WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered to revise the respective Foundations, Mortifications, Bursaries and Donations, bestowed on any of the Universities or Colleges mentioned in the said Act, or for the Benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein; and further, if, in the Case of any such Gift or Endowment which has taken Effect for more than Fifty Years, and has been held by any of the said Universities or Colleges, or by any other Person in Trust for or on behalf of the same, or of any Person therein, it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, so far as consistent with the Promotion of such Interests, may be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions or Directions affecting such Gift or Endowment, to alter or modify such Conditions or Directions, and to frame a new Statute or Ordinance for the Application of such Gift or Endowment, in such Manner as may better advance the Purposes thereof: And whereas, by Deed of Mortification dated the Twenty-third Day of March Seventeen hundred and Thirty-seven, Robina, Countess of Forfar, mortified the Sum of Five hundred Pounds to and in favour of the University of Glasgow for the Education of Bursars therein, and for other Purposes in the said Deed more particularly set forth, but subject always to the Conditions and Directions contained in the said Deed, and in a subsequent Deed, dated the Fourteenth Day of March Seventeen hundred and Thirty-eight: And whereas, for a long Period, the said Conditions and Directions have been inapplicable to the altered State of Circumstances, and the Foundation has been almost entirely in Abeyance; and it appears to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, would be better advanced by an Alteration of such Conditions and Directions, in Manner hereinafter provided: The Commissioners statute and ordain, with reference to the said Mortification, as follows:—

I. There shall hereafter be Four Bursaries in all and no more, on the said Foundation; and the Holder of each of such Four Bursaries shall annually, during his Tenure thereof, receive Twenty Pounds from the Income of the Foundation: Provided always, that, in the Event of the Income being insufficient in any Year to afford the Payment of Twenty Pounds to each Bursar, the Stipends of the Bursars shall suffer such equal Abatement, as the Senatus Academicus shall deem necessary.

II. Each of the said Four Bursaries shall be open for Competition to all Students entering on their First or Second Session of Attendance in the Faculty of Arts in the said University, without Restriction as to Place of Birth or Education: Provided always, that no Student shall be admissible to the Competition for any Bursary, who has, for more than One Session, been a Student in the Faculty of Arts in any One or more of the Scottish Universities: Provided also, that, between Candidates whose Qualifications in other Respects shall appear to the Senatus to be equal, a Preference shall be given to a Candidate qualified by Birth and Education, as provided by the said Deeda.

III. Each Bursar shall be entitled to hold his Bursary for Four Years, and no longer, subject to the Condition that he shall proceed through the Curriculum in Arts in the said University, and shall pass the Examinations required by the University of Students proceeding to the Degree of Master of Arts; but, if he shall fail to pass any of the Examinations required as aforesaid of Students proceeding to the Degree of Master of Arts, or shall discontinue his Attendance at the University as a Student in Arts, he shall forfeit his Bursary: Provided always, that, in Case of any gross Misconduct on the Part of any Bursar, it shall be in the Power of the Senatus Academicus to suspend him from, or to deprive him of, his Bursary, subject to an Appeal to the University Court, if taken within Eight Days, and which Appeal shall be heard and disposed of by the University Court with all possible Despatch; but, in the Meantime, the Decision of the Senatus Academicus shall receive Effect from its date.

IV. In the Event of a Vacancy occurring in any Bursary on the said Foundation during the Currency of the Period of Four Years, for which the same is tenable as aforesaid, the Senatus Academicus may appoint a Bursar for the Remainder of the said Period then unexpired, from among the Students of the same Standing in the Curriculum in Arts as the Bursar was, in whose Room the Appointment is made, and that either after Competition or otherwise, as they may think most expedient; and the Bursar then appointed shall, subject to the same Conditions as aforesaid, be entitled to hold the said Bursary for the Remainder of the said Period of Four Years then unexpired, and no longer: Provided always, that, in the Event of the Senatus Academicus not appointing a Bursar as aforesaid, the Bursary shall continue vacant for the Remainder of the said Period then unexpired.

V. The Senatus Academicus shall, in their Discretion, determine in what Year an Appointment shall be made for the First Time to each of the said Four Bursaries, and shall, in the Exercise of this Discretion, have special Regard to the Expediency of distributing as far as possible among Students of different Years the Benefits of Competition Bursaries.

VI. No person shall be entitled to hold any of the said Bursaries along with any other Bursary in the University.

VII. The Surplus, in each Year, of the Income of the Forfar Foundation, including therein any unappropriated Income arising from any Vacancy in any of the Bursaries, shall be paid into, and form Part of, the Foundation Funds of the University; and the Forfar Foundation shall have a Claim upon the said Funds for Augmentation of the said Four Bursaries, or for any necessary Purposes, corresponding, or as near as may be corresponding, to the Amount of the Contributions which from Time to Time it shall have made thereto.

VIII. Nothing herein contained shall extend to, or affect, the Interests of any Bursar now on the said Foundation at the University.

VI. The Librarian shall from Time to Time prepare a List, to be submitted to, and adjusted and approved by, the Senatus, and when so adjusted and approved, to be kept by the Librarian, of such Books, Manuscripts, and other Works, as ought not to be lent out of the Library, and which shall not be lent out on any Terms ; and the Senatus shall from Time to Time make such Regulations, as they shall think expedient, for allowing Access to such Works for Consultation.

VII. The Librarian shall from Time to Time prepare a List, to be submitted to, and adjusted and approved by, the Senatus, and when so adjusted and approved, to be kept by the Librarian, of such Works as ought not to be lent out of the Library, except upon special Application, and by special Permission of the Library Committee ; and the Senatus shall from Time to Time make such general Regulations as to the Conditions under which such Works may be borrowed, as they shall think expedient ; and, in Addition to such general Regulations, the Library Committee may, in each individual Case of borrowing such Works, impose such special Conditions, as they may think necessary or expedient : Provided always, that every such special Permission, and all such additional Conditions im-

1. Every Matriculated Student shall be entitled to have in his Possession Two Volumes at One Time; and shall be entitled to retain any Book for Two Weeks from the Date of borrowing; and further, to re-borrow any Book for successive Periods of Two Weeks, unless an Application for the same shall in the Meantime have been made by another Person entitled to the Use of the Library: Provided always, that it shall be in the Power of the Senatus Academicus, if they shall think it expedient, to allow Students either generally, or during any particular Period of the Year, to be in Possession of more than Two Volumes at a Time.
2. It shall be in the Power of the Senatus Academicus, from Time to Time, to make such Regulations as to a Deposit of Money by Students borrowing Books from the Library, as they shall think expedient; and also to regulate the Use of the Library by Students in consulting Books in the Library itself.
3. No Certificate of Attendance upon a Class shall be granted by a Professor to any Student without the Production of Evidence to the Professor, that the Student has duly returned all Books which he may have borrowed from the Library.

versity ; and no Certificate of Attendance on the Lectures of any such Teacher shall be given to any Student so enrolled, without the Production of Evidence to the Teacher that the Student has duly returned all Books which he may have borrowed from the Library.

XIII. It shall be in the power of the Senatus Academicus, from Time to Time, to grant the Use of the Library to such Extent, and on such Conditions, as they shall think expedient, to Persons for Purposes of literary Research, and that, whether such Persons shall be Members of the University or not : Provided always, that no such Privilege shall in any Case be granted, except by Minute of the Senatus specifying the Grounds on which the Grant is made, and the Conditions which have been attached thereto, an Extract of which Minute shall be forthwith transmitted to the University Court.

XIV. All Grants of the Use of the Library made by the Senatus Academicus, in pursuance of the preceding Section, shall terminate at the annual Period of Inspection of the Library, but shall be renewable under like Conditions, if again applied for on the Expiration of that Period : Provided always, that the Library Committee may be empowered by the Senatus, to renew any such Grant until the First Meeting of Senatus after the Expiration of the annual Period of Inspection, but no longer.

XV. In the Event of any Book being lost or injured, while in the Possession of a Person entitled to the Use of the Library, he shall be liable either to replace the same, or to pay such Fine, either as representing the Value of the Book, or otherwise, as may be fixed by the Senatus Academicus, or by the Library Committee, in the Event of their having been empowered by the Senatus to fix the Amount of such Fines.

XVI. At Edinburgh, the Twelfth Day of June Eighteen hundred and Sixty-two Years.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein ; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered, inter alia, subject to the Provisions thereof, to regulate by Ordinance the Powers, Jurisdictions, and Privileges of Chancellors, Rectors, Assessors, Professors, and all other Members or Office-Bearers in the said Universities, as also of the Senatus Academicus and the University Court ; and to make Rules for the Management and Ordering of the Universities, and for the granting of Degrees, whether in Arts, Divinity, Law, or Medicine : The Commissioners declare and ordain, as follows :—

I. Nothing contained in Ordinance, No. 14, General, No. 3, of the Twenty-sixth Day of January Eighteen hundred and Sixty-one, shall be construed to interfere with the Power of the Senatus Academicus of each University to regulate, as they may think expedient, the Order of Attendance on the several Classes in the Course of Study in the Faculty of Arts : Provided always, that no Regulations to be made by the Senatus of any University shall be inconsistent with the Provisions of the said Ordinance.

II. It shall be in the Power of the Examiners at any of the Examinations of Students proceeding to the Degree of Master of Arts, instead of rejecting a Candidate as having failed to pass such Examination, to adjourn his Examination on the Subject or Subjects, on which he is then being examined, to a future Occasion ; and the Candidate shall not be held, by Reason of such Adjournment, to have failed to pass the Examination within the Meaning of any Ordinance of the Commissioners relating to Bursaries.

III. In every Case in which, by any Ordinance of the Commissioners issued prior to the Date of this Ordinance, a Power given to the Senatus Academicus of any University, to suspend a Student from or to deprive him of, a Bursary or ~~Stipendium~~ the Ground of Misconduct, has been made subject to the Approval of the University Court, the Power of Suspension or Deprivation shall be vested in and belong to, the Senatus Academicus, and be exercised by that Body alone; but shall be subject to an Appeal to the University Court, if taken within Eight Days, which Appeal shall be heard and disposed of by the University Court with all possible Despatch: Provided always, that, in the Meantime, the Decision of the Senatus Academicus shall receive Effect from its Date.

IV. In the Event at any Time of both the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor being absent from any University Meeting for conferring Degrees, it shall be lawful for the Principal, or, in his Absence, for the Senior Professor present, to confer Degrees in the same Manner, and to the same Effect, as the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor, if present, might have done: Provided always, that, in the University of St Andrew's, Degrees shall, in the Absence of the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor, be conferred by the Senior Principal present, and, in the Absence of both Principals, by the Senior Professor present.
