

- John Evans, (commonly called and known as, and using the name of John Prichard Evans, sued as John Prichard Evans and as J. P. Evans,) formerly of 1, Basinghall Street, then of 14, Gresham Street, at the same time having a private residence at 1, Basinghall Street aforesaid, both in London, carrying on business at both the last-named places under the name, style, or description of Barbour & Evans, as woollen warehousemen, then of Newstead Villas, Tottenham Park, Tottenham, town traveller to a woollen warehouseman, then of 5, Chesterford Terrace, Stanley Road, Hackney, both in Middlesex, part of the time while of the last-named place out of business and out of employ, and other part of the time renting an office at 54, Coleman Street, London, and carrying on business there in copartnership with one Joseph Broadbent, as general warehousemen, under the style, firm, or description of J. P. Evans & Company, then of 5, Morgan Street, Tredegar Square, Bow Road, Middlesex, and then and late of 8, Croom's Grove, Croom's Hill, Greenwich, Kent, town traveller to a Manchester and woollen warehouseman.
- David Hill Bell, of 12, Cooper's Row, Crutched Friars, London, sail and ship chandler.
- William Henry Smith, formerly of 25, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, Middlesex, since of Paris, France, but now temporarily residing at the Queen's Hotel, St Martin's-le-Grand, London, attorney-at-law.
- John Rubery, of Birmingham, Warwick, umbrella manufacturer.
- Nathaniel Derry Morris, (and not Norris, as advertised in Gazette of 4th instant,) of Hereford, hop, seed, corn merchant, and maltster.
- Henry Bailey, of Longton, Stoke-upon-Trent, Stafford, grocer and provision dealer.
- Edward Parsons, of Tugford, near Munslow, Salop, farmer.
- Charles Hartrodt, of Birmingham, Warwick, commission agent.
- Thomas Elkanah Hoyle, of Heighington, Lincoln, surgeon.
- John Hawkins, the younger, of Weston-super-Mare, Somerset, wine and spirit merchant, trading under the style or firm of John Hawkins & Company.
- John Thomas, of Llandilo, Carmarthen, tailor and draper.
- Edward Jones, of Bristol, tallow merchant and commission agent.
- John Hawkins, of Dymock, Gloucester, farmer.
- James Davis, late of the Crown Inn, Rhayader, Radnor, butcher and innkeeper.
- Alexander Kennedy Gavin, of East Stonehouse, Devon, draper.
- Abigail Wilkinson, and James Scott, both of Paddock, near Huddersfield, York, scribblers and spinners.
- Tobias Child, of Worksop, Nottingham, tanner.
- Brooke Oates, of Dewsbury, York, woollen manufacturer.
- William Wilks, of Leeds, York, terra cotta and sanitary tube manufacturer, and potter.
- John Whitehead, of Harrogate, York, builder.
- Robert Denison, of Kingston-upon-Hull, wine merchant, and dealer in cattle food and manure.
- John Marsden, of Orrell, near Wigan, Lancaster, manufacturer of nails, bolts, and screws.
- Noah Vernon, of Congleton, Chester, silk throwster.
- John Davies, of Newtown, Montgomery, lately carrying on business there as a draper, but now out of business.
- Isaac Grace, of Sutton, near St Helens, Lancaster, potter.
- Isaac Simm, of Fairfield View, Edge Lane, near Liverpool, Lancaster, coal merchant.
- Charles James Parry and William Briddon, of Wating Street, Manchester, foreign commission agents and shirt manufacturers.
- William Ryland, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, banker's clerk.
- Joseph Sanders, residing at a ready furnished house, 1, Brass Street, Birmingham, Warwick, builder.
- John Hemmant, of the Lozells Road, Lozells, Aston-juxta-Birmingham, Warwick, in lodgings at the house of Mrs Judith Nevill, Lozells Road aforesaid, attorney and solicitor.
- William Woolley, now, and for upwards of two years last past residing at 5, Denham's Buildings, Finch Street, Handsworth, Stafford, and for fifteen months of that time occupying shopping at the back of 61, Great Hampton Street, Birmingham, Warwick.
- Michael Rothschild, of 50, Mill Street, Toxteth Park, Liverpool, Lancaster, dealer in toys and smallwares.
- James Nicholson, of 14, Springfield, Liverpool, Lancaster, draper's assistant.
- Samuel Richards, of Wheel Square, Gwennap, Cornwall, miner.
- John Thomas, of St Day, Gwennap, Cornwall.
- Alfred Thain Hacon, of 18, George Street, Great Yarmouth, Norfolk, pork butcher, previously of 103, George Street aforesaid, pork butcher.
- Edward Bates, of the Roe Buck Inn, Bridge Gate, Derby, publican and wheelwright.
- David James, late of Bridgnorth, Salop, innkeeper, but now of Stoney Stretton, Salop.
- William Grundy, of Whitehouse Lane, Sheffield, York, grocer.
- John Petfield, of Bridge Street, Sheffield, York, wheelwright and smith.
- John Bate, of 61, Allen Street, Sheffield, York, glass-cutter and shopkeeper.
- Robert Scarf, of Leeds, York, cork-cutter.
- George Webber, of Chulmlergh, Devon, labourer.
- Edward Distin Wills, of Ford, Stoke Damerel, Devon, licensed victualler and grocer.
- William Charles Short, of Sandling Road, Maidstone, Kent, fruiterer and green-grocer.
- Thomas Bond, of Hinckley, Leicester, railway porter, formerly of Hinckley aforesaid, grocer and small farmer, then of Nuneaton, Warwick, out of employment, afterwards of Coventry, Warwick, railway porter.
- Thomas Stanford, of 31, Butcher Street, Portsea, Hants, tailor, outfitter, hosier, hatter, draper, and milliner.
- William Boys, of the Landport Grammar School, Commercial Road, Landport, Portsea, Hants, schoolmaster, having a private residence first at 36, Victoria Street, Landport aforesaid, and then and now at 1, Common Street, Union Place, Kingston, Portsea aforesaid, part of the time aforesaid using and known by the name of M. Du Bois.
- Greenwood Ellison, now residing at 133, Garnett Street, late residing at 4, Whitley Street, Garnett Street aforesaid, and previously residing at Park Road, all in Bradford, York, and during the whole of such residence carrying on the business of a biscuit manufacturer, at Arundel Street, Bradford aforesaid.
- John Brasier, of Sinton Green, Grimley, Worcester, harness and collar maker.
- Joseph Andrew, formerly of Longton, Stoke-upon-Trent, Stafford, clog and shoe maker, but now of Congleton, Chester, clog and shoe maker.
- James White, of Saint Aldate Street, Gloucester, innkeeper, butcher, and dealer, and late a beer-house keeper.
- William Bunton, of Banbury, Oxford, news agent, bookseller, and stationer.
- Mark Coates, of Garton in Holderness, East Riding of York, miller, farmer, and flour dealer.
- Charles John Abraham, of 4, Timbrel Street, Trowbridge, Wilts, postman.
- Thomas Carlyle, of St Columb Major, Cornwall, china, glass, and earthenware merchant, dealer in marine stores, and rag and bone merchant.
- William Kidd, of Mill Street, Leek, Stafford, baker, grocer, and provision dealer.
- William Wheewall, alias Winter, of Chapel Street, New Radford, fishmonger, formerly, that is to say during the years 1856, 1857, and 1858, residing at Devonshire Street, Sheffield, York, fishmonger, and theretofore, that is to say from the year 1851 down to and including the year 1855, residing in Henrietta Street, Birmingham, Warwick, trading there as a fishmonger, under the style of William Winter.
- Charles King, of Bishopstone, Wilts, saddler.
- Thomas Hodgson, late of Witham, Kingston-upon-Hull, flour and corn dealer, now in lodgings at 4, Suffolk Row, Wincolmllee, Kingston-upon-Hull, out of business or employment.
- Charles Wilkinson, of Exhall, Warwick, blacksmith.
- Samuel Dunn, of Northampton, cabinetmaker.
- Thomas Cross, the younger, of Northampton, plumber, glazier, and painter.
- John Turner, late of the Neptune Inn Public-House and the Cliftonville Mews, Hove, Sussex, publican and stable-keeper, then of the Sea Mews, Sussex Road, Hove aforesaid, fly proprietor, now of the same place, in lodgings, then out of business.
- John Hankins, of Lugwardine, Hereford, commission agent.
- William Naylor, of Colchester, Essex, carpenter and builder.
- Robert Scott, of 30, Spital Street, Guildford, Surrey, tea dealer and draper.
- Sarah Elizabeth Lawes, of Friary Street, Guildford, Surrey, milliner and dressmaker.
- Thomas Webster, of Castle Bytham, Lincoln, veterinary surgeon and farmer.
- John Elwick Burley, coal porter, higgler, and coal dealer; and Henry Brown, huckster, gardener, and green-grocer, both of Lincoln.
- John Staucer, of Horncastle, Lincoln, cooper.
- Joseph Briggs, of Newark-upon-Trent, Nottingham, market gardener and seedsman, cowkeeper, keeper of entire horse, and higgler.