The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint John Hay Drummond Hay, Esq., C.B., now Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General in the Dominions of the Emperor of Morocco, to be Her Majesty's Minister Resident to the Emperor of Morocco.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, June 14, 1860.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr James Galbraith as Vice-Consul at Glasgow for His Majesty the Emperor of Austria.

DUBLIN CASTLE, June 13, 1860.

This day His Excellency, the Grand Master (by Her Majesty's Command,) held a Chapter of the Most Illustrious Order of St. Patrick, at the Castle of Dublin.

The Knights Companions, in their Mantles, Stars, and Collars, assembled in the Robing Room, attended by the Officers of the Order.

At Three o'Clock P.M., the Knights Companions proceeded to the presence of the Grand Master, who was seated in the Chair of State in the Throne Room, and, by direction of His Excellency, Ulster called over the Roll of all the Knights of the Order, whereupon the Earl of Roden, the Earl of Howth, the Marquess of Headfort, the Earl of Fingall, Viscount Massereene and Ferrard, the Earl of Granard, and Viscount Gough, answered to their names, and, with the usual reverences, took their places at the Chapter table.

They were attended by the following Officers of the Order:—His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin, the Chancellor; Lowry V. Townley Balfour, Esq., the Secretary; Sir George Burdett L'Estrange, Usher of the Black Rod; Sir Bernard Burke, Ulster King of Arms, Knight Attendant on the Order; Molyneux Betham, Esq., Cork Herald; and Sheffield Betham, Esq., Dublin Herald.

His Excellency then commanded Ulster to read Her Majesty's Letter authorizing the Chapter to be held.

The Right Honourable the Earl of Cork and Orrery was then introduced by the Gentleman Usher and Ulster, and, kneeling, received the honour of Knighthood, and retired.

His Excellency the Grand Master communicated to the Chapter that Her Majesty had been pleased to nominate Sir Richard Edmund St. Lawrence Boyle, Knight, Earl of Cork and Orrery, to be a Knight Companion of the said Most Illustrious Order, and to command that his Lordship be invested with the Ribbon and Badge.

By command of the Grand Master, the two Junior Knights present proceeded to the door of the Chapter Room, and conducted the Earl of Cork and Orrery between them to the right of the Chair of State, Ulster bearing the Ensigns of the Order before them on a velvet cushion, whereupon the Declaration appointed by the Statutes was read by His Grace the Chancellor, to the Earl, who thereupon subscribed the said Declaration, which was placed by the Secretary in the Register of the Order.

His Excellency the Grand Master, assisted by the two Senior Knights Companions present, put the Ribbon with the Badge over his Lordship's right shoulder, pronouncing the Admouition; after which his Lordship was congratulated by His Excellency and the Knights present, and took his seat at the Chapter table.

The Chapter being ended, Ulster, Knight Attendant, called over the names and titles of the Knights Companions present, who each rose from his seat on the pronounciation of his name, and the Chapter broke up.

J. BERNARD BURKE, Ulster.

OFFICE OF ARMS,

DUBLIN CASTLE, June 11, 1860.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood on George Burdett L'Estrange, Esq., Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

J. BERNARD BURKE, Ulster.

WHITEHALL, June 13, 1860.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Francis Dixon, of Nut Grove, within Sutton, in the county of Lancaster, gentleman, only son and heir of Richard Dixon, of Burnley, in the said county, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of James Nuttall, of Colne, in the same county, and sister of Thomas Nuttall, late of Nut Grove aforesaid, Esquire, all deceased, Her Royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his maternal great uncle Jonas Nuttall, late of Nut Grove aforesaid, Esquire, deceased, take and henceforth use the surname of Nuttall, in addition to and after that of Dixon, and also bear the arms of Nuttall quarterly with those of Dixon; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.
