NOTICE TO MASTERS AND MATES IN THE MERCHANT SERVICE.

The following Regulations have been established in pursuance of the Act 24 and 25 Vict., cap. 129, relating to the Enrolment of Officers in the Royal Naval Reserve :—

Any Master and Mate of the Merchant Service who is desirous of becoming an Officer of the Royal Naval Reserve, should apply by letter to the Registrar-General of Seamen, No. 6, Adelaide Place, London Bridge, E.C., for a form on which his application for a Commission in the Royal Naval Reserve is to be made, and should state distinctly in such letter his name, and the address to which the form is to be sent. A form of application will then be sent to the address indicated, with full instructions as to the mode in which it is to be filled up.

A pattern of the uniform may be seen at the office of the Registrar-General of Seamen.

ROYAL NAVAL RESERVE.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by the Act 24 and 25 Vict., cap. 129, provision is made to enable Her Majesty to avail herself of the services of a certain number of Officers of the Merchant Service of the United Kingdom, and of the Colonies and Dependencies of Great Britain, as Officers of Reserve to the Royal Navy; and whereas Her Majesty has been pleased, by Her Order in Council of the 20th instant, to direct that the following Regulations be established for carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act; we hereby desire and direct that the Regulations in question be promulgated for the information and guidance of Officers of the Merchant Service, who, in conformity with Her Majesty's gracious intentions, are desirous of enrolling themselves as Officers of the Royal Naval Reserve, under the conditions specified.

1. Number, Class, and Rank.

The Officers of the Royal Naval Reserve shall not exceed the total number of 400, and shall consist of two classes :—

1. Lieutenants of Naval Reserve, whose number shall not exceed 130; and who will rank with, but after Lieutenants of the Royal Navy.
2. Sub-Lieutenants of Naval Reserve, whose number shall not exceed 270; and who will rank with, but after Sub-Lieutenants of the Royal Navy.

2. Appointment.

Officers of both classes will receive their appointments from us; but applications for appointments should be made through the Board of Trade, London.

3. Qualification.

Masters of merchant-vessels, who hold certificates of competency under the "Mercantile Marine Act of 1850," or the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and who have commanded vessels of not less than 500 tons burthen for not less than two years, shall be eligible for appointment as Lieutenants or Sub-Lieutenants of the Royal Naval Reserve.

Chief mates of merchant-vessels who hold masters' or chief mates' certificates of competency under the "Mercantile Marine Act, 1850," or the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and who have sailed as masters, or as chief mates, in vessels of not less than 500 tons burthen for not less than two years, shall be eligible for the appointment of Sub-Lieutenant of the Royal Naval Reserve. Masters with extra certificates will, as a general rule, have the preference.

Qualification for the First Class will include qualification for the Second Class.

No Master or Mate will be enrolled as Lieutenant or Sub-Lieutenant whose age exceeds 45. This limit will subsequently be altered to 35, at the discretion of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Masters of merchant-vessels who are actually afloat and in command, though they may be above the age of 45 years, may be enrolled as Honorary Lieutenants of the Royal Naval Reserve, on the recommendation of the Board of Trade.

The number of Honorary Lieutenants is not to exceed 100, in addition to the numbers above specified. They will not be required to undergo drill, or be called out for service.

4. Promotion.

Officers of the Second Class will, if qualified, be eligible for promotion to the First Class, at our discretion.

Officers who, when in actual service, may, by the character or length of their service obtain our special approbation, will be eligible to receive Commissions as Officers in the Royal Navy, of the same grade as that with which they may rank at the time. They will then be considered in all respects as Officers on the permanent strength of the Navy.

Officers who, whilst on active service, shall have distinguished themselves in action with the enemy, or by the character and length of their services, will be eligible, at the conclusion of their service in the Navy, for promotion to the higher honorary ranks of Commander and Captain of the Naval Reserve, at our discretion.

5. Uniform.

Officers to wear the same uniform as Officers of corresponding rank in the Royal Navy, with the following exceptions, viz. :—

Lieutenants.—Instead of the stripe of half-inch lace round the sleeves of the coats there is to be a stripe formed of two waved lines of quarter-inch gold braid, intersecting each other, so as to form a band half an inch wide, the blue cloth to shew between the curves.

Sub-Lieutenants to have one such waved line of the same braid.

The buttons of both classes to be of the Royal Navy pattern, with the letters "R.N.R." in old English character, surmounted by a crown. Instead of the anchor on the epaulettes and shoulder straps respectively, there is to be a badge consisting of a silver anchor in the centre, surrounded with the words "Royal Naval Reserve" embroidered in gold.

Instead of the bullion loop on the cocked hats, the loop to be formed of two gold braids twisted the same as for coat sleeves.

The badge for the caps to consist of a device similar to that on the epaulettes embroidered on blue cloth and surmounted by a crown.

The plate for the sword belt to be the same as for Officers of the Royal Navy, substituting the letters "R.N.R." for the anchor in the centre.

6. Drill.

Officers will be required to undergo in each year a course of 28 days' drill and gunnery instruction on board the district or drill ships at the ports in their respective vicinity, viz. :—London, Shields, Sunderland, Hull, Southampton, Falmouth, Bristol, Liverpool, Leith, Greenock, Dublin, or Queenstown.

7. Messing.

Officers, whilst on drill, will live on shore, and receive the following subsistence allowance, viz. :—

Lieutenants ... .. 10s. a day.
Sub-Lieutenants ... .. 7s. a day.

When called out for service they will mess with their respective ranks.

8. Discipline.

Officers will be subject to Naval Discipline when attending drill, and when called out for actual service; and will be liable to lose their Commissions for offences against the rules, discipline, or character of Her Majesty's Service, in the same manner as Officers of the Royal Navy.

9. Service Afloat.

Officers of the Royal Naval Reserve will be called out for actual service by Royal Proclamation; and they will be liable to serve during the continuance of any National emergency, or until they may be regularly discharged by our direction.

10. Pay and Allowances, and Pensions to Widows.

Officers will, whilst called out for actual service, receive the pay of their corresponding ranks in the Royal Navy.

Officers who may receive hurts or wounds whilst on service, will receive the same pensions and allowances to which Officers in the Navy would be entitled under similar circumstances.

Widows of Officers who, whilst in actual service may be killed in action, or die from accident resulting from the performance of their duty, will receive the same pensions as the widows of Naval Officers of corresponding rank would be entitled to under similar circumstances.

Given under our hands this 29th day of November 1861.

XVIII. In every Case, where a Sum is appointed to be paid out of the University Funds for the Purchase of Apparatus and Materials, or other Class Expenses of any Class in the University, an Account of the Expenditure of such Sum in each Year shall be laid by the Professor before the Senatus Academicus; and, in the event of the whole Sum not being expended in any Year, the Portion unexpended shall revert and fall into the University Funds: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Senatus Academicus, if it shall think fit, to allow the Portion so unexpended in any Year to be applied to a similar Purpose in connection with the same Class in a subsequent Year.

XIX. With the Exception of such Payments as may be made out of the Fees payable by Candidates for Degrees in Medicine to the present Professor of Medicine, or the present Professor of Chemistry, under the said Ordinance of the Tenth Day of June Eighteen hundred and Sixty-one, no Member of the Senatus Academicus shall, in virtue of his Office as Principal or Professor, or as Examiner, receive any Payment out of the Revenues of the University: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Senatus Academicus, with the Approval of the University Court, from paying, out of the said Revenues, a reasonable Remuneration for any special Service, which may at any Time be rendered by the Principal of either College, or by any Professor.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

JOHN INGLIS, Chairman.

cipal or any Professor : Provided also, that each of the present Professors of Moral Philosophy, of Divinity, of Oriental Languages, of Ecclesiastical History, of Law, of Medicine, of Botany, and of Materia Medica, shall be entitled during his Incumbency to receive, out of the said General Fund, an annual Sum equal in Amount to the Sum derived by him from Graduation Fees, on an Average of the Five Years immediately preceding the Confirmation of this Ordinance by Her Majesty in Council.

XXXVI. The Assistants to the Professors of Natural Philosophy, Greek, Humanity, Mathematics, Anatomy, and Chemistry, shall be appointed from Year to Year by the Professors respectively, subject to the Approval and Control of the Univer-
