FOREIGN-OFFICE, December 17, 1859.

THE Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr George Henry Leavenworth as Consul at the Bay of Islands, New Zealand, for the United States of America.

By virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to extend the Act of the twenty-fourth year of King George the Third, chapter twenty-six, for issuing writs during any recess of the House of Commons, whether by prorogation or adjournment:"

I do hereby give notice that it has been certified to me, in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, in the manner required by the said Act, that Sir Henry Singer Keating, late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the borough of Reading, hath accepted the office of one of the Judges of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, and has been Gazetted thereto in the London Gazette, dated the sixteenth day of December 1859, and has thereby vacated his seat; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said borough of Reading, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this Notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this nineteenth day of December 1859.

JOHN EVELYN DENISON, Speaker.
