COLLEGE OF ARMS, January 7, 1862.

IN reference to the Order for a General Mourning for His late Royal Highness the Prince Consort, which was announced in the Gazette of the 16th of December last,

These are to give notice, that it is not expected that the Public should appear in Mourning after Sunday the 9th of February next.

EDWARD G. F. HOWARD, D.E.M.

WHITEHALL, January 6, 1862.

The following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the Death of His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, to be laid before the Queen :—

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Master, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, respectfully approach your Royal Presence with the expression of our heartfelt condolence on the irreparable loss sustained by your Majesty and the whole British Nation, in the decease of the late lamented Prince Albert, your Majesty's illustrious Consort.

In humbly tendering to your Majesty the assurance of our sympathy on this grievous and unlooked-for bereavement, we simply give utterance to the feeling at this time uppermost in the hearts of all your Majesty's faithful subjects. But when we call to mind the deep sense of religion, and the many intellectual accomplishments which distinguished the illustrious Prince thus suddenly taken from us, we cannot but feel that the Universities of this realm must be partakers in more than common measure of the general sorrow.

Blest with a vigorous understanding and highly cultivated mind, His Royal Highness had acquired a thorough knowledge of our national character, and with singular sagacity developed it in paths comparatively untrodden and unknown. But it was not the possession of these rare endowments, nor the grateful sense of the benefits resulting from them to the Nation, that won for His Royal Highness the affections of the English people, it was because they beheld in the Consort of their beloved Queen the affectionate husband, the kind and watchful father, the wise and trusty adviser of their Sovereign in every exigency of her public and her private life, they felt an ever growing admiration of his character, and paid him the willing tribute of their reverence and affection. It is, we are well assured, the influence of these considerations that imparts its present overwhelming character to the National regret, and will cause the memory of this illustrious Prince to be revered by all succeeding generations of our posterity.

We are sensible, however, that our Heavenly Father has in His mercy not left your Majesty or our country altogether comfortless under the pressure of this great affliction. We have heard with grateful feelings of the spirit of resignation in which your Majesty bows with submission to the Divine will; and we are not unobservant of many rays of consolation which mitigate our own sorrow, and will, we trust, tend in time to alleviate the bitter grief which now weighs so heavily upon your Majesty. We know His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to be the inheritor of the many noble qualities of his highly gifted Father; and we are comforted by the reflection that His Royal Highness is now of an age to share with your Majesty the burden of every domestic anxiety, and to support your Majesty in the administration of the affairs of State. It will be our fervent prayer that these and all our other cheering anticipations may, by the Divine blessing, be fulfilled; and that serenity of mind, and even happiness, may yet be the appointed lot of a mother and a Sovereign, whose virtues must ever ensure for her the warmest love of her children, and the most loyal and devoted affection of her faithful subjects.

Given at our House of Convocation, under our Common Seal, this thirty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord God 1861.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

Whereas Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the seventh day of January instant; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said seventh day of January instant, to Thursday the sixth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly: and We do hereby further, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our royal will and pleasure that the said Parliament shall, on the said Thursday the sixth day of February next, assemble and be holden for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs:
 and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Thursday the sixth day of February next.

Given at Our Court, at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, this sixth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and in the twenty-fifth year of Our reign.

GOD save The QUEEN.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
 the 6th day of January 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas, by the Act of Uniformity, which establisheth the Liturgy, and enacts that no Form or Order of Common Prayer be openly used other than what is prescribed or appointed to be used in and by the said Book, it is notwithstanding provided that in all those Prayers, Litanies, and Collects which do anywise relate to the King, Queen, or Royal Progeny, the names be altered and changed from time to time, and fitted to the present occasion, according to direction of lawful authority:
 Her Majesty was pleased this day in Council to declare Her Royal Will and Pleasure that in all the Prayers, Litanies, and Collects for the Royal Family, the words "Albert Edward, Prince of Wales," be inserted, instead of the words "Albert, Prince of Wales."

And Her Majesty doth strictly charge and command that no edition of the Common Prayer be from henceforth printed but with this amendment; and that, in the meantime, till copies of such edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates within this realm do (for the preventing of mistakes), with the pen, correct and amend all such prayers in their Church Books, according to the foregoing directions: And for the better notice hereof, that this Order be forthwith printed and published, and sent to the several Parishes, and that the Right Reverend the Bishops do take care that obedience be paid to the same accordingly.

ARTHUR HELPS.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
 the 6th day of January 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

In pursuance of an Act passed in the tenth year of Her Majesty Queen Anne, and of another Act passed in the thirty-second year of His Majesty King George the Third, wherein provision is made for praying for the Royal Family in that part of Great Britain called Scotland; it is ordered by Her Majesty in Council that henceforth every Minister and Preacher in Scotland shall, in his respective church, congregation, or assembly, pray
 in express words,

"For Her Most Sacred Majesty Queen Victoria,
 "Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, and all
 "the Royal Family,"

of which all persons concerned are to take notice
 and govern themselves accordingly.

ARTHUR HELPS.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
 the 6th day of January 1862,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, entitled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty now hath, or may at any time hereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory.

And whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction in the islands included between the different branches of the River Danube, at its mouth, and forming, and commonly designated as the Delta of the Danube, which by the Treaty between Her Majesty, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Austria, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of the French, His late Majesty the King of Prussia, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, His Majesty the King of Sardinia, and His Imperial Majesty the Sultan, signed at Paris, on the nineteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, were replaced under the immediate sovereignty of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the efficient exercise of the said power and jurisdiction, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, in like manner as the same have been customarily and of right exercised on behalf of Her Majesty by Her Majesty's Ambassadors, Ministers, Consuls, and other officers within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

And whereas by the fifteenth Article of the General Treaty of Peace between Her Majesty, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Austria, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of the French, His late Majesty the King of Prussia, His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, His Majesty the King of Sardinia, and His Imperial Majesty the Sultan, signed at Paris on the thirtieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, it was provided as follows: "The Act of the Congress of Vienna having established the principles intended to regulate the navigation of rivers which separate or traverse different States, the contracting powers stipulate among themselves that those principles shall in future be equally applied to the Danube and its mouths. They declare that this arrangement henceforth forms a part of the public law of Europe, and take it under their guarantee."

"The navigation of the Danube cannot be subjected to any impediment or charge not expressly provided for by the stipulations contained in the following Articles: in consequence, there shall not be levied any toll founded solely upon the fact of the navigation of the river, nor any duty upon the goods which may be on board of vessels. The regulations of police and of quarantine to be established for the safety of the States separated or traversed by that river, shall be so framed as to facilitate as much as possible the passage of vessels. With the exception of such regulations, no obstacle whatever shall be opposed to free navigation."

And whereas by the sixteenth Article of the said last-mentioned Treaty, it was further provided as follows: "With the view of carrying out the arrangements of the preceding Article, a Commission, in which Great Britain, Austria, France, Prussia, Russia, Sardinia, and Turkey, shall each be represented by one delegate, shall be charged to designate, and to cause to be executed, the works necessary, below Isatcha, to clear the mouths of the Danube, as well as the neighbouring parts of the sea, from the sands and other impediments which obstruct them, in order to put that part of the river and the said parts of the sea in the best possible state for navigation."

"In order to cover the expenses of such works, as well as of the establishments intended to secure and to facilitate the navigation at the mouths of the Danube, fixed duties, of a suitable rate, settled by the Commission by a majority of votes, may be levied, on the express condition that in this respect, as in every other, the flags of all the Nations shall be treated on the footing of perfect equality."

And whereas in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, by virtue of the said Articles of the said last-mentioned Treaty, a Commission was accordingly established for the purposes therein mentioned.

And whereas the said Commission, under the power and authorities given to it by the said Articles or otherwise, in and by the said last-mentioned Treaty, has from time to time made and promulgated certain rules, orders, and regulations, and is authorised and empowered from time to time to make and promulgate further and other rules, orders, and regulations, as well concerning the navigation of the said River Danube, and the conduct and government of masters, seamen, and others navigating the same, as concerning the payment of duties to be levied and taken in respect of the navigation of the said river, and the enforcing of penalties for the breach of such rules, orders, and regulations respectively, or any of them.

And whereas it is expedient that power should be given to Her Majesty's Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents exercising jurisdiction over British subjects and Ionian within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, to enforce the rules, orders, and regulations so made and to be made by the said Commission as aforesaid.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the above-recited Act of Parliament, and in execution of the powers thereby vested in Her Majesty in Council, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared as follows:—

I. All rules, orders, and regulations so made and to be made by the said Commission, as hereinbefore mentioned, shall, from and after the date of these presents, or from and after the making of such rules, orders, and regulations respectively, be binding and in force, and shall have the force and effect of law, upon and against all British subjects, and Ionians, and other persons subject to the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents, within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

II. For all the purposes mentioned in the said fifteenth and sixteenth Articles of the said Treaty, and for the purpose of enforcing, so far as Her Majesty's subjects and such other persons as aforesaid are concerned, the provisions of the said Articles, and all rules, orders, and regulations made or to be made by the said Commission, under the powers and authorities given to them by the said Articles, or either of them, or otherwise, in or by the said last-mentioned Treaty, and all acts, payments, matters, and things, which, in and by such rules, orders, or regulations shall have been or shall be ordered under such powers or authorities as aforesaid to be made, done, or performed, or otherwise in relation thereto, the said Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents of Her Majesty, within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, shall, from and after the date of these presents, have, possess, and enjoy, all and every the powers, jurisdiction, authorities, rights, privileges, and immunities which, in and by a certain Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty, are or is vested in, or belongs to, or is exercisable by the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court of Constantinople, within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte. And all the clauses, articles, and provisions of the said Order in Council, so far as the same respectively are now in force and unrepealed, and so far as the same or any of them are applicable to the purposes mentioned in the said fifteenth and sixteenth Articles of the said last-mentioned Treaty, or any of them, or to such rules, orders, or regulations as aforesaid, shall apply and extend to the said Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents of Her Majesty, and to all acts, matters, and things whatsoever, done by, to, or in respect of them, the said Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents respectively, under or by virtue of these presents.

And the Right Honourable Earl Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
