The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday, February 6, 1862.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by Her Majesty to assure you that Her Majesty is persuaded that you will deeply participate in the affliction by which Her Majesty has been overwhelmed by the calamitous, untimely, and irreparable loss of her beloved Consort, who has been her comfort and support.

It has been, however, soothing to Her Majesty, while suffering most acutely under this awful dispensation of Providence, to receive from all classes of her subjects the most cordial assurances of their sympathy with her sorrow, as well as of their appreciation of the noble character of him, the greatness of whose loss to Her Majesty, and to the Nation, is so justly and so universally felt and lamented.

We are commanded by Her Majesty to assure you that she recurs with confidence to your assistance and advice.

Her Majesty's relations with all the European Powers continue to be friendly and satisfactory; and Her Majesty trusts there is no reason to apprehend any disturbance of the peace of Europe.

A question of great importance, and which might have led to very serious consequences, arose between Her Majesty and the Government of the United States of North America, owing to the seizure and forcible removal of four passengers from on board a British mail-packet by the commander of a ship-of-war of the United States; but that question has been satisfactorily settled by the restoration of the passengers to British protection, and by the disavowal by the United States Government of the act of violence committed by their naval officer.

The friendly relations between Her Majesty and the President of the United States have therefore remained unimpaired.

Her Majesty warmly appreciates the loyalty and patriotic spirit which have been manifested on this occasion by her North American subjects.

The wrongs committed by various parties and by successive Governments in Mexico upon foreigners resident within the Mexican territory, and for which no satisfactory redress could be obtained, have led to the conclusion of a Convention between Her Majesty, the Emperor of the French, and the Queen of Spain, for the purpose of regulating a combined operation on the coast of Mexico, with a view to obtain that redress which has hitherto been withheld.

That Convention, and papers relating to that subject, will be laid before you.

The improvement which has taken place in the relations between Her Majesty's Government and that of the Emperor of China, and the good faith with which the Chinese Government have continued to fulfil the engagements of the Treaty of Tien-tsin, have enabled Her Majesty to withdraw her troops from the city of Canton, and to reduce the amount of her force on the coast and in the seas of China.

Her Majesty, always anxious to exert her influence for the preservation of peace, has concluded a Convention with the Sultan of Morocco by means of which the Sultan has been enabled to raise the amount necessary for the fulfilment of certain treaty engagements which he had contracted towards Spain, and thus to avoid the risk of a renewal of hostilities with that Power. That Convention, and papers connected with it will be laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty commands us to inform you that she has directed the estimates for the ensuing year to be laid before you. They have been framed with a due regard to prudent economy, and to the efficiency of the public service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

Her Majesty commands us to inform you that measures for the improvement of the law will be laid before you, and among them will be a bill for rendering the title to land more simple, and its transfer more easy.

Other measures of public usefulness relating to Great Britain and to Ireland will be submitted for your consideration.

Her Majesty regrets that in some parts of the United Kingdom, and in certain branches of industry, temporary causes have produced considerable pressure and privation; but Her Majesty has reason to believe that the general condition of the country is sound and satisfactory.

Her Majesty confidently commends the general interests of the Nation to your wisdom and your care; and she fervently prays that the blessing of Almighty God may attend your deliberations, and may guide them to the promotion of the welfare and happiness of Her People.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

*At Edinburgh, the Eighteenth Day of January
Eighteen hundred and Sixty-two Years.*

ORDINANCE,
No. 25.

Edinburgh,
No. 6.

WHEREAS, by Deed of Mortification, dated the Seventeenth Day of January Eighteen hundred and Sixty-two, John Muir, Esquire, Doctor of Laws of the University of Edinburgh, Doctor of Civil Law of the University of Oxford, and late of the Bengal Civil Service, now residing in Edinburgh, being, as therein mentioned, desirous that a Chair or Professorship of the Sanskrit Language, Literature, and Philosophy, and of Comparative Philology, should be instituted and endowed in the University of Edinburgh, did, for the Considerations mentioned in the said Deed, assign, transfer, and make over to and in Favour of the University of Edinburgh, subject to the Conditions therein mentioned, and hereinafter set forth, all and whole the Sum of Forty thousand Rupees, invested, as therein mentioned, in Promissory Notes, bearing Five per cent. Interest, payable half-yearly by the Governor-General of India in Council, with the Interest that was, at the Date of the said Deed, or might thereafter become, due upon the same, and the said Promissory Notes granted for the said Sum, with full Power to the Senatus Academicus of the said University to procure the same transferred to their own Names, or to the Names of any of them, in Trust for the University, and also to nplift, discharge, convey, and re-invest the same, subject to the Control and Review of the University Court of the said University, as prescribed by the Act of the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' but in Trust always for the Use and Behoof of the Professor for the Time being of the said Chair of the Sanskrit Language, Literature, and Philosophy, and of Comparative Philology, who should receive the free annual Proceeds of the said Sum, in whatever Way the same might come to be invested; but providing and declaring, that the foregoing Endowment was made on the following Conditions, viz., First, That the Commissioners for the Purposes of the said recited Act should forthwith, by an Ordinance, found a Chair or Professorship of the Sanskrit Language, Literature, and Philosophy, and of Comparative Philology, in the University of Edinburgh, and should recommend to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to pay, out of such Moneys as might be provided by Parliament for the Purpose, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds per annum to the said Professor, and that the same should be so paid; and, in Default, at any Time, of Payment of the said annual Sum of Two hundred Pounds, by the same running into Arrear for more than Twelve Months, that then the foresaid Grant and Assignment should stand void, and the said Fund of Forty thousand Rupees, in whatever Way invested at the Time of Default as aforesaid, should revert to him, the said John Muir, his Heirs, and Assigns, and the said Senatus Academicus of the University of Edinburgh, should convey the same to him, or his Heirs, or Assigns: Second, That, upon the first Occasion of an Appointment to the Chair, the Right to nominate and appoint the Professor should belong to the said John Muir, and that thereafter the Patronage of the said Chair should be vested in Her Majesty, and Her Successors: Third, That the said Professor of the Sanskrit

Language, Literature, and Philosophy, and of Comparative Philology, should be bound to teach and instruct Students in the Sanskrit Language, Literature, and Philosophy, and in Comparative Philology, and also to deliver in each Winter Session at least Fifteen Lectures on Sanskrit Literature and Philosophy, and also at least Fifteen Lectures on Comparative Philology, which, in addition to the regular Students of his Class, might be attended by such other Persons as should desire to attend the same, on Payment of such Fees, as should be sanctioned by the University Court; and further, that the said Professor should be bound to instruct such of his ordinary Students, as might desire it, in the Principles of Hindu Law: Fourth, That the Interest accruing on the said Sum of Forty thousand Rupees, subsequent to the last half-yearly Payment thereof immediately preceding the Date of the said Deed, and the annual Sum of Two hundred Pounds to be provided by Parliament as aforesaid, and such Fees from Students, as might be sanctioned by the University Court of the University of Edinburgh, should be paid to the said Professor, the said Interest and Government Salary at the usual half-yearly or quarterly Periods of Payment, as the case might be, and the Students' Fees at the usual Period: And whereas the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered, inter alia, to make Ordinances in order to found new Professorships, where they are required, and also to provide by whom the Right of presenting or appointing to such new Professorships shall be exercised; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are empowered by the same Act to pay, out of such Moneys as may be provided by Parliament for the Purpose, such Sums of Money as the Commissioners under the Act shall recommend to be paid, inter alia, for the Endowment of new Professorships: And whereas it is expedient, that a Professorship of the Sanskrit Language, Literature and Philosophy, and of Comparative Philology, should be founded in the University of Edinburgh: The Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, as follows:—

I. There shall be a Professorship of the Sanskrit Language, Literature, and Philosophy, and of Comparative Philology, in the University of Edinburgh; and the Professor shall be a Professor in the Faculty of Arts in the said University.

II. Subject always to the Conditions mentioned in the said recited Deed of Mortification, there shall be attached to the said Professorship the net Interest or annual Proceeds of the said Sum of Forty thousand Rupees, mortified by the said John Muir, Esquire, as aforesaid, or of the Fund in which for the Time being the same may be invested; and, in addition, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, to be annually voted by Parliament.

III. The Right of presenting or appointing the Professor, on the first Occasion of an Appointment to the said Professorship, shall belong to the said John Muir, Esquire, and, failing him, to Her Majesty, Her Heirs, and Successors; and, thereafter, the Patronage of the said Professorship, and the Right of presenting or appointing the Professor, shall be vested in and exercised by Her Majesty, Her Heirs, and Successors.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

JOHN INGLIS, Chairman.

WHITEHALL, February 3, 1862.

The following Addresses of Condolence, on the occasion of the Death of His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, which have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before the Queen by Sir George Grey, and have been received very graciously by Her Majesty :—

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the President and Members of the Royal Irish Academy, humbly approach your Majesty with the assurance of our devoted attachment to your Throne and person, and desire to express our heartfelt sympathy in the grievous and sudden affliction which has befallen your Majesty, in the untimely death of His Royal Highness, your Majesty's Consort.

In common with all classes of your Majesty's subjects, we lament the irreparable loss which the Nation has sustained in the decease of a Prince whose wisdom and energy have been for the last twenty years directed to the promotion of every object conducive to the best interests of your people.

But, associated as we are for the purpose of cultivating literature and science in Ireland, we have a special reason to deplore the death of one whose rare talent, extensive information, and mature judgment were constantly employed in furthering the pursuits which learned societies are designed to foster.

The Royal Irish Academy cannot forget that His Royal Highness was once pleased to honour it with a visit, and to express the satisfaction with which he regarded the growth of its collections, and the enlargement of its means of usefulness.

We earnestly pray that your Majesty may be sustained by Divine comfort in this season of bitter trial, and that you may be spared through many years to behold the abundant fruits of your late Consort's beneficent labours, and to see the instructive example of his virtues redounding to the honour and prosperity of your great Empire.

For the Council and Members of the Royal Irish Academy.

CHARLES GRAVES, Pres. R.I.A.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 1.)—RED SEA.—GULF OF SUEZ.

Fixed Light on Zafarana Point.

THE Egyptian Government has given notice, that on and after the 1st day of January 1862 a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Zafarana Point, on the western coast of the Gulf of Suez, about 52 miles to the southward of the town of that name.

The light is a fixed light, placed at an elevation of 83 feet above the level of high water, and should be seen in clear weather from the deck of a vessel at a distance of 14 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the first order.

The tower is round, built of stone, and 82 feet from base to vane, with the keeper's dwelling to the westward. It stands on a low gravel ridge about 14 feet above high water, in lat. 29° 6' 20" N., long. 32° 44' East of Greenwich, as recently found by Captain Mansell, of H.M.S. Firefly, and which agrees with Moresby's Chart of the Red Sea of 1834, but differs from the Admiralty Chart. The exact position of this lighthouse will hereafter be determined.

The mariner is cautioned that shoal water extends about a mile from the Point, having 10 fathoms close to its outer edge.

By Command of their Lordships,

JOHN WASHINGTON, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
17th January 1862.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Red Sea, General, Sheet 1; Red Sea, No. 2523; Indian Ocean, Western Sheet, No. 748a; Indian Ocean, General, No. 2483; and East India Lights List, No. 21.
