

EXCHEQUER BILLS.

Office of Her Majesty's Paymaster-General,
Whitchhall, February 21, 1862.

The Exchequer Bills, dated in the month of March 1861, (per Act 23 Vict., cap. 20, anno 1860,) with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 11th March 1862, when the interest will cease. Such Bills will be received at this Office daily, from half-past ten till three o'clock, until the 4th day of March 1862, inclusive.

Printed forms, containing instructions for the preparation of the lists, and the arrangement of the Bills, may be obtained on application at this Office.

The holders must write or stamp their names on the face of each Bill, and they must insert their names and addresses in each list; but where the names of holders are inserted in the body of the Bills, the indorsements of such holders must be obtained previously to their lists and Bills being left for examination.

New Bills, prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Act 24 Vict., cap. 5, dated the 11th day of March 1862, may be obtained in payment of the principal of the whole, or part, of the Exchequer Bills advertised for payment, on the claimants specifying in their lists the amount of new Bills required by them.

The interest of the said Bills will be payable by coupons half-yearly, on the 12th September and 12th March, at the Bank of England. The rate of interest will be advertised from time to time in the "London Gazette." Such rate for the half-year, to the 11th day of September 1862, will be 3 per cent. per annum.

The Bills will be current, from year to year, for a period of five years, commencing on the 11th March 1862, at the option of the holders; and they will be payable for duties, aids, and taxes, at any time during the last six months of every year, viz., between the 11th September in each year and the 11th March following.

Notice will be given yearly of the days on which holders of the new Exchequer Bills, who may be desirous of being paid the principal moneys, must send their Bills to the Bank of England for examination and payment.

The new Bills, together with the interest on the Bills left on or before the said 4th day of March for exchange, will be issued on the 12th day of March 1862; when the claimants must attend at this Office to sign receipts for the payment of principal and interest.

Payment, in money, may be obtained at this Office for any Exchequer Bills which have been advertised for payment, upon the claimants leaving the Bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

N.B.—All Exchequer Bills dated prior to March 1861 have been previously advertised to be paid off.
