

extended, so far as may be requisite for giving effect to this proviso, but not further or otherwise.

IV. No ship of war or privateer of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted, while in any port, roadstead, or waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, to take in any supplies, except provisions, and such other things as may be requisite for the subsistence of her crew; and except so much coal only as may be sufficient to carry such vessel to the nearest port of her own country, or to some nearer destination; and no coal shall be again supplied to any such ship of war or privateer, in the same or any other port, roadstead, or waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, without special permission, until after the expiration of three months from the time when such coal may have been last supplied to her within British waters as aforesaid.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) RUSSELL.

INDIA-OFFICE, January 30, 1862.

The following Extracts from General Orders issued by the Government of India, regarding the payment of Delhi Prize Money, are published for general information :—

“His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to authorize the immediate issue of a first distribution of the Delhi Prize Booty, at the rate of 86 (eighty-six) rupees each share.

“The General Prize Committee will prepare, as soon as practicable, statements showing the names of the European officers and soldiers entitled to share who have left India, and the amount payable to each, for transmission to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, in order that the sums due to parties in England may be passed to them at the earliest possible date.

“Prize money being admissible only in the ranks in which individuals actually served, promotion with back rank gives no claim to share in rank higher than that in which service was performed. Officers and men who died, were killed, or left the army before Delhi, in consequence of sickness or wounds, are entitled to share in the rank they actually held on the date they died or left, and those present at the capture of Delhi or Jhujur are entitled in the ranks they held on the 20th September and 18th October 1857.”
