We pray that an all-merciful Providence may long continue to your devoted people the blessing of your Majesty's prosperous and splendid rule over us, and may grant to your Majesty health and restored tranquillity of mind, and the high satisfaction arising from the dutiful attachment and happiness of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and all the other branches of the Royal Family.

Given under the common seal of the said borough, this 10th day of November in the year of our Lord 1862.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 36.)—WALES—NORTH COAST.

Fixed Light on Great Orme Head.

THE Mersey Docks and Harbour Board has given notice, that on and after the 1st day of December 1862, a light will be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected at Great Orme Head, the east point of entrance to Beaumaris Bay, on the north coast of Wales.

The light will be a fixed light, showing white when bearing from S.E. by E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E. round South to West, and red from West to W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  N. It is placed at an elevation of about 325 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be seen in clear weather at a distance of 24 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the first order.

The lighthouse stands on the face of a steep cliff, and has the appearance of a square castellated structure of grey stone; the lantern is placed on the basement of the north front of the building. It is in lat. 53° 20' 35" N., long. 3° 52' West of Greenwich.

The light will be found to mask suddenly when standing into Beaumaris Bay, if brought to bear eastward of S.E. by E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E., warning the mariner of the approach to shoal water. When eastward of Orme Head, the change from white to red arises upon the line of bearing of the fair-way Bell Beacon, off the entrance to the Queen's Channel in Liverpool Bay. The red light will disappear if brought to bear to the northward of W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  N., giving warning of the approach to the northern edge of West and East Hoyle. If the red light be kept in sight, those banks cannot be approached nearer than 1 mile.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation 24° 10' West, in 1862.]

By Command of their Lordships,
JOHN WASHINGTON, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
20th October 1862.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Wales, North Coast, Sheet 8, No. 1170; Beaumaris Bay and the northern entrances to the Strait of Menai, No. 1174; and Irish Channel, No. 1824.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 37.)—ENGLAND—WEST COAST.

Alteration of Lights in Liverpool Bay.

THE Mersey Docks and Harbour Board has given Notice, that on the 10th day of April 1863 the following alterations will be made in the lights in Liverpool Bay:—

North-West Light Vessel.

The North-west light vessel at present lying off the Horse and Helbre channels, will be removed to off the west extreme of the Three and Four Fathom Tongue, in 6½ fathoms at low water, in a position indicated by the change of the Orme Head light from white to red, and by the masking or unmasking of the Upper Hoylake light when bearing about S.S.E. The Orme Head lighthouse will bear west, distant 20 miles; Queen's Channel bell beacon east 3½ miles; Formby light vessel E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  S., 6 miles; North-west buoy of East Hoyle, S.S.E.,

4½ miles; and Helbre Swatch fair-way buoy S. by E. 4¼ miles.

The vessel in her new position will exhibit a revolving white light, attaining its greatest brilliancy every minute. The light will be elevated 38 feet above the sea, and should be seen in clear weather from a distance of 11 miles.

Hoylake Lights.

Also, that the illuminating apparatus of the Upper Hoylake lighthouse will be changed to dioptric, of the second order. On approaching from the westward the light will appear suddenly when bearing about S.S.E., when it will be in line with the north-west light vessel, and the north-west buoy of East Hoyle; and from thence it will be seen round south to the westward.

Also, that the apparatus of the Lower Hoylake lighthouse will be changed to dioptric, of the second order. On approaching from the westward the light will appear suddenly when bearing about south, when it will indicate the fair-way line between the East Hoyle bank and the Four and Six feet flats; and from thence it will be seen round south-westward.

The Bidston and Leasowe lights, as heretofore, will lead from seaward up to the Four and Six feet flats. Vessels should sight the Lower instead of the Upper Hoylake light for clearing the flats, and the Hoylake lights in line will continue to indicate the turning point from the Horse into the Rock channel, between Spencer and Dove spits.

Formby Light.

The Formby light vessel will exhibit a fixed red light instead of the two yellow lights as at present.

Crosby Light.

The Crosby lighthouse, northward of Crosby Point, will exhibit a fixed white light instead of the red light, as at present.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, intituled, 'An Act to make Provision for the better Government and Discipline of the Universities of Scotland, and improving and regulating the Course of Study therein; and for the Union of the Two Universities and Colleges of Aberdeen,' the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered to revise the respective Foundations, Mortifications, Bursaries, and Donations, bestowed on any of the Universities or Colleges mentioned in the said Act, or for the Benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein; and further, if, in the Case of any such Gift or Endowment which has taken Effect for more than Fifty Years, and has been held by any of the said Universities or Colleges, or by any other Person in Trust for or on behalf of the same, or of any Person therein, it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donor, so far as consistent with the Promotion of such Interests, may be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions or Directions affecting such Gift or Endowment, to alter or modify such Conditions or Directions, and to frame a new Statute or Ordinance for the Application of such Gift or Endowment, in such Manner as may better advance the Purposes thereof: And whereas, by Deed of Gift, dated the Seventeenth Day of December Sixteen hundred and Ninety-four, their late Majesties King William the Third and Queen Mary gave, granted, and mortified to and in favour of the Magistrates and Town Council of Edinburgh, as Patrons, Governors, and Faculty of the University of Edinburgh, the Sum of Three hundred Pounds yearly of the Rents and Revenues of the Bishoprics of Scotland, for, among other Purposes, the Maintenance of Twenty Bursars of Divinity in the said University, at the rate of Ten Pounds each Bursar per annum, and which Bursars were to be presented by the Lords of the Treasury on a List of Three to be given in to them for each Bursary, in the Manner and subject to the Conditions in the said Deed more particularly set forth: And whereas for a long Period there have been only Five Bursaries on the said Foundation: And whereas, since the passing of the said recited Act, Doubts have arisen as to the Persons by whom such List of Three as aforesaid should be given in to the Lords of the Treasury, and it appears to the Commissioners that, as the Value of each of the said Five Bursaries is now small, the Interests of Religion and Learning, and the main Design of the Donors, would be better advanced by an Alteration of the Conditions and Directions affecting the said Mortification, in Manner hereinafter provided: The Commissioners statute and ordain, with reference to the said Mortification, as follows:—

I. The said Five Bursaries on the said Foundation shall hereafter be conjoined into Two Bursaries, each of the annual Value of Twenty-five Pounds.

II. Each of the said Two Bursaries shall be open for Competition to all Masters of Arts of any of the Universities of Scotland who have attended for One Session in the Faculty of Divinity in the University of Edinburgh, and have not attended for more than One Session in the said Faculty in the said University: Provided that no Person shall be a Competitor for either of such Bursaries, who has attended for One or more Sessions in the said Faculty in any other of the Scottish Universities.

III. The Examinations in the Competition for the said Bursaries shall be conducted by the Professors in the Faculty of Divinity in the said University.

IV. Each Bursar shall be entitled to hold his Bursary for Two Years, and no longer, subject to the Condition that he shall, during that period, give regular Attendance as a Student in Theology in the said University; but, if he shall discontinue his Attendance as a Student in Theology at the University, he shall forfeit his Bursary: Provided always, that, whensoever the said Two Bursaries shall both be vacant at One Time, One Bursar shall be appointed for a Period of Two Years, and another for a Period of One Year, so that, by the Bursaries falling vacant in different Years, the Benefits of them may, as far as possible, be distributed among Students of different Years: Provided also, that, in Case of any gross Misconduct on the Part of the Holder of either of the said Bursaries, it shall be lawful for the Senatus Academicus to suspend him from, or to deprive him of, his Bursary, subject to an Appeal to the University Court, if taken within Eight Days, and which Appeal shall be heard and disposed of by the University Court, with all possible Despatch; but, in the Meantime, the Decision of the Senatus Academicus shall receive Effect from its Date.

V. No Person shall be entitled to hold either of the said Bursaries along with any other Bursary, Fellowship, or Scholarship of any Scottish University.

In Witness whereof, these Presents are sealed with the Seal of the Commission.
