XIII. No Payment shall be made by the Principal and Professors of either College out of the Reserve Fund of such College, hereinbefore provided for, except for the Purpose of meeting some extraordinary Expenditure connected with such College; and no such Payment shall, in any Case, be made, except with the Authority of the University Court first had and obtained.

XIV. Each Student shall pay to the University a Matriculation Fee of One Pound at the Commencement of each Winter Session for the whole Academical Year then next ensuing; but any Student attending a Class or Classes during a Summer Session, without having attended the immediately preceding Winter Session, shall, in respect of such Summer Session, pay a Fee of Ten Shillings only: and no Fee shall be chargeable against any Student for cleaning, lighting, or heating of Class-rooms, or for Attendance of University or College Servants.

XVI. Each Member of the General Council of the University shall, on being first registered, pay a Fee of Five Shillings, and, on each Fifteenth Day of October thereafter, shall pay an annual Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence for the Year then next ensuing: Provided always, that, after Payment of the First Registration Fee of Five Shillings, and of all Fees of Two Shillings and Sixpence, which may have become payable by any Member, it shall be lawful for him to compound for all future Payments of the Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence by a single Payment of One Pound; Provided also, that no Person shall be entitled to act as a Member of the General Council, until he has paid all Fees which may have become due by him.

XIX. With the Exception of such Payments as may be made out of the Fees payable by Candidates for Degrees in Medicine to the present Professor of Medicine, or the present Professor of Chemistry, under the said Ordinance of the Tenth Day of June Eighteen hundred and Sixty-one, no Member of the Senatus Academicus shall, in virtue of his Office as Principal or Professor, or as Examiner, receive any Payment out of the Revenues of the University: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Senatus Academicus, with the Approval of the University Court, from paying, out of the said Revenues, a reasonable Remuneration for any special Service, which may at any Time be rendered by the Principal of either College, or by any Professor.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

Each Member of the General Council of the University shall, on being first registered, pay a Fee of Five Shillings, and, on each Fifteenth day of October thereafter, shall pay an annual Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence for the Year then next ensuing: Provided always, that, after Payment of the first Registration Fee of Five Shillings, and of all Fees of Two Shillings and Sixpence, which may have become payable by any Member, it shall be lawful for him to compound for all future Payments of the Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence by a single Payment of One Pound: Provided also, that no Person shall be entitled to act as a Member of the General Council, until he has paid all Fees which may have become due by him.

XXXVIII. *Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 9, 1861.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with reference to the notices inserted in the London Gazette of the 3d of August 1860, and the 10th of May 1861, a copy of a Despatch from the British Member of the European Commission of the Danube, enclosing copies of certain provisional regulations which have been adopted by the Commission, with reference to the Police of the Port of Toultscha and the general inspection of the navigation of the Lower Danube, of which the following are translations :—

I.

Police of the Port of Toultscha.

ART. 1.—Every vessel passing in sight of Toultscha, or stopping in the port, is required to hoist her flag and to comply with the orders of the Captain of the Port in all matters relating to the navigation regulations.

ART. 2.—Every vessel intending to make a stay at Toultscha, must be moored on the right bank; and under no circumstances may more than three vessels moor alongside of each other.

ART. 3.—No vessel will be permitted to cast anchor in the navigable channel before Toultscha, to the right of the moorings and the red buoys stationed along the left bank of the river.

ART. 4.—Vessels will be allowed to warp round the Toultscha bend by means of the buoys and mooring beams, but are prohibited, under any circumstances, from being made fast to them.

It is also forbidden for two or more vessels to warp at the same time, by means of the same buoy.

ART. 5.—Every infringement of the present regulations will be punished by a fine of from two to ten Dutch ducats.

ART. 6.—The Captain of the Port of Toultscha, and ultimately the Inspector-General of the navigation of that part of the Lower Danube below Isaktcha, are charged respectively to enforce the execution of these regulations, which will come into operation immediately after their publication in the Port of Toultscha.

II.

Provisional Regulations for establishing a General Inspection of the Navigation of that part of the Danube below Isaktcha.

The European Commission of the Danube, with the view of thoroughly enforcing the execution of the provisional regulations relative to police and navigation already adopted, and having reference to Article 16 of the Treaty of Paris, dated 30th March 1856, further promulgates the subjoined provisional regulations :

ART. 1.—An Inspector-General, invested with international powers as representing the European Commission, shall be appointed to enforce on that part of the Danube below Isaktcha, a strict compliance with the regulations enumerated below :—

- (a) The provisional regulations relative to the police and navigation of the Lower Danube between Isaktcha and Sulina, dated 27th June 1860.
- (b) The provisional regulation relative to the discharge of ballast, dated 29th April 1858, but so far only as this regulation affects the river, exclusive of the port and roadstead of Sulina.
- (c) The provisional regulation relative to the pilotage of the Lower Danube, dated 9th July 1860, but so far only as the pilotage on the river proper is concerned. (Section II of the Regulation.)
- (d) The provisional regulation relative to the lighter service on the Lower Danube, dated 26th July 1860, but so far only as lighter operations on the river are concerned, exclusive of the port and roadstead of Sulina.
- (e) The provisional regulation relating to the police of the port of Toultscha, dated 9th September 1861.

ART. 2.—The Inspector General will establish himself at Toultscha. He will have under his directions four Superintendents, nominated by him, with the sanction of the authority which he represents, who will have assigned to them portions of the river in the following order, viz. :

1st Division.

From Isaktcha to Tchatal de St Georges.

2d Division.

From Tchatal de St Georges to the lower mouth of the Papadia, in the Sulina Channel, inclusive.

3d Division.

From the lower mouth of the Papadia, to the Guard House No. 14.

4th Division.

From the Guard House No. 14, to the limits of the port of Sulina, on the river side (Article I of the regulation respecting the police of the port, dated 9th July 1860).

ART. 3.—The duties of the Inspector-General will consist :—

- (1) In superintending the execution of the regulations enumerated in Article I, in proving the infringement of the provisions contained in those regulations, and in enforcing the prescribed penalties against delinquents.
- (2) In preparing, after a personal inspection of the localities, in cases of stranding or shipwreck, a circumstantial procès-verbal as to the casualty, to be communicated to the competent authority. The Inspector-General will moreover provisionally possess the powers conferred on the Inspector of technical Works, by Articles 37, 38, and 39 of the regulation relating to the river police, dated 27th June 1860.

In cases of average, especially if arising out of collision, the Inspector-General, if able to state the facts, and if requested by one of the parties interested, will prepare a circumstantial procès-verbal, to be in like manner transmitted to the competent authority.

He will not be concerned with questions of a purely technical character relating to the improvement of the river; though he will be at liberty to suggest to the Commission any improvements likely to facilitate the navigation of the river.

ART. 4.—The Superintendents will look exclusively for directions to the Inspector-General, and will be bound to report to him any facts of interest occurring in their respective limits, as laid down in the preceding Article.

ART. 5.—The Inspector-General will be subject exclusively to the European Commission, to whom he will transmit every month, independently of ordinary communications, a general and succinct report upon the working of the regulations.

ART. 6.—The Inspector-General will make, every month at least, two tours of inspection from Toulcha to Sulina, independent of the more frequent trips he may be compelled to take in the ordinary execution of his duties. One of the regular tours he will make in a boat.

The Superintendents will be required to traverse once daily, either by land or water, and alternately, half the divisions respectively allotted to them.

ART. 7.—The Inspector-General and his Assistants will be expected to be acquainted with several of the languages in use on the Lower Danube.

ART. 8.—The Salary of the Inspector-General will be 1,000 Dutch ducats per annum, without any allowance for office or travelling expences; it is however to be understood that the European Commission will provide for the appointment and remuneration of a Clerk, and will furnish the Inspector with a boat, fully equipped, for his tours of inspection.

The salary of the four Superintendents will be 300 Dutch ducats each, without any additional allowance. A boat will be provided for them, which they will be expected to keep in an efficient state.

The salaries of the Inspector-General and his Clerk, as also those of the Superintendents, will be a charge paid out of the Navigation Chest at Sulina.

ART. 9.—The present regulations will not in any way affect the regulations subsisting between the European Commission and the Captain of the Port of Sulina.

ART. 10.—The Inspector-General will receive from the European Commission of the Danube, special instructions, determining more precisely the nature of his duties.

He will be furnished, as well as his Superintendents, with a warrant from the Commission to establish their authority, and with a signal flag of several colours.
