

Anatomy, may be reckoned as One of such Four Years, and to that Extent shall be held equivalent to One Year's Attendance on Courses of Lectures, as prescribed by the said Ordinance.

- (4.) One Year's Attendance on the Lectures of Teachers of Medicine in the Hospital Schools of London, or in the School of the College of Surgeons in Dublin, or of such Teachers of Medicine in Edinburgh, or elsewhere, as shall from Time to Time be recognised by the University Court, may be reckoned as One of such Four Years, and to that Extent shall be held as Attendance on Courses of Lectures, as prescribed by the said Ordinance.
- (5.) Candidates may, to the Extent of Four of the Departments of Medical Study required by Section V. Sub-section 1 of the said Ordinance, attend in such Year or Years of their Medical and Surgical Studies, as may be most convenient to them, the Lectures of the Teachers of Medicine specified in Sub-section (4.)
- (6.) All Candidates, not Students of the University, availing themselves of the Permission to attend the Lectures of Extra-Academical Teachers in Edinburgh must, at the commencement of each Year of such Attendance, enrol their Names in a Book to be kept by the University for that purpose, paying a Fee of the same Amount as the Matriculation Fee paid by Students of the University, and having, in respect of such Payment, a Right to the Use of the Library of the University.
- (7.) The Fee for Attendance on the Lectures of an Extra-Academical Teacher in Edinburgh, with a view to Graduation, shall be of the same Amount as that exigible by Medical Professors in the University.

(8.) No Teacher shall be recognised, who is at the same time a Teacher of more than One of the prescribed Branches of Study, except in those Cases, where Professors in the University are at liberty to teach Two Branches.

(9.) It shall not be necessary for any Teacher, Attendance on whose Lectures is now recognised for the Purposes of Graduation in the University, to obtain a new Recognition from the University Court; and Attendance on the Lectures of every such Teacher shall continue to be recognised as heretofore.

(10.) It shall be in the Power of the University Court, if they shall see Cause, at any time to withdraw or suspend the Recognition of any Teacher or Teachers.

Septimo, That the Provisions of the said Ordinance of the Sixth Day of August Eighteen hundred and Fifty-nine, and of this Ordinance, shall come into Operation and receive Effect from and after the Fifteenth Day of October in the present Year.

Octavo, That Persons, who shall have begun their Medical Studies before the Fifteenth Day of October in the present Year, shall be entitled to graduate under the System in force before or after that Date, according as they shall comply with the Regulations in force in the University before or after that Date.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

JOHN INGLIS, Chairman.
