here they were overtaken, and every man slain; upwards of 25 horses, and 30 ponies laden with baggage, falling into the hands of the Punjaub Rifles.

5. The pursuit was continued in all directions for fully five miles beyond the rebel encampment, and great slaughter made. I am confident that upwards of one hundred rebels must have fallen. When the troops were utterly exhausted by the combined effects of distance, heat, and the suffocating atmosphere of the Terye forest, after heavy rain, the pursuit ceased, and the troops marched back to the camp at Musha, which they reached about three P.M.

6. The behaviour of the men of the 5th Punjaub Rifles was beyond all praise, and it was emulated by that of a small party of the Onde Police (Millett's Jezzailchees), which happened to be at Musha on a special service, and which I took with me to stop a road by which I thought it probable the rebels would try to escape. I beg to solicit the 3d Class of the Order of Merit for Havildar Moosa Khan, of the 5th Punjaub Rifles, who particularly distinguished himself in this affair, and also for Subadar Nehall Sing, of the same regiment, who, in my presence, slew three of the rebels in single combat.

7. I have no casualties to report.

8. In conclusion, I venture to hope that the affair now reported, in conjunction with that of the Khungra Pass on the 14th instant, will prove to the remaining rebels the utter hopelessness of prolonged resistance, inasmuch as they have seen that the British troops can and will attack them in their selected fastnesses of the frontier range of hills, undeterred alike by dread of the rainy season and of the deadly Terye forest.

I have, &c.,

J. L. VAUGHAN.

Camp, Gonda,
June 17, 1859.

SIR,

No. 278.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for the information of Major-General Sir J. H. Grant, K.C.B., Commanding Oude Division, a report from Major Vaughan, who had been directed, in co-operation with Captain Cleveland, to drive out a party of rebels who had established themselves near Musha, in the Trans-Raptee District, and in so doing I would beg to bring to the Major-General's notice the skilful and energetic manner in which this duty has been performed by Major Vaughan and Captain Cleveland, and the troops under their command. I beg to recommend that the mention made of Subadar Hubeeb Khan, of the 5th Punjaub Rifles, should be brought to favourable consideration.

I have, &c.,

No. 11.

Major J. L. Vaughan, 5th Punjaub Rifles, Commanding Field Detachment, to Major M. Dillon, Major of Brigade, Trans-Gogra, Gondah.

Camp, Bunhonnee, Trans-Raptee,
June 15, 1859.

SIR,

No. 187.

IN obedience to the instructions of Colonel Holdich, C.B., Commanding Trans-Gogra, dated the 11th instant, directing me to expel from the British territory a body of rebels believed to be near Musha, I marched on the night of the 12th instant from Sidonia Ghaut to that place, thirty miles, with the troops as per margin,* and was there joined by Captain Cleveland, commanding a field detachment at Bhinga, with a portion of his force, as per margin.†

2. The body of rebels against whom I was to operate proved to be eighteen or twenty miles east of Musha, in the neighbourhood of the Khungra-ka-Naka, as it is called, a well-known pass through the first range of hills into the Deokurk Valley (Nepaul). Accordingly, I marched on the night of the 13th June to Bunhonnee, late a police post, fourteen miles, and leaving the baggage at that village, made the following arrangements consequent on information there received.

3. Captain Cleveland, with three companies Moradabad Levy and fifty men of Hodson's Horse, was directed to attack the Raja of Akonah, who was encamped with two hundred followers at Peeprah, on the edge of the forest at the foot of the hills, three miles north of Bunhonnee, whilst I, with the remainder of the force, should attack the main body of rebels under one Purgun Sing, at the village of Bunkutta, where the Khungra-ka-Naka, which, it is to be understood, is the bed of a hill torrent, dry, except after heavy rain, emerges from the forest.

4. A separate report of Captain Cleveland's proceedings, which were very satisfactory, is annexed.

5. The force under my personal command got under cover of the forest at the foot of the hills about four miles north-east of Bunhonnee, and here I left the cavalry, with orders to halt until I should open fire, and then press on by the best road they could find, to Bunkutta. With the infantry and twenty men 1st Punjaub Cavalry, I marched under cover of the forest, and parallel to the hills, in view to cut off the rebels from their retreat to Deokurk, and fall upon their rear, but their picquets had seen us before we entered the forest, and thus my intentions were to a certain extent frustrated, the main body of the rebels being in retreat, covered by a strong rear guard, when we reached their encampment. The Punjaub Rifles, however, supported by the Moradabad Levy and the party of the 1st Punjaub Cavalry, followed the rebels with the greatest spirit, and inflicted considerable loss upon them, driving them in confusion through the pass for upwards of four miles. The pursuit never slackened for a moment whilst the rebels held together in a body, and when they broke and dispersed in the dense forest, they were followed in all directions by small parties of the Punjaub Rifles and Moradabad Levy, some of which did not rejoin for many hours afterwards.

6. I make no attempt to estimate the number of rebels slain, the immense extent of ground gone over by the troops in pursuit, the dense jungle, and the ravines with which it was intersected, render anything like accuracy impossible.

7. The troops rested for a few hours in the standing camp constructed by the rebels, at Bunkutto, previous to burning it, and then marched back to Bunhonnee, six miles.

8. The exertions made by the troops of both arms have been most meritorious, and I trust they will meet with the approbation of superior authority. The Punjaub Rifles marched upwards of sixty miles between the evening of the 12th and noon of the 14th instant, besides pursuing the enemy for some miles at the double.

9. I wish to bring to particular notice the gallant and daring conduct of Subadar Hubeeb Khan, of the 5th Punjaub Rifles, who was ever foremost in the pursuit, and was several times engaged hand-to-hand. I consider him most deserving of the 3d Class of the Order of Merit.

10. Captain Cleveland, 98th Regiment, who conducted the separate attack upon the Raja of Akownah's party, rendered valuable service, and I have to thank him for the cordial assistance I have received from him during the present service. My thanks are also due to Lieutenant Grey and Ensign Gill, who directed the Punjaub Rifles and Moradabad Levy respectively, in the attack under my personal command.

11. I am not aware of any rebels being now in the British territory between Serdonia Ghaut and Toolsepoore, and I therefore trust that the service entrusted to me will be considered to have been satisfactorily carried out.

12. I enclose a Casualty Return.

Camp, Bunhonnee, 12 koss N.E. of Binga,
Sm, June 15, 1859.

AGREEABLY with your instructions, I proceeded yesterday in command of a detachment, strength as per margin,* from the village of Chowdree Dea towards Tipra, bearing due north of it, where Moona Sing, the Rajah of Akonah, with 200 Tilungas, were reported to be huddled, and living in comfort. I made a circuitous route through the jungle, avoiding the footpath leading to the enemy's position, with a view of driving it eastward, towards your force, according to arrangements.

Soon after penetrating the jungle, which was nothing more than brushwood, the enemy's picket, infantry, was discovered at a distance off, and a party of cavalry galloped to the front in full hopes of cutting it off, when unfortunately it was pulled up by a deep ravine, on the other side of which the enemy's picket had been posted.

On moving on to Pipree, to the enemy's encampment, I found it deserted; and it was evident, from a quantity of things, arms, accoutrements, and large supplies of rice and flour, strewn about on the ground, that he had been alarmed, and had taken a hasty departure. On being assured by a herdsman that the Rajah, mounted on an elephant, with the majority of his force, had gone westward, I pressed on the cavalry, who however could make no way, owing to the dense part of the jungle and a serpentine ravine impeding progress; while the enemy concealed, opened fire upon them.

I brought up my infantry in front, and driving everything before it, accounted for all stragglers. The enemy's fire soon ceased; and pressing onwards, we came across arms, accoutrements, and brass utensils, that had been flung away; and continuing for five miles, we captured the Rajah's horse, palanquin, and two camels heavily laden with all his property, consisting of shawls, muslins, clothing apparel, and cooking utensils. The enemy having been entirely dispersed, and the track of the elephant having been lost, I collected my force and retired through the jungle, making for Pipree. On destroying the enemy's huts, as well as everything found there about, and a tiger fastened by a chain near the Rajah's dwelling, I moved off, and reached camp at 1:30 P.M.

The enemy's loss was about fifteen men, and it would have been certainly greater but for the dense jungle and the knowledge of it, which particularly favoured it. I am happy to say I had only one horse wounded.

In conclusion, I have the gratification of bestowing much credit due to the infantry and cavalry, and I would make known the length of time they were under arms, thirteen hours, during which time they could not have gone less than thirty miles. I have, &c.,

G. CLEVELAND.

Lieutenant R. D. Osborn, 2d Sikh Cavalry, Commanding at Lahar, to the Station Staff, Calpee.

SIR,

Lahar, June 28, 1859.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the officer commanding at Calpee, the following particulars of a skirmish with the rebels, under Dowlut Sing, at the village of Indhoorkhee. Having received intelligence that the rebels, to the number of 500, were occupying Indhoorkhee, and that, in consequence, the Dāk to Gwalior was closed, I determined to make an attempt to open the road.

Accordingly, I left Lahar on the morning of the 27th, with troops as per margin,* reaching Indhoorkhee about eight in the morning.

The enemy, on our appearance, manned the fort walls, as if with the intention of making a stand there. They however precipitately abandoned them as we drew nearer, and fearing lest they should slip altogether out of our hands, I advanced with the cavalry at a gallop.

The village was deserted, but on entering the ravines a smart fire was opened on us from both flanks, and I observed the enemy in considerable force occupying the steep sides of the ravines.

The ground being utterly unsuited for cavalry, I retired out of fire, and the infantry, which had by this time arrived, advanced to the attack under the able guidance of Lieutenant Cock. They drove the enemy from one position to another, pursuing them for the distance of nearly a mile and a half, when, finding from the nature of the ground that this ineffectual skirmishing might be interminably continued, and having achieved the object intended, I returned to Indhoorkhee, and from thence marched back to Jatepora.

We had no means of ascertaining the loss sustained by the enemy, but know from reliable

SIR,

Camp, Jeitpore, July 7, 1859.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Officer commanding the regiment, that in consequence of information received from Mr Assistant Magistrate Wigram, that a body of rebels were in the jungle, north-east of Jheejun, I marched thither at 11 o'clock P.M., on the night of the 5th, with the force as per margin.* After marching some eight miles we arrived at the outskirts of the thick jungle in which the rebels were said to be encamped, and I here halted for a short time to rest both men and horses.

Learning that the position which was held by the enemy was totally impracticable for cavalry, and having further ascertained the jungle was more open to the east and west, I despatched the avans in two detachments, as per margin,† one to each flank, with orders to be on the alert, patrolling the edge of the jungle, and to cut up any fugitives that might attempt to escape in those directions. Proceeding about five miles further, through jungle of so dense and thorny a nature that it was with great difficulty that we made any way at all, we came upon their advanced picquet, and drove it in without loss on either side; pushing on with every possible despatch we surprised their camp, situated on a very rocky and difficult hill, well known as one of their favourite resorts; after a short stand made at a wall of rocks, about six feet in height, which they had raised across the path, they fled precipitately through the jungle in every direction; owing to the early hour at which this took place, (viz., about an hour before sunrise) and the notorious denseness of the Jheejun jungle, I was unable to pursue them as efficiently as I could have wished, but many I believe were shot down and wounded during their flight. My own casualties were 1 sepoy, Mattadeen Doobay, of the 5th Company, 31st Regiment Native Light Infantry, killed. The completeness of the surprise may be imagined, as more than 100 pairs of shoes, together with bedding of every description, were left scattered over the ground of their late camp, the paths of the jungle on every side were strewn with clothes and weapons which they abandoned in their flight. Part of them attempted to escape on the east of the jungle and were attacked by the Ressaldar of the Police, whom I had detached to that point; three of them were killed, and the rest effected their escape back into the jungle, where it was impossible for cavalry to pursue.

The main body of the rebels retreated in the direction of Jheejun, where they ought to have been met by Captain Scott, of the 17th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, with his detachment; but owing to some mistake as to procuring guides, I regret to say that their retreat in that direction was unmolested.

On re-assembling my men on the hill of Kalee Pahree, where the enemy's camp had been, I saw a small force of about fifty men, as well as I could judge, for they were more than a mile off, advancing towards the hill from the north-east; from the regularity of their movements, as well as from the glittering of their fixed bayonets, I supposed them to be the detachment of the 17th Madras Native Infantry, although coming from a different direction to that in which we expected them; but this morning a letter from Captain Scott states that owing to the reasons stated above he did not move from his original position at Pipera. I can therefore only conjecture that it was the party of rebel sepoys who are said to accompany Desput in all his wanderings. I consider that the effect produced on the rebels by this affair will be most beneficial, as showing them that the densest jungle and most favourable position affords them but little more shelter than the open plain.

Their numbers, I am informed, were from 4 to 500 men, and it is supposed under the command of Desput himself, as papers directed to him, and some bearing his signature, together with one or two articles which were identified as belonging to him, were found in their camp.

They are said to have carried some wounded with them in their retreat.

My best thanks are due to Mr P. Wigram, who was to the front during the whole affair, and afforded me every assistance.

I have, &c.,

T. H. LEWIN.
