DUNBLANE, DOUNE, & CALLANDER RAILWAY.

(Power to raise farther sums of money; to create preference shares; to cancel shares; to create debenture stock; and amendment or repeal of Act.)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for an Act to enable the Dunblane, Doune, and Callander Railway Company to raise farther sums of money to meet their liabilities, and for the general purposes of their undertaking, by creation of new shares, and by borrowing, and also to forfeit certain shares, and to cancel the whole or any part of the shares of the existing capital remaining unissued or in the hands of the Company, and in lieu thereof to issue new shares, and also to attach to all or any of the new shares to be created by the Act, and to the shares of the existing capital of the Company remaining unissued or in the hands of the Company, or any part thereof, such privileges of preference or priority in payment of interest or dividend, or otherwise as may be considered expedient, or as may be determined by the Company; and also to enable the Company to create and issue a debenture stock in lieu of and in substitution of the loans or mortgage debt presently existing, or that has been authorised or may be authorised by the Act to be applied for, and to make further provision for regulating the capital of the Company.

And it is proposed by the said intended Act, so far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, to amend or repeal wholly or partially "The Dunblane, Doune, and Callander Railway Act, 1856."

And Notice is farther Given, that copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 23d day of December next.

Dated this 16th day of October 1860.
