

soon as both are vacant, an Appointment shall be made of One Bursar, and no more, to the said One Bursary; and so on, as often as the said One Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

III. Nothing herein contained shall extend to, or affect, the Interests of any Bursars now on the said Foundation at the University.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

At Edinburgh, the Eleventh Day of April Eighteen hundred and Sixty-two Years.

ORDINANCE, No. 32.
Aberdeen, No. 12.
[Park Foundation.]

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered to revise the respective Foundations, Mortifications, Bursaries, and Donations, bestowed on any of the Universities or Colleges mentioned in the said Act, or for the Benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein; and further, if, in the Case of any such Gift or Endowment which has taken Effect for more than Fifty Years, and has been held by any of the said Universities or Colleges, or by any other Person in Trust for or on behalf of the same, or of any Person therein, it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, so far as consistent with the Promotion of such Interests, may be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions or Directions affecting such Gift or Endowment, to alter or modify such Conditions or Directions, and to frame a new Statute or Ordinance for the Application of such Gift or Endowment, in such Manner as may better advance the Purposes thereof: And whereas, by Deed of Mortification, dated the Twenty-fifth Day of July Sixteen hundred and Ninety-one, Mr James Park of Cranoch mortified the Sum of Two thousand Merks to the King's College of Aberdeen for the Maintenance of Two Bursars in Philosophy therein, in the Manner and subject to the Conditions in the said Deed more particularly set forth: And whereas the Value of the Two Bursaries on the said Foundation is now very small, and it appears to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, would be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions and Directions affecting the said Mortification, in Manner hereinafter provided: And whereas King's College and Marischal College of Aberdeen are now united and incorporated into One University and College under the Style and Title of the University of Aberdeen: The Commissioners statute and ordain, with reference to the said Mortification, as follows:—

I. The Two Bursaries on the said Foundation shall hereafter be conjoined into One Bursary in the University of Aberdeen, the Holder of which shall annually, during his Tenure thereof, receive Ten Pounds from the Income of the Foundation.

II. In appointing to the said One Bursary there shall not be any Preference to Students of the Founder's Kindred.

III. No appointment of a Bursar on the said Foundation shall be made, until both the existing Bursaries are vacant; and, upon the Occurrence of that Event, an Appointment shall be made of One Bursar, and no more, on the said Foundation; and so on, as often as the said One Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

IV. The Surplus, in each Year, of the Income of the said Foundation, including therein any unappropriated Income arising from any Vacancy in the said Bursary, shall be paid into, and form Part of, the Common Bursary Fund of the University.

V. Nothing herein contained shall extend to, or affect, the Interests of any Bursars now on the said Foundation at the University.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

At Edinburgh, the Eleventh Day of April Eighteen hundred and Sixty two Years.

ORDINANCE, No. 33.
Aberdeen, No. 13.
[Adam Foundation.]
