ORDINANCE,
No. 57.

Glasgow,
No. 8.

[Armagh
Foundation.]

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered to revise the respective Foundations, Mortifications, Bursaries, and Donations, bestowed on any of the Universities or Colleges mentioned in the said Act, or for the Benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein; and further, if, in the Case of any such Gift or Endowment which has taken Effect for more than Fifty Years, and has been held by any of the said Universities or Colleges, or by any other Person in Trust for or on behalf of the same, or of any Person therein, it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, so far as consistent with the Promotion of such Interests, may be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions or Directions affecting such Gift or Endowment, to alter or modify such Conditions or Directions, and to frame a new Statute or Ordinance for the Application of such Gift or Endowment, in such Manner as may better advance the Purposes thereof: And whereas, by Deed of Mortification, dated the Twenty-first Day of March Seventeen hundred and Thirty-three, Doctor Hugh Boulter, Archbishop of Armagh, mortified certain Property for the Foundation of a Bursary in the University of Glasgow, to be held for a Period of Three Years by a Graduate in Arts of the University born in England or Ireland, who should prosecute the Study of Theology, Law, or Medicine, in the Manner and Subject to the Conditions in the said Deed more particularly set forth; and he thereby empowered the University, out of the Income of any Increase in the Capital of the Mortification, to found another Bursary under like Conditions: And whereas, in the Year Seventeen hundred and Seventy-three, and again in or about the Year Eighteen hundred and Six, the University founded another Bursary in Virtue of the Power so conferred: And whereas Difficulties are now experienced in obtaining Candidates who are qualified in Terms of the Deed, and it appears to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, would be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions and Directions affecting the said Mortification, in Manner hereinafter provided: The Commissioners statute and ordain, with reference to the said Mortification, as follows:—

I. There shall hereafter be Three Bursaries on the said Foundation, and the Holder of each of such Bursaries shall annually, during his Tenure thereof, receive Twenty-five Pounds from the Income of the Foundation.

II. All Persons, without Restriction as to Kindred or Birthplace, who have obtained the Degree of Master of Arts in the University in the Year in which an Appointment to a vacant Bursary is made, shall be eligible for such Bursary; and the Senatus Academicus shall appoint thereto the Candidate, who, in their Opinion, is the most distinguished as a Graduate in Arts for the Year, as may appear either from the Report of the Examiners for Graduation in Arts, or from such Report in Connection with any other Examination, which the Senatus may think necessary: Provided always, that, between Candidates whose Qualifications in other Respects shall appear to the Senatus to be equal, a Preference shall be given to a Candidate born in England or Ireland: Provided also, that no Person shall be entitled to hold any of the said Bursaries along with any other Bursary in the University.

III. Each Bursar shall be entitled to hold his Bursary for Three Years, and no longer, subject to the Condition that he shall, during that Period, give regular Attendance as a Student in Theology, Law, or Medicine, in the University of Glasgow; but, if he shall discontinue his Attendance as such Student, he shall forfeit his Bursary: Provided always, that, in Case of any gross Misconduct on the Part of any Bursar, it shall be in the Power of the Senatus Academicus to suspend him from, or to deprive him of, his Bursary, subject to an Appeal to the University Court, if taken within Eight Days, and which Appeal shall be heard and disposed of by the University Court with all possible Despatch; but, in the Meantime, the Decision of the Senatus Academicus shall receive Effect from its Date.

IV. The Bursars shall not be required or entitled, as such, to reside in the University, or to perform any Duties in Connection with the University Library.

V. With the View of distributing, as far as possible, among Students of different Years the Benefits of the said Bursaries, no Appointment shall in any Case be made to more than One of the said Bursaries in the same Year.

VI. The Surplus, in each Year, of the Income of the Armagh Foundation, including therein any unappropriated Income arising from any Vacancy in any of the Bursaries, shall be paid into, and form Part of, the Foundation Funds of the University; and the Armagh Foundation shall have a Claim upon the said Funds for Augmentation or Increase of Bursaries, or for any necessary Purposes, corresponding, or as near as may be corresponding, to the Amount of the Contributions which from Time to Time it shall have made thereto.

VII. Nothing herein contained shall extend to, or affect, the Interests of any Bursars now on the said Foundation at the University.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

JOHN INGLIS, Chairman.
