*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 7, 1860.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Naples, enclosing a copy of a Decree, dated the 18th ultimo, and published in the Official Journal of that City, of which the following is a translation:—

Art. I. From the date of the publication of the present Decree all merchandize arriving from any other of the United Provinces of Italy will be considered home produce, and consequently treated as such in Neapolitan ports.

The transport of such goods will be considered as a coasting trade when carried on in vessels under the National flag. Our customs regulations will therefore be applied to the same.

The custom-houses along the frontier of the Marches and Umbria are abolished.

The existing regulations respecting the Island of Sicily will remain in force until the Italian tariff is introduced there.

Art. II. The duties fixed in the table annexed to the Decree of 24th of September last, on the importation and exportation of certain merchandize, will continue provisionally in force.

Art. III. Foreign goods arriving from the free ports of Leghorn, Genoa, and Ancona, will pay, at the custom-houses of the ports at which they arrive, the duties fixed by the tariff at present in force.

Vessels with such produce can only deal with first-class custom-houses, according to the regulations of June 19, 1826.

Art. IV. The exportation of grain from the Italian provinces and from Sicily is provisionally prohibited.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 8, 1860.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Parana, a copy of a new Custom-House Law for the thirteen Provinces of the Argentine Confederation, by which the import and export duties of the Confederation are reduced to the rates levied at Buenos Ayres.

By the same law, whenever the amount of duty exceeds fifty dollars, it may be paid in bills at six months date, instead of in bills at two and six months respectively, for each third of the amount, as heretofore.

A Decree for giving effect to the above law extends to the whole of the Confederation tariff of valuations in force at Buenos Ayres.

WAR-OFFICE, November 8, 1860.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Soldier of Her Majesty's Army, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their names ; viz. :—

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
7th Hussars, (now of the 11th Hussars)	Major Charles Craufurd Fraser,  Date of Act of Bravery, 31st December 1858	For conspicuous and cool gallantry on the 31st December 1858, in having volunteered, at great personal risk, and under a sharp fire of musketry, to swim to the rescue of Captain Stisted and some men of the 7th Hussars, who were in imminent danger of being drowned in the River Raptée, while in pursuit of the rebels. Major Fraser succeeded in this gallant service, although at the time partially disabled, not having recovered from a severe wound received while leading a Squadron in a charge against some fanatics in the Action of Nawabgunge, on the 13th June 1858.
78th Regiment .....	Surgeon Joseph Jee, C.B.,  Date of Act of Bravery, 25th September 1857	For most conspicuous gallantry and important Services, on the entry of the late Major-General Havelock's relieving force into Lucknow, on the 25th September 1857, in having during action (when the 78th Highlanders, then in possession of the Char Bagh, captured two 9-pounders at the point of the bayonet), by great exertion and devoted exposure, attended to the large number of men wounded in the charge, whom he succeeded in getting removed on cots and the backs of their comrades, until he had collected the Dooly-bearers who had fled. Subsequently, on the same day, in endeavouring to reach the Residency with the wounded men, Surgeon Jee became besieged by an overwhelming force in the Mote-Mehal, where he remained during the whole night and following morning, voluntarily and repeatedly exposing himself to a heavy fire in proceeding to dress the wounded men who fell while serving a 24-pounder in a most exposed situation. He eventually succeeded in taking many of the wounded, through a cross fire of ordnance and musketry, safely into the Residency, by the river bank, although repeatedly warned not to make the perilous attempt.
93d Regiment (late)	Colour-Serjeant James Munro  Date of Act of Bravery, 16th November 1857	For devoted gallantry at Secunderabagh on the 16th November 1857, in having promptly rushed to the rescue of Captain E. Walsh, of the same corps, when wounded and in danger of his life, whom he carried to a place of comparative safety, to which place the Serjeant was brought in, very shortly afterwards, badly wounded.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Translation of a Notice which has been issued by the Board of Health at Lisbon, transmitted by Her Majesty's Consul at that place, reporting that all the Ports of the Empire of Morocco are considered free from infection with the cholera morbus.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 8, 1860.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Lisbon, transmitting copies of two Notices issued by the Board of Health of that port, of which the following are Translations:—

The Board of Health of this kingdom hereby make known that the Port of Gibraltar is considered suspected of cholera morbus.

Lisbon, 19th October 1860.

The Board of Health of this kingdom having observed that the 16th Article of the Edict of the 8th March last is repeatedly and frequently infringed on the part of Captains of vessels, in presenting at the Ports of the kingdom more than one Bill of Health, contrary to the disposition of the quarantine regulations of the same date, and thereby causing serious inconvenience to the service of the Health Stations and to commercial interests, they have decided to give publicity to the above cited Article in a separate Edict, the tenor of which is as follows:—

ARTICLE 16.

No vessel must have more than one Bill of Health, and that it may be considered in regular order, it should be passed according to the official form of the Portuguese Consul at the port of departure, and have the visas of the Portuguese Consuls at the ports they may touch at, or put into through stress of weather.

1. The Bill of Health, as also the visas, shall make particular mention of the state of the public health not only of the port but of the whole of the Consular district; the Consuls declaring, as near as possible, the proximate number of cases of cholera, yellow fever, and plague, when in any part of the Consular district there exists any of the said disorders.

2. In the absence of the Portuguese Consul, the Bill of Health can be passed, and the visas certified by the Spanish Consuls, and in the absence of the latter by those of any other Nation having commercial relations with Portugal.

3. The Bills of Health that do not bring a Consular attestation shall not be considered in any way valid.

In order that ignorance or other pretexts be not alleged, the Board of Health, in virtue of the authority conceded to them by the 16th Article of the Decree of the 3d January 1837, hereby make known that the vessels arriving in the ports of the kingdom, presenting more than one Bill of Health after the 1st January 1861, or with a Bill of Health not in the official form, shall be considered as having an irregular Bill of Health, and as such, subject to the dispositions and sanitary measures relative to this infringement of the regulations.

The Board likewise make known that the official form of Bills of Health, to which the above 16th

Article refers, is the same that was ordered to be observed and put in force by the Consuls and Consular-Agents in the Circular Order of the 10th and 11th of June of the present year, addressed to these functionaries by the Minister for Foreign Affairs.

All which is made public by the present Edict for the information of those interested.

Lisbon, 12th October 1860.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 36).—MEDITERRANEAN.—WEST COAST OF ITALY.

Revolving Light at Civita Vecchia.

IN reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 32, dated 28th September 1860, information has been received at the Admiralty that the light exhibited at Civita Vecchia, West Coast of Italy, is an improved light, and not a new light, as stated in the official notice from the Minister of Commerce at Rome.

The light is a revolving white light, which shows for ten seconds, and is eclipsed for the same seconds. It is elevated 120 feet above the sea level, and is visible seaward between the bearings of about 10  $\frac{1}{2}$  W. and S. by E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E., at a distance of about 10 miles. The eclipses are total beyond a distance of 10 miles, but within that range a faint light will always be seen.

The illuminating apparatus is of the second order of Fresnel.

The light-tower is of cylindrical form, and its colour is grayish white. It stands on the south end of the breakwater, and its position is given as lat.  $42^{\circ} 5' 25''$  N., and long.  $11^{\circ} 47' 6''$  East of Greenwich, or 3 miles eastward of its position on the Admiralty Charts.

Note.—The Ancona light, alluded to in Notice to Mariners, No. 21, dated 3d August 1860, is in all respects similar to the Civita Vecchia light, and not a flashing light as therein stated.

Re-establishment of Lights.

The Maritime Inspector of Venice has given Notice, that on the 17th October 1860, the illumination of all the lighthouses on the Venetian Coast would be re-established.

1.—To incorporate a Company for the Making and Maintaining of the following Lines of Railway, with all necessary Works, Stations, Approaches, and Conveniences connected therewith respectively:—

(1.) A Railway to commence by a Junction or Junctions with the Keith and Dufftown Railway, in the Parish of Mortlach, in the County of Banff, in or near a certain field or piece of pasture ground numbered 13 on the Parliamentary Plans of the Keith and Dufftown Railway, which were deposited with the Sheriff-Clerk of the said County, in the month of November, 1859, to pass thence through or into the following Parishes, or some of them—that is to say:—Mortlach, Boharm, Kirkmichael, and Aberlour, in the said County of Banff; Knockando, in the County of Elgin or Moray; and Inveravon, situated partly in the County of Elgin or Moray, and partly in the County of Banff; Cromdale and Abernethy, partly in the County of Elgin or Moray, and partly in the County of Inverness; and to terminate in the said Parish of Abernethy, and County of Elgin or Moray, in or near a field occupied by John M'Gregor, and belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Seafield, at a point about 113 yards north of the Bridge of Nethy, and 10 yards or thereby east of the Water of Nethy.

(2.) A Branch Railway (which will be wholly situate in the Parishes of Abernethy, Duthill, and Cromdale, in the said Counties of Elgin or Moray and Inverness) to commence by a Junction or Junctions with the said intended Railway, in a Plantation belonging to the said Earl of Seafield, at a point about 360 yards north of the Farm House of Ballifurth; and to terminate immediately on the north side of the Water of Dulnain, in or near a field or piece of ground occupied by Mrs. Ann Gordon, and belonging to the Earl of Seafield, either by a junction or junctions with the proposed Railway from Forres to Dunkeld, or by an independent Terminus.

2.—To stop up, alter, and divert all such roads, streams, navigations, railways, and tramways as may be necessary in making the said Railways.

3.—To purchase, by compulsion or otherwise, all such lands, houses, and other property as may be required in the construction of the said Railways, or any of the works connected therewith; and to vary and extinguish all existing rights or privileges in any manner connected with such lands, houses, and other property, and all such other rights or privileges as it may be necessary to vary or extinguish in carrying into execution any of the purposes of the said Bill.

4.—To levy tolls, rates, and charges in respect of the said intended Railways and Works; and to confer certain exemptions from such tolls, rates, and charges, and to confer other rights and privileges.

5.—To enable the Company to be incorporated by the Bill on the one hand, and the Great North of Scotland Railway Company, the Keith and Dufftown Railway Company, the Morayshire Railway Company, and the proposed Inverness and Perth Junction Railway Company, or any or either of these Companies on the other hand, from time to time to enter into, and fulfil, contracts and agreements for, and with respect to, the working, management, maintenance, and use of the said intended Railways and Works, or any part or parts thereof respectively, and with respect to the receipt and apportionment of the tolls and other revenue arising from the traffic of the said Railways; also with respect to the conveyance and the charges to be made for the conveyance of passenger and other traffic coming from, or destined for, the said intended Railways, and the division and appropriation of the tolls and charges arising from such traffic; and also with respect to the appointment of Joint-Committees for carrying any such contract or agreement into effect.
