CROWN-OFFICE,

EDINBURGH, 14th January 1863.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that the Right Honorable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the 'Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855,' made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council, stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute of the County of Ayr, finding that the allegations contained in a Petition of two Members of the Parochial Board of The PARISH OF BETH are true; that the existing BURIAL GROUND for that Parish is in an overcrowded state, that it is offensive, contrary to decency, and dangerous to health; but that it has not been proved that the two private vaults belonging to the Compearers, Patricks, called respectively the Belfry Aisle and the Hessilhead Aisle, both within the said Burial Ground, are either offensive to decency or dangerous to health; which Representation recommends that Burials be forthwith Discontinued in the said Burial Ground, with the exception of the said two private vaults, belonging to the Compearers, Patricks, in the terms of the Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute: And that it has pleased Her Majesty in Council to give Notice of such Representation, and to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council on the 25th day of February next.

EDINBURGH, 14th January 1863.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that the Right Honorable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the 'Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855,' made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council, stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of Fifeshire, finding and declaring that the allegations contained in a Petition of Francis Howden, James Thomas, and Charles Gullard, Heritors of the Parish of Falkland, and Members of the Parochial Board of the Parish of Falkland, in the County of Fife, and Robert Rodger, Inspector of Poor of the said Parish, for and on behalf of said Parochial Board, are true; that the OLD BURIAL GROUND of The PARISH OF FALKLAND is in an overcrowded state, that it is offensive, and that unless used in a limited way, namely, only by parties who have already acquired a patrimonial or other permanent and continued interest therein, as suggested in the Petition, it would become dangerous to health; which Representation recommends that Burials be limited in the said Burial Ground in the manner referred to in the Interlocutor: And that it has pleased Her Majesty in Council to give Notice of such Representation, and to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council on the 25th day of February next.

WHITEHALL, January 12, 1863.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the attainment of his Majority by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

Unto Her Most Excellent Majesty VICTORIA, QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, the loyal and dutiful Address of the President, Vice-Presidents, and other constituent Members of the General Committee of Management of the Educational Institute of Scotland.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and most dutiful subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, and other constituent Members of the General Committee of Management of the Educational Institute of Scotland, in stated meeting assembled, beg leave, with the most profound respect, to approach your Majesty, for the purpose of expressing our devoted loyalty to your Majesty's person and family; our admiration of the many virtues which have enthroned your Majesty in the hearts and affections of all your subjects; and especially our most grateful recognition of the unceasing care and watchfulness exercised by your Majesty, in conjunction with His Royal Highness the late lamented Prince Consort, in rearing in the paths of religion and virtue a family who adorn the illustrious rank to which they belong.

We would further present to your Majesty our humble but most sincere congratulations on the attainment of his Majority by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and on the interesting and most important Alliance which, with the consent and approval of your Majesty, he is about to form with an illustrious Princess.
