SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

At Edinburgh, the Twelfth Day of July Eighteen hundred and Sixty-two Years.

ORDINANCE, No. 72.
Glasgow, No. 14.
[Baxter Foundation.]

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered to revise the respective Foundations, Mortifications, Bursaries, and Donations, bestowed on any of the Universities or Colleges mentioned in the said Act, or for the Benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein; and further, if, in the Case of any such Gift or Endowment which has taken Effect for more than Fifty Years, and has been held by any of the said Universities or Colleges, or by any other Person in Trust for or on behalf of the same, or of any Person therein, it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, so far as consistent with the Promotion of such Interests, may be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions or Directions affecting such Gift or Endowment, to alter or modify such Conditions or Directions, and to frame a new Statute or Ordinance for the Application of such Gift or Endowment, in such Manner as may better advance the Purposes thereof: And whereas, by Deed dated the Fourteenth Day of October Seventeen hundred and Seventy-six, as altered by a subsequent Deed, dated the Twenty-fourth Day of February Seventeen hundred and Seventy-nine, Mr Daniel Baxter, Bookseller in Glasgow, founded a Bursary for a Student in the University of Glasgow qualified by Parentage, as by the said Deeds is provided: And whereas Difficulties are now experienced in obtaining Candidates who are qualified by Parentage in Terms of the said Deeds; and it appears to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, would be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions and Directions affecting the said Foundation, in Manner hereinafter provided: The Commissioners statute and ordain, with reference to the said Foundation, as follows:—

I. It shall hereafter be lawful for the Patrons to present any Person to the said Bursary, without Restriction as to Parentage.

II. Each Person presented to the Bursary shall be entitled to hold the same for Five Years as a Student in the University of Glasgow, and no longer, subject to the Conditions that he shall pass such Entrance Examination as may for the Time be required by the University of Presentation Bursars, and shall proceed through the Curriculum in Arts in the said University, and shall pass the Examinations required by the University of Students proceeding to the Degree of Master of Arts, and that, after obtaining the Degree of Master of Arts, he shall give regular attendance as a Student of Theology in the University; but if he shall fail to pass any of such Examinations as aforesaid, or shall discontinue his Attendance at the University, he shall forfeit the Bursary: Provided always, that, in Case of any gross Misconduct on the Part of any Bursar, it shall be lawful for the Senatus Academicus to suspend him from, or to deprive him of, the Bursary, subject to an Appeal to the University Court, if taken within Eight Days, and which Appeal shall be heard and disposed of by the University Court, with all possible Despatch; but, in the Meantime, the Decision of the Senatus Academicus shall receive Effect from its Date.

III. Nothing herein contained shall extend to, or affect, the Interests of any Bursar now on the said Foundation at the University.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

ORDINANCE, No. 73.
St Andrew's No. 11.
[Lawson Foundation.]

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered to revise the respective Foundations, Mortifications, Bursaries, and Donations, bestowed on any of the Universities or Colleges mentioned in the said Act, or for the Benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein; and further, if, in the Case of any such Gift or Endowment which has taken effect for more than Fifty Years, and has been held by any of the said Universities or Colleges, or by any other Person in Trust for or on behalf of the same, or of any Person therein, it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, so far as consistent with the Promotion of such Interests, may be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions or Directions affecting such Gift or Endowment, to alter or modify such Conditions or Directions, and to frame a new Statute or Ordinance for the Application of such Gift or Endowment, in such Manner as may better advance the Purposes thereof: And whereas there is now in the United College of St Salvator and St Leonard, in the University of St Andrew's, a Bursary on the Foundation of Mr John Lawson, which took Effect more than Fifty Years before the Date of the said recited Act: And whereas the said Bursary is restricted to Students of the Surnames of Lawson and Gray, and Difficulties are in consequence experienced in obtaining Candidates who are qualified in Terms of the Foundation: And whereas it appears to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, would be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions and Directions affecting the Foundation, in Manner hereinafter provided: The Commissioners statute and ordain, with reference to the said Foundation, as follows:—

I. It shall hereafter be lawful for the Patrons to present any Person to the said Bursary without Restriction as to Name.

II. Each Person presented to the Bursary shall be entitled to hold the same for Four Years as a Student in Arts in the United College, and no longer, subject to the Condition that he shall pass such Entrance Examination as may for the Time be required of Presentation Bursars, and shall proceed through the Curriculum in Arts in the said College, and shall pass the Examinations required by the University of St Andrew's of Students proceeding to the Degree of Master of Arts; but, if he shall fail to pass any of such Examinations as aforesaid, or shall discontinue his Attendance at the College as a Student in Arts, he shall forfeit the Bursary: Provided always, that, in Case of any gross Misconduct on the Part of any Bursar, it shall be in the Power of the Principal and Professors of the United College to suspend him from, or to deprive him of, the Bursary, subject to an Appeal to the University Court, if taken within Eight Days, and which Appeal shall be heard and disposed of by the University Court with all possible Despatch; but, in the Meantime, the Decision of the said Principal and Professors shall receive Effect from its Date.

III. It shall be the Duty of the Principal and Professors of the United College, at some Period between the First Day of May and the First Day of July in each Year in which, to their Knowledge, the said Bursary will fall to be filled up before or at the Commencement of the next ensuing Winter Session of the College, to intimate the same to the Patrons; and it shall also be the Duty of the Principal and Professors, on the Occurrence of any unexpected Vacancy in the Bursary, forthwith to intimate the same to the Patrons; and it shall be incumbent on the Patrons, on each Occasion of a Vacancy in the Bursary, to present thereto without undue Delay; and, in the Event of the Patrons allowing, after such Intimation as aforesaid, an entire Winter Session of the United College to elapse without presenting to the Bursary, the Right to present thereto shall, for that Time, be transferred to, and devolve upon, the College, who shall have the Power of appointing a Bursar at the Commencement of the immediately following Winter Session; and the Bursar then appointed shall be entitled to hold the Bursary for the like Period, and subject to the same Conditions, as if he had been presented by the Patrons.

IV. Nothing herein contained shall extend to, or affect, the Interests of any Bursar now on the said Foundation at the University.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

ORDINANCE,
No. 74.

Aberdeen,
No. 34.

[Murray
Foundati n.]

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered to revise the respective Foundations, Mortifications, Bursaries, and Donations, bestowed on any of the Universities or Colleges mentioned in the said Act, or for the Benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein; and further, if, in the Case of any such Gift or Endowment which has taken Effect for more than Fifty Years, and has been held by any of the said Universities or Colleges, or by any other Person in Trust for or on behalf of the same, or of any Person therein, it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main design of the Donor, so far as consistent with the Promotion of such Interests, may be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions or Directions affecting such Gift or Endowment, to alter or modify such Conditions or Directions, and to frame a new Statute or Ordinance for the Application of such Gift or Endowment, in such Manner as may better advance the Purposes thereof: And whereas, by his Will, dated the Sixth Day of September Seventeen hundred and Ninety-three, the late Doctor Alexander Murray of Philadelphia, in the United States of America, gave and bequeathed certain Property to the Principal and the Four Regents and Professors of the King's College of Aberdeen, now united with Marischal College as the University of Aberdeen, for the Encouragement of a Clergyman to preach a Course of Lectures in the College Church on Sundays in the Time of the Winter Sessions in the University, and for other Purposes in the said Will mentioned; and he thereby desired the said Principal and Regents and Professors, as Trustees of the said Bequest, to pay the Lecturer Three Fourth Parts of the net annual Rents or Proceeds of the Foundation, and to apply the remaining Fourth Part to forward the Education for Three Years of some ingenious Youth of the Surname of Murray, in such secular Profession or Trade, as his natural Propensity should point to: And whereas, by an Act passed in the Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act to alter and amend the Universities (Scotland) Act, in so far as relates to the Bequest of the late Doctor Alexander Murray in the University of Aberdeen,' proceeding on the Preamble, that Difficulties have arisen as to the Powers of the Commissioners under the said first recited Act to alter or modify the Conditions and Directions affecting the said Bequest; and on the farther Preamble, that it is expedient that the Powers of the said Commissioners in relation to the said Bequest should be clearly defined, the said Commissioners are empowered, at any Time prior to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and Sixty-three, to alter or modify the Conditions and Directions affecting the said Bequest, notwithstanding that the same may not have taken Effect more than Fifty Years before the Date of the said first recited Act: And whereas it appears to the Commissioners expedient to alter or modify the Conditions and Directions affecting the Bequest, in Manner hereinafter provided: The Commissioners statute and ordain, with reference to the said Bequest, as follows:—

I. From the Commencement of the Winter Session in the University of Aberdeen next after the Approval of this Ordinance by Her Majesty in Council, there shall be Three Lectureships under the said Bequest; and such Three Lectureships shall be held respectively by the Professors of Systematic Theology, of Divinity and Church History, and of Divinity and Biblical Criticism in the said University, by whom the Duties of lecturing in Terms of the Bequest shall be discharged; and each of the said Three Lecturers shall receive yearly, in respect of his Lectureship, One Fourth Part of the net Income of the Foundation: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Trustees in each Year to deduct from the Three Fourth Parts of the net Income of the Foundation, to be paid to the Lecturers, such Sum, not exceeding One Sixth of the said Three Fourth Parts, as they may consider necessary, for incidental Expenses in connection with the Service in the University Chapel.

II. The Senatus Academicus shall have Power, from Time to Time, to regulate the Manner in which the Duties of lecturing in Terms of the Bequest shall be discharged by the Lecturers.

III. The Fourth Part of the net Income of the Foundation, directed by the Founder to be applied in forwarding the Education of an ingenious Youth, shall hereafter, on every Occurrence of a Vacancy, be bestowed, under the Name of the Murray Scholarship, on a Graduate in Arts of the University of Aberdeen, for the Purpose of forwarding his Education in some liberal secular Profession, as that of a Lawyer, Physician, Civil Engineer, Architect, or some other such liberal secular Profession; and the said Scholarship shall be tenable for Three Years; and all Persons, without Restriction as to Name, who have obtained the Degree of Master of Arts in the University within Three Years prior to the Occurrence of the Vacancy in the Scholarship, shall be eligible for Appointment thereto; and the Trustees shall appoint from among such Persons the Candidate, who, after such Examination or Inquiry as they shall think fit, shall appear to them to be most deserving: Provided always, that, between Candidates whose Qualifications in other Respects shall appear to the Trustees to be equal, a Preference shall be given to a Candidate, if any, of the Surname of Murray.

IV. Nothing herein contained shall extend to, or affect, the Interests of the present Holder of the Bursary or Scholarship on the said Foundation.

V. The Trustees of the said Foundation shall be the Members, for the Time being, of the Senatus Academicus of the University of Aberdeen.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

JOHN INGLIS, Chairman.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

At Edinburgh, the Twelfth day of July Eighteen hundred and Sixty-two Years.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered, inter alia, to make Rules for the Management and Ordering of the several Universities of Scotland, and for the granting of Degrees, whether in Arts, Divinity, Law, or Medicine; and to provide that, in so far as shall be practicable, and, in the Opinion of the Commissioners, conducive to the Well-being of the Universities, and to the Advancement of Learning, the Course of Study, the Manner of Examination, and the Conditions under which

Degrees are to be conferred, shall be uniform in all the said Universities: The Commissioners statute and ordain, with reference to the granting of Degrees in Law in each of the said Universities, as follows:—

I. No one shall hereafter be admitted as a Candidate for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) in any of the said Universities, unless he be a Graduate in Arts of one of the Universities of Scotland, or of England, or Ireland, or a Graduate in Arts of a colonial or foreign University, whose Degrees may, for this purpose, have been specially recognised by the University Court.

II. The Course of Study in Law necessary for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws shall extend over Three Academical Years, and shall include Attendance on a distinct Course in each of the Six following Departments, viz. :—

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. CIVIL LAW, . . . . .                      | } During Courses of not less than Eighty Lectures each. |
| 2. LAW OF SCOTLAND, . . . . .                |   |
| 3. CONVEYANCING, . . . . .                   |   |
| 4. PUBLIC LAW, . . . . .                     | } During Courses of not less than Forty Lectures each.  |
| 5. CONSTITUTIONAL LAW and HISTORY, . . . . . |   |
| 6. MEDICAL JURISPRUDENCE, . . . . .          |   |

III. No one shall hereafter be admitted to Examination as a Candidate for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws, until he has completed the Course of Study above prescribed; and no one shall be admitted as a Candidate in any University, unless Two at least of the Three Academical Years of his Course of Study in Law shall have been in such University.

IV. Candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws shall be examined both in Writing and vivâ Voce on each of the Six Departments of Law above specified.

V. Each Candidate must satisfy the Examiners that he possesses a competent Knowledge of Law in each of the said Departments; and the Examiners shall further, in judging of the Qualifications of Candidates, have special Regard to their Acquirements in the Two Departments of Public Law and Constitutional Law and History.

VI. The Examiners for Degrees in Law in each of the said Universities shall be Six in Number, and there shall always be One Examiner specially qualified for each One of the Six Departments above specified; and, where the Professors in the Faculty of Law in any University do not furnish the requisite Number of Examiners duly qualified, the Number shall be made up by the Appointment of Additional Examiners by the University Court: Provided always, that no Person shall be appointed an Additional Examiner in any University, unless he be a Professor in the Faculty of Law in a Scottish University, or shall have obtained the Degree of Bachelor of Laws in accordance with the Provisions of this Ordinance.

VII. In the University of Glasgow the Professor of Forensic Medicine shall be a Professor in the Faculty of Law, as well as a Professor in the Faculty of Medicine; and, in the University of Aberdeen, the Professor of Medical Logic and Medical Jurisprudence shall be a Professor in the Faculty of Law, as well as a Professor in the Faculty of Medicine.

VIII. Each Person appointed an Additional Examiner by the University Court shall, for each Year in which he shall be so appointed, receive out of the Fees to be paid by Candidates for Degrees in Law such Sum as may be fixed by the Senatus Academicus with the Approval of the University Court.

ORDINANCE, No. 75. General, No. 8.

IX. Each Candidate for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws shall pay a Fee of Five Guineas in respect of his Examination for the Degree.

X. The Degree of Doctor of Laws (LL.D.) shall be conferred, as heretofore, honoris causâ tantum.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.

JOHN INGLIS, Chairman.

NOTIFICATION.

INDIA-OFFICE, July 23, 1862.

UP to the arrival in Bombay of the first regular Mail from England, expected in September, the Government of Bombay will be prepared to receive PROPOSALS from Parties willing to construct a TRAMWAY, capable of being worked by Locomotive Power, from the Port of Sedasheoghur, in the Collectorate of North Canara, to the cotton districts of the Dharwar Collectorate.

1. The line to be single, with suitable sidings and passing places.

2. To be laid out and completed to the satisfaction of the Bombay Government, with the best gradients and curves procurable, and safe for a light locomotive traffic at low speed.

3. The gauge to be the Indian standard gauge.

4. The choice of materials and the management and working of the Railway to be left to the Company, subject to any general restrictions which the Government of Bombay may impose, with a view to the safety of the Public.

5. Government will give all land permanently required for the Railway free of charge, on lease for 99 years, and will admit all materials free of customs' duty.

6. In the event of the line not being completed within the period specified in the Agreement, or not being worked as agreed on, Government to have power, after giving three (3) months' notice, to resume possession of the land, and to purchase the Railway and all fixtures and moveable stock, at a price to be fixed by arbitration, the Arbitrators to be one Government Engineer and one Agent or Chief Resident Engineer of any other Indian Railway Company, to be nominated by the Sedasheoghur Railway Company, with power to select an Umpire.
