The humble Address of the Committee of West India Planters and Merchants.

May it please your Majesty,

Doubtless the Colonies which the Committee have the honour to represent will themselves express their participation in your Majesty's sorrow ; but the Committee are confident that they are only giving utterance to the feelings which will prevail throughout those Possessions, in deploring the loss of one whose interest extended to every portion of your Majesty's dominions.

And the Committee earnestly pray that your Majesty may be mercifully sustained in this your deep affliction.
