TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1860.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, August 28, 1860.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by Her Majesty to release you from further attendance in Parliament, and at the same time to convey to you Her Majesty's acknowledgments for the zeal and assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the performance of your important duties during the long and laborious Session of Parliament now about to close.

Her Majesty commands us to inform you that Her relations with Foreign Powers are friendly and satisfactory, and Her Majesty trusts that there is no danger of any interruption of the general peace of Europe. Events of considerable importance are indeed taking place in Italy; but if no Foreign Powers interfere therein, and if the Italians are left to settle their own affairs, the tranquillity of other States will remain undisturbed.

The proposed Conferences on the subject of the cession of Savoy and of Nice to France have not yet been held; but Her Majesty confidently trusts that in any negotiations which may take place, full and adequate arrangements will be made for securing, in accordance with the spirit and letter of the Treaty of Vienna of 1815, the neutrality and independence of the Swiss Confederation.

That neutrality and independence were an object to which all the Powers who were parties to the Treaties of Vienna attached great importance; and they are no less important now, than then, for the general interests of Europe.

Her Majesty commands us to assure you that the atrocities which have been committed upon the Christian population in Syria have inspired Her Majesty with the deepest grief and indignation. Her Majesty has cheerfully concurred with the Emperor of Austria, the Emperor of the French, the Prince-Regent of Prussia, and the Emperor of Russia, in entering into an engagement with the Sultan, by which temporary military assistance has been afforded to the Sultan for the purpose of re-establishing order in that part of his dominions.

We are commanded by Her Majesty to inform you that Her Majesty greatly regrets that the pacific overtures which, by Her Majesty's directions, Her Envoy in China made to the Imperial Government at Peking, did not lead to any satisfactory result; and it has therefore been necessary that the combined Naval and Military Forces which Her Majesty, and Her Ally the Emperor of the French, had sent to the China Seas, should advance towards the Northern Provinces of China, for the purpose of supporting the just demands of the Allied Powers.

Her Majesty, desirous of giving all possible weight to Her diplomatic action in this matter, has sent to China, as Special Ambassador for this service, the Earl of Elgin, who negotiated the Treaty of Tien-Sing, the full and faithful execution of which is demanded from the Emperor of China.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty commands us to convey to you Her warm acknowledgments for the Liberal Supplies which you have granted for the service of the present year, and for the provision which you have made for the Defences which are essential for the security of Her Dockyards and Arsenals.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Her Majesty commands us to express to you the gratification and pride with which She has witnessed the rapid progress in Military Efficiency which Her Volunteer Forces have already made, and which is highly honourable to their spirit and patriotism.

Her Majesty has given Her cordial assent to the Act for Amalgamating Her Local European Force in India with Her Forces engaged for general service.

Her Majesty trusts that the additional freedom which you have given to Commerce will lead to fresh development of productive industry.

Her Majesty has given Her ready assent to several measures of great public usefulness.

The Acts for regulating the relations between Landlord and Tenant in Ireland will, Her Majesty trusts, remove some fertile causes of disagreement.

The Act for amending the law which regulates the Discipline of Her Majesty's Navy has established salutary rules for the administration of justice by Courts-Martial, and for maintaining good order in the Naval Service.

The Act bearing upon Endowed Charities will give means for a less expensive administration of the property of Charities, and for the speedy and economical settlement of disputes affecting such property; while, by another Act, relief afforded to Her Majesty's Roman Catholic Subjects with regard to their Charitable Endowments.

Several other Acts have been passed for Legal Reform, which must lead to the more satisfactory administration of justice.

Her Majesty has observed with deep satisfaction the spirit of loyalty, of order, and of obedience to the law which prevails among Her Subjects, both in the United Kingdom and in Her Dominions beyond sea; and Her Majesty has witnessed with heartfelt pleasure the warm and affectionate reception given to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales by Her North American Subjects.

You will, on returning to your several Counties, have duties to perform scarcely less important than those which have occupied you during the Session of Parliament; and Her Majesty fervently prays that the blessing of Almighty God may attend your efforts, and guide them to the attainment of the objects of Her constant solicitude—the welfare and the happiness of Her People.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Tuesday the sixth day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the sixth day of November next.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
August 30, 1860.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Manila, enclosing a copy of the regulations established by the French authorities for the port of Saigon, in Cochin China. By the above regulations, all vessels anchoring at Saigon will be required to pay, within eight days after their arrival, anchorage dues at the rate of two piastres per ton, the measurement for sailing vessels being fixed in accordance with the Ordinance of the 18th November 1837, and for steam vessels by that of the 18th August 1839; the anchorage due will cover all customs duties, whether of importation or of exportation, as regards every kind of merchandize, except opium, upon which an import duty of 20 per cent. ad valorem will be levied.

Any person throwing ballast overboard in the port, will be liable to a penalty of 50 piastres. The captain of the port will indicate places where ballast may be deposited.

Should any death occur on board a vessel anchored in the port, the master of the vessel is required to give immediate notice of the occurrence to the captain of the port, and to act in conformity with the rules established in respect of such matter.

Any master of a vessel quitting the place of anchorage assigned by the captain of the port will be liable to a penalty of 10 piastres.

If a vessel should require repairing, fumigating, or caulking, the master is required to inform the captain of the port, who will prescribe the regulations necessary to prevent accidents. Every infraction of this rule will entail a penalty of 50 piastres.

No merchant vessel will be allowed to anchor or moor below the south fort.

No vessel will be permitted to quit the port of Saigon without the authority of the captain of the port, to whom masters of vessels are required to exhibit their bills of lading, and a list of passengers, signed by the director of the affairs of Cochin China, as also the receipt of the officer charged with the collection of the anchorage due.

The pass of the captain of the port is to be signed by the captain of the guard-ship of St Jacques.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas an Act of Parliament was passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage."

And whereas another Act of Parliament was passed in the 11th year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office."

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said two before-mentioned Acts, by a certain Warrant in writing duly made, and bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the 21st day of July 1857, did order, direct, and declare (amongst other things,) that all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, Colonial, or Foreign, therein mentioned and described, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, might be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the several places mentioned and set forth in the Schedule A to the said now reciting Warrant annexed, and all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, Colonial, or Foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, might be transmitted by the post between the several Colonies and places mentioned and set forth in the Schedule B to the said now reciting Warrant annexed, and that all such respective packets should be so transmitted respectively, in conformity with, and under, and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter respectively mentioned and contained, and that the single rate of postage for the transmission thereof respectively, should be that which was mentioned and set forth against the said places respectively in the said Schedules A and B, and that all such respective packets so transmitted should be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage therein-after mentioned.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in further exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said several before recited Acts of Parliament, by two other Warrants in writing duly made, and bearing date respectively at Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, one of the said two last-mentioned Warrants the 19th day of June 1858, and the other of the said two last-mentioned Warrants the 1st day of July 1859, and respectively reciting (amongst other Warrants,) the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, did make and declare certain other regulations, orders, directions, and conditions therein mentioned, respecting certain of the said packets in and by the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, authorised to be transmitted by the post as aforesaid.

And whereas it is expedient to authorise the transmission by the post of packets of a like kind between any part of the United Kingdom and the Island of Saint Thomas, and other Danish Colonies in the West Indies, and also between the said Island of Saint Thomas and the other Danish Colonies in the West Indies and the British Colonies in the West Indies, and to fix certain rates of postage at which such packets may be so transmitted, in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said two hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. All packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, Colonial, or Foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, may be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and the Island of Saint Thomas, and the other Danish Colonies in the West Indies, and also between the said Island of Saint Thomas and the other Danish Colonies in the West Indies and the British Colonies in the West Indies (without passing through the United Kingdom), the sea conveyance being by British packet-boat, and on every such packet so transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant as aforesaid, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, an uniform single rate of postage of three pence; and on every such packet so transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant as aforesaid, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the progressive and additional rates of postage, and according to the scale of weight mentioned and contained in and directed to be charged, taken, and paid on and in respect of the several packets exceeding four ounces in weight, authorized to be transmitted by the post under the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857.

2. The terms "books, publications, or works of literature or art," in this Warrant used, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as are declared to be meant and comprised in and by the like terms used in the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, and all letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters, shall and may be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, but any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter or communication in the nature of a letter, shall not be entitled to the privilege of being transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorise the sending by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, of any patterns, or books of patterns, or papers of patterns, of any article or thing whatsoever.

3. Every letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter or a communication in the nature of a letter, sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, and shall be charged and chargeable with postage as a letter, and shall be transmitted by the post in conformity with, and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions, relating to letters posted and addressed in like manner.

4. If any question shall arise whether any such letter, notice, or other communication as is last hereinbefore mentioned, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, or is chargeable as a letter, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

5. All packets to be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be so transmitted respectively, in conformity with, and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained; that is to say:—All such packets so to be transmitted between any part of the United Kingdom and the Island of Saint Thomas, and the other Danish Colonies in the West Indies, shall be subject as well to the several progressive and additional rates of postage mentioned and contained in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, as also to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions respectively mentioned, expressed, and contained in and by the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, with respect to the several packets therein mentioned and authorized to be transmitted between any part of the United Kingdom and the several places mentioned in the said Schedule A to the said recited Warrant annexed (except such as relate exclusively to packets posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales, addressed to the United Kingdom), and all such packets so to be transmitted between the Island of Saint Thomas and the other Danish Colonies in the West Indies, and the British Colonies in the West Indies (without passing through the United Kingdom), shall be subject as well to the several progressive and additional rates of postage mentioned and contained in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, as also to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions (except as aforesaid) respectively mentioned, expressed, and contained in and by the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, so far as the said several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions are consistent with, and are not repugnant to the provisions of this Warrant, in like manner in all respects, and as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if the said several progressive and additional rates of postage, and the said several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions respectively mentioned and contained in the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, (except as aforesaid), and so far as the same are consistent with, and are not repugnant to the provisions herein contained, were inserted, expressed, and repeated in this present Warrant.

6. Provided always, that in all cases where any packet may be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, and any such packet shall be so transmitted as not to be transmitted in conformity with the provisions thereof, and under and subject to the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions herein contained or referred to, and shall, by reason thereof, have become liable, under or by virtue of this Warrant, to be charged with the like rate or amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, or with any higher rate or amount of postage, the Postmaster-General shall, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, at his discretion, either to charge any such packet with the rate or amount of postage to which it shall have become liable under or by virtue of this Warrant as aforesaid, or to charge any such packet with any other rate or amount of postage which he shall think proper, not exceeding the rate or amount of postage to which such packet shall have become liable under or by virtue of this Warrant as aforesaid, nor less than the rate of postage which such packet would have been chargeable with if transmitted in conformity with the provisions thereof, and under and subject to the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions herein contained or referred to.

7. The rates of postage chargeable on books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

8. The terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed in like manner as the like terms and expressions used in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, so far as they are applicable to, and consistent with, and are not contrary or repugnant to the intent and meaning of this Warrant.

9. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

10. This Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of October 1860.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the 22d day of August 1860.

JOHN BAGWELL.
WM. DUNBAR.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of Foreign or Colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office," further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and power is also given to the Postmaster-General (amongst other things) to collect and receive the Foreign and Colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post; and also, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to require the postage, British, Colonial, or Foreign, of any letters sent by the post, to be prepaid either in money or in stamps, as he might think fit, on the same being put into the Post Office; and also, with such consent, to abolish or restrict the pre-payment in money of postage on letters sent by the post, either altogether, or on certain letters, and to require the pre-payment thereof to be in stamps, and also to refuse to receive or send by the post any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made, and power is also given to the Postmaster-General, and any officer of the Post Office, to detain any letters which should be posted or sent by the post contrary to the regulations therein mentioned, and to open such letters, and either to return them to the senders thereof or to forward them to the places of their destination, charged in either case with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have, by divers Warrants under their hands, fixed, made, and established certain rates of British postage payable on the transmission by the post of certain Colonial letters therein respectively mentioned, and it is expedient to make regulations for the pre-payment of the several rates of postage payable on letters posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Bermuda, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this present Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows, that is to say:—

1. On every letter posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Bermuda, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

2. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Bermuda, without any postage having been paid thereon, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

3. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Bermuda, and the postage paid thereon shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable under or by virtue of the regulations in force relating thereto, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage paid thereon and the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with the further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

4. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege granted by the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, in favour of petitions and addresses forwarded to Her Majesty by the post, nor the privilege granted by the same Act to Members of each House of Parliament to receive by the post petitions and addresses to Her Majesty, and petitions addressed to either House of Parliament, not exceeding thirty-two ounces in weight, nor the privilege granted to printed votes or proceedings of Parliament, nor shall anything in this Warrant contained in anywise prejudice or affect the privileges which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service now by law enjoy, of sending and receiving by the post, letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

5. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

6. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders, directions, or regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other orders, directions, or regulations in lieu thereof.

7. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of October next.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the twenty-third day of August 1860.
