FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1862.

WHITEHALL, February 17, 1862.

THE following Address of Condolence, on the occasion of the death of His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, which has been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been laid before the Queen by Sir George Grey, and has been received very graciously by Her Majesty :—

Soldiers' Daughters' Home,
Hampstead, February 5, 1862.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the President, Vice-Presidents, Lady Patronesses, and General Committee of the Soldiers' Daughters' Home, beg leave in this dark day of your Majesty's affliction to offer to your Majesty the expression of our heartfelt sympathy and sorrow, and to assure your Majesty that our prayers are continually addressed to the Throne of Grace that your Majesty may be sustained by a strength which is not your own under the sore trial with which it has been God's will to visit you.

We hesitated long before venturing on this step, fearful lest our doing so might be accounted an act of presumption, but observing how graciously your Majesty has been pleased to receive the Addresses of others, and remembering that he, whose loss the whole Empire deploras, was not only the generous patron of our Home, but most graciously opened the new buildings at Hampstead on the 18th June 1858, we take courage to approach your Majesty and to express for ourselves and the children committed to our charge, the sentiments of loyalty to your throne and devotion to your person, with which we are animated.

It cannot but touch your Majesty's generous heart to know that there is not one among all your Majesty's subjects who does not share your Majesty's great sorrow as if it were his own.

And we humbly trust that, in answer to a Nation's prayer, your Majesty may receive from on high that peace of God which passeth all understanding, and which alone can bring comfort to the widow and the orphan.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, February 18, 1862.

An Address of Condolence from the Ionian residents at Constantinople, on the death of His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, has been transmitted by His Excellency Sir Henry Bulwer to Earl Russell, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to be laid before the Queen.

WHITEHALL, February 17, 1862.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Lord Kinnaird, K.T.; the Honourable Fulke Egerton; Nicholas Kendall, Esq.; Henry Austin Bruce, Esq.; John St Aubyn, Esq.; John Davie Ferguson Davie, Esq.; Edward Headlam Greenhow, Esq., M.D.; and Philip Henry Holland, Esq., to be Her Majesty's Commissioners to inquire into the condition of all Mines in Great Britain to which the provisions of the Act 23 and 24 Vict., c. 151, do not apply with reference to the health and safety of persons employed in such mines.

WHITEHALL, January 28, 1862.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Charles Spencer Bateman-Hanbury, of Great Cumberland Place, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, (commonly called the Honourable Charles Spencer Bateman Hanbury,) one of the Representatives in Parliament for the borough of Leominster, and to Margaret Cuninghame, his wife, eldest daughter and co-heir of John Lennox Kincaid-Lennox, late of Woodhead and Kincaid, in the county of Stirling, Esquire, deceased, and widow of George Augustus Frederick Percy Sydney Smythe, Viscount Strangford, also deceased, Her royal licence and authority that they may, in compliance with directions contained in certain deeds of disposition, entail, and settlement, bearing date respectively the 1st day of August 1828, and the 2d day of March 1849, take and henceforth use the surnames of Kincaid-Lennox in addition to and after those of Bateman-Hanbury, and the designations of Woodhead and Kincaid; and that he, the said Charles Spencer Bateman-Hanbury, may bear the arms of Kincaid and Lennox, quarterly with those of his own family; and that the said surnames and arms may in like manner be borne, taken, and used by the issue of their marriage; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

*At Edinburgh, the Eighth Day of February
Eighteen hundred and Sixty-two Years.*

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are empowered to pay, out of such Moneys as may be provided by Parliament for the Purpose, such Sums of Money as the Commissioners under the said Act shall recommend to be paid, inter alia, for providing retiring Allowances to aged and infirm Principals and Professors: The Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain as follows:—

I. The retiring Allowance to be granted to a Principal or Professor in any of the Universities of Scotland, retiring from his Office on the Ground of Age or Infirmary, shall be as follows; that is to say,

To any Principal or Professor who shall have served for Ten Years and upwards, and under Eleven Years, an annual Allowance equal to Twenty Sixtieths of the annual Salary and Emoluments of his Office:

For Eleven Years, and under Twelve Years, an annual Allowance equal to Twenty-one Sixtieths of such Salary and Emoluments:

And in like Manner a farther Addition to the annual Allowance equal to One-Sixtieth in respect of each additional Year of such Service, until the Completion of a Period of Service of Thirty Years, when an annual Allowance equal to Forty Sixtieths may be granted; and no Addition shall be made in respect of any Service beyond Thirty Years.

II. In reckoning the Years of Service of a Principal or Professor under this Ordinance, the Years during which he shall have held the Office from which he retires, and also the Years, if any, during which he may have held any other Office of Principal or Professor in the same, or in any other Scottish University, shall be taken into Account.

III. The annual Salary and Emoluments of a Principal or Professor shall be taken to be the annual Average of the Salary and Emoluments of the Office from which he retires, estimated on a Period of Five Years immediately preceding the Date of Retirement.

IV. In Cases in which special Circumstances may appear to justify an increased Rate of retiring Allowance, and in Cases in which a Principal or Professor may be disabled by Infirmary or bad Health from performing the Duties of his Office before the Completion of Ten Years' Service, the increased Rate, or retiring Allowance, if any, shall be such as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may determine.

V. The retiring Allowances to aged and infirm Principals and Professors under this Ordinance shall be paid out of such Moneys as may be provided by Parliament for the Purpose.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

JOHN INGLIS, Chairman.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 24th and 25th years of the reign of Queen Victoria, cap. 115, intituled "An Act for the Government of the Navy," it is enacted (inter alia) that the Admiralty may set apart any buildings or vessels, or any parts thereof, as naval prisons; and that any buildings or vessels, or parts of buildings or vessels, so set apart, shall be deemed to be naval prisons within the meaning of the said Act. And that all powers and authorities with respect to county gaols or houses of correction which now are or which may hereafter be vested in any of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, shall, with respect to all such naval prisons, belong to the Admiralty; and that it shall be lawful for the Admiralty from time to time to make, alter, and repeal regulations for the government of any such naval prison, and of the officers and servants thereof, and of offenders confined therein; and from time to time to appoint inspectors, and all other necessary officers and servants for any such naval prison, and, as occasion may arise, to remove the inspectors, officers, or servants of any such naval prison; and the senior officer at any port or place, or on any station where there may be any such naval prison, or such senior officer and such other person and persons as the Admiralty may from time to time appoint, shall be a visitor or visitors of such prison; and every inspector, visitor, or officer having the charge or command of any such naval prison respectively, shall, subject to such rules and regulations as may from time to time be made as aforesaid, have and exercise, in respect of such prison, and of the officers and servants thereof, and of the prisoners confined therein, all the powers and authorities, as well in respect of administering oaths as otherwise, which any inspector, visiting justice, or governor of a county gaol or house of correction may respectively exercise as such.

And whereas, in pursuance of the power and authority given to, and vested in us by the above-mentioned Act, we, as Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, have deemed it necessary to set apart and appropriate a certain building belonging to Her Majesty, situate at Lewes, in the county of Sussex, and known as "Lewes Prison," as and for a naval prison, for the reception, imprisonment, and government of all such seamen, marines, and others, as may be ordered to be imprisoned under sentence of naval courts' martial, according to such rules and regulations as we may from time to time think proper to make for the government and superintendence of such prison, and for the officers and servants thereof, and of the offenders therein.

And we do hereby notify to all persons whom it may concern that we have set apart and appropriated the said building as and for a naval prison accordingly.

Given under our hands this fifteenth day of February 1862.

CHARLES FREDERICK,
SAM. WHITBREAD,

Two of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 2.)—ENGLAND—EAST COAST.

Revolving Light in Corton Gateway.

The Corporation of the Trinity House, London, has given notice that a light-vessel has been placed at the south-east entrance of the Corton Gateway, off Lowestoft, in the North Sea.

The light is a revolving light, showing a red face three times in a minute. It is elevated 38 feet above the level of the sea, and should be seen in clear weather from a distance of about 10 miles.

The light-vessel has Corton Fairway painted on her sides, with a globe at the mast-head; and lies in 15 fathoms at low water springs, with Kirkly North Mill, its breadth open to the southward of St John's Church, bearing West southerly; Hopton Church, on the south side of Hopton Gap, N.W. by N.; South Corton Buoy, N. $\frac{1}{2}$ E.; South Corton spit buoy, N. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W.; and Holm Elbow buoy, N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ N.

The Stanford light-vessel has been removed.

Outer Dowsing Light-vessel.

Also, that in order to render the Outer Dowsing light-vessel more readily distinguishable from other light-vessels in that vicinity, a half-globe is placed above the usual globe at the mast-head.

Also, that the colour of the South Races bank buoy has been changed from white, to black and white, in vertical stripes.

New Light at Cape Frio.

The Secretary of State for the Marine Department at Rio de Janeiro has given notice that a new light is exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Focinho de Cabo Point, the southern extreme of the Island of Cape Frio, on the coast of Brazil, at about three-quarters of a mile to the southward of the old lighthouse.

The light is a revolving white light, said to attain its greatest brilliancy every minute and a half, and is seen in all directions from seaward through an arc of 225°, or when bearing between S.W. and East. The elevation of the light is 522 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be seen in clear weather from a distance of 25 miles. The duration of the total eclipse is only five seconds.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the first order.

The tower is round, 53 feet high, and stands in lat. 23° 1' 11" S., long. 41° 58' West of Greenwich.

The former light on the summit of Cape Frio is discontinued.

(No. 5.)—MEDITERRANEAN.—BALEARES ISLES.

Fixed Light on Botafoch Islet.

The Ministry of Marine at Madrid has given notice, that on and after the 30th day of November 1861, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Botafoch Islet, on the north side of the entrance to the port of Iviza, one of the Baleares Isles, off the south-east coast of Spain.

The light is a fixed white light, placed at an elevation of 102 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 9 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the sixth order.

The tower is round, 52 feet high, and surmounted by a white lantern; the keeper's dwelling is attached, and both are of a reddish grey colour. The tower stands in lat. 38° 54' N., long. 1° 31' east of Greenwich.

Light on Isla de Los Ahorcados.

Also, that on and after the 30th day of November 1861, the fixed light on Isla de los Ahorcados, between Iviza and Formentera, will be changed from a sixth to a fourth order; and raised to an elevation of 92 feet above the level of the sea. It should be seen in clear weather from a distance of 16 miles.

The tower is round, and 56 feet high; it is painted orange colour, and surmounted by a white lantern.
