LONDON AND EDINBURGH SHIPPING COMPANY.

(Incorporation of Existing Company; Power to Sue and to be Sued; Alteration and Amendment of Contract; Extension of Powers; Increase of Capital; Other Purposes.)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to effect the purposes hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, or some such purposes (that is to say)—

To Incorporate the London and Edinburgh Shipping Company; to enable the said Company so to be incorporated to sue and to be sued, and to hold and transfer property heritable and moveable, real and personal, in the name of the said Company, or of one or more of the Members, Trustees, Directors, or Officers thereof; to confirm the Contract of Co-partnership of the said Company, bearing date the 1st day of December 1809, and subsequent dates, or to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge, or to enact all or some of the powers, provisions, and authorities therein contained, and to alter the present constitution of the said Company; to confer new powers, rights, and privileges on the said Company and the Partners, Trustees, Directors, and Officers thereof; to enable the said Company to make new, or to enact the existing by-laws, rules, and regulations in respect to the said Company and its Officers and Agents and to its business and affairs, or any of them, with such amendments as shall be expedient; to increase, alter, and regulate the Capital of the said Company; to regulate the number and qualifications of Directors, and scale and mode of voting, the number and amount of Shares and the number of Shares to be held by each Partner or Shareholder; to alter and regulate the Meetings of the Company and of the Directors; to raise further Moneys by New Shares and by borrowing; and to limit the liability of the partners to the shares respectively held by them; to attach to all or any of the New Shares Preferential rights and privileges, and to regulate the mode and manner of their appropriation; to extend the powers of the Company so as to enable them to carry on their business with any Ports in Great Britain, the Colonies, or Foreign Countries, and as to the description of vessels to be employed; to confer on the said Company all such further powers, rights, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for the better enabling them to carry on and regulate their business; and to vary and extinguish all, or any, existing rights and privileges which would interfere with or prevent the execution of the purposes of the said Bill.

AND NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN, That the said Bill may incorporate the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Companies Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, or either of them, or some parts of either of them, in regard to Capital, Shares, Borrowing, Meetings, Directors, and their Accounts, Dividends, By-Laws, Arbitration, or any other matter provided for in the said Acts, with such alterations as may be expedient.

And certain of the provisions of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and of the "Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," will be declared inapplicable to the said Company, or such provisions be amended in regard thereto.

Copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the Twenty-third day of December next, Eighteen Hundred and Sixty-One.

Dated this 13th day of November Eighteen Hundred and Sixty-One.
