

in the Order, Burials within certain limits, or in certain Burial-Grounds or places of Burial shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any qualifications or exceptions mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act; provided always, that notice of such Representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown-Agent in Edinburgh, and Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such Burial-Ground is situate, and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a Representation, stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor pronounced by the Sheriff of the County of Forfar, finding that the allegations contained in a Petition of John Henderson and others, (being ten or more persons assessed to the Relief of the Poor of the Parish of Dundee,) that the Burial-Ground within the Town of Dundee, commonly known as 'THE HOWFF,' is dangerous to health and offensive, have been proved; and in the said Representation has recommended the issue of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, directing that Burials should be forthwith Discontinued in the said Burial-Ground: And whereas notice of the said Representation, and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the 5th day of November next, Burials be Discontinued in the Burial-Ground within the Town of Dundee, commonly known as 'The Howff.'

ARTHUR HELPS.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter sixty-five, for authorizing the Commissioners of the Treasury to further regulate the postage on re-directed letters of commissioned and warrant officers, seamen, and soldiers, whilst on actual service, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are empowered, by Warrant under their hands, to authorize all letters received by the post on their own private concerns, by commissioned officers and warrant officers, whether in the army or the navy, and midshipmen and master's mates in the navy, whether at home or abroad; and by commissioned and warrant officers, midshipmen, and master's mates in Her Majesty's Indian military and naval forces, and by seamen employed in Her Majesty's navy, whether at home or abroad; and by serjeants, corporals, drummers, trumpeters, fifers, and private soldiers in Her Majesty's regular forces, militia, fencible regiments, artillery, or royal marines, whether at home or abroad; and by serjeants, corporals, drummers, trumpeters, fifers, private soldiers, and seamen in Her Majesty's Indian military and naval forces, whilst respectively actually employed in Her Majesty's service, to be delivered to all such persons respectively free of Foreign postage, chargeable on or in respect of re-direction on such letters, when such letters shall have been re-directed and again forwarded by the post, and transmitted or sent through any Foreign country (the several conditions imposed by the fifty-third section of the Act of the third and fourth Victoria, chapter ninety-six, with respect to letters received by the post by the privileged persons therein mentioned being duly observed with respect to letters to be received by the post by such seamen, serjeants, corporals, drummers, trumpeters, fifers, and private soldiers respectively as aforesaid); and also by Warrant under their hands, to reduce or remit the rates of postage, British or Colonial, which might be chargeable by law on or in respect of re-direction on all letters received by the post on their own private concerns, by commissioned officers and warrant officers, whether in the army or navy, and midshipmen and master's mates in the navy, whether at home or abroad; and by commissioned officers and warrant officers, midshipmen, and master's mates in Her Majesty's Indian military and naval forces, whilst respectively actually employed in Her Majesty's service, which shall have been re-directed and again forwarded by the post.

And whereas it is expedient to regulate the postage on certain re-directed letters of commissioned and warrant officers, seamen, and soldiers, whilst on actual service, as hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers given and reserved to us in and by the said recited Act of Parliament, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided,) order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. All letters received by the post on their own private concerns, by commissioned officers and warrant officers, whether in the army or the navy, and midshipmen and master's mates in the navy, whether at home or abroad; and by commissioned and warrant officers, midshipmen, and master's mates in Her Majesty's Indian military and naval forces, and by seamen employed in Her Majesty's navy, whether at home or abroad; and by serjeants, corporals, drummers, trumpeters, fifers, and private soldiers in Her Majesty's regular forces, militia, fencible regiments, artillery, or royal marines, whether at home or abroad; and by serjeants, corporals, drummers, trumpeters, fifers, private soldiers, and seamen in Her Majesty's Indian military and naval forces, whilst respectively actually employed in Her Majesty's service, shall be delivered to all such persons respectively, free of Foreign postage, chargeable on or in respect of re-direction on such letters, when such letters shall have been re-directed and again forwarded by the post, and transmitted or sent through any Foreign country.

2. Every such letter so to be received by the post by any seaman, serjeant, corporal, drummer, trumpeter, fifer, or private soldier, under or by virtue of this Warrant, must not exceed half an ounce in weight, and the postage of every such letter (unless the same be sent from parts beyond the seas) must be paid (or every such letter, if posted within the United Kingdom, must be duly and properly stamped) upon putting it into a post-office established under the authority of the
