To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Royal Burghs of Scotland, in Convention assembled, beg to approach your Majesty to express the sentiments of deep and heartfelt sorrow with which we received intelligence of the death of your Majesty's illustrious Consort.

While we deplore the sudden and irreparable loss your Majesty, the Royal Family, and the Nation have sustained by the stroke which has removed from the career of his usefulness, in the vigour of his days, a Prince so conspicuous for his virtues and talents, and so eminently respected and beloved, we shall ever remember with profound thankfulness the numerous benefits which His Royal Highness has conferred upon the people of this land by his public and private example. These will embalm his memory in the hearts of a sorrowing people and of their children's children.

That He, who in his inscrutable wisdom has seen meet to send this affliction, may grant such support as alone will enable your Majesty and the Royal Family to bear it with resignation, is our sincere and fervent prayer.

II. I. There shall hereafter be Nine Bursaries in all, and no more, on the said Foundation in the University of Aberdeen ; and of such Nine Bursaries Three shall be of the annual Value of Twenty Pounds each, and Six of the annual Value of Fifteen Pounds each.

II. V. The Senatus Academicus shall, in their Discretion, determine in what Year an Appointment shall be made for the First Time to each of the said Nine Bursaries, and shall, in the Exercise of this Discretion, have special Regard to the Expediency of distributing as much as possible among Students of different Years the Benefits of Competition Bursaries ; and, for this Purpose, it shall be lawful for the Senatus to keep any One or more of the said Nine Bursaries vacant for such Period, not exceeding in any Case the Period of Three Years, as they may think expedient.

VI. After setting aside such a Sum as may be necessary to provide for the Payment of the Bursars on the Foundation for the Time, and of all other Burdens affecting the Property and Funds of the Foundation, the Surplus of the yearly Income shall be paid into, and form Part of, the General University Fund, provided for by Ordinance, No. 12, Aberdeen, No. 4, of the Second Day of July Eighteen hundred and Sixty, and shall be applicable to the Purposes of that Fund : Provided always, that, so long as there shall be a Debt on the Manses belonging to the University or any of them, One Half of the said Surplus shall in each Year be placed to the Account of a Sinking Fund for the Extinction of the said Debt, and, as soon as the said Debt is extinguished, the whole of the said Surplus shall be applied to the Purposes of the said General University Fund ; but nothing herein contained shall be held to relieve the Occupants of any of the Manses from Payment of any Portion of the Rent presently payable for the same, until the Debt on the Manses is entirely extinguished.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered to revise the respective Foundations, Mortifications, Bursaries, and Donations, bestowed on any of the Universities or Colleges mentioned in the said Act, or for the Benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein; and further, if, in the Case of any such Gift or Endowment which has taken Effect for more than Fifty Years, and has been held by any of the said Universities or Colleges, or by any other Person in Trust for or on behalf of the same, or of any Person therein, it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, so far as consistent with the Promotion of such Interests, may be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions or Directions affecting such Gift or Endowment, to alter or modify such Conditions or Directions, and to frame a new Statute or Ordinance for the Application of such Gift or Endowment, in such Manner as may better advance the Purposes thereof: And whereas, by his Will, dated the Tenth Day of September, Seventeen hundred and Thirty, James Fraser, Doctor of Laws, Secretary of the Royal Hospital at Chelsea, bequeathed to the King's College of Aberdeen the Sum of Two hundred and Twenty Pounds in South Sea Stock, to be laid out in a good Fund and Security, for the Maintenance of Two Bursars in the said College perpetually, whereof One was to be a Bursar in Theology and the Library Keeper during Four Years, after he was made Master of Arts, and the other to be a Bursar in Philosophy during Four Years, after the Expiration of which he was to succeed in the Place of the Bursar in Theology and Library Keeper for the like Number of Years, in the Manner and subject to the Conditions in the said Will more particularly set forth; and he further desired the Magistrates and Ministers of Inverness to provide out of their School young Lads fitly qualified to fill the Places designed for them, as often as a Vacancy should happen, according to his said Settlement, with the Concurrence of the Presbytery of Inverness: And whereas, since the Date of the said Will, the Value of the Property included in the said Mortification has increased, and it appears to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, would be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions and Directions affecting the said Mortification, in Manner hereinafter provided: And whereas King's College and Marischal College of Aberdeen are now united and incorporated into One University and College under the Style and Title of the University of Aberdeen; The Commissioners statute and ordain, with reference to the said Mortification, as follows:—

I. There shall hereafter, as prescribed by the said Will, be Two Bursaries on the said Foundation in the University of Aberdeen, of which One shall be a Bursary in Philosophy, and the other a Bursary in Theology.

II. On the first Occasion of a Vacancy in the Bursary in Philosophy, and as often thereafter as a Vacancy shall occur at the Expiration of the Four Years, for which the same is tenable as hereinafter provided, it shall be lawful to present thereto any Person educated at the Royal Academy of Inverness, without Restriction as to Name or Birth-place; and the Right of Presentation shall be exercised by the following Persons, viz., the Provost and Four Bailies of Inverness, the Three Ministers of Inverness, and Three Delegates from the Presbytery of Inverness, of whom the Moderator of the Presbytery shall be One, unless he be One of the Ministers of Inverness; and, in the Event of an Equality of Votes for Two Candidates, the Moderator of the Presbytery shall have a casting Vote.

III. The said Right of Presentation may be exercised at any Time after the First Day of August, in the Year in which such Vacancy as aforesaid shall occur; and, in the Event of the said Patrons allowing One Month of the Winter Session of the University next after such First Day of August to expire, without exercising their Right of Presentation, it shall be lawful for the Senatus Academicus forthwith to present to the vacant Bursary.

IV. The Bursar in Philosophy shall be entitled to hold the Bursary for Four Years as a Student in Arts, and no longer, subject to the Condition that he shall pass such Entrance Examination, as may for the Time be required by the University of Presentation Bursars, and shall proceed through the Curriculum in Arts in the said University, and shall pass the Examinations required by the University of Students proceeding to the Degree of Master of Arts; and, on the Expiration of such Four Years, he shall further be entitled, provided he shall have obtained the Degree of Master of Arts, to succeed to the said Bursary in Theology on the said Foundation, and to hold the same for the farther Period of Four Years, subject to the Condition that he shall during that Period give regular Attendance as a Student in Theology in the said University.

V. In the Event of a Vacancy occurring in the Bursary in Philosophy during the Currency of any Period of Four Years, for which the same is tenable as aforesaid, an Appointment shall be made by the Senatus Academicus, without Restriction as to Name or Birth-place, of another Student, as Bursar for the Remainder of the said Period then unexpired, from among the Students of the same Standing in the Curriculum in Arts, as the Bursar was, in whose Room the Appointment is made; and the Bursar then appointed shall be entitled to hold the Bursary in Philosophy for the Remainder of the said Period of Four Years unexpired, and no longer, and, on the Expiration thereof, and subject to the same Conditions as aforesaid, to succeed to the said Bursary in Theology, and to hold the same for the like Period of Four Years: Provided always, that, in the Event of there being at the Time of such Vacancy any Student of such Standing as aforesaid, who has been educated at the Royal Academy of Inverness, he shall have a preferable Claim to the Appointment; and, in the Event of there being Two or more such Students so educated, the Appointment shall be given to that One of them, who shall appear to the Senatus, either after Competition or otherwise as they may think most expedient, to be the most deserving; and, in the Event of there being no such Student so educated, the Appointment shall be given to another Student of the said Standing, and that either after Competition or otherwise, as the Senatus may think most expedient.

VI. In the Event of a Vacancy occurring in the said Bursary in Theology during the Currency of any period of Four Years for which the same is tenable, an Appointment shall be made by the Senatus Academicus, without Restriction as to Name or Birth-place, of another Student in Theology, as Bursar for the Remainder of the said Period then unexpired, and the Bursar then appointed shall be entitled to hold the said Bursary for the Remainder of such Period, and no longer: Provided always, that the Appointment shall be made subject to the same Conditions, as to a Preference in Favour of Students educated at the Royal Academy of Inverness, as are above provided in the Case of a Vacancy occurring in the Bursary in Philosophy during the Currency of the Four Years.

VII. In the Event of the Bursar in Philosophy failing before the Period of Expiration of his Bursary to obtain the Degree of Master of Arts, and also in the Event of the Bursar in Philosophy, although otherwise qualified, not becoming a Student in Theology in the said University, an Appointment shall be made by the Senatus Academicus, without Restriction as to Name or Birth-place, of a Graduate in Arts to the said Bursary in Theology; and the Bursar then appointed shall be entitled to hold the Bursary for the like Period of Four Years, and subject to the same Conditions, as if he had succeeded thereto in Manner hereinbefore provided: Provided always, that the Appointment shall be made subject to the same Conditions, as to a Preference in Favour of Students educated at the Royal Academy of Inverness, as are above provided in the Case of a Vacancy occurring in the Bursary in Philosophy during the Currency of the Four Years.

VIII. In addition to the said Two Bursaries provided in Terms of the said Will, there shall also be a Second or additional Bursary in Theology on the said Foundation; and such Second Bursary in Theology shall, on every Occurrence of a Vacancy, be open for Competition to all Masters of Arts of any of the Universities of Scotland, entering on their First or Second Session of Attendance in the Faculty of Divinity in the said University, without Restriction or Preference as to Name, or Place of Birth or Education; and the successful Candidate for the said Bursary shall be entitled to hold the same for Three Years, and no longer, subject to the Condition that he shall, during that Period, give regular Attendance as a Student in Theology in the said University: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to be the Holder of both the said Bursaries in Theology at the same Time.

IX. If the Bursar in Philosophy shall fail to pass any of the Examinations required as aforesaid of Presentation Bursars, or of Students proceeding to the Degree of Master of Arts, or shall discontinue his Attendance at the University as a Student in Arts, he shall forfeit his Bursary and all Rights in respect thereof; and, if the Holder of either of the said Bursaries in Theology shall discontinue his Attendance as a Student in Theology, he shall forfeit his Bursary.

X. In Case of any gross Misconduct on the Part of the Holder of any of the said Bursaries, it shall be in the Power of the Senatus Academicus, with the Approval of the University Court, to suspend him from, or to deprive him of, his Bursary.

XI. In any Competition for any of the said Bursaries, the Examination of Candidates shall embrace such Branches of Study as may from Time to Time be appointed by the Senatus Academicus.

XII. Neither of the Bursars in Theology shall be required, as a Condition of Tenure of his Bursary, to perform any Duties in connection with the Library of the University.

XIII. The annual Payments to be made from the Income of the Foundation to the Holders of the said Bursaries respectively shall be, to the Holder of the Bursary in Philosophy Twenty-five Pounds, to the Holder of the first-mentioned Bursary in Theology Thirty Pounds, and to the Holder of the Second or additional Bursary in Theology Thirty Pounds.

XIV. After providing for the annual Payments to the said Three Bursars, and for all other Burdens affecting the Property and Funds of the Foundation, the Sum of Fifty Pounds shall, in each Year, be applied towards defraying the Salary of the Librarian or Librarians of the University, or otherwise to the Purposes of the Library.

XV. No Appointment shall be made to the Bursary in Philosophy on the said Foundation, until the present Bursar in Arts, now on the said Foundation at the University, shall have ceased to hold his Bursary in Arts.

XVI. No Appointment to the said first-mentioned Bursary in Theology on the said Foundation in Terms of this Ordinance shall be made, until the Expiration of Four Years from the First Appointment of the Bursar in Philosophy under this Ordinance.

XVII. The First Appointment to the said Second Bursary in Theology shall be made as soon as either of the present Holders of the Theological Bursaries, now on the said Foundation at the University, shall have ceased to hold his Bursary.

XVIII. The Surplus, in each Year, of the Income of the said Foundation, including therein any unappropriated Income arising from Vacancies in any of the Bursaries, shall be paid into, and form Part of, the Common Bursary Fund of the University.

XIX. Nothing herein contained shall extend to, or affect, the Interests of any Bursars now on the said Foundation at the University.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

III. Every Boy, who shall hereafter be presented to a Bursary at the said School, shall be entitled to hold the same therein during the Period of Five Years, and no longer, as provided by the said Deed.

IV. Every Boy, hereafter presented to a Bursary at the School, who shall, as a Bursar on the said Foundation, have given regular Attendance at the School for not less than Three Years, shall be entitled to proceed to the University of Aberdeen, as a Bursar on the said Foundation, provided there be at the Time a sufficient Number of Vacancies on the Foundation in the University, to allow each Bursar from the School, who has not ceased to hold his Bursary therein for more than Eighteen Months, and who proposes to enter, or is attending, the University, and has not obtained a Bursary on the said Foundation therein, to succeed to a Bursary therein; and provided also, that every Person so succeeding to a Bursary in the University shall pass such Entrance Examination, as may for the Time be required by the University of Presentation Bursars; and thereupon he shall be entitled to hold a Bursary on the Foundation in the University for Four Years, and no longer, subject to the farther Condition, that he shall proceed through the Curriculum in Arts, and shall pass the Examinations required by the University of Students proceeding to the Degree of Master of Arts: Provided always, that, if he shall fail to pass such Entrance Examination at the University as aforesaid, or shall fail to pass any of the above-mentioned subsequent Examinations, or shall discontinue his Attendance at the University as a Student in Arts, he shall forfeit his Bursary: Provided also, that, in Case of any gross Misconduct on the Part of a University Bursar, it shall be in the Power of the Senatus Academicus, with the Approval of the University Court, to suspend him from, or to deprive him of, his Bursary.

V. In the Event, at any Time, of there being fewer Bursaries vacant on the said Foundation in the University than the Number of Bursars from the School eligible as aforesaid, all the Bursars from the School so eligible shall be entitled to compete for the Bursary or Bursaries then vacant; and the successful Candidate or Candidates shall be entitled to hold the same for the like Period, and subject to the same Conditions, as are hereinbefore prescribed with regard to Persons succeeding to Bursaries in the University.

VI. In the Event, at any Time, of there being more Bursaries vacant on the said Foundation in the University than the Number of Bursars from the School eligible as aforesaid, the vacant Bursary or Bursaries in the University above such Number shall be kept vacant, until there shall be a Bursar or Bursars from the School so eligible: Provided always, that no Bursary shall be so kept vacant for a longer Period than One Year, after which it shall be competent to present thereto any Person, although he may not have been educated at the School of Fordyce, and the Person so presented shall then be entitled to hold his Bursary for the like Period, and subject to the same Conditions, as aforesaid.

VII. Each Bursar on the said Foundation at the School shall receive annually, as at present, Eight and a half Bolls of Meal, or the Value thereof, besides Two Pounds Sixteen Shillings and Eightpence in Money; and the Master of the School of Fordyce shall receive annually Twenty-four Pounds in full of all Fees or Charges for the Education of the Bursars attending the said School.

VIII. Each Bursar on the said Foundation at the University shall receive annually Twenty-five Pounds in Money; and he shall not be exempted from Payment of any Fees payable by other Students in the University.

IX. After setting aside in each Year, from the Income of the Property included in the Mortification, such a Sum, as may be necessary to provide for the Payment of the Bursars on the Foundation for the Time, and of all other Burdens, the Surplus shall be applied in Manner hereinafter provided.

X. There shall hereafter be Four Scholarships in the University of Aberdeen, to be called the Red:

lyth Scholarships; and each Redhyth Scholar shall annually, during his Tenure of his Scholarship, receive the Sum of Sixty Pounds from the said Surplus Income: Provided always, that, in the Event of the Surplus in any Year being insufficient to afford such Payment of Sixty Pounds to each Scholar, the Stipends of the Scholars then on the Foundation shall suffer such equal Abatement, as the Senatus Academicus shall deem necessary.

XI. Each Scholarship shall be tenable for Four Years.

XII. An Appointment shall be made for the First Time to One of the said Scholarships in the Year Eighteen hundred and Sixty-four, and thereafter an Appointment shall be made to One Scholarship, but no more, in each Year.

XIII. The Patronage of the said Scholarships shall be vested in the Patron of the Redhyth Bursaries for the Time being; and on each Occasion of an Appointment to a Scholarship, if there be any Person, not already the Holder of a Redhyth or any other Scholarship in the University, who is or has been a Redhyth Bursar either at the University or at the School of Fordyce, and who has, either in the Year in which the Appointment falls to be made, or in the immediately preceding Year, obtained the Degree of Master of Arts with Honours in the University of Aberdeen, the Patron shall appoint such Person, or, if there be more than One, One of such Persons, to the vacant Scholarship; but, in the Event of there being no Person so qualified, it shall then be in the Power of the Patron to appoint to the vacant Scholarship any Person, not already the Holder of any Scholarship as aforesaid, who has within the said Period obtained the Degree of Master of Arts with Honours in the University.

XIV. The Senatus Academicus shall, after the ordinary Period of Graduation in each Year, beginning with the Year Eighteen hundred and Sixty-four, transmit to the Patron a classified List of the Persons who have graduated in Arts with Honours in the University in such Year and in the preceding Year, and shall indicate in the List the Names of those who have been Redhyth Bursars either at the University or at the School of Fordyce; and it shall be the Duty of the Patron, within Three Months after such List shall have been transmitted by the Senatus Academicus, to intimate to the Senatus his Appointment of a Scholar from among the Persons in such List; and, in the Event of his failing to do so, the Right of Appointment shall for that Time be transferred to, and devolve upon, the Senatus, who shall have the Power of appointing to the vacant Scholarship any Person, whether a Redhyth Bursar or not, who has graduated in Arts with Honours in the University in either of such Years as aforesaid, and who is not already the Holder of any Scholarship in the University.

XV. In the Event of a Vacancy occurring in any Scholarship during the Currency of the Four Years for which the same is tenable, it shall be kept vacant for the Remainder of such Four Years then unexpired, and the Income thereof during the Vacancy, and also the Residue of the Surplus Income after providing for the Stipends of the Scholars on the Foundation for the Time, shall be paid into, and form Part of, the Common Bursary Fund of the University.

XVI. Nothing herein contained shall extend to, or affect, the Interests of any Bursars now on the said Foundation, either at the School of Fordyce or the University of Aberdeen.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, April 17, 1862.

EARL RUSSELL, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from Her Majesty's Consul-General at Algiers, a copy of the "Moniteur d'Algérie," of the 5th instant, in which is inserted the following circular letter from the Governor-General of Algeria to the Prefects of Departments, relative to the abolition of passports between Algeria and Marseilles, and along the Coast of Algeria :—

POLICE ADMINISTRATIVE.—PASSEPORTS.

Mesures de tolérance à l'égard des Voyageurs. Instructions Complémentaires.

S. Exc. M. le Gouverneur-Général vient d'adresser la circulaire suivante à MM. les Préfets des Départements Algériens :

Alger, le 2 Avril 1862.

Monsieur le Préfet, par ma circulaire du 6 Mars dernier, je vous ai fait connaître les mesures de tolérance qui avaient été concertées entre S. Exc. le Ministre de l'Intérieur et moi, au sujet des voyageurs se rendant de France en Algérie et vice versa.

L'exécution de ces mesures a soulevé quelques doutes que je vais dissiper en répondant aux diverses questions qui m'ont été adressées.

1<sup>re</sup> Question.—Pour les voyageurs qui se rendent d'Algérie en France, la dispense du passeport ne s'applique-t-elle qu'à ceux qui débarquent à Marseille ?

Marseille est le seul port de France où existe, quant à présent, un service régulier de transports de voyageurs entre la métropole et l'Algérie, et c'est la raison pour laquelle il a été seul désigné. Mais il va de soi que la mesure s'appliquera successivement aux autres ports Français, où des services de l'espèce viendront à s'établir par la suite.

2<sup>e</sup> Question.—Pour les voyageurs venant de France en Algérie, la mesure est-elle applicable à tous nos nationaux sans distinction ?

Indubitablement, et afin de bien fixer les autorités Algériennes sur la portée des mesures dont il s'agit, je crois devoir reproduire les termes de la circulaire que M. le Ministre de l'Intérieur a adressée le 15 Mars dernier, pour le même objet, aux Préfets de France.

"La formalité du passeport ne sera plus obligatoire pour les voyageurs de France en Algérie, à l'égard :

"De nos nationaux ;

"2°. Des sujets étrangers qui, à titre de réciprocité, sont autorisés à pénétrer en France sans passeport ;

"3°. Des étrangers de toute nationalité déjà fixés dans l'intérieur de l'Empire ;

"4°. Enfin, des émigrants étrangers qui, nantis de contrats réguliers de colonisation délivrés au nom du Gouverneur-Général de l'Algérie, voudraient se rendre à leurs frais dans nos possessions d'Afrique."

3<sup>e</sup> Question.—Pour les Français venant d'Algérie, la dispense du passeport cessera-t-elle lorsqu'ils auront à continuer leur voyage dans l'intérieur ?

L'obligation du passeport n'ayant pas été supprimée à l'égard des Français qui voyagent dans l'intérieur de l'Empire, le mesure dont il s'agit ne saurait avoir pour effet d'attribuer aux Français Algériens une immunité dont ne jouissent pas leurs compatriotes de la métropole. Il sera donc prudent, à ceux qui auront à voyager dans l'intérieur de l'Empire, de se munir d'un passeport avant leur départ, afin de s'éviter les embarras que pourrait leur causer le nécessité de s'en faire délivrer un à Marseille.

4<sup>e</sup> Question.—Le passeport est-il toujours obligatoire pour les Français et les étrangers voyageant sur le littoral Algérien ou dans l'intérieur du pays ?

Ma circulaire du 6 Mars dernier ne s'est point expliquée à cet égard, parce qu'elle n'avait à traiter que des mesures concertées avec le Département de l'Intérieur ; mais, puisque la question m'a été posée je n'hésite pas à la résoudre selon l'esprit de tolérance qui a dicté les premières mesures. Je ne vois pas, en effet, de raison plausible, pour exiger de ceux qui voyagent sur le littoral ou dans l'intérieur de la colonie, une formalité dont ils sont affranchis, lorsqu'ils viennent de France.

J'ai décidé, en conséquence, que le passeport ne serait plus obligatoire pour se rendre d'un port à l'autre du littoral de l'Algérie, ou pour parcourir l'intérieur, à l'égard des voyageurs auxquels s'appliquent les mesures de tolérance qui font l'objet de mes instructions du 6 Mars dernier et de la circulaire de M. le Ministre de l'Intérieur, du 15 du même mois.

Il est bien entendu, d'ailleurs, que la suppression du passeport, dans les cas déterminés n'est nullement exclusive de la surveillance à exercer sur les voyageurs, au départ et à l'arrivée des paquebots, sur le littoral et dans l'intérieur de la colonie. La tolérance accordée à ceux qui voyagent dans un but d'affaires, de science, ou de plaisir, ne saurait s'étendre aux vagabonds, aux gens sans aveu, aux repris de justice, aux hommes dangereux de toute espèce.

Ainsi, Monsieur le Préfet, dans l'intérêt de la sécurité publique, et en vertu des lois et régle-ments de police, les voyageurs pourront toujours être requis par les agents de l'autorité, de justifier de leur origine et de leur identité, et de produire, à défaut de passeports réguliers, des pièces de famille, des documents certains ou tous autres témoignages dont la valeur et la sincérité devront être vérifiées avec soin.

Recevez, etc.,

Le Gouverneur-Général de l'Algérie,

M. PELISSIER, DUC DE MALAKOFF.

[Translation.]

His Excellency the Governor-General has addressed the following Circular to the Prefects of the Algerine Departments :

Algiers, April 2, 1862.

M. LE PREFET,

In my Circular of the 6th of March last, I acquainted you with the measures of tolerance which had been concerted by his Excellency the Minister of the Interior and myself, regarding travellers going from France to Algeria, and vice versa.

The carrying out of these measures has caused some doubts to arise, which I shall dispel in answering the different questions which have been addressed to me.

First question :—As regards travellers going from Algeria to France, can only those who land at Marseilles dispense with passports?

Marseilles is at present the only port of France where there exists a regular service for the transport of travellers from the metropolis to Algeria, and therefore that port alone has been mentioned. But it is self-evident that the measure will apply successively to the other ports of France, where transport services of a similar kind will in time be established.

Second question :—As regards travellers going from France to Algeria, does the measure apply to all our countrymen, without distinction?

Doubtless; and in order to impress on the Algerian authorities the extent of the measures of which it is composed, I think it right to recapitulate the terms of the Circular on the same subject, addressed, on the 15th of March last, by the Minister of the Interior to the Prefects of France :

"The formality of the passport will no longer be obligatory on travellers from France to Algeria, as regards—

"1<sup>o</sup> Our countrymen.

"2<sup>o</sup> Foreign subjects who are by reciprocity authorized to enter France without passports.

"3<sup>o</sup> Foreigners of all countries already domiciled in the interior of the Empire.

"4<sup>o</sup> Lastly, Foreign emigrants, who, provided with regular letters of colonization, delivered in the name of the Governor-General of Algeria, would wish to visit our Possessions in Africa at their own expense.

Third question :—As regards French subjects coming from Algeria, would the dispensing with a passport no longer apply to them if they had to continue their journey into the interior?

Obligation to carry a passport, not having been suppressed in regard to those French subjects travelling into the interior of the Empire, the measure could not have the effect of bestowing upon the Algerian French an immunity which their countrymen of the metropolis do not enjoy. It would therefore be prudent on the part of those who would have to travel in the interior of the Empire, to provide themselves with passports before their departure, to avoid the trouble which the necessity of their procuring them at Marseilles might occasion.

Fourth question :—Is the passport always obligatory for French subjects and Foreigners travelling on the coast of Algeria and into the interior of the country?

My Circular of the 6th of March last did not give any explanations on this subject, because it only treated of measures concerted with the Minister of the Interior; but, since the question has been made to me, I do not hesitate to answer it, in accordance with the spirit of tolerance which dictated the first measures. In fact, I see no plausible reason why a formality should be demanded from those travelling on the shores or in the interior of the colony, from which they would be freed from on entering France.

I have decided, in consequence, that a passport will no longer be necessary in travelling from one port to the other of the coast of Algeria, or in the interior of the country, as regards those travellers to whom my measures of tolerance, which form the subject of my Instructions of the 6th of March last, and of the Circular from the Minister of the Interior of the 15th of the same month, apply. Besides, it must be well understood that the suppression of the passport, in certain cases, in no wise does away with the surveillance over travellers, on the arrival and departure of steam-boats on the coast and in the interior of the colony. The toleration granted to those who travel for the purpose of affairs, of science, or of pleasure, could not be extended to vagrants and vagabonds, to fugitives from justice, and to dangerous persons, of whatever kind they may be.

Therefore, M. le Prefet, in the interest of public security, and in accordance with the laws and rules of police, travellers may always be required by the agents of the authorities to make good their origin and their identity, and to produce, in default of regular passports, family papers, trustworthy documents, or any other testimony, the worth and truthfulness of which should be carefully verified.

Accept, &c.,

The Governor-General of Algeria,

MARSHAL PELISSIER,

Duke of Malakoff.
