By The QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the thirteenth day of January instant: We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said thirteenth day of January instant, to Thursday the fifth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly: and We do hereby further, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our royal will and pleasure that the said Parliament shall, on the said Thursday the fifth day of February next, assemble and be holden for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Thursday the fifth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, this ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and in the twenty-sixth year of Our reign.

GOD save The QUEEN.

CROWN-OFFICE,

EDINBURGH, 14th January 1863.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that the Right Honorable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the 'Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855,' made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council, stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute of the County of Ayr, finding that the allegations contained in a Petition of two Members of the Parochial Board of The PARISH OF BETH are true; that the existing BURIAL GROUND for that Parish is in an overcrowded state, that it is offensive, contrary to decency, and dangerous to health; but that it has not been proved that the two private vaults belonging to the Compearers, Patricks, called respectively the Belfry Aisle and the Hessilhead Aisle, both within the said Burial Ground, are either offensive to decency or dangerous to health; which Representation recommends that Burials be forthwith Discontinued in the said Burial Ground, with the exception of the said two private vaults, belonging to the Compearers, Patricks, in the terms of the Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute: And that it has pleased Her Majesty in Council to give Notice of such Representation, and to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council on the 25th day of February next.

Crown Agent for Scotland.

CROWN-OFFICE,

EDINBURGH, 14th January 1863.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that the Right Honorable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the 'Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855,' made a Representation to Her Majesty in Council, stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of Fifeshire, finding and declaring that the allegations contained in a Petition of Francis Howden, James Thomas, and Charles Gullard, Heritors of the Parish of Falkland, and Members of the Parochial Board of the Parish of Falkland, in the County of Fife, and Robert Rodger, Inspector of Poor of the said Parish, for and on behalf of said Parochial Board, are true; that the OLD BURIAL GROUND of The PARISH OF FALKLAND is in an overcrowded state, that it is offensive, and that unless used in a limited way, namely, only by parties who have already acquired a patrimonial or other permanent and continued interest therein, as suggested in the Petition, it would become dangerous to health; which Representation recommends that Burials be limited in the said Burial Ground in the manner referred to in the Interlocutor: And that it has pleased Her Majesty in Council to give Notice of such Representation, and to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council on the 25th day of February next.

AND. MURRAY, Jr.
Crown Agent for Scotland.
