

The Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1859.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 22d day of October 1859.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 19th & 20th years of Her Majesty's reign, entitled "An Act to make better provision for the removal of Nuisances, regulation of lodging-houses, and the health of Towns in Scotland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that whenever any part of the United Kingdom appears to be threatened with, or is affected by any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council, or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), may, by Order or Orders by them from time to time made, direct that the provisions for the prevention of diseases contained in Part II of the said Act be put in force in Scotland, or in such parts thereof, or in such places therein, as in such Order or Orders may be expressed; and may, from time to time, as to all or any of the parts or places to which any such Order or Orders extend, and in like manner revoke or renew any such Order, and, subject to revocation and renewal as aforesaid, every such Order shall be in force for six calendar months, or for such shorter period as in such Order shall be expressed; and every such Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any Members thereof, as aforesaid, shall be certified under the hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and shall be published in the Edinburgh Gazette; and such publication shall be conclusive evidence of such Order.

And whereas the Parish of Wick, in the County of Caithness, is affected by a formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, and a case has arisen for putting in force the provisions of the said Act;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered by the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, (of whom the Right Honorable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one,) in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in them as aforesaid, that the provisions for the prevention of diseases contained in Part II of the said hereinafore recited Act, be put in force in the said

Parish of Wick, in the County of Caithness, immediately from and after the date of this Order.

And it is hereby further ordered, that this Order shall continue in force for six calendar months from and after the date hereof.

WM. L. BATHURST.

At the Court at Windsor, the 22d day of October 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 'Burial Ground (Scotland) Act, 1855,' it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, upon a Representation of one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County in Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act, has been received by him, in pursuance thereof to order that no new Burial Ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, or, (as the case may be,) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, Burials within certain limits, or in certain Burial Grounds or places of Burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any qualifications or exceptions mentioned in such Order; and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act: Provided always, that Notice of such Representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such Burial Ground is situate, and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parishes affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered.

And whereas the Right Honorable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a Representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of the County of Fife, on a Petition of the Reverend William Davidson and Peter Ormiston, Members of the Board of the Parish of Largo, in the

and another, finding it established that the Church Yard of the said Parish of Largo is, and has been for several years back, in an over-crowded state, and that it is dangerous to health and offensive; which Representation recommended the issue of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, directing that Burials be forthwith Discontinued in the existing Burial Ground in the said Parish of Largo, in the County of Fife.

And whereas notice of the said Representation, and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed, as required by the said Act:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the 31st day of this instant October, Burials be Discontinued in the existing Burial Ground in the Parish of Largo, in the County of Fife.

WM. L. BATHURST.

At the Court at Windsor, the 22d day of October 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 'Burial Ground (Scotland) Act, 1855,' it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by Order in Council, upon a Representation of one of Her Principal Secretaries of State, that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County in Scotland, under certain provisions of the said Act, has been received by him, in pursuance thereof to order that no new Burial Ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, or, (as the case may be,) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, Burials within certain limits, or in certain Burial Grounds or places of Burial, shall be Discontinued wholly, or subject to any qualifications or exceptions mentioned in such Order; and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act: Provided always, that Notice of such Representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such Burial Ground is situate, and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parishes affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered.

And whereas the Right Honorable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a Representation stating that he had received a copy of an Interlocutor pronounced by the Sheriff of the County of Linlithgow, on a Petition of the Reverend John Byers, Thomas Durham Weir, and others, Members of the Parochial Board of the Parish of Bathgate, finding that the New Burial Ground or Church Yard in Bathgate, known as the New Church Yard of Bathgate, is dangerous to health, and that it is offensive and contrary to decency; which Representation recommended the issue of an Order of Her Majesty in Council directing that Burials be forthwith Discontinued in the said Burial Ground in Bathgate, called the New Church Yard of Bathgate.

And whereas notice of the said Representation, and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed, as required by the said Act:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the 31st day of this instant October, Burials be Discontinued in the Burial Ground in Bathgate, in the County of Linlithgow, called the New Church Yard of Bathgate.

CROWN OFFICE,
EDINBURGH, 25th October 1859.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that the Right Honorable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the 'Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855,' made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council, stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute of the County of Fife, finding that the allegations contained in a Petition of certain Members of the Parochial Board of the Parish of Dysart, in the said County, that the Old Church Yard of that Parish, commonly called the West Burying Ground, is, and has been for several years, in an over-crowded state, and that it is dangerous to health, and offensive, have been proved: Which Representation recommends the issue of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, directing that Burials shall be forthwith Discontinued in the said Old Church Yard of the Parish of Dysart, commonly called the West Burying Ground: And that it has pleased Her Majesty in Council to order the said Representation to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, on the 6th day of December next.

JOHN MELVILLE,
Crown Agent for Scotland.

CROWN OFFICE,
EDINBURGH, 25th October 1859.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that the Right Honorable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the 'Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855,' made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council, stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute of the County of Ayr, finding that the allegations contained in a Petition of two Members of the Parochial Board of the Parish of West Kilbride, in the said County, that the Grave Yard or Burial Ground of the said Parish is dangerous to health, offensive, and contrary to decency, have been proved: Which Representation recommends the issue of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, directing that Burials shall be forthwith Discontinued in the existing Grave Yard or Burial Ground of the said Parish of West Kilbride, in the County of Ayr: And that it has pleased Her Majesty in Council to order the said Representation to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, on the 6th day of December next.

JOHN MELVILLE,
Crown Agent for Scotland.

WAR-OFFICE, 21st October 1859.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Private Soldier of Her Majesty's Indian Military Forces, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their several names; viz. :—

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
5th Bengal European Cavalry	Major Charles John Stanley Gough Dates of Acts of Bravery, 15th and 18th August 1857, and 27th January, and 23d February, 1858	First, for gallantry in an affair at Khurkowdah, near Rhotuck, on the 15th of August 1857, in which he saved his brother, who was wounded, and killed two of the Enemy. Secondly, for gallantry on the 18th of August, when he led a Troop of the Guide Cavalry in a charge, and cut down two of the Enemy's Sowars, with one of whom he had a desperate hand to hand combat. Thirdly, for gallantry on the 27th of January 1858, at Shumshabad, where, in a charge, he attacked one of the Enemy's leaders, and pierced him with his sword, which was carried out of his hand in the mêlée. He defended himself with his revolver, and shot two of the Enemy. Fourthly, for gallantry on the 23d of February, at Meangunge, where he came to the assistance of Brevet-Major O. H. St George Anson, and killed his opponent, immediately afterwards cutting down another of the Enemy in the same gallant manner.
60th Bengal Native Infantry	Brevet-Captain Robert Haydon Shebbeare Date of Act of Bravery, 14th September 1857	For distinguished gallantry at the head of the Guides with the 4th Column of Assault at Delhi, on the 14th of September 1857, when, after twice charging beneath the wall of the loop-holed Serai, it was found impossible, owing to the murderous fire, to attain the breach. Captain (then Lieutenant) Shebbeare endeavoured to re-organize the men, but one-third of the Europeans having fallen, his efforts to do so failed. He then conducted the rearguard of the retreat across the canal most successfully. He was most miraculously preserved through the affair, but yet left the field with one bullet through his cheek, and a bad scalp wound along the back of the head from another.
19th Madras Native Infantry	Captain Herbert Mackworth Clogstoun Date of Act of Bravery, 15th January 1859	For conspicuous bravery in charging the Rebels into Chichumbah with only eight men of his Regiment (the 2d Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent), compelling them to re-enter the Town, and finally to abandon their plunder. He was severely wounded himself, and lost seven out of the eight men who accompanied him.
72d Bengal Native Infantry	Lieutenant Harry Hammon Lyster Date of Act of Bravery, 23d May 1858	For gallantly charging and breaking, singly, a skirmishing square of the retreating Rebel Army from Calpee, and killing two or three Sepoys in the conflict. Major-General Sir Hugh Henry Rose, G.C.B., reports that this Act of Bravery was witnessed by himself and by Lieutenant-Colonel Gall, C.B., of the 14th Light Dragoons.

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Madras Engineers ...	Lieutenant Harry North Dalrymple Prendergast Date of Acts of Bravery, 21st November 1857, and other occasions.	For conspicuous bravery on the 21st of November 1857, at Mundisore, in saving the life of Lieutenant G. Dew, 14th Light Dragoons, at the risk of his own, by attempting to cut down a Velaitee, who covered him (Lieutenant Dew) with his piece, from only a few paces to the rear. Lieutenant Prendergast was wounded in this affair by the discharge of the piece, and would probably have been cut down had not the rebel been killed by Major Orr. He also distinguished himself by his gallantry in the Actions at Ratgurb and Betwa, when he was severely wounded. Major-General Sir Hugh Rose, in forwarding his recommendation of this Officer, states:— “ Lieutenant Prendergast, Madras Engineers, “ was specially mentioned by Brigadier, now “ Sir Charles Stuart, for the gallant act at “ Mundisore, when he was severely wounded ; “ Secondly, he was ‘specially mentioned’ by “ me when acting voluntarily as my Aide-de- “ Camp in the Action before besieging Rat- “ gurb, on the Beena river, for gallant con- “ duct. His horse was killed on that occasion. “ Thirdly, at the Action of ‘the Betwa,’ he “ again voluntarily acted as my Aide-de-Camp, “ and distinguished himself by his bravery in “ the charge which I made with Captain “ Need’s Troop, Her Majesty’s 14th Light “ Dragoons, against the left of the so-called “ Peishwa’s Army, under Tantia Topce. He “ was severely wounded on that occasion.”
3d Bombay European Regiment	Private Frederick Whirlpool Date of Acts of Bravery, 3d April and 2d May 1858	For gallantly volunteering, on the 3d of April 1858, in the attack of Jhansie, to return and carry away several killed and wounded, which he did twice under a very heavy fire from the wall ; also for devoted bravery at the Assault of Lohari, on the 2d of May 1858, in rushing to the rescue of Lieutenant Donne, of the Regiment, who was dangerously wounded. In this service Private Whirlpool received seventeen desperate wounds, one of which nearly severed his head from his body. The gallant example shewn by this man is considered to have greatly contributed to the success of the day.

MEMORANDUM.

Ensign Everard Aloysius Lisle Phillipps, of the 11th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry, would have been recommended to Her Majesty for the Decoration of the Victoria Cross, had he survived, for many gallant deeds which he performed during the Siege of Delhi, during which he was wounded three times. At the assault of that city he captured the Water Bastion, with a small party of men ; and was finally killed in the streets of Delhi on the 18th of September.
