SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

At Edinburgh, the Twenty-second Day of June, Eighteen Hundred and Sixty Years.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' it is provided, that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall be empowered to pay out of such Moneys, as may be provided by Parliament for the Purpose, such Sums of Money as the Commissioners under the said Act shall recommend to be paid for, among other Purposes, that of providing retiring Allowances to aged and infirm Principals and Professors; and whereas the said Act, by Section XII. 5, empowers the University Court of each University, upon sufficient Cause shown, and after due Investigation, to require a Principal or Professor to retire from his Office on a retiring Allowance, subject to the Proviso, that no such Requisition shall have any Effect until it has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; but the said Act does not provide in what Manner a Principal or Professor, disabled from the Performance of his Duties by Age or Infirmary, should make Application to be allowed to retire on a retiring Allowance; and whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made as to the Mode of Procedure in such a Case, the Commissioners statute and ordain:—

That any Principal or Professor desiring to retire from his Office on a retiring Allowance, on the Ground of Age or Infirmary, shall apply by Petition to the University Court, stating the Grounds on which his Application is rested, and if the University Court, after due Inquiry, shall be satisfied that the Petitioner is, by Reason of Age or Infirmary, permanently incapable to discharge the Duties of his Office, they shall report the same to Her Majesty in Council, together with a Statement of their Opinion that the Petitioner ought to be permitted to retire; and, in the Event of the Opinion of the University Court receiving the Approval of

Her Majesty in Council, the Petitioner shall be entitled to retire from his Office, and to receive a retiring Allowance on the same Scale and Conditions as may for the Time be applicable to the Case of a Principal or Professor retiring under Section XII. 5 of the said Act.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

At Edinburgh, the Twenty-fifth Day of June Eighteen Hundred and Sixty Years.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners for the Purposes of the said Act are empowered to revise the respective Foundations, Mortifications, Bursaries, and Donations, bestowed on any of the Universities or Colleges mentioned in the said Act, or for the Benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein; and, further, if in the Case of any such Gift or Endowment which has taken Effect for more than Fifty Years, and has been held by any of the said Universities or Colleges, or by any other Person in Trust for or on behalf of the same, or of any Persons therein, it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, so far as consistent with the Promotion of such Interests, may be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions or Directions affecting such Gift or Endowment, to alter or modify such Conditions or Directions, and to frame a new Statute or Ordinance for the Application of such Gift or Endowment, in such manner as may better advance the Purpose thereof; and whereas by Deed of Mortification dated the Fourth day of June Sixteen Hundred and Eighty-one, Mr John Ramsay, Minister of Markinch, in the County of Fife, mortified his Lands of Duniface, in the said Parish and County, for the Education and Entertainment of Three Youths at School and College in St Andrew's, in the Manner and subject to the Conditions in the said Deed more particularly set forth; and whereas, since the said Date, the Value of the said Lands has greatly increased, so that it appears to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor would be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions and Directions affecting the said Mortification; and whereas Two of the said Three Bursaries were vacant at the Commencement of the last College Session; and whereas a Competition took Place for Appointment to such two Bursaries, subject to the Condition that their Number, Value, and Duration should be determined by the Commissioners, and Two Students were declared successful Competitors for such Bursaries, but have not received any Presentation thereto; and whereas the Third of the said Bursaries has become vacant since the Expiration of the last College Session; the Commissioners statute and ordain, with reference to the University of St Andrew's and the said Mortification, as follows:—

I. Hereafter there shall be Eight Bursars and One Fellow on the said Foundation, to be called respectively the Ramsay Bursars and Ramsay Fellow, who shall receive the net annual Rents and Proceeds of the said Lands or other Property included in the said Mortification in the following Proportions, that is to say, each Bursar on the Foundation shall receive annually during the Continuance of his Bursary One Twelfth Part of such net annual Rents and Proceeds, and the Fellow shall receive annually during the Continuance of his Fellowship Four Twelfth Parts of such Rents and Proceeds.

II. The sole Patronage of, and Right of Nomination to, the said Eight Bursaries, shall be vested in Sir Alexander Ramsay of Balmain, Baronet, and his Heirs, in whom is now vested the Patronage of the Three Bursaries under the said Mortification.

III. The Senatus of the United College of St Salvador and St Leonard shall, on or before the First Day of August in each Year, intimate to the Patron the Number of Bursaries then vacant, and the Patron shall thereupon, and not later than the Fifteenth day of October then next, intimate to the College the Name or Names of the Person or Persons whom he nominates to such vacant Bursary or Bursaries, nominating at least One Person for each vacant Bursary; and, in the Event of more than One Person being nominated for any Bursary, such Bursary shall be competed for by the Persons so nominated: Provided, that in the Event of the Patron failing at any Time to intimate his Nomination to any Bursary on or before the said Fifteenth Day of October, such Bursary shall, at the Commencement of the Session, be thrown open to general competition among the Students then entering upon the First Year of the Curriculum in Arts in the said College; Provided also, that Nominations shall not be made to more than Two Bursaries, nor shall more than Two Bursaries be filled up, in any One Session, and, in the Event of more than Two Bursaries being vacant at One Time, the vacant Bursary or Bursaries above the Number of Two shall be suspended and kept vacant until some subsequent Session, so that there shall not be more than Two Bursaries filled up in any one Session, as aforesaid; and the Portion of the Income of the mortified Estate so set free shall be added to the Capital, or employed in the Improvement of the Lands belonging to the Mortification; and the Funds so added to the Capital may be invested by the College, in Land, or on Heritable Security, or in the Public Funds, and no otherwise.

IV. All Students, without Limitation or Preference of Names, entering upon the First Year of the Curriculum in Arts, and being between the Ages of Fifteen and Nineteen Years on the First Day of the Session in the United College, shall be eligible for Nomination on or before the preceding Fifteenth Day of October.

V. Every Student nominated to a Bursary under the said Mortification, shall, before being admitted thereto, be required to pass the Entrance Examination of Students, and, upon being admitted to his Bursary, he shall proceed regularly through the Curriculum in Arts, and undergo the Examinations required by the College for the Degree of Master of Arts, and shall also submit to such Examinations during his Curriculum, as may be required of the Foundation Bursars of the College: Provided that, if he shall fail to pass the Entrance Examination, or any of the above mentioned subsequent Examinations, he shall from and after such Failure forfeit his Bursary: Provided also, that in Case of any gross Misconduct on the Part of a Bursar, it shall be in the power of the Senatus Academicus of the University, with the Approval of the University Court, to deprive him of his Bursary.

VI. Each Bursar shall, subject to the above mentioned Conditions, be entitled to hold his Bursary for a Period of Eight Years, provided that he shall, during the first Four of such Years give Attendance on the Course of Study in the Faculty of Arts in the United College, and shall, on the Completion thereof, proceed to the Degree of Master of Arts, and during the next Four Years shall give Attendance on the Course of Study in Divinity in St Mary's College; but in case of a Bursar not proceeding with the Study of Divinity in St Mary's College, his Bursary shall lapse and become vacant at the End of his Course in the Faculty of Arts in the United College.

VII. Nothing herein contained shall affect the Claims of the Two successful Competitors for the Bursaries competed for at the Commencement of last Session, as above mentioned, to be presented by the Patron to Two Bursaries to be held as from the Beginning of last Session: Provided always, that, if so presented, they shall hereafter hold their Bursaries subject to the above mentioned Regulations and Conditions as to the Value, Duration, and Terms of Tenure for the Future, of Bursaries under the said Mortification: Provided also that the Presentation of the said Two Bursars, as aforesaid, shall not interfere with the Right of the Patron to nominate Two Persons for vacant Bursaries on or before the Fifteenth Day of October Eighteen hundred and Sixty.

VIII. The Ramsay Fellowship shall be open for general Competition to all Persons who have passed regularly and uninterruptedly through the Course of Study in the Faculty of Arts in the United College, and have completed such Course of Study within Four Years before the Time at which the Competition shall take Place, and the successful Competitor for the Fellowship, if he have not already been admitted to the Degree of Master of Arts, shall not be admitted to the Fellowship, unless he proceed to that Degree within One Year after the Time of the Competition.

IX. The Examination of Candidates for the Ramsay Fellowship shall embrace all the Branches of Study included in the Curriculum in Arts, and the Examination shall be conducted by the Professors whose Branches are included in the said Curriculum.

X. The first Competition for the said Fellowship shall take Place at a Time to be hereafter fixed by the Senatus of the United College, with the Sanction of the Commissioners.

XI. The said Fellowship shall be tenable for Four Years, and on its becoming vacant at the End of such Four Years, or by the Death of the Holder, it shall be again competed for under the same Conditions, and so on thereafter as often as it shall become vacant.

XII. It shall not be competent for any Person to hold the said Fellowship along with any Bursary in the University of St Andrew's.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

INDIA OFFICE, July 14, 1860.

THE Secretary of State for India in Council has received the following Papers:—

No. 1.

GENERAL ORDER OF THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

Simla, April 30, 1860.

His Excellency the Governor-General is pleased to publish, for general information, the following Despatch from Major-General Sir J. Michel, K.C.B., late Commanding Malwa Division, No. 9, dated 3d January 1859, reporting operations against the rebels by a column under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel H. R. Benson, Her Majesty's 17th Lancers.

These operations were duly reported to the Home Authorities in March 1858, in the Foreign Department, but it having been ascertained that Lieutenant-Colonel Benson's Report was not received in that Department, and was therefore not transmitted at the same time, that deficiency is now supplied by its publication.

No. 2.

Major General Michel, Commanding Malwa Division of the Army, to the Adjutant-General of the Bengal Army.

Chapeira, January 3d, 1859.

SIR,

No. 9.

I HAVE the honour to forward a Despatch from Lieutenant-Colonel Benson, detailing the pursuit, and finally the defeat of the rebel forces under the Rao Sahib and Tantia Topee.

2. When the small number of Colonel Benson's column is taken into account,—that this column, without tents, camp followers, or commissariat, in five days performed the distance of 142 miles, and at its termination defeated a very superior force, taking elephants, camels, &c.,—I trust his Lordship the Commander-in-Chief will consider that Colonel Benson, and the troops under his command, have well done their duty.

I have, &c.,

J. MICHEL, Major-General,
Commanding Malwa Division Army.

No. 3.

Lieutenant-Colonel Benson, Commanding 2d Cavalry Column, to the Assistant-Adjutant-General.

SIR, Gerapore, December 29, 1858.

I HAVE the honour to inform you, for the information of the Major-General Commanding, that after a pursuit of 148 miles in one hundred and twenty hours, the column under my command, strength as per margin,* came into action with the rebel force this morning, at about three miles distance from Gerapore, their number apparently about 4,000 fighting men, under command of Tantia Topee and the Rao Sahib, and after an engagement of two hours, put them to flight, and pursued them for ten miles, with heavy loss, capturing six elephants, and between thirty and forty camels, besides treasure and a prisoner, rank unknown, when, in consequence of the rebels dispersing over a hilly and thick jungle country, and the horses, especially the draft horses of the artillery, beat, I did not deem it expedient to follow further, and abandoned the pursuit at about twelve miles distance from Monohur Sharrah, at 3 P.M. Further detail I have the honour to state below.

1. On Friday the 24th, at Ninose, having carefully ascertained that the passes leading out by Reipore had been blocked up by cutting down trees, &c., which duty had been most successfully performed by Lieutenant Coglan, 4th Native Infantry, whom I had detached the day previous with 100 men for that purpose to Reipore, I struck my camp and marched to Nowgaum, and next day, not being able to gain any intelligence of the movements of the rebels, I made a reconnoissance, taking with me a small body of cavalry and Highlanders, and found that the rebels, after an attack on Pertabghur, had marched the previous evening towards Mundesoor.

2. I immediately returned to camp, and made a forced march to protect Mundesoor; arrived there that evening, and heard the rebels were encamped four miles distant.

3. Next morning, taking two days' supplies, and leaving the artillery, waggons, infantry, led horses, tents, and baggage of every description, also ghorahwallas and grass-cutters behind, under command of Captain Holmes, with orders to follow leisurely, according to the instructions I might send back, I started towards Setur Mhow; but finding my information had been wrong I changed my direction towards Caimpore, at which place I came on the track of the rebels and followed it; for, as most of the villages had been plundered, it was often difficult to obtain guides, and halted that night on the left bank of the Chumbul River.

4. Marched at daybreak, for I could not follow the track by moonlight, crossed the Chumbul, and came up with the rebel force encamped at Dug; at 5.40 P.M. drove in their advanced posts, and bivouacked for the night in sight of their fires.

5. Advanced at 4 o'clock A.M., so as to attack them at daybreak, and halted in the plains of Dug till light, when I found the main body had left the camp the previous evening, on their outposts being driven in, but had left strong mounted picquets, which had remained till 3 A.M., and then followed the main body; pressed after them, and crossed the Koliscind River.

6. Having started at 3 o'clock A.M. from the right bank of the Koliscind, and marching eight miles, I came in sight of the fires of the rebel camp at Gerapore, when I advanced over the ploughed land to deaden sound, and waited for day-light. I then advanced, and found that the main body had marched, and were two miles ahead. I immediately trotted off after the main body, and came up with them; and, on emerging from a wooded lane, found them drawn up in line of battle on a rising ground, with a jungle and a ravine in their rear. I formed the cavalry into columns of division and advanced, when the rebels commenced firing. I then moved my leading column to the right, uncovering my guns, brought them rapidly to the front, when they opened fire at about 400 yards, grape and shell. The rebels, after a great deal of shouting, retired, and I ordered out two divisions of cavalry to attack on their (the enemy's) right, which they did, driving them into the jungle. I then re-formed, and advanced in two columns well together through the jungle, and across the ravine, rebels retiring before me. On coming out on the other side of the jungle, which was a thin stripe, I found that the rebels had changed their position, left back, and re-formed on a rising ground on my left. I advanced my two columns, bringing forward my right, and formed line to the front, guns in the centre, and advanced to within 400 yards from their line and opened fire, pouring in grape and shell, apparently with great effect. The rebels then made an attempt at an advance in line, and failing that, tried to turn my left flank, but I directed Sir George Leith, who commanded the left squadron, to half wheel to his left and move up, which he did quickly, and they retired. I then ordered Sir William Gordon, who commanded the right squadron, to advance, bringing up his right shoulders, which he did, and advanced, destroying and cutting up numbers, the rebels flying through the jungle and across the ravine, but he gallantly followed them, and cut off a number of camels, &c. I then advanced with the artillery and other squadron, cutting up a few rebels, and re-formed the force, and followed through the jungle, across the ravine, but, owing to the difficulty of having to make a road for the guns, I was delayed for a few minutes, and dismounted the cavalry to rest. The moment the guns were across, I took up the pursuit over an open but stony and hilly country, where I again found the rebels drawn up on a hill; but, on bringing the guns to the front, they quickly retreated, and I then pursued them in line, guns trotting down the road, and a squadron of Lancers on each flank, for about five miles, towards Monohur Sharrah, when, in consequence of their dispersing, and the horses being beat, I abandoned the pursuit; but seeing four elephants in their front, I sent a troop under Captain Lowe, supported by another under Sir George Leith, to dash forward and bring them in, which duty Captain Lowe performed in a very satisfactory manner. I then returned to Gerapore and bivouacked for the night.

7. I think it my duty to bring to the notice of the Major-General Commanding, the gallant and able manner in which Major Learmonth commanded and led the 17th Lancers.

8. Also to mention, with the highest praise, Serjeant-Major Butler, Royal Horse Artillery, who was in command of the guns, for the celerity and precision with which he brought them into action over a most difficult country.

9. I also beg to state that I received every assistance from my Acting Staff-Officer, Lieutenant Gonne, 17th Lancers, from my Interpreter Mr Reeves, 6th Native Infantry, and my Acting Aide-de-Camp, Lieutenant Nolan, 17th Lancers; all of whom were most active and intelligent in conveying orders, &c.

10. To the untiring zeal and energy of Captain Hutchinson, the Political Agent, who accompanied me during these operations, both in obtaining accurate information, procuring supplies, and rendering me every assistance in his power, I attribute in a very great measure the success which has attended them.

11. I cannot too highly praise the conduct of both officers and men in this pursuit for their gallantry in the field, and for the cheerfulness with which they bore their great fatigue, and the privation of liquor and European supplies, sleeping each night on the bare ground without any sort of covering, although the nights were exceedingly cold, without a murmur or complaint of any kind. Casualties as per margin.*

I have, &c.,

H. R. BENSON, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Commanding 2d Cavalry Column.
