

heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Principal; and, in addition, the Sum of One hundred and Eighty-four Pounds Nine Shillings, to be annually voted by Parliament.

III. To the Professorship of Greek shall be attached the Sum of Fifty-five Pounds Eleven Shillings, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Professor; and, in addition, the Sum of Forty-four Pounds Nine Shillings, to be annually voted by Parliament.

IV. To the Professorship of Logic, Rhetoric, and Metaphysics, shall be attached the Sum of Fifty-five Pounds Eleven Shillings, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Professor; and, in addition, the Sum of Ninety-four Pounds Nine Shillings, to be annually voted by Parliament.

V. To the Professorship of Moral Philosophy, called in the said Act of the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second the Professorship of Ethics and Pneumatics, shall be attached the Sum of Fifty-five Pounds Eleven Shillings, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Professor; and, in addition, the Sum of Ninety-four Pounds Nine Shillings, to be annually voted by Parliament.

VI. To the Professorship of Natural and Experimental Philosophy shall be attached the Sum of Fifty-five Pounds Eleven Shillings, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Professor; and, in addition, the Sum of Ninety-four Pounds Nine Shillings, to be annually voted by Parliament.

VII. To the Professorship of Humanity shall be attached the Sum of Fifty-five Pounds Eleven Shillings, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Professor; and, in addition, the Sum of Sixty-four Pounds Nine Shillings, to be annually voted by Parliament.

VIII. The Professor of Civil History shall also be Professor of Natural History in the said University, and a Professor in the Faculty of Medicine therein; and shall, in each Year, deliver a Course or Courses of Lectures in Natural History, sufficient to qualify Candidates for Graduation in Medicine, and also sufficient to qualify Candidates for Graduation in Arts with Honours in the Department of Natural Science in the University. To the Professorship of Civil History and Natural History shall be attached the Sum of Fifty-five Pounds Eleven Shillings, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Professor; and, in addition, the Sum of Forty-four Pounds Nine Shillings, to be annually voted by Parliament.

IX. To the Professorship of Mathematics shall be attached the Sum of Fifty-five Pounds Eleven Shillings, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Professor; and, in addition, the Sum of Fifty-three Pounds Nine Shillings, to be annually voted by Parliament.

X. To the Professorship of Medicine shall be attached the Sum of Fifty-five Pounds Eleven Shillings, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Professor; and, in addition, the Sum of Forty-four Pounds Nine Shillings, to be annually voted by Parliament.

XI. The Professor of Chemistry, on the Foundation of the late Doctor John Gray, shall be a Professor in the said United College, and in the University of St Andrew's: Provided always, that the Professor shall not be thereby entitled to any Payment out of the Common Stock or Revenues of the United College hereinbefore mentioned. To the Professorship of Chemistry shall be attached the net annual Rents or Proceeds of the Lands or other Property, in which the Sum bequeathed by the said Doctor John Gray for the Foundation of the Professorship shall for the Time being be invested; and, in addition, the Sum of One hundred and Twenty-five Pounds, to be annually voted by Parliament.

XII. As soon as it shall please Her Majesty to provide, by way of Endowment, to the Professorship of Ecclesiastical History in St Mary's College, a Share not less than one equal Sixth Part of the Revenues of the Deanery of the Chapel Royal in Scotland, the following Arrangements shall, from the Commencement of the first financial Year of the College, after the Time at which such Gift shall become available, take Effect with reference to the Emoluments of the Professors and the Revenues of the said College:—

1. The whole Revenues of St Mary's College, from whatever Source arising, but excluding Sums voted by Parliament specially to the Principal or to any individual Professor, shall, after Payment of Public and Parochial Burdens, Expense of Management, and other necessary Expenses; of Bursaries, including Foundation Bursaries as well as others for which the College is bound to provide; and after Deduction, for Payment towards a Reserve College Fund, of a Sum equal in Amount to Five per centum on the net Revenues in each Year remaining after the aforesaid Payments, be applied in Payment of Salaries to the Principal, the Second Master, and the Professor of Hebrew, in Manner hereinafter provided, and shall, for that purpose, be divided into Thirty-three equal Parts:
2. To the Office of Principal and Primarius Professor of Divinity shall be attached a Salary of Ten such Parts as aforesaid of the net Revenues of the College; the Sum of One hundred and Fifty Pounds now payable annually to the Professor of Ecclesiastical History through the Office of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and the Sum of Ninety-three Pounds, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Principal: the Principal shall also have the same Right as heretofore of occupying the Principal's House in the said College:
3. To the Office of Second Master, who shall hereafter be styled Professor of Divinity and Biblical Criticism, shall be attached Fifteen such Parts as aforesaid of the said net Revenues of the College; and the Sum of Eighty-seven Pounds, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Professor:
4. To the Professorship of Ecclesiastical History shall be attached, in addition to such Share of the Revenues of the Deanery of the Chapel Royal, as Her Majesty may have been pleased to grant to the Professorship, the Sum of Eighty-six Pounds One Shilling and Eightpence, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Professor:
5. To the Professorship of Hebrew and Oriental Languages shall be attached Eight such Parts as aforesaid of the said net Revenues of the College; the Sum of Twenty-five Pounds, heretofore payable annually to the Professor through the Office of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; the Sum of Eighty-six Pounds One Shilling and Eightpence, heretofore annually voted by Parliament to the Professor; and, in addition, the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be annually voted by Parliament: